I am aware that as a law enforcement or investigating officer investigating an alleged indictable or summary offence I have a duty, under section 15A of the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1986, to disclose to the Director of Public Prosecutions (the DPP) all relevant material if the DPP is involved in the prosecution of the offence.

I understand relevant material to be all relevant information, documents or other things obtained during the investigation that might reasonably be expected to assist the case for the prosecution or the case for the accused person.

I am aware that my duty to disclose continues until the DPP decides that the accused person will not be prosecuted for the alleged offence(s), the accused person is found guilty or acquitted, or the prosecution is terminated.

I am aware that my duty to disclose as outlined above is subject to claims of privilege, public interest immunity or statutory immunity. I am aware that if I am a police officer, or an officer of the NSW Crime Commission, the Law Enforcement Conduct Commission or the Independent Commission Against Corruption, these kinds of claims are to be directed as follows—
