22D Compulsory schooling orders

(1) The Children's Court may, on the application of the Secretary, make an order under this section in relation to a child of compulsory school-age who is not receiving compulsory schooling (a compulsory schooling order).

- (2) A compulsory schooling order may require a parent of the child to cause the child to receive compulsory schooling in accordance with the order.

 - (a) the child is of or above the age of 12 years, and
 - (b) the Children’s Court is satisfied that the child is living independently of his or her parents or that (because of the child’s disobedience) the parents are not able to cause the child to receive compulsory schooling.
- (4) If the child completes Year 10 of secondary education as referred to in section 21B, a compulsory schooling order may determine the participation of the child required by section 21B (3) in education or training or in paid work in order that the child may cease compulsory schooling. That determination does not limit other participation that satisfies the requirements of section 21B (3).
- (5) The following applies to proceedings of the Children’s Court under this section—

(b) when the child ceases to be of compulsory school-age, whichever first occurs.

- (9) The following applies if a parent or child fails to comply with an obligation under a compulsory schooling order—

 - (b) in the case of a child of or above the age of 15 years—the child is guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding 1 penalty unit (but without the court proceeding to a conviction), unless the child had a reasonable excuse for not complying with the order,
 - (c) the Secretary may enrol the child in a government school (in accordance with section 34) if the compulsory schooling order authorises the Secretary to do so.
- (10) The Secretary may cause copies of a compulsory schooling order, and any undertaking or recommendation referred to in subsection (7), to be given to such persons as the Secretary considers to have an interest in the welfare of the child.
- (11) Section 91 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 applies to and in respect of an order under this section in the same way as it applies to and in respect of an order under Part 2 of Chapter 5 of that Act.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of a first offence—25 penalty units, or
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent offence—50 penalty units, or
- (c) in the case of a parent subject to a compulsory schooling order—100 penalty units.

(2) It is a defence to a prosecution under this section if at the relevant time—

- (a) the child was enrolled at, and attended, a school in another State, Territory or country in accordance with the law of that State, Territory or country, or
- (b) the child was enrolled at a government or registered non-government school and participating in distance education provided by the school (unless the Secretary or school had previously directed that the child cease distance education because of the failure of the child to perform the required school work), or
- (c) the child was participating in an alternative education program approved by the Minister for children unable, for social, cultural or other reasons, to participate effectively in formal school education (unless the Secretary had previously directed that the child resume formal school education because the child was not achieving the education outcomes required of participants in the program), or
- (d) the child was participating in a program established by the Minister under section 35 (Discipline in government schools), or
- (e) a certificate of exemption was in force under section 25 in respect of the child and any conditions to which the certificate is subject were being complied with, or

(3) It is also a defence to a prosecution under this section if at the relevant time—

 - (i) because of some medical condition, or

- (6) If, in any proceedings for an offence against this section, it is alleged that the child's absence from school is due to a medical condition, the court may (on the application of the Secretary) order that the child submit to a medical examination by a medical practitioner nominated by the Secretary. In that case—
- (a) the costs of the medical examination are to be borne by the Secretary, and
 - (b) the medical practitioner is not subject to any liability arising only because the medical examination was carried out without the consent of the parent or child.
- (7) Notice of a medical condition that prevents a child from attending school is required to be accompanied by a certificate from a medical practitioner that states that the child should not attend school because of the condition briefly described in the certificate if the principal of the school has notified a parent of the child that because of the number or duration of past absences a notice must in future be accompanied by such a certificate.

- (1) The Minister may grant a certificate exempting a child from the requirement of this Part that the child be enrolled at and attend a government school or registered non-government school or be registered for and receive home schooling, if the Minister is satisfied that conditions exist which make it necessary or desirable that such a certificate should be granted.
- (2) A certificate of exemption under this section may be given subject to conditions and may be limited in its operation to a period specified in the certificate.
