Note—

See section 39A (3) and (4) for derivative evidence.

- (4) The Commission may apply to the Supreme Court ex parte for leave supported by an affidavit of an officer of the Commission stating—

(b) the grounds on which the belief and suspicion are based.

- (5) The Supreme Court may grant leave if it is satisfied that any prejudicial effect that is likely to arise to the person's trial from the proposed questioning or requirement is outweighed by the public interest in using the Commission's powers to ensure that a matter referred to in the copy of a notice accompanying a summons issued to the person is fully investigated.
- (6) Leave may be granted unconditionally or subject to conditions imposed by the Supreme Court.
- (7) If leave is granted, the Commission must, before the person is questioned in relation to matters the subject of the grant of leave, serve on the person notice of the grant of leave.

- (7) A person executing a warrant issued under this section may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of entering any premises for the purpose of executing it.
