This Regulation replaces the Veterinary Practice Regulation 2006 which is repealed on 1 September 2013 by section 10(2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Regulation—code of conduct means the veterinary practitioners code of professional conduct established by clause 13.

horse includes a donkey and a mule.

the Act means the Veterinary Practice Act 2003.

(2) A reference in this Regulation to the Department of Primary Industries is a reference to the Department of Primary Industries within the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services.

(3) Notes included in this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

Part 2 Practice of veterinary science

4 Restricted acts of veterinary science

(1) The following acts of veterinary science are declared to be restricted acts of veterinary science for the purposes of the Act—

(a) examination of or attendance on any animal the examination of or attendance on any animal for the purpose of diagnosing the physiological or pathological condition of the animal, including for the purpose of diagnosing pregnancy in a horse, but not for the purpose of diagnosing pregnancy in any other animal,

(b) treatments, procedures or tests that require anaesthesia etc

the carrying out of any treatment, procedure or test on an animal that, according to current standards of the practice of veterinary science, to avoid harm or suffering to the animal, should not be undertaken without anaesthetising the animal (otherwise than by a topical anaesthetic) or without sedating or tranquillising the animal,

(c) administration of an anaesthetic agent

the administration of an anaesthetic agent (other than a topical anaesthetic) to an animal otherwise than under the immediate and direct supervision of a veterinary practitioner,

(d) specific procedures

the following treatments, procedures and tests—

- (i) the performing of laparoscopic surgery on any animal,
- (ii) the performing of the Mules operation on sheep that are 12 months of age or older,
- (iii) the tailing of sheep that are 6 months of age or older,
- (iv) the de-horning of cattle that are 12 months of age or older,
- (v) the de-horning of goats that are 1 month of age or older,

 - (m) details of any mentoring provided or received by the veterinary practitioner.
- (2) In the case of a veterinary practitioner who holds specialist registration, details of the extent to which the veterinary practitioner practised in the branch of veterinary science in which he or she holds that registration are prescribed for the purposes of section 33(1)(f) of the Act.

Part 4 Complaints and disciplinary proceedings

11 (Repealed)

12 Meaning of “unsatisfactory professional conduct”

For the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of unsatisfactory professional conduct in section 35 of the Act, all clauses of the code of conduct are prescribed.

(a)–(d) (Repealed)

13 Veterinary practitioners code of professional conduct

For the purposes of section 37 of the Act, the code of conduct set out in Schedule 2 is established as a veterinary practitioners code of professional conduct.

Part 5 Veterinary hospitals

14 Licensing procedures

Part 2 of the Licensing and Registration \(Uniform Procedures\) Act 2002 is modified, in its application to a veterinary hospital licence, so as to require the “other registered particulars” referred to in section 24(1) of that Act to be construed as including the following—

- (a) the business name (within the meaning of the Business Names Registration Act 2011 of the Commonwealth) under which a veterinary hospital is to be conducted pursuant to the veterinary hospital licence,
- (b) the name of any veterinary practitioner who has a controlling interest in a corporation or firm that is the owner or part-owner of the veterinary hospital the subject of the veterinary hospital licence,
- (c) the nature of the veterinary services provided by the veterinary hospital the subject of the veterinary hospital licence.

Part 6 Annual general meeting of veterinary profession

15 Definition

In this Part—

annual general meeting means the annual general meeting of the veterinary profession referred to in section 92 of the Act.

16 Calling of annual general meeting

An annual general meeting is to be called so as to be held as soon as practicable after the Board’s audited financial reports in respect of the last-ended financial year have been returned to the Board after being audited by the Auditor-General.

17 Giving of notice of annual general meeting

- (1) The Board must notify the veterinary profession (including veterinary practitioners) of—
 - (a) the date of the annual general meeting, and
 - (b) the venue of the meeting, and
 - (c) the agenda of the meeting, and
 - (d) the place or website at which further information in relation to the meeting may be obtained.
- (2) Notice of an annual general meeting must be—
 - (a) published on the Board’s website, and
 - (b) given in any other way the Board considers appropriate.

- (3) At least 4 weeks' notice must be given of an annual general meeting.

18 Information to be provided in relation to annual general meeting

All attendees at an annual general meeting must be provided with the following information in relation to the meeting—

- (a) the agenda for the meeting,
- (b) a copy of the audited financial statements of the Board,
- (c) a copy of a report of the President of the Board as to the activities of the Board for the past financial year,
- (d) a copy of a report of the President of the Board as to—
 - (i) the fees payable by veterinary practitioners under the Act, and
 - (ii) the consultation undertaken under section 86 of the Act before those fees were approved, and
 - (iii) any remuneration paid or payable to members of the Board, and
 - (iv) any increases in fees and remuneration that have been determined by the Board and are to be presented to the Minister for approval.

19 President to preside

The President of the Board or, in the absence of the President, a person elected by the members of the Board who are present at an annual general meeting is to preside at the meeting.

20 Comments to be taken

The person presiding at an annual general meeting is to take comments from the veterinary practitioners at the meeting as to the matters on the agenda, in particular, comments with respect to—

- (a) any proposed increase in fees payable by veterinary practitioners under the Act, and
- (b) any proposed increase in the remuneration payable to members of the Board.

21 Annual general meeting may coincide with Board meeting

- (1) The annual general meeting may take place in conjunction with any other scheduled meeting of the Board.
- (2) In such a case, the Board must use its best endeavours to ensure that the venue for the meeting is capable of accommodating all persons who might reasonably be expected to attend the meeting.

Part 7 Miscellaneous

22 Penalty notices

For the purposes of section 101 of the Act—

- (a) each offence specified in Column 1 of Schedule 3 is prescribed as a penalty notice offence, and
- (b) the prescribed penalty payable under a penalty notice in respect of a penalty notice offence is—
 - (i) the amount specified in Column 2 of Schedule 3, or
 - (ii) if the person alleged to have committed the offence is a corporation, and if a greater amount is specified in Column 3 of Schedule 3, the amount specified in Column 3 of Schedule 3.

23 Exemption of persons from the operation of section 9 of the Act

- (1) For the purposes of section 102(1)(f) of the Act, a person employed by the Crown—
 - (a) who is under the direct supervision of an officer of the Department of Primary Industries or Local Land Services, and
 - (b) who is doing a restricted act of veterinary science in accordance with guidelines and standard operating procedures issued by the Director-General of the Department of Primary Industries,is, during an emergency (within the meaning of the State Emergency and Rescue Management Act 1989) relating to a disease of animals, or requiring the mass treatment or destruction of animals, exempt from section 9 of the Act.
- (2) For the purposes of section 102(1)(f) of the Act, a person employed as a ranger by the Crown in the Local Land Services Division of the Government Service who is acting as permitted by, and in accordance with, guidelines or any other written instrument issued by Local Land Services is exempt from section 9 of the Act.
- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2), any relevant guidelines or other written instruments issued by the State Management Council of Livestock Health and Pest Authorities and in force immediately before that Council's abolition by the Local Land Services Act 2013 are taken to be guidelines or instruments issued by Local Land Services.

24 Unrestricted acts of veterinary science

For the purposes of clause 1(g) of Schedule 1 to the Act, all animals, other than horses and the animals referred to in clause 1(g), are prescribed.

25 Fees

- (1) The Board is authorised to determine the fees payable for the undertaking of examinations in respect of applications for registration under the Act.
- (2) The Board is authorised to determine and impose fees and charges for such other services provided by the Board as will assist the Board to operate on a cost-recovery basis, including fees or charges for the carrying out of any inspection for the purposes of the Act (whether or not the inspection is requested or agreed to).
- (3) The Board may not impose a fee under this clause unless the Minister has agreed to the imposition of the fee.
- (4) In this clause, inspection includes any hospital inspection or any inspection of the Register.

26 Saving

Any act, matter or thing that, immediately before the repeal of the Veterinary Practice Regulation 2006, had effect under that Regulation continues to have effect under this Regulation.

Schedule 1 Declaration relating to the conduct to be observed by veterinary practitioners

(Clause 7)

I, [insert name] of [insert address] am an applicant for registration as a veterinary practitioner under the Veterinary Practice Act 2003 and I declare that—

- (a) I will pursue the work of my profession with diligence, and
- (b) in practising veterinary science—
 - (i) I will promote the welfare of animals, and
 - (ii) I will observe the veterinary practitioners code of professional conduct referred to in section 37 of the Veterinary Practice Act 2003, and
 - (iii) I will maintain a standard of professional knowledge and expertise at a level that is accepted by my professional colleagues who are of good standing, and
- (c) unless approved by the Board, I will not practise veterinary science if I am aware that I am impaired by a physical or mental illness or disorder that detrimentally affects or is likely to detrimentally affect my capacity to practise.

Schedule 2 Veterinary practitioners code of professional conduct

(Clause 13)

1 Basic principles of professional conduct

The basic principles of professional conduct for a veterinary practitioner are—

- (a) a primary concern for the welfare of animals, and
- (b) the maintenance of professional standards to the standard expected by—
 - (i) other veterinary practitioners, and
 - (ii) users of veterinary services, and
 - (iii) the public.

2 Welfare of animals must be considered

A veterinary practitioner must at all times consider the welfare of animals when practising veterinary science.

3 No refusal of pain relief

- (1) A veterinary practitioner must not refuse to provide relief of pain or suffering to an animal that is in his or her presence.
- (2) In this clause, relief, in relation to pain or suffering, means—
 - (a) first aid treatment, or
 - (b) timely referral to another veterinary practitioner, or
 - (c) euthanasia,as appropriate.

4 Knowledge of current standards of practice

- (1) A veterinary practitioner—
 - (a) must maintain knowledge to the current standards of the practice of veterinary science in the areas of veterinary science relevant to his or her practice, and
 - (b) must always carry out professional procedures in accordance with those current standards.
- (2) A veterinary practitioner must base professional decisions on evidence-based science or well-recognised current knowledge and practice, or both.

5 Utilisation of skills of colleagues

A veterinary practitioner must utilise the skills of colleagues, by consultation or referral, where appropriate.

6 Professional conduct

A veterinary practitioner must not mislead, deceive or behave in such a way as to have an adverse effect on the standing of any veterinary practitioner or the veterinary profession.

7 Informed consent

A veterinary practitioner must, where it is practicable to do so, obtain the informed consent of the person responsible for the care of an animal before providing veterinary services to the animal.

8 Availability to care for animal

A veterinary practitioner must, when accepting an animal for diagnosis or treatment—

- (a) ensure that he or she is available for the ongoing care of the animal, or
- (b) if he or she will not be so available, make arrangements for another veterinary practitioner to take over the care of the animal.

9 Referrals and second opinions

A veterinary practitioner must not refuse a request by a person responsible for the care of an animal for a referral or second opinion.

10 Provision of records

A veterinary practitioner who has previously treated an animal must, when requested to do so, and with the consent of the person responsible for the care of the animal, provide copies or originals of all relevant case history records directly to another veterinary practitioner who has taken over the treatment of the animal.

11 Return of records

A veterinary practitioner to whom another veterinary practitioner has referred an animal for treatment or a second opinion must return records provided by the referring veterinary practitioner as soon as practicable.

12 Confidentiality

A veterinary practitioner must maintain the confidentiality of information obtained in the course of professional practice, unless the disclosure of the information is—

- (a) authorised or required by this code of conduct or a law of this State or of the Commonwealth, or another State or Territory, or
- (b) to an officer under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979 or an approved charitable organisation within the meaning of that Act and relates to an alleged offence under that Act or an alleged offence relating to animal cruelty under the Crimes Act 1900, or
- (c) to the Greyhound Welfare and Integrity Commission under the Greyhound Racing Act 2017 and relates to an alleged offence under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act

13 Skills, knowledge and equipment of assistants

A veterinary practitioner must ensure that all persons assisting in the provision of veterinary services to animals in his or her care have the skills, knowledge and available equipment to enable them to perform their duties according to current standards of the practice of veterinary science, except in the case of an emergency.

14 Compliance with codes or rules of animal sporting organisations

A veterinary practitioner must maintain knowledge of and obey any code or rules of an animal sporting organisation when attending on that organisation or working within the industry to which it relates (unless the code or rules are contrary to the Act, this Regulation or any other legislation).

15 Records

- (1) A veterinary practitioner must ensure that a detailed record of any consultation, procedure or treatment is made as soon as is practicable.
- (2) The record—
 - (a) must be legible and in sufficient detail to enable another veterinary practitioner to continue the treatment of the animal, and
 - (b) must include the results of any diagnostic tests, analysis and treatments.
- (3) If a record is altered, the alteration must be clearly identified in the record as such.
- (4) A veterinary practitioner must ensure that all records of any consultation, procedure or treatment are retained for at least 3 years after they are made.

16 Fees for veterinary services

A veterinary practitioner must, where it is practicable to do so and before providing veterinary services in relation to an animal, inform the person responsible for the care of the animal of—

- (a) the likely extent and outcome of the veterinary services, and
- (b) the estimated cost of those services.

17 Certification by veterinary practitioners

- (1) A veterinary practitioner must not certify to any fact within his or her professional expertise or knowledge, or that a veterinary service has been provided, unless the veterinary practitioner has personal knowledge of the fact or has personally provided, or supervised the provision of, the veterinary service concerned.

- (2) Any certification by a veterinary practitioner must contain such detail as is necessary to ensure that it is complete and accurate and that the meaning is clear.

18 Correction of genetic defects

A veterinary practitioner must not perform a surgical operation for the correction of an inheritable defect, or provide medical treatment for an inheritable disease, unless the primary purpose of the operation or treatment is to relieve or prevent pain or discomfort to the animal concerned.

19 Special interest areas

Before undertaking practice in a particular area of veterinary science, a veterinary practitioner must ensure that he or she has the knowledge and competence necessary to practise in that area.

20 Supply of restricted substances

- (1) A veterinary practitioner may supply restricted substances only—
- (a) to a person responsible for the care of an animal that the veterinary practitioner has physically examined or has under his or her direct care, and only in respect of that animal, or
 - (b) to a person responsible for the care of an animal, with the written authority of another veterinary practitioner who has physically examined the animal concerned or has it under his or her direct care, and only in respect of that animal.
- (2) A veterinary practitioner must not obtain any restricted substance medications in order to take that substance himself or herself.

- (3) In this clause—

restricted substance means a substance that is specified in Schedule Four or Schedule Eight to the Poisons List proclaimed under the Poisons and Therapeutic Goods Act 1966.

21 Inducements

A veterinary practitioner must not provide a referral or recommendation the request for which is accompanied by an inducement to the veterinary practitioner.
