(5) A person referred to in subclause (1) who is not qualified for additional death benefits and additional disablement benefits (within the meaning of Part 3B of the earlier Act) may, before becoming a contributor, make an application under section 12 of the Act (additional benefit) but, subject to that section, nothing prevents a person so referred to from making such an application after becoming a contributor.

7 Employees with 30 years' service entitled to death and disability cover

Where a transferred contributor whose entry date was at least 30 years before 1 July 1985 makes an application under section 12 of the Act (additional benefit) not later than on 30 June 1988, the Board shall approve the application without requiring the contributor to submit to a medical examination.

8 Applicable salary for former contributors to Provident Fund

Where a person is a contributor to the Provident Fund when he or she becomes a transferred contributor and the contributions to the Provident Fund were calculated as a percentage of the person's salary, the person's contributions to the Fund during the superannuation year that commences on 1 April following that person's transfer shall be based on the salary paid to the person by his or her employer at the rate applicable as at 31 December last preceding the commencement of that superannuation year.

9 Cessation of application of the earlier Act

Where a person is a contributor to the Provident Fund or the Benefits Fund when he or she becomes a transferred contributor:

(a) the person ceases to be a contributor to the Provident Fund or the Benefits Fund, as the case requires, and

(b) a benefit under the earlier Act is not payable to or in relation to that person.

10 Benefit points to be credited

(1) The number of transferred benefit points for a transferred contributor is the number determined by the Board, having regard to the information available to it, as the number of transferred benefit points that the transferred contributor has accrued in accordance with Schedule 1.

- (2) The Board may round off the number of a contributor's accrued transferred benefit points to one or more decimal places, as it thinks fit.

11 Benefit to be adjusted in certain circumstances

- (1) Where:

(a) a gratuity is payable under section 97 of the Local Government Act 1919 to a transferred contributor, and

(b) the transferred contributor becomes entitled under the Act to payment of a benefit that includes an employer-financed benefit, the amount of the employer-financed benefit shall, if necessary, be reduced to the extent that will ensure that the total of the gratuity and the employer-financed benefit does not exceed the maximum employer-financed benefit.

- (2) In subclause (1):

maximum employer-financed benefit, in relation to a transferred contributor, means the employer-financed benefit that would have been payable to the transferred contributor if it had been based on the maximum benefit points for the contributor.

12 Guarantee

- (1) This clause applies to a person who is a contributor to the Benefits Fund when he or she becomes a transferred contributor and who:

(a) was qualified for additional death benefits and additional disablement benefits (within the meaning of Part 3B of the earlier Act), or

(b) if not so qualified, is subsequently accepted for additional benefit cover pursuant to section 12 of the Act.

- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Regulation, where:

(a) a benefit under the Act becomes payable to, or in relation to, a person to whom this clause applies, and

(b) in the opinion of the Board, a greater benefit would have been payable under section 15BN (4), 15BUC (3) or 15BUF (2) of the earlier Act if the person had not become a transferred contributor and those sections had applied to or in respect of the person, the Board shall, instead of paying the benefit that became payable under the provisions of the Act, pay the same benefit as that which would have been payable under section 15BN (4), 15BUC (3) or 15BUF (2) of the earlier Act.

- (3) Whenever the Board pays a benefit pursuant to subclause (2), the Board shall debit to the appropriate employer reserve established in the Fund under section 9 of the Act (certain accounts and reserves to be established) the difference between the amount of the benefit so paid and the amount that, but for subclause (2), would have been paid under the Act.

13 Transfer of former contributors under earlier Act

- (1) In this clause:

exit date, in relation to a former employee, means the day on which the former employee ceased employment with an employer, that cessation of employment being:

- (a) the only such cessation of employment of the former employee, or
- (b) where there was more than one such cessation of employment of the former employee—the later or latest of those cessations of employment, or, if the former employee attained the age of 65 years before any such cessation of employment, the day on which the former employee attained that age.

former employee means a person who, immediately before 1 July 1985, was the holder of a current insurance policy or was a contributor to the Provident Fund or the Benefits Fund and:

- (a) who ceased to be such a holder or contributor before the commencement of this Regulation, or
- (b) who, having made a valid election in accordance with clause 4, 5 or 6 before 1 January 1987, ceased to be such a holder or contributor before the election took or takes effect.

- (2) This clause does not apply to any former employee who was the holder of a current insurance policy or was a contributor to the Provident Fund or the Benefits Fund and who resigned from his or her employment if, in the opinion of the Board, the former employee will be paid, or has been paid, a supplementary benefit:

- (a) specified under an industrial award or agreement, or
- (b) at the discretion of the former employee's employer.

- (3) A former employee shall be deemed to have made an election under section 11 of the Act (election to contribute to the Fund) which took effect on the day immediately preceding his or her exit date and, with respect to such an election, section 11 of the Act shall be construed as if subsections (2) and (3) of that section had not been enacted.

- (4) A former employee is not entitled to apply for or be granted additional benefit cover under section 12 of the Act (additional benefit).
- (5) Where, by virtue of subclause (3), a former employee is deemed to have become a contributor, the Board shall calculate the benefit that would have been payable to that former employee under the provisions of the Act.
- (6) For the purposes of calculating the benefit referred to in subclause (5) in relation to a former employee:
 - (a) the number of accrued benefit points used in that calculation is the number of transferred benefit points which would have applied to the former employee if the former employee had been a transferred contributor,
 - (b) the contributor-financed benefit is the amount that would have been credited to the contributor's account if the former employee had become a transferred contributor on the day immediately preceding his or her exit date, and
 - (c) where the benefit is to be calculated according to section 30 (2) of the Act, the term Y in that section shall be construed as if it had the same meaning as the term A in that section.
- (7) Where the benefit calculated in accordance with subclause (5) exceeds the total amount of benefit that was payable or was paid under the provisions of the earlier Act, the difference shall be paid as a supplementary benefit.
- (8) The supplementary benefit payable under subclause (7) shall be paid as a lump sum:
 - (a) subject to paragraphs (b) and (c)—to the former employee to whom the benefit calculated under the provisions of the earlier Act was paid,
 - (b) where that former employee has since died—to the spouse or personal representative of the former employee or in accordance with the provisions of section 58 of the Act (payment without grant of probate etc), or
 - (c) where that former employee is, in the opinion of the Board, incapable of administering his or her affairs by reason of illness, imprisonment or any other cause—in accordance with the provisions of section 62 of the Act (payment where beneficiary incapable).
- (9) Where the Board pays a supplementary benefit pursuant to subclause (7), the Board shall debit the amount of that benefit to the appropriate employer reserve established in the Fund under section 9 of the Act (certain accounts and reserves to be established).
- (10) Where the employment of a former employee ended by resignation or retrenchment after less than 10 years since the date on which the former employee last became subject to the provisions of the earlier Act, that former employee may, subject to section 55 of the Act (making of elections and applications), elect to take advantage of section 32 of the Act (preserved benefit) provided that the former employee repays to the Board, or makes arrangements satisfactory to the Board for the payment of:

- (a) the amount of any benefit paid or payable under the earlier Act,
- (b) the amount of the supplementary benefit, if any, paid or payable in accordance with subclause (7), and
- (c) interest on that amount or those amounts at a rate determined by the Board.

(11) Where a former employee to whom subclause (10) applies elects to take advantage of section 32 of the Act as provided by that subclause, the provisions of that section apply to that former employee in the same way as they apply to a contributor.

(12) Where a former employee who was a contributor to the Benefits Fund resigned or was dismissed, the amount referred to in section 15Y (1) (b) of the earlier Act shall, instead of being dealt with under that provision, be credited by the Board to the appropriate employer reserve established in the Fund under section 9 of the Act.

14 Transfers from Investment Reserves in Provident Fund and Benefits Fund

In relation to each transferred contributor, there shall be transferred to an Investment Reserve established in the Fund under section 9 of the Act such amount as is determined by the Board, having regard to the information available to it, as representing the transferred contributor's equity in the Investment Reserve of the Provident Fund or the Benefit Fund.
