Chapter 1 Preliminary

Part 1.1 Introduction

1 Citation

These Rules may be cited as the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015.

2 Commencement

These Rules come into operation on 1 July 2015.

3 Objective

The objective of these Rules is to set out provisions contemplated by the Uniform Law (other than provisions that are or may be included in the Admission Rules, the Legal Practice Rules, the Legal Profession Conduct Rules or the Continuing Professional Development Rules).

4 Authorising provision

These Rules are made by the Legal Services Council under Part 9.2 of the Uniform Law.

Part 1.2 Interpretation

5 Definitions

(1) In these Rules—

Australian law relating to the legal profession means—

- (a) the Uniform Law, these Rules or the Legal Profession Uniform Law Act of a participating jurisdiction, or
- (b) a corresponding law of a non-participating jurisdiction, or
- (c) a previous corresponding law of any jurisdiction.

commencement day for a participating jurisdiction means the day on which the relevant provision or provisions of the Uniform Law come into operation in that jurisdiction.

corresponding disciplinary body, in relation to a designated tribunal, has the same meaning as it has in section 461 of the Uniform Law.

itemised bill means a bill that specifies in detail how the legal costs are made up in a way so as to allow costs to be assessed.

lump sum bill means a bill that describes the legal services to which it relates and specifies the total amount of the legal costs.

Uniform Law means the Legal Profession Uniform Law as applied in a participating jurisdiction.

- (2) A reference in these Rules to the designated local regulatory authority, when used expressly or impliedly in relation to a provision of the Uniform Law, is a reference to the relevant designated local regulatory authority specified or described under jurisdictional legislation for that provision.

 - (a) the relevant designated tribunal specified or described under jurisdictional legislation for that provision, or

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (d) of the definition of supervised legal practice in section 6(1) of the Uniform Law, supervised legal practice in the case of an Australian legal practitioner who is an employee of a law practice, and who is engaged in legal work for a client of the law practice, or in legal work for a community legal service, otherwise than under the supervision of an authorised principal of the law practice, includes supervision by an Australian lawyer (the supervising lawyer), where—

- (i) holds an Australian practising certificate authorising the holder to supervise legal practice by others, or

14 Statutory condition—to engage in supervised legal practice

- (1) For the purposes of section 49(2) of the Uniform Law, completion by a person of a period or periods of supervised legal practice equivalent to the required period of 18 months or 2 years is to be worked out by satisfying the requirements of this rule.
- (2) The person satisfies the requirements of this rule if the person completes—
 - (a) one period of supervised legal practice, worked on a full-time basis, that is equal to the required period worked out on a full-time basis, or
 - (b) one period of supervised legal practice, worked on a part-time basis, that is equivalent to the required period worked out on a full-time basis, or

- (c) two or more periods of supervised legal practice, worked on either or both of those bases, that together are equal or equivalent to the required period.

15 Statutory condition—notification of certain offences

- (1) This rule specifies offences for the purposes of section 51 of the Uniform Law, as referred to in section 51(1)(a) of that Law. Convictions for these offences are required to be notified to the designated local regulatory authority within 7 days.
- (2) Summary offences are prescribed for those purposes, but only in relation to the requirement to notify a conviction.
- (3) However, subrule (2) does not apply to the following summary offences arising under transport or traffic legislation—

 - (c) an offence where the court has ordered licence disqualification on conviction,
 - (d) an offence, involving driving or operating a vehicle under the influence of alcohol or any other drug, under—
 - (i) the Road Transport Act 2013 of New South Wales, or

- (5) In this rule, summary offence means an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, other than a serious offence or a tax offence.

Note 1—

The terms “serious offence” and “tax offence” are respectively defined in section 6 of the Uniform Law. Charges and convictions for those offences are separately required to be notified under section 51(1)(a) of that Law.

Note 2—

Subrule (4)(d) excludes an offence under section 49(1)(c), (ca), (d) or (e) of the Road Safety Act 1986 of Victoria. Such an offence may nevertheless be a notifiable summary offence if it is covered by subrule (4)(a), (b) or (c).

16 Discretionary conditions on Australian practising certificate

For the purposes of section 53 of the Uniform Law, the discretionary conditions that the designated local regulatory authority may impose on an Australian practising certificate are any one or more of the following—

- (a) a condition—
 - (i) as to the type of legal practice in which the holder may engage, or
 - (ii) as to the type of legal practice in which the holder must not engage,
- (b) a condition that the holder undertake and complete one or more of the following—
 - (i) continuing legal education,

- (d) a condition that the holder must not supervise legal practice by others,
- (e) a condition requiring the holder to undergo counselling or medical treatment or to act in accordance with medical advice given to the holder,
- (f) a condition requiring the holder to use the services of an accountant or other financial specialist in connection with the holder’s legal practice,
- (g) a condition requiring the holder to provide the designated local regulatory authority or a specified body with evidence as to—
 - (i) any outstanding tax obligations of the holder, and
 - (ii) provision made by the holder to satisfy any such outstanding obligations,
- (h) in relation to a holder who is authorised to engage in legal practice only as a barrister, a condition requiring the holder—
 - (i) not to engage in legal practice otherwise than as a sole practitioner, or

- (ii) not to engage in legal practice in partnership with another person, or
- (iii) not to engage in legal practice as an employee of another person, or
- (iv) not to hold office as a principal or director of an incorporated legal practice or an unincorporated legal practice,
- (i) a condition agreed by the holder,
- (j) a condition that is related to a matter referred to in another provision of this rule.

17 Duration of Australian practising certificate

- (1) An Australian practising certificate is in force—
 - (a) if granted, from the commencement date specified in it until the end of the following 30 June, or
 - (b) if renewed, from the date of its renewal until the end of the following 30 June, unless the certificate is earlier suspended, cancelled or surrendered.
- (2) However, if an application for the renewal of an Australian practising certificate has been properly made to the designated local regulatory authority before its expiry but the authority has not determined the application by the following 1 July, the certificate is taken to continue in force on and from that 1 July until whichever of the following first occurs—
 - (a) the authority renews or refuses to renew the certificate,
 - (b) the holder withdraws the application for renewal,unless the certificate is earlier suspended, cancelled or surrendered.

Note 1—

If the certificate is renewed on or after 1 July, the renewal takes effect on the date of its renewal: see subrule (1)(b).

Note 2—

Section 211 of the Uniform Law provides that an Australian legal practitioner must not engage in legal practice in a jurisdiction unless the practitioner holds or is covered by an approved insurance policy for that jurisdiction and the policy covers that legal practice.

18 Applicant for grant or renewal of Australian practising certificate intending to practise outside Australia

- (1) This rule applies in relation to an application for the grant or renewal of an Australian practising certificate in a participating jurisdiction if the applicant does not reasonably intend to engage in legal practice in Australia during the currency of the certificate or renewal applied for.

- (2) For the purposes of section 44(5) of the Uniform Law, the application may be made in any participating jurisdiction.

Note—

This rule applies to a person who intends to practise exclusively outside Australia during the currency of the certificate or renewal applied for.

In the case of a person who practises both within and outside Australia, the application is to be made by reference to the person's practice in Australia: section 44(4) of the Uniform Law. For this purpose of determining the place where the application is to be made, the person's overseas practice is to be disregarded (even if it forms the principal portion of the person's overall practice), so that eligibility is determined by reference to the person's practice in Australia.

For the purposes of section 464 of the Uniform Law, the specified period is 90 days.

111A Indexation of amounts

- (1) For the purposes of section 471 of the Uniform Law, an indexed amount is to be indexed each financial year in accordance with the following formula—

$$\text{indexed amount} \times \frac{\text{latest CPI number}}{106.8}$$

Note—

106.8 is the CPI number for the March quarter of 2015.

- (2) An indexed amount is to be rounded to the nearest $5.

- (3) If an indexed amount for any financial year is less than the amount that applied for the previous financial year, then the amount that applied for that previous financial year applies instead.
- (4) As soon as practicable after the latest CPI number is first published by the Australian Statistician, the Commissioner is required to—
- (a) notify the NSW Parliamentary Counsel of the indexed amounts for the next financial year so that notice of those amounts can be published on the NSW legislation website, and
 - (b) give public notice on the Legal Services Council's website of the actual amounts applying in each financial year resulting from indexation under this rule.
- (5) In this rule—

CPI number means the All Groups Consumer Price Index number, being the weighted average of the 8 capital cities, published by the Australian Statistician.

financial year means a period of 12 months commencing on 1 July.

latest CPI number means the CPI number for the March quarter in the financial year immediately preceding the financial year for which the amount is to be indexed.

March quarter means a period of 3 months ending 31 March.

Editorial note—

For a financial year specified in Column 1, the indexed amounts for the amounts of $100,000, $10,000 and $25,000 referred to in the following provisions are the amounts specified in Columns 2, 3 and 4, respectively, corresponding to the financial year—

- (a) Legal Profession Uniform Law, sections 291(1)(a) and (b), 292(2)(b) and (3) and 293(2)(b)(i) and (ii),
- (b) Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 of Victoria, section 99(1)(a) and (4)(a).
