Maximum penalty—imprisonment for 5 years.

- (2) Without limiting the operation of subsection (1), a person who is the holder of a licence is guilty of an offence under this section if the person—
 - (a) uses a firearm for any purpose otherwise than in connection with the purpose established by the person as being the genuine reason for possessing or using the firearm, or

(b) contravenes any condition of the licence.

Division 2 Licensing scheme

8 Licence categories and authority conferred by licence (cf 1989 Act s 21, APMC 1, 3, 4)

(1) The categories of licences, the firearms to which they apply, and the authority they confer, are as follows—

Category A licence

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- air rifles
- rimfire rifles (other than self-loading)
- shotguns (other than pump action, lever action or self-loading)
- shotgun/rimfire rifle combinations.

All prohibited firearms are excluded from this licence category.

Authority conferred by the licence:

The licensee is authorised to possess or use a registered firearm of the kind to which the licence applies, but only for the purpose established by the licensee as being the genuine reason for possessing or using the firearm.

Category B licence

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- muzzle-loading firearms (other than pistols)
- centre-fire rifles (other than self-loading)
- shotgun/centre-fire rifle combinations
- lever action shotguns with a magazine capacity of no more than 5 rounds.

All prohibited firearms are excluded from this licence category.

Authority conferred by the licence:

The licensee is authorised to possess or use a registered firearm of the kind to which the licence applies, but only for the purpose established by the licensee as being the genuine reason for possessing or using the firearm.

Category C licence (prohibited except for limited purposes)

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- self-loading rimfire rifles with a magazine capacity of no more than 10 rounds

- self-loading shotguns with a magazine capacity of no more than 5 rounds
- pump action shotguns with a magazine capacity of no more than 5 rounds.

Any firearm referred to in item 6, 10 or 11 of Schedule 1 is excluded from this licence category. The regulations may prescribe certain other firearms (whether being of a general class or whether described specifically) that are excluded from this licence category.

Authority conferred by the licence:

Authorises the licensee (and any employee of the licensee who is eligible to be issued with a licence and who is authorised by the Commissioner in writing, but only while carrying out duties in connection with the licensee's farming or grazing activities) to possess or use—

- (a) no more than one registered self-loading rimfire rifle with a magazine capacity of no more than 10 rounds that is specified in the licence, and
- (b) no more than one registered shotgun to which the licence applies that is specified in the licence, but only for the purpose established by the licensee as being the genuine reason for possessing or using the firearm and only on land used for primary production that is owned or occupied by the licensee or that immediately adjoins that land (provided the licensee has the written permission of the owner or occupier of that adjoining primary production land to possess or use the firearm on that land).

However, the number of firearms authorised under this licence category may be increased if a special need for more than one such rifle, or for more than one such shotgun, is established by the licensee to the satisfaction of the Commissioner (for example because of the size of the rural property concerned, or because the licensee is involved with more than one rural property).

Category D licence (prohibited except for official purposes)

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- self-loading centre-fire rifles
- self-loading rimfire rifles with a magazine capacity of more than 10 rounds
- self-loading shotguns with a magazine capacity of more than 5 rounds
- pump action shotguns with a magazine capacity of more than 5 rounds
- lever action shotguns with a magazine capacity of more than 5 rounds
- any firearm to which a category C licence applies.

Any firearm referred to in item 5, 6, 9 or 10 of Schedule 1 is excluded from this licence category. The regulations may prescribe certain other firearms (whether being of a general class or whether described specifically) that are excluded from this licence category.

Authority conferred by the licence:

The licensee is authorised to possess or use a registered firearm to which the licence applies, but only for the purpose established by the licensee as being the genuine reason for possessing or using the firearm.

However, in the case of a licensee who is a person referred to in paragraph (c) of the genuine reason of vertebrate pest animal control, the authority conferred by the licence is restricted as follows—

- (a) the licensee is authorised to possess or use no more than 3 registered firearms to which the licence applies,
- (b) the licensee is authorised to use a firearm to which the licence applies only on the rural property specified in the licence.

Category H licence (pistols)

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- pistols (including blank fire pistols and air pistols).

Prohibited firearms are excluded from this licence category.

Authority conferred by the licence:

The licensee is authorised to possess or use a registered pistol, but only for the purpose established by the licensee as being the genuine reason for having the licence.

In the case of a category H (sport/target shooting) licence, the licensee is authorised to possess or use a registered pistol only for the purposes of participating in competitive shooting activities that are approved by the Commissioner.

A category H (sport/target shooting) licence does not authorise the possession or use of a prohibited pistol.

Despite the provisions referred to above in relation to this licence category, a category H licence authorises the possession or use of an antique revolver within the meaning of section 6A. However, a category H (sport/target shooting) licence does not authorise the possession or use of any such antique revolver that is a prohibited pistol.

Firearms dealer licence

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- the kinds of firearms specified in the licence.

Authority conferred by the licence:

In the case of a firearms dealer other than a club armourer or a theatrical armourer, authorises the licensee and (subject to the conditions of the licence and the regulations)—

- (a) employees or directors of the corporation specified in the licence, or
- (b) employees of the partnership so specified, or
- (c) employees of the individual so specified, who are eligible to be issued with a licence and who are authorised in writing by the Commissioner, to possess, manufacture, convert, acquire, supply, repair, maintain or test, in the course of carrying on the business of a firearms dealer, and only at the premises specified in the licence, any firearm to which the licence applies, and to possess, manufacture, acquire or supply ammunition for those firearms.

In the case of a club armourer, authorises the licensee to possess, manufacture, convert, acquire, supply, repair, maintain or test in the licensee's capacity as a club armourer, and only at the premises specified in the licence, the firearms to which the licence applies, and to possess, manufacture, acquire or supply ammunition for those firearms.

The authority conferred by a firearms dealer licence issued to a club armourer is restricted to carrying out the person's duties as club armourer for the club concerned.

In the case of a theatrical armourer, authorises the licensee to possess, use, manufacture, convert, acquire, supply, repair, maintain or test firearms (and blank cartridges for those firearms) in the licensee's capacity as a theatrical armourer.

The authority conferred by a firearms dealer licence issued to a theatrical armourer extends to any employee of the licensee who is authorised in writing by the Commissioner.

Firearms collector licence

Firearms to which the licence applies:

- the kinds of firearms specified in the licence.

Except as otherwise provided by this Act, post-1946 pistols are excluded from this licence category.

Any prohibited firearm (other than those firearms to which a category C licence or category D licence applies) is excluded from this licence category.

Authority conferred by the licence:

The licensee is authorised to possess the firearms to which the licence applies for the purpose of a firearms collection.

- (2) The regulations may prescribe sub-categories in respect of category H licences and firearms dealer licences, and specify the authority conferred by each such sub-category.
- (3) The authority conferred by a licence is subject to this Act and the regulations.

9 Authority conferred by licence—additional matters (cf 1989 Act s 21 (2), APMC 1 (b), 3, 4)

- (1) A licence that authorises the licensee to have possession of a firearm also authorises the licensee to have possession of the firearm while—
 - (a) taking it to a licensed firearms dealer for the purpose of—
 - (i) selling it, or
 - (ii) having it converted, maintained, tested or repaired and subsequently recovering it from the dealer, and
 - (b) taking it to a police officer for the purpose of having it inspected and subsequently recovering it from a police officer, and
 - (c) taking it to a police officer for the purpose of surrendering it.
- (2) Subject to the regulations and except as provided by section 17A, a category C or category D licence does not authorise the possession or use of a prohibited firearm for the purposes of any shooting competition.
- (3) A firearms collector licence does not authorise the possession of ammunition for any firearm that is part of the firearms collection to which the licence relates.

10 Applications for licences (cf 1989 Act s 23, APMC 4, 5)

- (1) An application for a licence must be made in an approved manner and the fee prescribed by the regulations for the application must be paid when the application is made or as otherwise approved.
- (2) An applicant for a licence must—
 - (a) if the applicant is a natural person, be of or above the age of 18, and
 - (b) provide proof of the applicant's identity in accordance with the requirements under the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 of the Commonwealth that apply in respect of the opening of a bank account, and

(c) provide such other particulars or documents as may be prescribed by the regulations.

(3) An applicant, at the time of applying for a licence, is to be provided with the following—

(4) Section 12 of the Criminal Records Act 1991 does not apply in relation to an application for a licence.

Note—

Only persons of or above the age of 18 can apply for (and be issued with) a licence. However under section 32, minor's firearms permits are available for certain minors (ie persons under 18 but who are of or above the age prescribed by the regulations). These permits authorise minors to possess and use firearms, under the supervision of a licence holder, for the purpose of receiving safe instruction in the use of firearms, and for competing in shooting events in the case of a minor's target pistol permit.

11 General restrictions on issue of licences (cf 1989 Act s 25, APMC 4, 5, 6)

(1) The Commissioner may issue a licence in respect of an application, or refuse any such application.

(2) A licence must not be issued until after the end of the period of 28 days following the day on which the application is made.

(2A) Subsection (2) does not apply if the application is for the renewal of a licence (including the renewal of a category A or B licence that involves the addition of either of those licence categories to the previous licence).

(3) A licence must not be issued unless—

(a) the Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person and can be trusted to have possession of firearms without danger to public safety or to the peace, and

(b) in the case of a person who has never held a licence (including a firearms licence under a previous Act), the applicant has completed, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, such firearms training and safety courses as are prescribed by the regulations in respect of the licence concerned, and

(c) the Commissioner is satisfied that the storage and safety requirements set out in

Part 4 are capable of being met by the applicant, and

(d) the Commissioner is satisfied that the person to whom the licence is to be issued is a resident of this State or is about to become a resident of this State.

(3A) Despite subsection (3) (b), the Commissioner may require an applicant for a licence to complete such firearms training and safety courses as are approved by the Commissioner in relation to the category of licence concerned.

(4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3) (a), a licence must not be issued if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant may not personally exercise continuous and responsible control over firearms because of—

(a) the applicant's way of living or domestic circumstances, or

(b) any previous attempt by the applicant to commit suicide or cause a self-inflicted injury, or

(c) the applicant's intemperate habits or being of unsound mind.

(5) A licence must not be issued to a person who—

(a) is under the age of 18, or

(b) has, within the period of 10 years before the application for the licence was made, been convicted in New South Wales or elsewhere of an offence prescribed by the regulations, whether or not the offence is an offence under New South Wales law, or

(c) is subject to an apprehended violence order or interim apprehended violence order or who has, at any time within 10 years before the application for the licence was made, been subject to an apprehended violence order (other than an order that has been revoked), or

(d) is subject to one of the following in relation to an offence prescribed by the regulations—

(i) a good behaviour bond, whether entered into in New South Wales or elsewhere,

(ii) a community correction order imposed in New South Wales,

(iii) a conditional release order imposed in New South Wales, or

(e) is subject to a firearms prohibition order, or

(f) is a registrable person or corresponding registrable person under the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000.

- (5A) A licence must not be issued to a person if the Commissioner is of the opinion, having regard to any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information held in relation to the person, that—
- (a) the person is a risk to public safety, and
 - (b) the issuing of the licence would be contrary to the public interest.
- (5B) The Commissioner is not, under this or any other Act or law, required to give any reasons for not issuing a licence on the grounds referred to in subsection (5A).
- (6) Except in the case of a firearms dealer licence or where the applicant's genuine reason is business or employment, a licence must not be issued to a person who is not a natural person.
- (7) Despite any other provision of this section, the Commissioner may refuse to issue a licence if the Commissioner considers that issue of the licence would be contrary to the public interest.
- (8) The regulations may provide other mandatory or discretionary grounds for refusing the issue of a licence.

12 Genuine reasons for having a licence (cf APMC 3, 1990 Reg cl 22A)

- (1) The Commissioner must not issue a licence that authorises the possession and use of a firearm unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant has a genuine reason for possessing or using the firearm.
- (2) An applicant does not have a genuine reason for possessing or using a firearm if the applicant intends to possess or use the firearm for any of the following reasons—
- (a) personal protection or the protection of any other person,
 - (b) the protection of property (other than in circumstances constituting a genuine reason as set out in the Table to this section).
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the reasons which the Commissioner may be satisfied are not genuine reasons for the purposes of justifying the possession or use of a firearm.
- (4) Subject to this Act, an applicant for a licence has a genuine reason for possessing or using a firearm if the applicant—
- (a) states that he or she intends to possess or use the firearm for any one or more of the reasons set out in the Table to this section, and
 - (b) is able to produce evidence to the Commissioner that he or she satisfies the requirements specified in respect of any such reason.

15 Category D licences—restrictions on issue (cf APMC 3 (c))

The Commissioner must not issue a category D licence to any person unless—

- (a) the genuine reason established by the person for being issued with the licence is that of vertebrate pest animal control, and
- (b) in addition to establishing any such genuine reason, the person produces evidence to the Commissioner's satisfaction that there is a special need for the person to possess or use a firearm to which a licence category D applies, and
- (c) in the case of a person referred to in paragraph (c) of the genuine reason of vertebrate pest animal control, the person produces evidence to the Commissioner's satisfaction that any such special need cannot be met by any other means (including by the authority conferred by a category A, category B or category C licence, or by engaging the services of a professional contract shooter).

- (2) The Commissioner must not issue a category H (sport/target shooting) licence (other than a probationary pistol licence) to a person unless—
- (a) the person has previously been issued with a probationary pistol licence, and
 - (b) the probationary pistol licence has expired, and
 - (c) the application for the category H (sport/target shooting) licence is supported by a written statement by the secretary or other relevant office holder of the pistol shooting club of which the person is a member confirming that the person has complied with the conditions specified in section 16A (2).
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a person if the person has previously held a category H (sport/target shooting) licence.
- (4) The Commissioner must not issue a category H (business/employment) licence (other than a provisional pistol (business/employment) licence) to a person who has never held such a licence unless—
- (a) the person has previously been issued with a provisional pistol (business/employment) licence, and
 - (b) the provisional pistol (business/employment) licence has expired.
- (5) The Commissioner must not issue a provisional pistol (business/employment) licence to a person unless—
- (a) the person indicates that he or she intends to be employed by an approved master licensee specified in the application for the licence for the term of the licence, and
 - (b) the approved master licensee has verified to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the master licensee intends the employment to continue for the term of the licence.

16A Probationary pistol licences

- (1) A category H (sport/target shooting) licence that is issued to a person who has never held such a licence is to be issued as a probationary pistol licence.

- (2) A probationary pistol licence is subject to the following conditions—
- (a) for the first 6 months of the term of the licence, the licensee must not possess or use a pistol except—
 - (i) while on the premises of a pistol shooting club and under the supervision of a person who is the holder of a category H (sport/target shooting) licence that is not a probationary pistol licence, and

- the authority conferred by the probationary pistol licence continues until such time as the person is notified of the issue of, or refusal of, the category H (sport/target shooting) licence.
- (4) This section does not limit the conditions to which a probationary pistol licence is subject.

16B Special provisions relating to category H (sport/target shooting) licences issued for specialised target pistols

- (1) In this section—
- specialised target pistol means—
- (a) a self-loading pistol with a barrel length of less than 120 mm, or
 - (b) a revolver with a barrel length of less than 100 mm,
- that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is of a distinctive size or shape and is used in International Shooting Sport Federation competition events, but that is not otherwise a prohibited pistol.
- (2) The Commissioner may issue a category H (sport/target shooting) licence (referred to in this section as a special pistol licence) authorising a person to possess and use a specialised target pistol for the purposes only of participating in such classes of specialised shooting competitions as may be approved by the Commissioner.

- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, a special pistol licence is a type of category H (sport/target shooting) licence, and any requirements under this Act or the regulations that apply to or in respect of a category H (sport/target shooting) licence apply to or in respect of a special pistol licence.

16C Provisional pistol (business/employment) licences

 - (ii) a class 1F licence under the Security Industry Act 1997.

Note—

The licence may also be subject to other conditions—see section 19.

- (3) The Commissioner must revoke a provisional pistol (business/employment) licence if the Commissioner is satisfied that the licensee has failed to comply with a condition under this section.

- (4) If the holder of a provisional pistol (business/employment) licence contravenes the condition referred to in subsection (2) (d), the person who is (at the time of the contravention) the master licensee who is the employer of the licensee is guilty of an offence.

the authority conferred by the provisional pistol (business/employment) licence continues until such time as the person is notified of the issue of, or refusal of, the category H (business/employment) licence.

- (6) A provisional pistol (business/employment) licence is automatically revoked if the licensee ceases to be employed during the term of the licence by the approved master licensee specified in the application for the licence as required by section 16 (5).

17 Proof of special need (cf APMC 3 (c))

The regulations may specify the sort of evidence that may be produced in order to satisfy the Commissioner of a special need for the purposes of sections 13–16. However, nothing in this section is taken to limit the Commissioner’s discretion in determining whether any such special need has been demonstrated.

17A Special provisions relating to category C licences issued for clay target shooting purposes

- (1) The Commissioner may issue a category C licence (referred to in this section as a special category C licence) authorising possession and use of a self-loading or pump action shotgun for the purposes of participating in recognised clay target shooting competitions.

- (a) the shotgun to which the licence relates must not be loaded at any one time with more than 2 rounds,
 - (b) the shotgun may only be used for shooting at clay targets, and for associated training programs, while on a shooting range that is approved under the regulations.
- (3) An applicant for a special category C licence must be a person who, immediately before 15 November 1996—
- (a) was in lawful possession of a self-loading or pump action shotgun used for shooting clay targets, and

- (4) Alternatively, an applicant must provide, to the Commissioner's satisfaction, a written statement issued on behalf of a shooting club approved by the Commissioner, and which is affiliated with the Australian Clay Target Association (or such other body as may be approved by the Commissioner), to the effect that the applicant—
- (a) is a current member of that club, and
 - (b) because of physical reasons such as lack of strength or dexterity, needs to have a self-loading or pump action shotgun in order to participate in clay target shooting competitions.
- (5) A statement under subsection (4) must be supported by such documents as may be required by the Commissioner.
- (6) Without limiting the conditions to which a category C licence is subject, a special category C licence issued under this section is subject to the condition that the licensee must, during each compliance period, participate in no less than the number of clay target shooting competitions required by the regulations. A compliance period is each of the consecutive 12-month periods during which the licence is in force, with the first of those periods starting when the licence is issued and subsequent periods starting at the end of the previous compliance period.
- (7) For the avoidance of doubt, a special category C licence is a type of category C licence, and any requirements under this Act or regulations that apply to or in respect of a category C licence apply to or in respect of a special category C licence.

17B Firearms dealer licences—restrictions on issue

The Commissioner must not issue a firearms dealer licence if the Commissioner—

- (a) is of the view that a person who (in the opinion of the Commissioner) is or will be a close associate of the applicant is not a fit and proper person to be a close associate of the holder of a firearms dealer licence, or

- (b) is not satisfied that the applicant is to be the person primarily responsible for the management of the business to be carried on under the authority of the licence.

17C Special provisions relating to firearms collector licences (post-1946 pistols)

The Commissioner may issue a firearms collector licence that authorises a person to possess a post-1946 pistol if—

Note—

See also the Table to section 12 which provides that one of the requirements for the genuine reason of firearms collection is that the applicant for the licence must be a current member of an approved collectors' society or club.

18 Form of licence (cf APMC 4, 1989 Act s 26A, 1990 Reg cll 22B, 23)

- (1) A licence is to be in any one or more forms approved by the Commissioner. - (2) A licence must—
 - (a) contain a recent photograph of the person to whom it is issued (such photograph being obtained in accordance with arrangements determined by the Commissioner), and

29 Definitions

In this Part—

category B shotgun means a lever action shotgun with a magazine capacity of no more than 5 rounds.

category D shotgun means a lever action shotgun with a magazine capacity of more than 5 rounds.

special category B licence means a special category B licence provided for by this Part.

30 Transitional arrangements for lever action shotguns

- (1) A person in whose name a lever action shotgun was registered immediately before the commencement of this clause and whose possession of the shotgun was authorised at that time by a category A licence (referred to in this Part as the person's existing category A licence) is entitled to the benefit of the following transitional arrangements in respect of that particular shotgun but only while the shotgun remains registered in the name of the person—
 - (a) if the person is not the holder of a category B licence, the person is deemed to be the holder of a special category B licence for the shotgun but only while the person's existing category A licence (or any renewal of that licence) is in force,
 - (b) if the shotgun is a category D shotgun and the person is not the holder of a category D licence but is the holder of a category B licence (including a special category B licence), the shotgun is deemed to be a firearm to which a category B licence held by the person applies.

- (2) A special category B licence is a licence that authorises a person to possess or use a lever action shotgun (and no other firearm) that was registered in the name of the person immediately before the commencement of this clause, but only for the purpose established as being the genuine reason for possessing or using a firearm for the purposes of the person's existing category A licence (or any renewal of that licence) as in force from time to time.
- (3) However, a special category B licence does not authorise the licensee to possess or use a category D shotgun at any time when the person holds a category D licence that authorises the possession or use of the shotgun and that is not subject to any condition imposed by the Commissioner under section 19 (1).
- (4) A special category B licence that a person is deemed to hold is revoked if the person is granted a category B licence (not being a special category B licence) that authorises the possession or use of a lever action shotgun that the special category B licence applied to.
- (5) A permit issued before the commencement of this clause that authorises a person to acquire a shotgun does not authorise the person to acquire a lever action shotgun after the commencement of this clause unless the person is—
 - (a) the holder of a category B licence (not being a special category B licence) in the case of acquisition of a category B shotgun, or
 - (b) the holder of a category D licence in the case of acquisition of a category D shotgun but only if the category D licence will authorise the possession or use of the shotgun once acquired.

Note—

A category D licence may be subject to a limit on the number of firearms that the licensee is authorised to possess or use and so may not authorise the acquisition of another category D firearm.

Note—

A person has the benefit of the transitional arrangements of this clause only for the particular shotgun registered in the name of the person immediately before the commencement of this clause and only while the shotgun remains registered in the name of the person. A person loses the benefit of the transitional arrangements for a shotgun if it is supplied to another person or is lost, stolen or destroyed. The same principles apply to the transitional arrangements under clause 31 for a shotgun that a person has registered in their name in another jurisdiction immediately before the commencement of the interstate recategorisation amendments.

31 Inter-jurisdictional transitional arrangements for lever action shotguns

- (1) A resident of another State or Territory in whose name a lever action shotgun was registered under the interstate law immediately before the commencement of the interstate recategorisation amendments and whose possession of the shotgun was authorised at that time under the interstate law by an interstate category A licence is subject to the following provisions in respect of that particular shotgun—

- (a) sections 26 (Recognition of interstate licences for certain purposes) and 27 (Interstate residents moving to this State) apply to the person as if the firearms to which a category A or B licence issued in this State apply include the shotgun concerned but only while the shotgun remains registered in the name of the person under the interstate law,
 - (b) if the shotgun is a category D shotgun and a category B licence is issued to the person under this Act (not being a special category B licence), the shotgun is deemed to be a firearm to which a category B licence held by the person applies but only while the shotgun remains registered in the name of the person under this Act,
 - (c) a category B licence issued to the person under this Act does not apply to the shotgun (despite paragraph (b)) if a category D licence issued to the person under this Act applies to the shotgun.
- (2) Regulations under clause 1 may include provisions that are inconsistent with this clause.
- (3) In this clause—

interstate category A licence means a licence issued under the interstate law that is equivalent to a category A licence issued under this Act.

interstate law means the law in force in the State or Territory of which the person is a resident.

interstate recategorisation amendments means amendments made to the interstate law that resulted in interstate category A licences ceasing to apply to lever action shotguns.

32 Administrative arrangements for lever action shotgun owners

- (1) The Commissioner may issue a licence as a special category B licence to a person who is deemed to hold a special category B licence, with the licence to specify details of the shotgun (or each shotgun) for which it is issued.
- (2) The Commissioner may provide to a person a statement in writing certifying that a category B licence held by the person (including a special category B licence) is deemed under this Part to apply to a specified category D shotgun. The statement may be provided by being included in the category B licence concerned or separately.
- (3) The Commissioner may waive payment of any fee that would otherwise be payable in respect of the issue of a category B or category D licence to a person who has the benefit of any transitional arrangements under this Part.

33 Validity of permits for powerheads for spear fishing

- (1) The regulations are taken to have always been authorised to provide for the issue of a permit (a spear fishing powerhead permit) that authorised a person to possess and use a powerhead for the purposes of underwater spear fishing even if the person's use of a powerhead for that purpose would have been unlawful under another Act.
- (2) The following provisions apply to a spear fishing powerhead permit issued or purporting to have been issued before the commencement of this clause—
 - (a) the permit is validated to the extent of any invalidity arising from inconsistency between the regulations and another law,
 - (b) the permit operated only for the purposes of this Act and did not authorise a contravention of any other law,
 - (c) if the permit is in force immediately before the commencement of this clause it is revoked on the commencement of this clause.

Part 11 Provisions consequent on enactment of Justice Legislation Amendment Act (No 2) 2019

34 Application of eligibility amendments

- (1) This clause applies to the amendments made to sections 11(5), 29(3) and 44A of this Act and clauses 5, 42 and 129 of the Firearms Regulation 2017 by the Justice Legislation Amendment Act (No 2) 2019 (the eligibility amendments).
- (2) Any licence or permit that would have been validly issued or not issued during the transitional period if the eligibility amendments had been in force at the relevant time is taken to have been validly issued or not issued (as the case requires).
- (3) Subclause (2) does not affect the validity of any decision made during the transitional period to issue or refuse to issue a licence or permit if the decision would have been valid even without the eligibility amendments.
- (4) To avoid doubt, the eligibility amendments extend to an application for a licence or permit made, but not finally determined, before the commencement of this clause.
- (5) In this clause—

transitional period means the period commencing on 24 September 2018 and ending immediately before the day this clause commences.

Note—

The Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Amendment (Sentencing Options) Act 2017 commenced on 24 September 2018. It included transitional provisions that converted good behaviour bonds into community correction orders and conditional release orders.

Part 12 Provisions consequent on enactment of Firearms Legislation Amendment Act 2022

35 Prohibited firearms

- (1) This clause applies if—
 - (a) a person legally acquires a self-loading centre-fire rifle or a self-loading shotgun under this Act, and
 - (b) self-loading centre-fire rifles or self-loading shotguns of that type are subsequently adapted for military purposes.
- (2) The person's self-loading centre-fire rifle or self-loading shotgun is not a prohibited firearm under Schedule 1, item 5 or 6 while the rifle or shotgun remains in the person's possession.
