6 Provision of financial assistance

The Minister may provide financial assistance to a person in the non-government sector to whom disability services assets are transferred for the purposes of the authorised implementation.

Part 2 Facilitating the authorised implementation

7 Minister's functions

- (2) The functions conferred by this section are in addition to any other functions that a disability services agency or an implementation company has apart from this section and those other functions do not prevent or otherwise limit the exercise of the additional functions conferred by this section.
- (3) The Minister may act for or on behalf of a disability services agency or an implementation company in the exercise of any of its functions for the purposes of the authorised implementation while it is a public sector agency of the State.

- (3) An employee whose employment is transferred under this section is (until other provision is duly made under any Act or law) to be employed in accordance with any relevant statutory provisions, awards, agreements and determinations that would have applied to the employee had the employee remained a disability services employee.
- (4) The Minister may negotiate and enter into agreements or industrial instruments concerning workplace relations for or on behalf of a public sector agency of the State in connection with the operation of this section.

14 Transfers to non-government sector employment

- (1) The Minister may, for the purposes of the authorised implementation, enter into an agreement (a transfer agreement) with an employer in the non-government sector for the transfer of the employment of a disability services employee to the employment of that employer as the new employer of the employee.
- (2) The Minister may by order in writing transfer the employment of a disability services employee to the employment of the new employer to give effect to a transfer agreement.

- (3) A transfer of employment under this section does not require the consent of the person transferred.
- (4) A transfer agreement must contain provision to give effect to the following requirements—
  - (a) the employment of a transferred employee with the new employer is to be on the same terms and conditions as applied under an industrial instrument to the employee as a disability services employee immediately before the transfer of employment,
  - (b) in the case of a transferred employee who is an apprentice or trainee under the Apprenticeship and Traineeship Act 2001, the new employer must apply under section 20 of that Act for approval to the transfer of the apprenticeship or traineeship to the new employer,
  - (c) the provisions of section 15 apply in respect of the transferred employee.
- (5) A transfer agreement may specify an employment guarantee period for the transferred employee and if it does so must contain provision to give effect to the following requirements—

    - (i) for serious misconduct, or
    - (ii) pursuant to the proper application of reasonable disciplinary procedures, or
    - (iii) by agreement with the employee.
- (6) A transfer agreement may include provision with respect to any other matters concerning the terms and conditions of employment of the transferred employee.

15 Continuity of entitlements of transferred employees

- (1) On the transfer by order under this Part of an employee's employment from one employer (the current employer) to another employer (the new employer) the following provisions have effect—
  - (a) the employee is entitled to continue as a contributor, member or employee for the purposes of any superannuation scheme in respect of which he or she was a contributor, member or employee (as an employee of the current employer) immediately before the transfer of employment and remains so entitled subject to any variation to that entitlement made either by agreement or otherwise in accordance with law,

- (b) the new employer is taken to be an employer for the purposes of any superannuation scheme in respect of which the employee continues as a contributor, member or employee pursuant to an entitlement under this section,
  - (c) the continuity of the employee's contract of employment is taken not to have been broken by the transfer of employment, and service of the employee with the current employer (including service deemed to be service with the current employer) that is continuous service up to the time of transfer is taken for all purposes to be service with the new employer,
  - (d) the employee retains any rights to annual leave, sick leave, extended or long service leave accrued or accruing immediately before the transfer (except accrued leave for which the employee has, on ceasing to be an employee of the current employer, been paid the monetary value in pursuance of any other entitlement of the employee).
- (2) An employee is not entitled in respect of the same period of service to claim a benefit under this section and another law or instrument.
  - (3) The Minister may in connection with the transfer of an employee's employment under this Part give a certificate in writing as to the extent of the accrued rights to annual leave, sick leave, extended or long service leave that are retained by the employee under this section, and such a certificate is evidence of the matters certified.
  - (4) Nothing in the Long Service Leave Act 1955 prevents payment in connection with the transfer under this Part of the employment of a disability services employee to the employment of an employer in the non-government sector of the monetary value of long service leave in lieu of an entitlement to that leave accrued as a disability services employee before the transfer of the employee's employment.

16 Operation of other laws and entitlements

The following provisions apply in relation to the transfer of a person's employment under this Part—

- (a) the transfer has effect despite any other law, contract or instrument under a law,
- (b) the transfer does not constitute a retrenchment, redundancy or termination of employment at the initiative of the Crown or any other public sector agency,

Note—

For example, the transfer is not a termination for the purposes of clause 4 (Payment of accrued leave on termination of employment) of Schedule 3 to the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002.

- (c) the person transferred is not entitled to any payment or other benefit by reason only of having ceased to be an employee of a public sector agency as a result of the transfer,

- (6) A relevant authorisation granted to a disability services agency or to the new operator of disability services assets may not be suspended or cancelled on the ground of the conversion of the new operator to a company or on the ground of any change that has occurred in the officers or shareholders of the company as a result of that conversion or pursuant to an implementation arrangement.
