(a) that the defendant engaged in the conduct in good faith for the purposes of, and in the course of, a controlled operation for which the authority had been in force, and

(b) that, had the authority been in force when the defendant engaged in the conduct, the conduct would have been lawful by operation of section 16, and

(c) that the defendant was unaware, and could not reasonably be expected to have been aware, that the authority had been cancelled.

13 Effect of authorities

While it has effect, an authority for a controlled operation—

(a) authorises each law enforcement participant to engage in the controlled activities specified in the authority in respect of the law enforcement participants, and

(b) authorises each civilian participant (if any) to engage in the particular controlled activities (if any) specified in the authority in respect of that participant.

13A Defect in authority

13B Functions of secondary law enforcement officer

A function that is conferred on a principal law enforcement officer for an authorised operation under Part 3 or 3A or the regulations is taken to be conferred on the secondary law enforcement officer for the authorised operation whenever the principal law enforcement officer is unavailable to exercise the function.

Part 3 Conduct of controlled operations

14 Retrospective authority

- (1) If a participant in an authorised operation engages in unlawful conduct (other than unlawful conduct that is a controlled activity) in the course of the operation, the principal law enforcement officer for the operation may, within 24 hours after the participant engages in that conduct, apply to the chief executive officer for retrospective authority for the conduct.
- (2) An application under this section may be made in such manner as the chief executive officer may permit.
- (3) The chief executive officer may require the principal law enforcement officer to furnish such information concerning the relevant conduct as is necessary for the chief executive officer's proper consideration of the application.
- (4) After considering an application under subsection (1), and any additional information furnished under subsection (3), the chief executive officer—
 - (a) may grant retrospective authority in accordance with the application, or
 - (b) may refuse the application.
- (5) Retrospective authority may not be granted unless the chief executive officer is satisfied—
 - (a) that the following circumstances existed when the relevant conduct occurred—
 - (i) the participant who engaged in the conduct believed on reasonable grounds—
 - (A) that there was a substantial risk to the success of the authorised operation, or
 - (B) that there was a substantial risk to the health or safety of a participant in the operation, or any other person, as a direct result of the conduct of the authorised operation, or
 - (C) that criminal activity or corrupt conduct other than the criminal activity or corrupt conduct in respect of which the authorised operation is being conducted had occurred, or was likely to occur, and that there was a substantial risk that evidence relating to that criminal activity or corrupt conduct would be lost,

- (ii) the participant could not avoid that risk otherwise than by engaging in the relevant conduct, and
 - (b) that, at all times prior to those circumstances arising, the participant had been acting in good faith and in accordance with the relevant code of conduct, and
 - (c) that the participant had not foreseen, and could not reasonably be expected to have foreseen, that those circumstances would arise, and
 - (d) that, had it been possible to foresee that those circumstances would arise, authority for the relevant conduct would have been sought, and
 - (e) it was not reasonably possible in those circumstances for the participant to seek a variation of the authority for the operation to authorise the relevant conduct.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not allow retrospective authority to be granted with respect to conduct giving rise to any of the following—
- (a) the offence of murder,
 - (b) any other offence for which the common law defence of duress would not be available.

15 Reports on controlled operations

- (1) Within 2 months after completing an authorised operation, the principal law enforcement officer for the operation must cause a report on the operation to be given to the chief executive officer.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the matters to be included in such a report.

16 Lawfulness of controlled activities

Despite any other Act or law, an activity that is engaged in by a participant in an authorised operation in the course of, and for the purposes of, the operation is not unlawful, and does not constitute an offence or corrupt conduct, so long as it is authorised by, and is engaged in in accordance with, the authority for the operation.

17 Lawfulness of activities with respect to assumed names

- (1) Despite any other Act or law, the following activities—
 - (a) the preparation of any false documentation (such as the preparation of a driver licence, credit card or identity card under an assumed name) in accordance with a request by the chief executive officer of a law enforcement agency,

- (b) the inclusion of any false information in any record or register (such as that relevant to the issue of a driver licence, credit card or identity card under an assumed name) in accordance with a request by the chief executive officer of a law enforcement agency,
- (c) the use of such documentation or information by any person in the course of, and for the purposes of, an authorised operation conducted on behalf of a law enforcement agency, are not unlawful, and do not constitute offences or corrupt conduct, so long as the documentation or information is the subject of a certificate, signed by the chief executive officer of the agency, to the effect that the documentation or information is to be used for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not render lawful the preparation of false documentation, the inclusion of false information in any record or register or the use of such documentation or information in relation to matters of the kind recorded or registered under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995.

18 Lawfulness of certain ancillary activities

- (1) Despite any other Act or law, an activity that is engaged in by a person—

- (a) in connection with a controlled activity, or
- (b) in connection with an activity referred to in section 17(1)(a), (b) or (c), is not unlawful, and does not constitute an offence or corrupt conduct, so long as it is engaged in (whether by a participant in an authorised operation or otherwise) in the course of, and for the purposes of, an authorised operation.

- (2) This section applies to an activity that (but for this section) would be unlawful because (ignoring the operation of sections 16 and 17) the activity in connection with which it is engaged in is unlawful (such as an activity that would otherwise give rise to the offence of aiding and abetting the commission of an offence or of conspiring to commit an offence), and does not apply to any other activity.

19 Exclusion of civil liability

Conduct of—

- (a) a chief executive officer, or
- (b) the principal law enforcement officer or the secondary law enforcement officer for an authorised operation, or
- (c) a participant in an authorised operation, or
- (d) a person acting in accordance with the directions of—

- (i) a chief executive officer, or
- (ii) the principal law enforcement officer or the secondary law enforcement officer for an authorised operation, does not, if the conduct was in good faith and for the purpose of executing this Act, subject the chief executive officer, principal law enforcement officer, secondary law enforcement officer, participant or person so acting personally to any action, claim, liability or demand.

- (1) The regulations may prescribe codes of conduct for authorised operations conducted on behalf of law enforcement agencies.
- (2) Different codes of conduct may be prescribed for different law enforcement agencies.
- (3) A code of conduct may make provision for or with respect to any aspect of the conduct of an authorised operation.
- (4) A regulation may not be made for the purposes of this section except on the recommendation of the Inspector.

20C Applications for authorities to conduct cross-border controlled operations

- (1) An application under section 5 for an authority to conduct a proposed cross-border controlled operation—
 - (a) must be made to the chief executive officer of the law enforcement agency concerned, and
 - (b) must state that the proposed controlled operation is a cross-border controlled operation, and
 - (c) must specify (in place of the particulars required by section 5(2A)(b)) the relevant offence in respect of which the proposed operation is to be conducted.
- (2) Without limiting any regulations made under section 5(2B), an urgent application for an authority to conduct a proposed cross-border controlled operation may be made only if the applicant has reason to believe that the delay caused by making a formal application may affect the success of the operation.
- (3) Nothing in this Act prevents an application for an authority being made in respect of a cross-border controlled operation that has been the subject of a previous application, but in that case the subsequent application must be a formal application.
- (4) As soon as practicable after making an urgent application for an authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation, the applicant must make a record in writing of the application and give a copy of it to the chief executive officer.

20D Determination of applications for authorities to conduct cross-border controlled operations—additional criteria to be met

- (1) An authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation may not be granted unless the chief executive officer is satisfied as to the matters set out in this section

(in addition to the matters specified in section 6, as modified by this section).

(2) The chief executive officer must be satisfied on reasonable grounds—

- (a) that a relevant offence has been, is being, or is likely to be, committed, and
- (b) that the controlled operation will be, or is likely to be, conducted in this jurisdiction and in one or more participating jurisdictions, and
- (c) that the nature and extent of the suspected criminal activity are such as to justify the conduct of a controlled operation in this jurisdiction and in one or more participating jurisdictions, and
- (d) that the operation will be conducted in a way that will minimise the risk of more illicit goods being under the control of persons (other than law enforcement officers) at the end of the operation than are reasonably necessary to enable the officers to achieve the purpose of the controlled operation.

20E Form of authority to conduct cross-border controlled operation

An authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation must (in addition to the requirements of section 8(2))—

 - (ii) the route through which those goods will pass in the course of the operation.

20F Duration of authorities for cross-border controlled operations

Section 8(2)(f) and (g) are to be construed, in respect of an authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation, as if the periods of 72 hours and 6 months specified in those paragraphs were periods of 7 days and 3 months, respectively.

20G Variation of authorities

- (1) An authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation may be varied under section 10 by the chief executive officer at any time on the chief executive officer's own initiative (as well as on application under that section).
- (2) An application for a variation of an authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation may be made (and an application may be granted) for the purpose (in addition to the purposes specified in section 10(1)) of identifying additional suspects (to the extent known).
- (3) Section 10(1A) is to be construed, in respect of a variation of an authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation, as if the period of 6 months specified in that subsection were a period of 3 months.
- (4) A variation cannot be made that has the effect of extending the period of validity of an urgent authority in respect of a cross-border controlled operation.
- (5) An urgent application for a variation of an authority to conduct a proposed cross-border controlled operation may be made only if the applicant has reason to believe that the delay caused by making a formal application may affect the success of the operation.

20H Effect of authorities to conduct cross-border controlled operations

- (1) An authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation authorises each participant to engage in the activities referred to in section 13 in this jurisdiction and in any participating jurisdiction (subject to any corresponding law of the participating jurisdiction).
- (2) The authority to engage in controlled conduct given to a participant in a cross-border controlled operation cannot be delegated to any other person.

20I Documents relating to cross-border controlled operations

The chief executive officer of a law enforcement agency must cause the following to be kept in relation to cross-border controlled operations—

- (a) each formal application made by a law enforcement officer of the agency,

- (c) each formal variation application made by a law enforcement officer of the agency,
- (d) each formal variation of application granted to a law enforcement officer of the agency,
- (e) each order cancelling an authority granted to a law enforcement officer of the agency,

- (f) each report given to the chief executive officer under section 15 or 20Q(1).

20J Register relating to cross-border controlled operations

- (1) The chief executive officer of a law enforcement agency must cause a register relating to cross-border controlled operations to be kept.
- (2) The register is to specify the following—
 - (a) for each application (including an application for a variation of authority) made under this Act in respect of a cross-border controlled operation—
 - (i) the date of the application, and
 - (ii) whether the application was formal or urgent, and
 - (iii) whether the application was granted, refused or withdrawn, and
 - (iv) if the application was refused or withdrawn—the date and time of the refusal or withdrawal,
 - (b) for each authority granted to a law enforcement officer of the agency in respect of a cross-border controlled operation—
 - (i) the date and time the authority was granted, and
 - (ii) whether the authority was formal or urgent, and

- (c) for each variation of authority—
 - (i) the date and time the variation was made, and
 - (ii) whether the variation was formal or urgent, and
 - (iii) the name and rank or position of the chief executive officer who made the variation.

20K Protection from criminal responsibility for controlled conduct during authorised operations

- (1) Section 16 (Lawfulness of controlled activities) does not apply in relation to an authorised operation that is a cross-border controlled operation.
- (2) However, despite any other Act or law of this jurisdiction, a participant who engages in conduct (whether in this jurisdiction or elsewhere) in an authorised operation that is a cross-border controlled operation in the course of, and for the purposes of, the operation, is not, if engaging in that conduct is an offence, criminally responsible for the offence, if—
 - (a) the conduct is authorised by, and is engaged in in accordance with, the authority for the operation, and
 - (b) the conduct does not involve the participant's intentionally inducing a person to commit an offence under a law of any jurisdiction or the Commonwealth that the person would not otherwise have intended to commit, and
 - (c) the conduct does not involve the participant's engaging in any conduct that is likely—
 - (i) to cause the death of, or serious injury to, any person, or
 - (ii) to involve the commission of a sexual offence against any person, and
 - (d) the participant is a civilian participant—he or she acts in accordance with the instructions of a law enforcement officer.

20L Protection from criminal responsibility for certain ancillary conduct

- (1) Section 18 (Lawfulness of certain ancillary activities) does not apply in relation to an authorised operation that is an authorised cross-border controlled operation.
- (2) This section applies to conduct such as aiding and abetting the commission of an offence or of conspiring to commit an offence (ancillary conduct) for which a person may be criminally responsible because it involves conduct engaged in by another person that is controlled conduct for which the other person would (but for section 20K) be criminally responsible (the related controlled conduct).

- (3) Despite any other Act or law of this jurisdiction, a person who engages in ancillary conduct that is an offence (whether or not the person is a participant in a controlled operation) is not criminally responsible for the offence if at the time the person engaged in the ancillary conduct he or she believed that the related controlled conduct was being engaged in, or would be engaged in, by a participant in an authorised operation.

20M Indemnification of participants against civil liability

- (1) Section 19 (Exclusion of civil liability) does not apply in relation to an authorised operation that is an authorised cross-border controlled operation.
- (2) However, this section applies to a law enforcement agency if a cross-border controlled operation has been authorised by the chief executive officer of the agency under section 6.
- (3) The State must indemnify a participant in the authorised operation against any civil liability (including reasonable costs) the participant incurs because of conduct the participant engages in if—
 - (a) the participant engages in the conduct in the course of, and for the purposes of, the operation in accordance with the authority for the operation, and
 - (b) the conduct does not involve the participant's intentionally inducing a person to commit an offence under a law of any jurisdiction or the Commonwealth that the person would not otherwise have intended to commit, and
 - (c) the conduct does not involve the participant's engaging in any conduct that is likely—
 - (i) to cause the death of, or serious injury to, any person, or
 - (ii) to involve the commission of a sexual offence against any person, and
 - (d) the participant is a civilian participant—he or she acts in accordance with the instructions of a law enforcement officer, and
 - (e) the relevant requirements (if any) of the regulations have been met.

20N Effect of sections 20K and 20L on other laws relating to criminal investigation

Sections 20K and 20L do not apply to a person's conduct in the course of a cross-border controlled operation that is, or could have been, authorised under a law of this jurisdiction relating to the following—

- (a) the arrest or detention of individuals,
- (b) searches of individuals,

- (c) entry onto, or searches or inspections of, premises,
- (d) searches, inspections or seizures of other property,
- (e) forensic procedures,
- (f) electronic surveillance devices or telecommunications interception,
- (g) identification procedures,
- (h) the use or acquisition of assumed identities,
- (i) any other matter concerning powers of criminal investigation.

200 Effect of being unaware of variation or cancellation of authority

- (1) If an authority for a cross-border controlled operation is varied in any way that limits its scope, this Part continues to apply to a participant in the operation as if the authority had not been varied in that way, for so long as the participant—
 - (a) is unaware of the variation, and
 - (b) is not reckless about the existence of the variation.
- (2) If an authority for a cross-border controlled operation is cancelled, this Part continues to apply to a participant in the operation as if the authority had not been cancelled, for so long as the participant—
 - (a) is unaware of the cancellation, and
 - (b) is not reckless about the existence of the cancellation.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a person is reckless about the existence of the variation or cancellation of an authority if—
 - (a) the person is aware of a substantial risk that there has been a variation or cancellation, and
 - (b) having regard to the circumstances known to the person, it is unjustifiable to continue to engage in conduct that was authorised by the authority but which, because of the possible variation or cancellation, may be no longer authorised.
- (4) Sections 10(10) and 12(3) do not apply in respect of a cross-border controlled operation.

20P Compensation for property loss or serious damage

- (1) If a person suffers loss of, or serious damage to, property as a direct result of an authorised cross-border controlled operation, the State is liable to pay to the person such compensation as is agreed between the State and the person or, in default of agreement, compensation of an amount determined in proceedings against the State, in a court of competent jurisdiction, for a debt of the amount claimed by the person.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the person suffered the loss or damage in the course of, or as a direct result of, engaging in any criminal activity (other than criminal activity that is controlled conduct), or
- (b) the person was a law enforcement officer at the time of suffering the loss or damage.

20Q Notification requirements

- (1) If any loss of, or serious damage to, property occurs in the course of or as a direct result of an authorised cross-border controlled operation (other than property of the law enforcement agency on behalf of which the operation is conducted or of a participant in the operation), the principal law enforcement officer for the operation must report the loss or damage to the chief executive officer of the law enforcement agency as soon as practicable.
- (2) The chief executive officer must take all reasonable steps to notify the owner of the property of the loss or damage.
- (3) However, the chief executive officer is not required to notify the owner of the property until the chief executive officer is satisfied that the notification would not—
 - (a) compromise or hinder the authorised operation, or
 - (b) compromise the identity of a participant in the authorised operation, or
 - (c) endanger the life or safety of any person, or
 - (d) prejudice any legal proceeding, or
 - (e) otherwise be contrary to the public interest.

20R Unauthorised disclosure of information

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if—
 - (a) the person intentionally, knowingly or recklessly discloses any information, and
 - (b) the person knows that, or is reckless as to whether, the information relates to a cross-border controlled operation, or a corresponding authorised operation, and
 - (c) the person knows that, or is reckless as to whether, the disclosure is not made—
 - (i) in connection with the administration or execution of this Part or a corresponding law, or

(ii) for the purposes of any legal proceeding arising out of or otherwise related to this Part or a corresponding law or of any report of any such proceedings, or

(iii) in accordance with any requirement imposed by law.

Maximum penalty—Imprisonment for 2 years.

(2) A person is guilty of an offence against this subsection if the person commits an offence against subsection (1) in circumstances in which the person—

(a) intends to endanger the health or safety of any person or prejudice the effective conduct of a cross-border controlled operation or corresponding authorised operation, or

(b) knows that, or is reckless as to whether, the disclosure of the information—

(i) endangers, or will endanger, the health or safety of any person, or

(ii) prejudices, or will prejudice, the effective conduct of a cross-border controlled operation or corresponding authorised operation.

Maximum penalty—Imprisonment for 10 years.

(3) An offence against subsection (2) is to be prosecuted on indictment. However, Chapter 5 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (which relates to the summary disposal of certain indictable offences unless an election is made to proceed on indictment) applies to and in respect of any such offence.

20S Mutual recognition of corresponding authorities

The following provisions apply, with any necessary changes, to a corresponding authority under a corresponding law, and to a corresponding authorised operation under that law, as if the corresponding authority were an authority given under section 6(1) to conduct a cross-border controlled operation—

(a) section 13 (Effect of authorities),

(b) section 13A (Defect in authority),

(c) section 20H (Effect of authorities to conduct cross-border controlled operations),

(d) section 20K (Protection from criminal responsibility for controlled conduct during authorised operations),

(e) section 20L (Protection from criminal responsibility for certain ancillary conduct),

(f) section 20M (Indemnification of participants against civil liability),

(g) section 20N (Effect of sections 20K and 20L on other laws relating to criminal investigation),

 - (e) the number of law enforcement participants, and the number of civilian participants, who have engaged in controlled activities for the purposes of the controlled operations conducted under those authorities.
- (3) Nothing in this section requires particulars of an authorised operation to be included in a report for a year if the operation had not been completed as at 30 June in that year, but the particulars must instead be included in the report for the year in which the operation is completed.

24 Ancillary matters concerning reports

- (1) A report prepared under this Part must not include any information that, if made public, could reasonably be expected—
- (a) to endanger the health or safety of any person, or

 - (a) ensure that such parts of the proceedings as relate to the identity of the participant are held in private, and
 - (b) make such orders as to the suppression of evidence given before it as, in its opinion, will ensure that the identity of the participant is not disclosed.
