 - (g) the interpretation of that legislation.

Part 2 Area transferred to Victorian jurisdiction

5 Application of marine safety legislation of Victoria and associated Victorian laws in transferred New South Wales area

- (1) The marine safety legislation of Victoria, and the associated laws of Victoria, apply in and in relation to the transferred New South Wales area as if that area were within the territorial limits of Victoria.
- (2) The marine safety legislation of New South Wales, and the associated laws of New South Wales, do not apply in or in relation to the transferred New South Wales area.

6 Conferral of functions and jurisdiction on Victoria

- (1) All persons who have functions conferred or imposed on them for the purposes of or in connection with the marine safety legislation of Victoria (or the associated laws of Victoria) have and may exercise those functions for the purposes of or in connection with that legislation or those laws, as applying in and in relation to the transferred New South Wales area by virtue of this Part.
- (2) The several courts of Victoria are invested with jurisdiction in all matters arising under the marine safety legislation of Victoria (or the associated laws of Victoria), as applying in and in relation to the transferred New South Wales area by virtue of this Part.

7 Provisions of marine safety legislation of Victoria with specific application not to apply

- (1) Nothing in this Part renders a provision of the marine safety legislation of Victoria applicable in a particular place—
 - (a) in so far as the provision is incapable of applying in or in relation to that place, or
 - (b) if that legislation expressly provides that the provision does not extend or apply in or in relation to that place, or
 - (c) if that legislation expressly provides that the provision applies only in a specified locality that does not include that place.
- (2) A provision of the marine safety legislation of Victoria is not taken to be a provision to which subsection (1) applies merely because it is limited in its application to acts, matters or things within the waters (however described) of Victoria.

8 Exclusion of applicable provisions by regulation

The regulations under this Act—

- (a) may exclude particular provisions of the marine safety legislation of Victoria or the associated laws of Victoria from applying in and in relation to the transferred New South Wales area by virtue of this Part, and
- (b) may provide that particular provisions of the marine safety legislation of New South Wales or the associated laws of New South Wales are not excluded from applying in or in relation to the transferred New South Wales area by virtue of this Part.

Part 3 Area transferred to New South Wales jurisdiction

9 Application of marine safety legislation of New South Wales and associated New South Wales laws in transferred Victorian area

This Part has effect for the purposes of the provisions of the corresponding Victorian Act that apply the marine safety legislation of New South Wales, and any associated laws of New South Wales, in and in relation to the transferred Victorian area as if that area were within the territorial limits of New South Wales.

10 Conferral of functions and jurisdiction on New South Wales

- (1) All persons who have functions conferred or imposed on them for the purposes of or in connection with the marine safety legislation of New South Wales (or the associated laws of New South Wales) have and may exercise those functions for the purposes of or in connection with that legislation or those laws, as applying in and in relation to the transferred Victorian area by virtue of the corresponding Victorian Act.

- (2) The several courts of New South Wales are invested with jurisdiction in all matters arising under the marine safety legislation of New South Wales (or the associated laws of New South Wales), as applying in and in relation to the transferred Victorian area by virtue of the corresponding Victorian Act.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

11 Appointment of interstate officers

- (1) A power under the marine safety legislation of New South Wales to appoint or authorise a person for the purposes of the enforcement of that legislation in New South Wales or in the transferred Victorian area extends to the appointment or authorisation of a person who is a member of the police force of Victoria or who is employed under Part 3 of the Public Administration Act 2004 of Victoria.
- (2) A person who is police officer of New South Wales or a member of the staff of Transport for NSW (or of any other authority of New South Wales) may be appointed or authorised under the marine safety legislation of Victoria for the purposes of the enforcement of that legislation in Victoria or in the transferred New South Wales area.

12 Act to bind Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of New South Wales and, in so far as the legislative power of the Parliament of New South Wales permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

13 Regulations

The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

14 Savings and transitional provisions

- (1) Nothing in this Act limits any other law that provides for the application of the laws of the State, or any part of those laws, beyond the limits of the State.
- (2) If the Marine Safety Act 1998 of New South Wales has not commenced before the commencement of this Act, a reference in this Act to the marine safety legislation of New South Wales is, until that Act commences, taken to be a reference to the Acts and regulations to be repealed by Schedule 2 to that Act.
- (3) The regulations may contain other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
