 - (b) to develop and implement Saint Paul's College's educational and pastoral philosophy,
 - (c) to manage Saint Paul's College's financial resources,
 - (d) to oversee the performance of Saint Paul's College as a whole,
 - (e) to determine the conditions of appointment of the Warden,
 - (f) to monitor the performance of the Warden,
 - (g) any other functions conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act or law.
- (4) The Council may, subject to any by-laws, establish committees to assist it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions.

8 Election to Council

- (1) The election of 4 clerical persons and 6 lay persons as members of the Council is to be held in accordance with any by-laws (or, if there are no by-laws relating to the election in force, in accordance with any procedures determined by the Council).
- (2) A person is eligible to vote in an election under this section only if the person is a graduate of the University and has resided on the premises of Saint Paul's College for at least 4 University terms or 3 University semesters.
- (3) The Council is to prepare and maintain, in accordance with any by-laws, a roll containing the name and residential address, postal address or email address of each person eligible to vote in an election under this section.

9 Duties of Council members

In exercising the member's functions, a member must:

- (a) act in the best interests of Saint Paul's College as a whole, and

- (b) act honestly, in good faith and for a proper purpose, and
- (c) exercise a reasonable degree of care and diligence, and
- (d) not make improper use of the member's position to gain an advantage for the member or another person, and
- (e) disclose any interest (whether pecuniary or otherwise) that would conflict with the proper exercise of the member's functions and avoid exercising any function that could involve such a conflict of interest.

Part 3 Saint Paul's College office holders

10 Warden

- (1) The Council is to appoint a person as the Warden of Saint Paul's College.
- (2) A person appointed as Warden must be a clerical person or a lay person who is a communicant member of the Anglican Church.
- (3) The term of office and the terms and conditions of the appointment of the Warden are to be determined by the Council.
- (4) The Warden is the chief executive officer of Saint Paul's College and has the following functions:
 - (a) to conduct the day-to-day management of the affairs of Saint Paul's College,
 - (b) any other functions prescribed by the by-laws or determined by the Council.
- (5) The Warden must exercise his or her functions in accordance with the by-laws and any policies of the Council.

11 Council may suspend or remove Warden

- (1) The Council may suspend or remove the Warden from office for sufficient cause.
- (2) A person suspended or removed from office under this section may appeal to the Visitor for a review of the decision to suspend or remove the person from office.
- (3) The Visitor may affirm the decision to suspend or remove the person from office, vary the decision or set aside the decision and make a new decision in its place.

12 Visitor

- (1) The Archbishop is the Visitor of Saint Paul's College.
- (2) The Visitor has the functions conferred or imposed on the Visitor by or under this Act or any other Act or law.

- (2) The Chaplain has the function of providing religious and spiritual support to students residing on the premises of Saint Paul's College.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

14 Eligibility for residency on College premises

- (1) A person is eligible to reside on the premises of Saint Paul's College if the person is a current student of the University, regardless of the person's religion.
- (2) The by-laws may prescribe other classes of persons who are eligible to reside on the premises of Saint Paul's College.

15 Dealings with Crown land

Saint Paul's College may transfer an interest or estate in, or otherwise deal with, Crown land (within the meaning of the Crown Land Management Act 2016) transferred to it or otherwise under its control, only if Saint Paul's College first obtains the Minister's written approval.

16 Protection from personal liability

Anything done or omitted to be done by Saint Paul's College, a member of the Council or any person acting under the direction of Saint Paul's College does not subject the member or person so acting personally to any action, liability, claim or demand if the thing was done or omitted to be done in good faith for the purposes of executing this Act or the by-laws.

17 By-laws

- (1) The Council may make by-laws, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act and, in particular, for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) the management of the affairs of Saint Paul's College,
 - (b) the control and supervision of students residing on the premises of Saint Paul's College, including the admission, suspension and expulsion of students to or from the College,
 - (c) the admission of non-residential students,
 - (d) the imposition of fines for breaches of the by-laws,

- (e) the election of Council members,
- (f) terms of office of Council members,

- (h) the procedures for Council meetings and for the transaction of Council business,
- (i) the functions of the Warden.

(2) A by-law may be amended or repealed by a later by-law made under this section.

(3) The by-laws are to be made publicly available on Saint Paul's College's website.

18 (Repealed)

Schedule 1 Members and procedure of Council

1 Definitions

In this Schedule:

Chairperson means the member elected as the Chairperson under clause 6.

Deputy Chairperson means the member elected as the Deputy Chairperson under clause 6.

member does not include the Warden, except as otherwise provided by this Schedule.

2 Term of office

- (1) Subject to this Act or the by-laws, a member holds office for 6 years.
- (2) A member is eligible for re-appointment or re-election.
- (3) On the expiry of a term of office referred to in clause 2 (5) of Schedule 2, each subsequent appointment or re-appointment, or election or re-election, to the Council is to be for a term of 6 years.

3 Vacancy in office of member

- (1) The office of a member becomes vacant if the member:
 - (a) dies, or
 - (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed or re-elected, or
 - (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairperson, or
 - (d) is removed from office by the Council in accordance with the by-laws, or
 - (e) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the Council of which reasonable notice has been given to the member, except on leave granted by the Council or unless the member is excused by the Council for having been absent from those meetings, or

- (f) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
- (g) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
- (h) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.

(2) In this clause, member includes the Warden.

4 Filling of vacancy in office of member

If the office of a member becomes vacant, a person is, subject to this Act, to be appointed or elected (as the case requires) to fill the vacancy.

5 Casual vacancy in office of member

- (1) The Council is to appoint a person to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a member.
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1), a person who fills a casual vacancy is taken to hold office:
 - (a) under the conditions under which the member vacating office (the vacating member) was elected or appointed, and
 - (b) for a period of time that:
 - (i) if the vacating member was appointed—expires on the expiry of the term of office of the vacating member, or
 - (ii) if the vacating member was elected and the vacancy occurs during the first 2 years of the vacating member's term of office—expires on the day on which the next election of persons to the Council is held, or
 - (iii) if the vacating member was elected and the vacancy occurs at any time after the first 2 years of the vacating member's term of office—expires on the expiry of the term of office of the vacating member.
- (3) A person elected to office at an election held on the expiry of the term of office of a member who fills a casual vacancy under subclause (2) (b) (ii) holds office until the expiry of the term of office of the vacating member.
- (4) In this clause, casual vacancy means a vacancy that occurs other than because of the completion of a term of office.

6 Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson

- (1) The Council is to elect a Chairperson and a Deputy Chairperson from among the members.
- (2) The Warden may not hold the office of Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson.
- (3) The terms of office of the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson are to be determined by the Council but must not exceed 3 years.
- (4) The Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson may be re-elected unless the by-laws provide otherwise.

7 Disclosure of material interests

- (1) If:
 - (a) a member has a material interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered at a meeting of the Council, and
 - (b) the interest appears to raise a conflict with the proper performance of the member's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter,the member must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Council.
- (2) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter, the member must not, unless the Council otherwise determines:
 - (a) be present during any deliberation of the Council with respect to the matter, or
 - (b) take part in any decision of the Council with respect to the matter.
- (3) For the purpose of the making of a determination by the Council under subclause (2), a member who has a material interest in a matter to which the disclosure relates must not:
 - (a) be present during any deliberation of the Council for the purpose of making the determination, or
 - (b) take part in the making by the Council of the determination.
- (4) A contravention of this clause does not invalidate a decision of the Council.
- (5) In this clause, member includes the Warden.

8 Procedure for Council meetings

- (1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Council and for the conduct of business at those meetings is, subject to this Act and the by-laws, to be as determined by the Council.

- (2) The Chairperson (or, in the absence of the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson or, in the absence of both the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson, another member elected by the members of the Council who are present at a meeting) is to preside at a meeting of the Council.
- (3) The presiding member has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, also has a casting vote.
- (4) A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present is the decision of the Council.

9 Quorum

- (1) The quorum for a meeting of the Council is 7 members, of whom at least 1 must be a clerical member.
- (2) In this clause, member includes the Warden.

Schedule 2 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Part 1 General

1 Savings and transitional regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature (a savings and transitional provision) consequent on the enactment of this Act or any Act that amends this Act.
- (2) A savings or transitional provision:
 - (a) may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date, and
 - (b) has effect despite anything to the contrary in this Schedule.
- (3) To the extent to which a savings or transitional provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

- (4) Without limiting subclauses (1) and (2), regulations made for the purposes of this clause may amend this Schedule to provide for additional or different savings and transitional provisions instead of including the provisions in the regulations.

Part 2 Provisions consequent on enactment of this Act

2 Transitional arrangements for phasing-in of new Council

- (1) The former Council is taken to be the new Council, and is to exercise the functions of the new Council, until 31 March 2019.
- (2) On 31 March 2019, the new Council is to arrange for:
- (a) the appointment of 1 lay person for a term of 4 years, and
 - (b) the appointment of 1 lay person for a term of 6 years, and
 - (c) the appointment of 4 lay persons who were members of the former Council for a term of 2 years, and
 - (d) the election of 2 lay persons for a term of 6 years, and
 - (e) the appointment of 1 clerical person for a term of 4 years, and
 - (f) the appointment of 2 clerical persons who were members of the former Council for a term of 2 years, and
 - (g) the election of 1 clerical person for a term of 6 years.
- (3) On 31 March 2021, the new Council is to arrange for:
- (a) the appointment of 2 lay persons who were members of the former Council for a term of 2 years, and
 - (b) the election of 2 lay persons for a term of 6 years, and
 - (c) the appointment of 1 clerical person for a term of 2 years, and
 - (d) the election of 1 clerical person for a term of 6 years.
- (4) On 31 March 2023, the new Council is to arrange for:
- (a) the appointment of 1 lay person for a term of 6 years, and
 - (b) the election of 2 lay persons for a term of 6 years, and
 - (c) the election of 2 clerical persons for a term of 6 years.
- (5) On the expiry of a term of office referred to in subclauses (2)–(4), the vacancy is to be filled:

- (a) if the member vacating office (the vacating member) was elected to office under subclause (2) (d), (3) (b) or (4) (b)—by the election of a lay person to the new Council under section 8, and
 - (b) if the vacating member was elected to office under subclause (2) (g), 3 (d) or (4) (c)—by the election of a clerical person to the new Council under section 8, and
 - (c) if the vacating member was appointed to office under subclause (2) (a) or (b) or (4) (a)—by the appointment of a lay person to the new Council under section 6.
- (6) If the office of a member under this clause becomes vacant during a term of office in any of the circumstances specified in clause 3 of Schedule 1, the vacancy is to be filled in accordance with clause 5 of that Schedule.
- (7) In this clause, former Council means the persons who constituted the Council under the former Act immediately before the repeal of that Act.

3 Existing Vice-Warden to continue as Warden

The person who, immediately before the commencement of this clause, held office as Vice-Warden under the former Act is taken to have been appointed as Warden under this Act:

- (a) for the balance of the person's existing term of office, and
- (b) on the same terms and conditions as the person was appointed Vice-Warden under the former Act.
