- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a merger includes any transaction by which a bank acquires another bank, either by the transfer of the whole or part of the undertaking of the other bank, or by becoming the successor in law of the other bank, or by other means.

4 Regulations for the merging of banks

- (1) The regulations may make provision for or relating to the merger of 2 or more banks.

 - (c) the obligations of the banks concerned in relation to the merger and related transactions,
 - (d) the effect of the merger on existing contracts, agreements (oral or written), deeds, leases, licences and other instruments and other undertakings of a bank that is being merged with another bank,

 - (k) the effect of the merger on the liabilities of the banks concerned,
 - (l) the construction of references to the banks concerned and any other persons or bodies affected by the merger,

 - (q) evidence of matters related to the merger,
 - (r) payment, or exemption from payment, of duties, taxes, charges, rates or other imposts,
 - (s) other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequential on the merger.
- (3) A regulation made for the purposes of this section may be expressed to have effect despite the provisions of any other Act relating to the payment of duties, taxes, charges, rates or other imposts or to the registration of ownership of assets or liabilities and, if so expressed, has effect accordingly.

5 Succession of banks

- (1) A regulation for the purposes of this Act may provide for the liquidation or dissolution of a bank being merged with another bank.

- (2) Any such regulation may only be made with the approval of the Minister administering the Corporations Law.
- (3) A regulation for the purposes of this Act may provide that a bank is the successor in law of another bank and is, for all purposes, a continuation of and the same legal entity as the other bank.

6 Regulations generally

The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

7 Extra-territorial operation
