Senators' Elections Act 1903 No 9

New South Wales

An Act to provide for certain matters relating to the election of Senators for New South Wales; and for other purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Senators' Elections Act 1903.

2 (Repealed)

3 Power to fix dates for election and place of nomination

For the purpose of elections of Senators for New South Wales of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, the Governor may, from time to time, by order published in the Gazette, fix the dates for:

- the issue of the writ,
- the close of the electoral rolls,
- the nomination of the candidates,
- the polling, and
- the return of the writ.

4 (Repealed)

4A Date of nomination

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the date fixed for the nomination of the candidates shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 27 days after the date of the writ.
- (2) Where a candidate for an election dies, after being nominated and before 12 o'clock noon on the day fixed as the date of nomination for the election, the day fixed as the date of nomination for the election shall, except for the purposes of section 4B, be taken to be the day next succeeding the day so fixed.

4B Date of polling

The date fixed for the polling shall not be less than 23 days nor more than 31 days after the date of nomination.

4C Polling to be on a Saturday

The day fixed for the polling shall be a Saturday.

4D Date of return of writ

The date fixed for the return of the writ shall not be more than 100 days after the issue of the writ.

5 Writs

(1) The writ shall specify the date for:

- (a) the close of the electoral rolls,
- (b) the nomination,
- (c) the polling, and
- (d) the return of the writ.

(2) The writ shall be deemed to have been issued at the hour of 6 o'clock in the afternoon of the day on which the writ was issued.

6 Time for nomination

Nomination may be made at any time after the issue of the writ but before twelve o'clock noon on the day of nomination.

7 Polling places

The polling shall be taken at all polling places within the State appointed under the law of the Commonwealth for the time being in force for the regulation of Parliamentary elections.

8 Hours of polling

The poll shall be open at 8 o'clock in the morning, and shall not close until all electors in the polling booth at 6 o'clock in the afternoon and desiring to vote have voted.

9 Power to extend time and make provision to meet difficulties

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, before or after the day appointed for the polling the Governor may, by notice published in the Gazette, provide for extending the time for holding the election or for returning the writ, or meeting any difficulty which might otherwise interfere with the due course of the election; and any provision so made shall be valid and sufficient and any date provided for in lieu of a date specified by the writ shall be deemed to be the date so specified.

(2) (Repealed)

10 Place of nomination

The office of the Australian Electoral Officer for the State shall be the place of nomination for the election.
