Part 2 Anti-slavery Commissioner

Division 1 Appointment of Commissioner

6 Appointment of Anti-slavery Commissioner

- (1) The Governor may appoint an Anti-slavery Commissioner.
- (2) The Commissioner holds office for the term, not exceeding 5 years, specified in the instrument of appointment, but is eligible for re-appointment.
- (3) A person is not eligible to be appointed for more than 2 terms of office as Commissioner, whether or not consecutive terms.
- (4) The office of Commissioner is a full-time office and the holder of the office is required to hold it on that basis, except to the extent permitted by the Minister.

6A Employment and remuneration

- (1) The employment of the Commissioner is, subject to this Act, to be governed by a contract of employment between the Commissioner and the Minister.
- (2) The following provisions of, or made under, the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service senior executives apply to the Commissioner, but in the application of those provisions a reference to the employer of a Public Service senior executive is to be read as a reference to the Minister—
 - (a) provisions relating to the band in which an executive is to be employed,
 - (b) provisions relating to the contract of employment of an executive,
 - (c) provisions relating to the remuneration, employment benefits and allowances of an executive.
- (3) The office of Commissioner is a statutory office and the provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to that office, except as provided by this section.

6B Vacancy in office

- (1) The office of Commissioner becomes vacant if the Commissioner—

- (a) dies, or
 - (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed, or
 - (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister, or
 - (d) is removed from office by the Governor under section 6C, or
 - (e) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with the Commissioner's creditors or makes an assignment of the Commissioner's remuneration for their benefit, or
 - (f) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
 - (g) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable, or
 - (h) is imprisoned in respect of a conviction for an offence punishable in New South Wales by imprisonment or for an offence committed elsewhere than in New South Wales that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.
- (2) If the office of Commissioner becomes vacant, a person is, subject to this Act, to be appointed to fill the vacancy.

6C Removal from office

- (1) The Governor may remove the Commissioner from office, but only for incompetence, incapacity or misbehaviour.
- (2) The Commissioner cannot be removed from office under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013, Part 6.

6D Acting Commissioner

- (1) The Minister may appoint a person to act as the Commissioner during the illness or absence of the Commissioner or during a vacancy in the office of Commissioner.
- (2) A person, while acting as Commissioner, has and may exercise the functions of the Commissioner and is taken to be the Commissioner.
- (3) The Minister may, at any time, remove a person from office as acting Commissioner.
- (4) An acting Commissioner is entitled to be paid the remuneration, including travelling and subsistence allowances, that the Minister may from time to time determine.
- (5) A person must not be appointed to act as the Commissioner for a period that exceeds 6 months or that in total exceeds 6 months in any 12-month period.

7 Independence of Commissioner

The Commissioner is not subject to the control and direction of the Minister in respect of the exercise of the Commissioner's functions under this Act.

8 Staff of Commissioner

- (1) Persons may be employed in the Public Service under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 to enable the Commissioner to exercise the Commissioner's functions.
- (2) The Commissioner may arrange for the use of the services of any staff or facilities of a government agency and may, with the approval of the Minister, engage such consultants or contractors as are necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Division 2 Functions of Commissioner

9 General functions of Commissioner

- (1) The functions of the Commissioner are as follows—
 - (a) to advocate for and promote action to combat modern slavery,
 - (b) to identify and provide assistance and support for victims of modern slavery,
 - (c) to make recommendations and provide information, advice, education and training about action to prevent, detect, investigate and prosecute offences involving modern slavery,
 - (d) to co-operate with or work jointly with persons and organisations to combat modern slavery and provide assistance and support to victims of modern slavery,
 - (e) to monitor reporting concerning risks of modern slavery occurring in supply chains of government agencies,
 - (f) to monitor the effectiveness of legislation and governmental policies and action in combating modern slavery,
 - (g) to raise community awareness of modern slavery,
 - (h) to exercise such other functions as are conferred or imposed on the Commissioner by or under this or any other Act.
- (2) In exercising the Commissioner's functions, the Commissioner must encourage good practice in—
 - (a) the prevention, detection, investigation and prosecution of modern slavery, and
 - (b) the identification of victims of modern slavery.

- (3) Unless the contrary intention appears, the Commissioner's functions may be exercised with respect to any government agency, person, matter or thing (whether or not they are in or of, or for, the State), so long as the function is exercised in relation to a matter to which this section relates.

10 Restriction on exercise of functions

- (1) The Commissioner does not generally have the function of investigating or dealing directly with the complaints or concerns of individual cases but may take them into account and draw conclusions about them solely for the purpose of, or in the context of, considering a general issue.
- (2) The Commissioner may, despite subsection (1), provide individuals and their families, friends and advocates with information about and referral to government and non-government programs and services.

11 Strategic plan

- (1) In this section—

strategic plan means a plan setting out how the Commissioner proposes to exercise the Commissioner's functions in the period to which the plan relates.

- (2) The Commissioner must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Commissioner's appointment, prepare a strategic plan.
- (3) The strategic plan is to be prepared in consultation with the Minister.
- (4) A strategic plan must—
 - (a) state the period (not being less than one year or more than 3 years) to which it relates, and
 - (b) outline the Commissioner's key objectives and priorities for that period.
- (5) In particular, and without limiting subsection (4) (b), the plan must address the following—
 - (a) a strategy to combat human trafficking in accordance with the National Action Plan to Combat Modern Slavery 2020-25 launched by the Assistant Minister for Customs, Community Safety and Multicultural Affairs on 9 December 2020,
 - (b) strategies for raising public awareness about modern slavery and providing education and training about combating modern slavery.
- (6) A new strategic plan may be made in accordance with this section to replace an earlier strategic plan.
- (7) The Commissioner is to cause a copy of the strategic plan (and any replacement strategic plan) to be published on a publicly accessible website.

12 Commissioner's public awareness and advice functions generally

The Commissioner is—

- (a) to promote public awareness of modern slavery and its effects on its victims, and
- (b) to provide advice, education and training on ways to prevent modern slavery taking place and assist the victims of modern slavery, and
- (c) to encourage reporting of instances of suspected modern slavery to appropriate authorities (including without limitation reporting by sex workers and bodies or organisations representing sex workers), and
- (d) to establish and maintain a hotline (or utilise a hotline maintained by another person or body) for provision of advice and assistance to children and other persons who are, or may be, victims of modern slavery.

13 Referral of matters to police and other agencies in the State and elsewhere

- (1) This section applies to any information obtained by the Commissioner in the course of exercising the Commissioner's functions, being reports or other information relating to modern slavery or suspected instances of modern slavery.
- (2) The Commissioner may refer any such information to the Commissioner of Police, the Ombudsman, the Secretary of the Department of Communities and Justice or any other investigative or government agency (whether or not they are in or of the State) that the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (3) In exercising the Commissioner's functions, the Commissioner may work in co-operation with educational institutions, bodies and organisations representing the interests of any industry and such other persons, bodies and organisations as the Commissioner thinks appropriate.
- (4) Information may be referred in accordance with this section despite the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 but only to the extent that it is relevant to the exercise of a function of the Commissioner under this Act.

14 Co-operation between the Commissioner and New South Wales agencies

- (1) Government agencies of the State and persons and bodies that provide services to, or advocate for, victims of modern slavery in the State must work in co-operation with the Commissioner in the exercise of the Commissioner's functions.
- (2) The duty to co-operate includes the following duties—
 - (a) the duty to disclose information that is likely to be of assistance to the Commissioner or an agency in the exercise of functions imposed on the Commissioner or agency with respect to modern slavery and victims of modern slavery,

- (b) the duty to provide reasonable assistance and support to the Commissioner or an agency in connection with the exercise by the Commissioner or an agency of functions with respect to modern slavery and victims of modern slavery.
- (3) Arrangements may be made by the Minister with the Minister to whom a government agency is responsible to secure such co-operation, including in connection with the provision by the agency of information (or access to documents) required by the Commissioner in relation to services or issues affecting the victims.
- (4) A reference in this section to the provision of access to documents includes a reference to the provision of copies of documents.
- (5) Information must be provided in accordance with this section despite the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 but only to the extent that it is relevant to the exercise of a function of the Commissioner under this Act.

15 Co-operation with other persons and organisations

- (1) In exercising the Commissioner's functions, the Commissioner may work in co-operation with the persons and organisations that the Commissioner thinks appropriate.
- (2) The Commissioner may consult with, and disseminate information to, the persons and organisations that the Commissioner thinks appropriate.

16 Personal liability—co-operation with Commissioner

- (1) No criminal or civil liability, apart from under this Act, attaches to a person for the following—
 - (a) compliance, or purported compliance in good faith, with a requirement made under this Act,
 - (b) providing information to the Commissioner.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), if a person provides information, a document or other thing to the Commissioner, no civil liability attaches to the person for doing so, whether the liability would arise under a contract or otherwise.
- (3) If information, a document or other thing is provided to the Commissioner, no liability for defamation or other civil liability is incurred because of the provision of the information, document or thing.

16A Personal liability—Commissioner and others

- (1) A matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the Commissioner or a person acting under the direction of the Commissioner does not, if the matter or thing was done or omitted to be done in good faith for the purpose of exercising a function under this Act or under another law, subject the Commissioner or person so acting personally to an action, liability, claim or demand.
- (2) However, the liability attaches instead to the Crown.

17 Incidental powers

The Commissioner has power to do all things necessary to be done for or in connection with, or reasonably incidental to, the exercise of the Commissioner's functions. Any specific powers conferred on the Commissioner by this Act are not taken to limit by implication the generality of this section.

18 Delegation

The Commissioner may delegate any of the Commissioner's functions (other than this power of delegation) to a member of the staff of the Commissioner or to a person of a class prescribed by the regulations.

Division 3 Reports by Commissioner

19 Annual and other reports to Parliament

- (1) The Commissioner is required to prepare, within the period of 4 months after 30 June in each year, a report of the Commissioner's operations during the year ended on that 30 June and furnish the report to the Minister. The report is to be furnished to the Presiding Officer of each House of Parliament within 14 sitting days after it is given to the Minister.
- (2) A report by the Commissioner under this section must include the following—
 - (a) a description of the Commissioner's activities during that year in relation to each of the Commissioner's functions,
 - (b) a review of progress on implementation of the strategic plan relevant to the period to which the report relates,
 - (c) an evaluation of the response of relevant government agencies to the recommendations of the Commissioner,
 - (d) any recommendations for changes in the laws of the State, or for administrative action, that the Commissioner considers should be made as a result of the exercise of the Commissioner's functions.
- (3) In particular, and without limiting subsection (2) (c), the report is to include a review of the following—

- (a) the extent to which the government of NSW has provided mandatory training on modern slavery to front-line government agencies and the public generally during the year,
 - (b) the extent to which the government of NSW has implemented changes in the information and communications technology use policies applicable to government agencies to prohibit the viewing of child abuse material and provided clear guidelines for responding to failures to comply with those policies during the year,
 - (c) action by the Department of Communities and Justice during the year to develop a system of support (including provision of accommodation) for victims of forced under-age marriage, irrespective of whether any offence against the victim has been prosecuted.
- (4) The Commissioner may, at any time, make a report on any particular issue or general matter relating to the Commissioner's functions and furnish the report to the Minister who is to furnish the report to the Presiding Officer of each House of Parliament.
- (5) The Commissioner is to make a special report to the Minister on any particular issue or general matter requested by the Minister. The special report may be furnished by the Minister to the Presiding Officer of each House of Parliament.

20 Reports under Children and Young Persons \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998 and Crimes Act 1900

- (1) Information obtained by the Commissioner while exercising the Commissioner's functions may be used for the following purposes—
- (a) making a report to the Secretary of the Department of Communities and Justice under the Children and Young Persons \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998, section 24,
 - (b) bringing information to the attention of a member of the NSW Police Force that might be of material assistance in securing the apprehension of an offender, or the prosecution or conviction of an offender, for a child abuse offence within the meaning of the Crimes Act 1900, section 316A.
- (2) The Commissioner must use the information for those purposes if the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child or young person, or a class of children or young persons, is at risk of significant harm.

Division 4 Modern Slavery Committee

21 Constitution of Committee

- (1) On the commencement of this Division and as soon as practicable after the commencement of the first session of each Parliament, a joint committee of members of Parliament, to be known as the Modern Slavery Committee, is to be appointed.

- (2) The Modern Slavery Committee has the functions conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act.

22 Functions of Committee

- (1) The Modern Slavery Committee has the following functions under this Act—
 - (a) to inquire into and report on matters relating to modern slavery,
 - (b) to report to both Houses of Parliament on matters relating to modern slavery.
- (2) Nothing in this Division authorises the Modern Slavery Committee to investigate a matter relating to particular conduct.
- (3) The Commissioner may, as soon as practicable after a report of the Modern Slavery Committee has been tabled in a House of Parliament, make and furnish to the Presiding Officer of that House a report in response to the report of the Committee.

23 Membership of Committee

- (1) The Modern Slavery Committee is to consist of 8 members, of whom—
 - (a) 4 are to be members of, and appointed by, the Legislative Council, and
 - (b) 4 are to be members of, and appointed by, the Legislative Assembly.
- (2) The appointment of members of the Committee is, as far as practicable, to be in accordance with the practice of Parliament with respect to the appointment of members to serve on joint committees of both Houses of Parliament.
- (3) A person is not eligible for appointment as a member of the Modern Slavery Committee if the person is a Minister of the Crown or a Parliamentary Secretary.
- (4) Schedule 1 contains provisions relating to the Modern Slavery Committee.

Part 3 Supply chains

24 (Repealed)

25 Government agency procurement

The Commissioner must regularly consult with the Auditor-General and the NSW Procurement Board to monitor the effectiveness of due diligence procedures in place to ensure that goods and services procured by government agencies are not the product of modern slavery.

25A State owned corporations must make voluntary modern slavery statements if not already required

- (1) This section applies to a State owned corporation that is not a reporting entity within the meaning of the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth.

Note—

See the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth, section 5 for the meaning of “reporting entity” under that Act.

- (2) A State owned corporation to which this section applies must volunteer to comply with the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth, as referred to in that Act, section 6, if it is eligible to do so.

Note—

A corporation that volunteers under the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth, section 6 is a reporting entity for the purposes of that Act.

- (3) A State owned corporation that has volunteered under subsection (2) must not revoke a notice given under the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth, section 6.

25B State owned corporations must publish Commonwealth modern slavery statements

As soon as is practicable after giving the Minister, within the meaning of the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth, a modern slavery statement under that Act, a State owned corporation must—

- (a) publish a copy of the modern slavery statement on a publicly accessible website kept by the corporation, and
- (b) give the Commissioner written notice that the statement has been published.

26 Public register

- (1) The Commissioner is to keep a register in electronic form that—

(a), (b) (Repealed)

(c) identifies any government agency failing to comply with directions of the NSW Procurement Board under section 175 of the Public Works and Procurement Act 1912 concerning procurement (within the meaning of Part 11 of that Act) of goods and services that are the product of modern slavery and whether the government agency has taken steps to ensure compliance in the future, and

(c1) identifies any State owned corporation that has failed to provide the Minister, within the meaning of the Modern Slavery Act 2018 of the Commonwealth, with a modern slavery statement for a reporting period under that Act, and

(d) includes other information the Commissioner thinks appropriate, and

(e) includes other information required by the regulations to be recorded on the register.

- (2) The Commissioner is to make the register publicly available free of charge.
- (3) The regulations may—
 - (a) require government agencies to give specified information to the Commissioner for inclusion on the register, and
 - (b) specify the way the information is to be given to the Commissioner.

27 Codes of practice

- (1) The Commissioner may develop, and make publicly available, codes of practice for the purpose of providing guidance in identifying modern slavery taking place within the supply chains of organisations and steps that can be taken to remediate or monitor identified risks.
- (2) A code of practice may refer to or incorporate, with or without modification, a standard or other document prepared or published by a body specified in the code, as in force at a particular time or from time to time.

28 Commissioner's public awareness and advice functions—supply chains

- (1) The Commissioner may promote public awareness of and provide advice on steps that can be taken by organisations to remediate or monitor risks of modern slavery taking place in their supply chains, including encouraging organisations to develop their capacity to avoid such risks.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commissioner may make information available to organisations and other persons about matters to consider in relation to employing persons to work in supply chains.

Part 4

29 (Repealed)

Part 5 Miscellaneous

30 Act to bind Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of New South Wales and, in so far as the legislative power of the Parliament of New South Wales permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

31 Annual reports

- (1) The annual reporting information for a GSF agency under the Government Sector Finance Act 2018 is to include the following matters—
 - (a) a statement of the action taken by the agency in relation to any issue raised by the Anti-slavery Commissioner during the financial year then ended concerning the operations of the agency and identified by the Commissioner as being a significant issue,

(b) a statement of steps taken to ensure that goods and services procured by and for the agency during the financial year then ended were not the product of modern slavery within the meaning of the Modern Slavery Act 2018.

(2) This section commences on the commencement of Part 7.3 of the Government Sector Finance Act 2018.

32 Expenditure under this Act

Any expenditure incurred in the administration or execution of this Act by the State is to be paid out of money to be provided by Parliament.

33 Nature of proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence under this Act or the regulations may be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.

34 Regulations

(1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) The regulations may create an offence punishable by a penalty not exceeding 50 penalty units.

35 Commissioner of Police to provide certain information

(1) The Commissioner of Police is, on request or in accordance with arrangements with the Commissioner, to provide the Commissioner with information regarding modern slavery and victims of modern slavery.

(2) The Commissioner is not to disclose information provided under this section except with the written consent of the Commissioner of Police.

(3) The Commissioner of Police is not required to provide information under this section if the Commissioner of Police reasonably believes that to do so would—

(a) prejudice the investigation of a contravention, or possible contravention, of a law in a particular case, or

(b) prejudice a coronial inquest or inquiry, or

(c) prejudice care proceedings, or

- (d) contravene legal professional or client legal privilege, or
 - (e) enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information in relation to the enforcement or administration of a law to be ascertained, or
 - (f) endanger a person's life or physical safety, or
 - (g) prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention, or possible contravention, of a law, or
 - (h) not be in the public interest.
- (4) If the Commissioner of Police refuses to provide information in accordance with a request or arrangements under this section, the Commissioner of Police must, at the time the Commissioner of Police notifies the Commissioner of the refusal, provide the Commissioner with reasons in writing for the refusal.

36 Review of Act

- (1) The Modern Slavery Committee—
- (a) is to review this Act to determine whether the policy objectives of the Act remain valid and whether the terms of the Act remain appropriate for securing the objectives, and
 - (b) while undertaking the review, may investigate any other related matter the Committee considers appropriate.
- (2) The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 12 months from the commencement of this Act.
- (3) A report on the outcome of the review and related investigations is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 24 months from the commencement of this Act.

Schedule 1 Modern Slavery Committee

(Section 23 (4))

1 Definition

In this Schedule, Committee means the Modern Slavery Committee.

2 Vacancies

- (1) A member of the Committee ceases to hold office—

- (e) if, being a member of the Legislative Assembly, the member resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, or
- (f) if the member is discharged from office by the House of Parliament to which the member belongs.

(2) Either House of Parliament may appoint one of its members to fill a vacancy among the members of the Committee appointed by that House.

3 Chair and Deputy Chair

- (1) There is to be a Chair and a Deputy Chair of the Committee, who are to be elected by and (subject to subclause (2)) from the members of the Committee.
- (2) The Chair must not be a member of a party that has been elected to Government.
- (3) A member of the Committee ceases to hold office as Chair or Deputy Chair of the Committee if—
 - (a) the member ceases to be a member of the Committee, or
 - (b) the member resigns the office by instrument in writing presented to a meeting of the Committee, or
 - (c) the member is discharged from office by the Committee.
- (4) At any time when the Chair is absent from New South Wales or is, for any reason, unable to perform the duties of Chair or there is a vacancy in that office, the Deputy Chair may exercise the functions of the Chair under this Act or under the Parliamentary Evidence Act 1901.

4 Procedure

- (1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Committee and for the conduct of business at those meetings is, subject to this Act, to be as determined by the Committee.
- (2) The Clerk of the Parliaments is to call the first meeting of the Committee, and the first meeting of the Committee in each Parliament, in such manner as the Clerk thinks fit.
- (3) At a meeting of the Committee, 4 members constitute a quorum, but the Committee must meet as a joint committee at all times.

- (4) The Chair or, in the absence of the Chair, the Deputy Chair (or, in the absence of both the Chair and the Deputy Chair, a member of the Committee elected to chair the meeting by the members present) is to preside at a meeting of the Committee.
- (5) The Deputy Chair or other member presiding at a meeting of the Committee has, in relation to the meeting, all the functions of the Chair.
- (6) The Chair, Deputy Chair or other member presiding at a meeting of the Committee has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, also has a casting vote.
- (7) A question arising at a meeting of the Committee is to be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.
- (8) The Committee may sit and transact business despite any prorogation of the Houses of Parliament or any adjournment of either House of Parliament.
- (9) The Committee may sit and transact business on a sitting day of a House of Parliament during the time of sitting.
- (10) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the practice and procedure of the Committee is to be in accordance with the Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Council regulating the committees of the House.

5 Reporting when Parliament not in session

- (1) If a House of Parliament is not sitting when the Committee seeks to furnish a report to it, the Committee may present copies of the report to the Clerk of the House.
- (2) The report—
 - (a) on presentation and for all purposes is taken to have been laid before the House, and
 - (b) may be printed by authority of the Clerk, and
 - (c) if printed by authority of the Clerk, is for all purposes taken to be a document published by or under the authority of the House, and
 - (d) is to be recorded in the Minutes, or Votes and Proceedings, of the House on the first sitting day of the House after receipt of the report by the Clerk.

6 Evidence

- (1) The Committee has power to send for persons, papers and records.
- (2) Subject to clause 7, the Committee must take all evidence in public.
- (3) If the Committee as constituted at any time has taken evidence in relation to a matter but the Committee as so constituted has ceased to exist before reporting on the matter, the Committee as constituted at any subsequent time, whether during the same or another Parliament, may consider that evidence as if it had taken the evidence.

- (4) The production of documents to the Committee is to be in accordance with the practice of the Legislative Council with respect to the production of documents to committees of the Legislative Council.

7 Confidentiality

- (1) If any evidence proposed to be given before, or the whole or a part of a document produced or proposed to be produced to, the Committee relates to a secret or confidential matter, the Committee may, and at the request of the witness giving the evidence or the person producing the document must—
- (a) take the evidence in private, or
 - (b) direct that the document, or the part of the document, be treated as confidential.
- (2) If a direction under subclause (1) applies to a document or part of a document produced to the Committee—
- (a) the contents of the document or part are, for the purposes of this clause, to be regarded as evidence given by the person producing the document or part and taken by the Committee in private, and
 - (b) the person producing the document or part is, for the purposes of this clause, to be regarded as a witness.
- (3) If, at the request of a witness, evidence is taken by the Committee in private—
- (a) the Committee must not, without the consent in writing of the witness, and
 - (b) a person (including a member of the Committee) must not, without the consent in writing of the witness and the authority of the Committee under subclause (5), disclose or publish the whole or a part of that evidence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

- (4) If evidence is taken by the Committee in private otherwise than at the request of a witness, a person (including a member of the Committee) must not, without the authority of the Committee under subclause (5), disclose or publish the whole or part of that evidence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

- (5) The Committee may, in its discretion, disclose or publish or, by writing under the hand of the Chair, authorise the disclosure or publication of evidence taken in private by the Committee, but this subclause does not operate so as to affect the necessity for the consent of a witness under subclause (3).

(6) Nothing in this clause prohibits—

(a) the disclosure or publication of evidence that has already been lawfully published, or

(b) the disclosure or publication by a person of a matter of which the person has become aware otherwise than by reason, directly or indirectly, of the giving of evidence before the Committee.

(7) This clause has effect despite section 4 of the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975.

(8) If evidence taken by the Committee in private is disclosed or published in accordance with this clause, sections 5 and 6 of the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975 apply to and in relation to the disclosure or publication as if it were a publication of that evidence under the authority of section 4 of that Act.

Note—

The Defamation Act 2005 makes provision for 2 defences in respect of the publication of defamatory matter that is contained in evidence taken by, or documents produced to, the Committee in private, but only if the evidence or documents have been disclosed or published in accordance with this clause.

Section 28 of the Defamation Act 2005 (when read with clause 8 of Schedule 2 to that Act) ensures that such documents attract the defence relating to public documents in defamation proceedings.

Section 29 of the Defamation Act 2005 (when read with clause 17 of Schedule 3 to that Act) ensures that proceedings in which such evidence is taken or documents produced attract the defences relating to fair reports of proceedings of public concern in defamation proceedings.

8 Application of certain Acts

For the purposes of the Parliamentary Evidence Act 1901 and the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975 and for any other purposes—

(a) the Committee is to be regarded as a joint committee of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, and

(b) the proposal for the appointment of the Committee is to be regarded as having originated in the Legislative Council.

9 Validity of certain acts or proceedings

Any act or proceeding of the Committee is, even though at the time when the act or proceeding was done, taken or commenced there was—

(a) a vacancy in the office of a member of the Committee, or

(b) any defect in the appointment, or any disqualification, of a member of the Committee, as valid as if the vacancy, defect or disqualification did not exist and the Committee were fully and properly constituted.
