New South Wales

An Act to make further provision for the protection of charitable trusts; to authorise the Attorney General to establish schemes for the administration of charitable trusts; and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

In this Act:

charitable trust means any trust established for charitable purposes and subject to the control of the Court in the exercise of the Court's general jurisdiction with respect to charitable trusts.

Court means the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

trust property means any property subject to the charitable trust concerned.

4 Application of Act

(1) This Act applies in respect of a charitable trust even though:

- (a) it was established outside New South Wales, or
- (b) the trust property is not situated in New South Wales, or
- (c) the trustees are not domiciled or resident in New South Wales.

(2) This Act applies to a trust created before or after the commencement of this section, except as otherwise provided by this Act.

- (3) This Act does not apply to the exclusion of the provisions of any other Act relating to charitable trusts.

Part 2 Protection of charitable property

5 Definition of “charitable trust proceedings”

- (1) In this Part, charitable trust proceedings means proceedings in the Court brought, whether by any trustee of a charitable trust or by any other person, under the Court’s statutory or general jurisdiction with respect to any breach or supposed breach of a charitable trust, or with respect to the administration of a charitable trust.
- (2) However, in this Part charitable trust proceedings does not include:
- (a) proceedings for the bringing of any appeal, or
 - (b) proceedings relating merely to the construction of a trust instrument.

6 Bringing of certain charitable trust proceedings to be authorised by Attorney General or by leave

- (1) Charitable trust proceedings are not to be commenced in the Court unless:
- (a) the Attorney General has authorised the bringing of the proceedings, or
 - (b) leave to bring the proceedings is obtained from the Court.
- (2) The Court is not to give such leave unless satisfied that the Attorney General has been given an opportunity to consider whether to authorise the proceedings or that the referral of the matter to the Attorney General is not appropriate because of the urgency of the matter or other good cause.
- (2A) Any such authority or leave may also be given after charitable trust proceedings have been brought so as to enable the continuation of those proceedings.
- (3) A person who does not otherwise have standing may bring charitable trust proceedings if authorised by the Attorney General to bring those proceedings.
- (4) Nothing in this section applies to the bringing by the Attorney General, with or without a relator, of charitable trust proceedings or any other proceedings relating to a charitable trust.

7 Extension of powers of Court to protect charitable property

- (1) If the Court, in charitable trust proceedings, is satisfied that:
- (a) there has been any misconduct or mismanagement in the administration of a charitable trust, and
 - (b) it is necessary or desirable to act for the purpose of protecting existing or future trust property or securing a proper application, for the purpose of the charitable trust, of existing or future trust property, the Court may, without limiting any other powers of the Court, make one or more of the orders specified in subsection (2).

(2) The orders which may be made by the Court are as follows:

- (a) an order removing any or all trustees of the charitable trust,
- (b) an order appointing a person as a trustee of the charitable trust,
- (c) an order precluding the employment or engagement of a person in the affairs of the charitable trust,
- (d) an order directing any bank or person who holds property of the charitable trust not to part with the property without the approval of the Court or the Attorney General (or a person authorised by the Attorney General) or of some other person,
- (e) an order restricting the transactions which may be entered into or the nature or amount of the payments which may be made, in the administration of the charitable trust, without the approval of the Court or the Attorney General (or a person authorised by the Attorney General) or of some other person,
- (f) an order appointing a receiver of the property of the charitable trust,
- (g) an order which is necessary or convenient to be made for giving effect to an order referred to in this subsection.

(3) A person appointed by order of the Court under this section as a receiver of the property of a charitable trust:

- (a) may require the trustees to deliver to the receiver any property of which the person has been appointed receiver or to give to the receiver all such information concerning that property as may reasonably be required, and
- (b) may acquire and take possession of any property of which the person has been appointed receiver, and
- (c) may deal with any property that the person has acquired or of which the person has taken possession in any manner in which the trustees might lawfully have dealt with the property, and
- (d) has such other powers and duties in respect of the property as the Court specifies in the order.

(4) Nothing in the terms of any charitable trust precludes the Court from making any order it is empowered by this section to make or affects the operation of any such order.

- (5) In this section and section 8, misconduct or mismanagement includes the remuneration of persons acting in the affairs of the charitable trust concerned, or for other administrative purposes, by payments which are excessive in relation to the duties of the persons so acting.

8 Provisions relating to removal of trustees etc

Without limiting the powers of the Court, the Court may, under section 7, remove a trustee of a charitable trust:

- (a) if the trustee has been responsible for or participated in misconduct or mismanagement in the administration of the charitable trust or has by the trustee's conduct contributed to it or facilitated it, or
- (b) if the trustee has been convicted, whether in New South Wales or elsewhere, of any offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or

- (d) if the trustee has become bankrupt, has applied to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, has compounded with his or her creditors or has made an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
- (e) if the trustee is a corporation:
 - (i) which is in the course of being wound up, or
 - (ii) which is under official management, or
 - (iii) in respect of which a receiver or manager has been appointed, whether by the Court or pursuant to the powers contained in any instrument or otherwise, or
 - (iv) which has entered into a compromise or scheme of arrangement with its creditors, or

- (1) The circumstances in which the original purposes of a charitable trust can be altered to allow the trust property or any part of it to be applied cy pres include circumstances in which the original purposes, wholly or in part, have since they were laid down ceased to provide a suitable and effective method of using the trust property, having regard to the spirit of the trust.

by the instrument (if any) creating the trust or by law, the necessary power for such a sale, mortgage or lease.

- (3) If there are no trustees of a charitable trust, a scheme under this Part may appoint trustees for the purposes of the scheme.
