- (2) Transport for NSW may refuse an application if—
- (a) the applicant has been found guilty of an offence (within the State or elsewhere) or is charged with an offence (within the State or elsewhere), and

- (3) If an applicant is a person with a disability (within the meaning of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 of the Commonwealth), Transport for NSW must not refuse an application on the ground that the person is, because of that disability, not a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor, unless the applicant because of that disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor.
- (4) The following are to be taken into account in determining whether an applicant would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor (as referred to in subsection (3))—

- (a) the applicant's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to the occupation of driving instructor,

- (1) The holder of a licence may, at any time during the currency of the licence or within 90 days after its expiry, apply to Transport for NSW for a renewal of the licence.
- (2) The licence is renewed by the issue of a further licence—
 - (a) that takes effect from the expiry of the holder's current licence, if the application for renewal was made before that expiry, or
 - (b) that is taken to be effective from the date of application, if that application was made after the expiry.
- (3) Nothing in this section gives any force to a licence that has expired, or otherwise affects the operation of section 24.

24 When licence is in force

- (1) A licence is in force for the period specified in the licence unless it is suspended or cancelled.
- (2) Apart from any suspension or cancellation that may be effected under this Act, a licence is suspended or cancelled (as the case may be) while the holder's driver licence is suspended or cancelled.
- (3) A licence is also suspended during any other period while the licensee is not the holder of a driver licence.

25 Tests or certificates during currency of licence

- (1) Transport for NSW may at any time during the currency of a licence require its holder to submit to any tests of the kind referred to in section 15 or to obtain any medical or other certificate referred to in section 16.
- (2) Requirements under this section are to be made only as often as Transport for NSW considers necessary in the public interest.

 - (i) has been found guilty of an offence against this Act or the regulations, or

 - (d) the holder of the licence has contravened a condition to which the licence is subject,
 - (e) the holder of the licence refuses to submit to, or does not pass, any of the tests Transport for NSW requires the holder to submit to under section 25 or does not obtain a medical or other certificate referred to in that section,

 - (i) Transport for NSW is satisfied that the holder of the licence is not a person of good repute or good character,
 - (j) Transport for NSW is satisfied that the holder of the licence is not a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor,
 - (k) Transport for NSW has reason to believe that the holder of the licence has engaged in bribery or fraud relating to the testing of applicants for driver licences under the Road Transport Act 2013 or former Road Transport \(Driver Licensing\) Act 1998 (or corresponding licences under the law in any other State, or in any Territory or country) or the issue of those licences,
 - (l) having regard to the objects of the Act, Transport for NSW is of the opinion that the holder of the licence is a person who no longer displays the competencies, or is no longer suitable, to act as a driving instructor,
 - (m) Transport for NSW is of the opinion that it would not be in the public interest for the holder of the licence to continue to hold a licence having regard to his or her record of offences (within the State or elsewhere) involving motor vehicles.
- (1A) Transport for NSW may issue a caution to the holder of a licence instead of suspending or cancelling the licence under subsection (1).
- (2) (Repealed)
- (2A) If alleged misconduct on the part of the holder of a licence is reported to Transport for NSW under section 54A or 54B, Transport for NSW may suspend the person's licence until the matter has been dealt with if of the opinion that such action is necessary due to the serious nature of the alleged misconduct.

- (3) If the holder of a licence is a person with a disability (within the meaning of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 of the Commonwealth), Transport for NSW must not cancel a licence on the ground that the holder is, because of that disability, not a fit and proper person to act as a driving instructor, unless the holder because of that disability would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor.
- (4) The following are to be taken into account in determining whether a holder of a licence would be unable to carry out the inherent requirements of the occupation of driving instructor (as referred to in subsection (3))—
 - (a) the holder's past training, qualifications and experience relevant to that occupation,
 - (b) if the holder is already acting as a driving instructor, the holder's performance in that occupation,

28 Return of licence

- (1) A driving instructor served with a notice informing the instructor of the suspension or cancellation of the instructor's licence must, within the time specified in the notice, return the licence to Transport for NSW.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (2) A person need not comply with subsection (1) if the suspension or cancellation is stayed by order of the Local Court under section 31.
- (3) A driving instructor whose licence expires must return the licence to Transport for

NSW not later than 3 days after the expiry.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (4) A driving instructor whose driver licence is suspended or cancelled must return the licence issued under this Act to Transport for NSW not later than 3 days after the suspension or cancellation.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (5) A requirement in this section (and in section 29) that a licence be returned is a requirement that the licence itself, together with any document or notice setting out or varying conditions imposed on the licence and any photograph or other means of identifying the holder, be delivered to a place nominated by Transport for NSW in writing to the holder so that Transport for NSW may record the suspension, cancellation or change of address concerned.

29 Change of address

The holder of a licence whose address (as shown on the licence) changes must, within 7 days after the change, notify Transport for NSW in writing of the change and return the licence to Transport for NSW for amendment.

32 Procedure on notice of appeal

- (1) The relevant registrar of the Local Court must give notice of the time and place of the hearing of the appeal to Transport for NSW and to the appellant.
- (2) The hearing of an appeal may proceed regardless of any omission from or error in a notice given under this section or the failure to give the notice if the Local Court is satisfied that the appellant and Transport for NSW knew of the time and place of the hearing and were not prejudiced by the omission, error or failure to give notice.
