Drug Court Act 1998 No 150

New South Wales

An Act to provide for the establishment of the Drug Court of New South Wales, for the referral of drug offenders to the Drug Court, and for the supervision of drug programs by the Drug Court; and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Drug Court Act 1998.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Objects

- (1) The objects of this Act are—
 - (a) to reduce the drug dependency of eligible persons and eligible convicted offenders, and
 - (b) to promote the re-integration of such drug dependent persons into the community, and
 - (c) to reduce the need for such drug dependent persons to resort to criminal activity to support their drug dependencies.
- (2) This Act achieves its objects in relation to eligible persons by establishing a scheme under which drug dependent persons who are charged with criminal offences can be diverted into programs designed to eliminate, or at least reduce, their dependency on drugs.
- (2A) This Act achieves its objects in relation to eligible convicted offenders by establishing a scheme for compulsory drug treatment and rehabilitation for certain drug dependent persons.
- (3) Reducing a person's dependency on drugs should reduce the person's need to resort to criminal activity to support that dependency and should also increase the person's ability to function as a law abiding citizen.

4 Definitions

(1) In this Act—

Compulsory Drug Treatment Correctional Centre has the same meaning as in Part 4A of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

- (2) In this Act, a reference to the criminal jurisdiction of the Local Court includes a reference to the jurisdiction exercisable by a Magistrate under the Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

5 Definition of "eligible person"

- (1) A person is an eligible person if—
- (a) the person is charged with an offence, other than an offence referred to in subsection (2), and
 - (b) the facts alleged in connection with the offence, together with the person's antecedents and any other information available to the court, indicate that it is highly likely that the person will, if convicted, be required to serve a sentence of full-time imprisonment, and
 - (c) the person has pleaded guilty to, or indicated that he or she intends to plead guilty to, the offence, and
 - (d) the person appears to be dependent on the use of prohibited drugs (within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985) or other drugs prescribed by the regulations, and
 - (e) the person satisfies such other criteria as are prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) A person is not an eligible person if the person is charged with—
- (a) an offence punishable under Division 2 of Part 2 of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985, not being an offence that (under Chapter 5 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986) is capable of being dealt with summarily, or
 - (b) an offence involving violent conduct or sexual assault, or
 - (c) any other offence of a kind prescribed by the regulations.

5A Definition of "eligible convicted offender"

- (1) A person is an eligible convicted offender if—
- (a) the person is convicted of an offence, other than an offence referred to in subsection (2), and
 - (b) except as provided for by subsection (1A), the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for the offence to be served by way of full-time detention and at the time that the sentence was imposed—

(i) the unexpired non-parole period of the sentence was a period of at least 18 months, and

(ii) the unexpired total sentence was a period of not more than 6 years, and

(c) (Repealed)

(d) the person has a long-term dependency on the use of prohibited drugs (within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985) or other drugs prescribed by the regulations, and

(e) the facts in connection with the offence for which the person has been sentenced, together with the person's antecedents and any other information available, indicate that the offence was related to the person's long-term drug dependency and associated lifestyle, and

(f) the person satisfies such other criteria as are prescribed by the regulations.

(1A) Subsection (1) (b) does not prevent a person whose parole order has been revoked from being an eligible convicted offender if the person is a relevant person within the meaning of section 18BA (State Parole Authority to refer certain offenders whose parole is revoked to Drug Court).

(2) A person is not an eligible convicted offender if—

(a) the offence for which the person has been convicted involved the use of a firearm, or

(b) the person has been convicted at any time of any of the following—

(i) murder, attempted murder or manslaughter,

(ii) sexual assault of an adult or child or a sexual offence involving a child,

(iii) any offence involving the violent use of a firearm,

(iv) an offence under section 23 (2), 24 (2), 25 (2), 26, 27 or 28 of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985 involving a commercial quantity or large commercial quantity of a prohibited plant or prohibited drug within the meaning of that Act,

(v) any offence prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

(3) A person is not an eligible convicted offender if, in the opinion of the Drug Court—

(a) the person suffers from a mental condition, illness or disorder that—

(i) is serious, or

- (ii) leads to the person being violent, and
- (b) the mental condition, illness or disorder could prevent or restrict the person's active participation in a drug treatment program.

Part 2 Drug Court programs

Division 1 Acceptance into program

6 Courts may refer persons to Drug Court during proceedings for offence

- (1) This section applies to such courts and proceedings as are prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) It is the duty of a court before which a person is charged with an offence or to which a person appeals against a sentence imposed by some other court—
 - (a) to ascertain whether the person appears to be an eligible person, and
 - (b) if so, to ascertain whether the person is willing to be referred to the Drug Court to be dealt with for the offence, and
 - (c) if so, to refer the person to the Drug Court to be dealt with for the offence.
- (3) The power conferred on a court by this section is to be exercised as soon as practicable after the person first comes before the court in connection with the offence, but may be exercised at any time—
 - (a) in the case of a Magistrate conducting committal proceedings under the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, before the Magistrate has committed the person for trial or sentence in relation to that offence, and
 - (b) in any other case, before the person is sentenced or re-sentenced for the offence.

7 Courts may refer persons to Drug Court during proceedings for failure to comply with conditions of good behaviour bond

- (1) This section applies—
 - (a) in relation to a person who is, at the time of his or her appearance in court, participating in a program into which he or she has been accepted as a result of previous proceedings under this Act—to any court before which such a person appears, or
 - (b) in relation to any other person—to such courts and proceedings as are prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) It is the duty of a court before whom an offender appears under section 98 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) in connection with an alleged failure to comply with the conditions of a good behaviour bond imposed under section 12 of that Act (as previously in force)—

- (a) to ascertain whether the person appears to be an eligible person, and
 - (b) if so, to ascertain whether the person is willing to be referred to the Drug Court to be dealt with for the alleged failure, and
 - (c) if so, to refer the person to the Drug Court to be dealt with for the alleged failure.
- (3) The power conferred on a court by this section is to be exercised as soon as practicable after the person's first appearance before the court in relation to the alleged failure.
- (4) This section does not apply to an offender who, at the time of his or her appearance before the court, is in custody under a sentence of full-time imprisonment.

7A Persons accepted into program in relation to offence

- (1) This section applies to a person who has been referred to the Drug Court under section 6.
- (2) The Drug Court may deal with a person under this section in relation to an offence if, and only if, it is satisfied as to each of the following matters—
- (a) that the person is an eligible person,
 - (b) that the person has pleaded guilty to the offence (whether before the referring court or the Drug Court) and has been found guilty of the offence,
 - (c) that, having regard to the person's antecedents, it would be appropriate for the person to participate in a program under this Act,
 - (d) that facilities to supervise and control the person's participation in such a program are available, and have been allocated to the person, in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the regulations,
 - (e) that the person accepts the conditions imposed by this Act and the conditions that the Drug Court proposes to impose on the person (whether immediately or at some later date) as a consequence of his or her conviction and sentence under this section,
 - (f) that the person has been informed of the Drug Court's powers under Division 2 and of the respective consequences, as regards the sentence to be imposed under section 12, of the person's compliance or non-compliance with a program,
 - (g) that any person (an affected person) with whom it is likely the person would reside during the period of the person's participation in a program under this Act has consented in writing to the person residing with the affected person during that period.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the Drug Court deals with a person under this section in relation to an offence by convicting the person and sentencing the person in accordance with the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.
- (4) Sections 44–48 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 do not apply to the conviction and sentencing of a person under this section.
- (5) On or within 14 days after sentencing the person, the Drug Court—
 - (a) must make an order imposing on the person the conditions that the person has accepted as referred to in subsection (2) (e) (the person’s program), and
 - (b) must make an order suspending execution of the sentence for the duration of the person’s program (the person’s suspension order).
- (6) An order referred to in subsection (5) (a) or (b) may be made in the absence of the person in respect of whom it is made.
- (7) The kinds of conditions that the Drug Court may impose on the person under this section are as follows—
 - (a) conditions relating to conduct and good behaviour,
 - (b) conditions relating to attendance for counselling or other treatment,
 - (c) conditions relating to the supervision of the person for the duration of a program under this Act,
 - (d) conditions relating to drug testing that the person must undergo,
 - (e) conditions relating to residence, association with other persons or attendance at specified locations,
 - (f) conditions relating to involvement in activities, courses, training or employment for the purpose of promoting the re-integration of the person into the community,
 - (g) conditions relating to conferring rewards of the kind referred to in section 16 (1),
 - (h) conditions relating to the imposition of sanctions of the kind referred to in section 16 (2),
 - (i) any other kinds of conditions that may be prescribed by the regulations,
 - (j) such other conditions as the Drug Court considers appropriate in the circumstances.

- (8) A person who is convicted and sentenced by the Drug Court under this section may, at the same time or any later time—
- (a) be convicted and sentenced for any other offence to which he or she has pleaded guilty (other than an offence referred to in section 5 (2)), whether or not the person has been referred to the Drug Court under section 6 in relation to that other offence, or
 - (b) be dealt with in proceedings under—
 - (i) section 107C of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 on the revocation of a community correction order, or
 - (ii) section 108C of that Act on the revocation of a conditional release order, or
 - (iii) section 98 or 99 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) on the revocation of a good behaviour bond imposed under section 12 of that Act (as previously in force), whether or not the person has been referred to the Drug Court under section 7 in relation to the failure to comply with the conditions of the good behaviour bond, or
 - (c) be dealt with under both paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (9) Subsections (5) and (6) apply to a sentence under subsection (8) in the same way as they apply to a sentence under subsection (2).
- (10) Nothing in this Act entitles a person to be convicted and sentenced under this section, and no appeal lies against any decision by the Drug Court not to convict or sentence a person under this section.
- (11) A suspension order does not operate to suspend any period of disqualification from holding a driver licence imposed by or under the road transport legislation within the meaning of the Road Transport Act 2013.
- (12) For the purposes of subsection (2) (g)—
- (a) the consent of children below a prescribed age, and
 - (b) the consent of persons suffering a prescribed disability,
- may be given on their behalf by such other persons as the regulations may determine or may, if the regulations so provide, be dispensed with.
- (13) In this section, a reference to the convicting and sentencing of a person is, in the case of a person who is referred to the Drug Court after having been convicted, a reference to the sentencing of the person only.

7B Persons accepted into program in relation to failure to comply with conditions of community correction order, conditional release order or good behaviour bond

(1) This section applies to a person—

- (a) who has been referred to the Drug Court under section 7, or
- (b) who has been called on by the Drug Court to appear before it under—
 - (i) section 107C of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 in relation to a community correction order, or
 - (ii) section 108C of that Act in relation to a conditional release order, or
 - (iii) section 98 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) in relation to a good behaviour bond under section 12 (as previously in force), not being a person who is currently participating in a program into which the person has been accepted as a result of previous proceedings under this Act.

(2) The Drug Court may deal with a person under this section in relation to an alleged failure to comply with the conditions of the relevant community correction order, conditional release order or good behaviour bond if, and only if, it is satisfied as to each of the following matters—

- (a) that the person is an eligible person,
- (b) that the person admits to having failed, and has in fact failed, to comply with the conditions of the order or bond,
- (c) that, having regard to the person's antecedents, it would be appropriate for the person to participate in a program under this Act,
- (d) that facilities to supervise and control the person's participation in such a program are available, and have been allocated to the person, in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the regulations,
- (e) that the person accepts the conditions imposed by this Act and the conditions that the Drug Court proposes to impose on the person (whether immediately or at some later date) as a consequence of his or her being dealt with under this section,
- (f) that the person has been informed of the Drug Court's powers under Division 2 and of the respective consequences, as regards the sentence to be imposed under section 12, of the person's compliance or non-compliance with a program,
- (g) that any person (an affected person) with whom it is likely the person would reside during the period of the person's participation in a program under this Act has consented in writing to the person residing with the affected person during that period.

- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Drug Court deals with a person under this section in relation to a failure to comply with the conditions of a community correction order, conditional release order or good behaviour bond by revoking the order or bond, and convicting and sentencing the person, in accordance with the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.
- (4) The provisions of—
 - (a) section 107D of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 do not apply to a community correction order that is revoked under subsection (3) of this section, and
 - (b) section 108D of that Act do not apply to a conditional release order that is revoked under that subsection, and
 - (c) section 99 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) do not apply to a good behaviour bond that is revoked under that subsection.
- (5) Sections 44–48 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 do not apply to the conviction and sentencing of a person under this section.
- (6) For the purposes of this Act, the sentence of imprisonment in relation to which a good behaviour bond referred to in section 12 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 was entered into under that Act is taken to be the sentence imposed under subsection (3) in relation to the bond.
- (7) On or within 14 days after sentencing the person, the Drug Court—
 - (a) must make an order imposing on the person the conditions that the person has accepted as referred to in subsection (2) (e) (the person’s program), and
 - (b) must make an order suspending execution of the sentence for the duration of the person’s program (the person’s suspension order).
- (8) An order referred to in subsection (7) (a) or (b) may be made in the absence of the person in respect of whom it is made.
- (9) The kinds of conditions that the Drug Court may impose on the person under this section are as follows—
 - (a) conditions relating to conduct and good behaviour,
 - (b) conditions relating to attendance for counselling or other treatment,
 - (c) conditions relating to the supervision of the person for the duration of a program under this Act,

- (d) conditions relating to drug testing that the person must undergo,
 - (e) conditions relating to residence, association with other persons or attendance at specified locations,
 - (f) conditions relating to involvement in activities, courses, training or employment for the purpose of promoting the re-integration of the person into the community,
 - (g) conditions relating to conferring rewards of the kind referred to in section 16 (1),
 - (h) conditions relating to the imposition of sanctions of the kind referred to in section 16 (2),
 - (i) any other kinds of conditions that may be prescribed by the regulations,
 - (j) such other conditions as the Drug Court considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (10) Nothing in this Act entitles a person to be convicted and sentenced under this section, and no appeal lies against any decision by the Drug Court not to convict or sentence a person under this section.
- (11) A suspension order does not operate to suspend any period of disqualification from holding a driver licence imposed by or under the road transport legislation within the meaning of the Road Transport Act 2013.
- (12) For the purposes of subsection (2) (g)—
- (a) the consent of children below a prescribed age, and
 - (b) the consent of persons suffering a prescribed disability,
- may be given on their behalf by such other persons as the regulations may determine or may, if the regulations so provide, be dispensed with.
- (13) In this section, a reference to the convicting and sentencing of a person is, in the case of a person who is referred to the Drug Court after having been convicted, a reference to the sentencing of the person only.

7C Persons allowed to continue in program in relation to failure to comply with conditions of community correction order, conditional release order or good behaviour bond

- (1) This section applies to a person—
- (a) who has been referred to the Drug Court under section 7, or
 - (b) who has been called on by the Drug Court to appear before it under—
 - (i) section 107C of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 in relation to a community correction order, or

- (ii) section 108C of that Act in relation to a conditional release order, or
 - (iii) section 98 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) in relation to a good behaviour bond under section 12 (as previously in force), being a person who is currently participating in a program into which the person has been accepted as a result of previous proceedings under this Act.
- (2) The Drug Court may deal with a person under this section in relation to an alleged failure to comply with the conditions of the relevant good behaviour bond if, and only if, it is satisfied as to each of the following matters—
- (a) that the person is an eligible person,
 - (b) that the person admits to having failed, and has in fact failed, to comply with the conditions of the bond,
 - (c) that, having regard to the person’s antecedents, it would be appropriate for the person to continue to participate in a program under this Act,
 - (d) that the person consents to being dealt with under this section,
 - (e) that the person accepts the conditions imposed by this Act and the conditions that the Drug Court proposes to impose on the person (whether immediately or at some later date) as a consequence of his or her conviction and sentence under this section.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Drug Court deals with a person under this section in relation to a failure to comply with the conditions of a community correction order, conditional release order or good behaviour bond by revoking the order or bond, and convicting and sentencing the person, in accordance with the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.
- (4) The provisions of—
- (a) section 107D of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 do not apply to a community correction order that is revoked under subsection (3) of this section, and
 - (b) section 108D of that Act do not apply to a conditional release order that is revoked under that subsection, and
 - (c) section 99 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) do not apply to a good behaviour bond that is revoked under that subsection.
- (5) Sections 44–48 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 do not apply to the conviction and sentencing of a person under this section.

- (6) For the purposes of this Act, the sentence of imprisonment in relation to which a good behaviour bond referred to in section 12 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 was entered into under that Act is taken to be the sentence imposed under subsection (3) in relation to the bond.
- (7) On or within 14 days after sentencing the person, the Drug Court—
 - (a) must make an order imposing on the person the conditions that the person has accepted as referred to in subsection (2) (e) (the person's program), and
 - (b) must make an order suspending execution of the sentence for the duration of the person's program (the person's suspension order).
- (8) Nothing in this Act entitles a person to be convicted and sentenced under this section, and no appeal lies against any decision by the Drug Court not to convict or sentence a person under this section.

7D Persons not accepted into program in relation to offence

- (1) This section applies to a person who has been referred to the Drug Court under section 6 but whom the Drug Court has not dealt with under section 7A.
- (2) The Drug Court may deal with a person under this section in relation to an offence if, and only if, it is satisfied as to each of the following matters—
 - (a) that the person has pleaded guilty to the offence (whether before the referring court or the Drug Court) and has been found guilty of the offence,
 - (b) that the person consents to being dealt with under this section.
- (3) The Drug Court deals with a person under this section in relation to an offence by convicting the person and sentencing the person in accordance with the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.
- (4) If the person does not consent to being dealt with under this section or in such other circumstances as the Drug Court may determine, the Drug Court is to refer the person back to the referring court.
- (5) In the case of a person who has been referred to the Drug Court for 2 or more offences by 2 or more referring courts, the Drug Court may refer the person back to any one of the referring courts to be dealt with—
 - (a) for the offences for which the person was referred by that court, and
 - (b) for such of the other offences as are within the criminal jurisdiction of that court.
- (6) In dealing with a person for an offence referred to in subsection (5) (b), the court to which the person is referred back is taken to be the referring court for the purposes of subsection (7).

- (7) If the Drug Court refers a person back to the referring court, the proceedings against the person are to be continued before the referring court at a time and place specified in the order, as if—
- (a) the person had not been referred to the Drug Court, and
 - (b) the proceedings had merely been adjourned to the time and place specified in the order.
- (8) A person who is convicted and sentenced by the Drug Court under this section may, at the same time or any later time—
- (a) be convicted and sentenced for any other offence to which he or she has pleaded guilty (other than an offence referred to in section 5 (2)), whether or not the person has been referred to the Drug Court under section 6 in relation to that other offence, or
 - (b) be dealt with in proceedings under—
 - (i) section 107C of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 on the revocation of a community correction order, or
 - (ii) section 108C of that Act on the revocation of a conditional release order, or
 - (iii) section 98 or 99 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) on the revocation of a good behaviour bond imposed under section 12 of that Act (as previously in force), whether or not the person has been referred to the Drug Court under section 7 in relation to the failure to comply with the conditions of the good behaviour bond, or
 - (c) be dealt with under both paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (9) In this section, a reference to the convicting and sentencing of a person is, in the case of a person who is referred to the Drug Court after having been convicted, a reference to the sentencing of the person only.

7E Persons not accepted into program in relation to failure to comply with conditions of community correction order, conditional release order or good behaviour bond

- (1) This section applies to a person—
- (a) who has been referred to the Drug Court under section 7, or
 - (b) who has been called on by the Drug Court to appear before it under the relevant provisions referred to in subsection (3), but whom the Drug Court has not dealt with under section 7B or 7C.

- (2) The Drug Court is to deal with a person to whom this section applies in accordance with those relevant provisions.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the relevant provisions are—
 - (a) section 107C of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 in relation to a community correction order, or
 - (b) section 108C of that Act in relation to a conditional release order, or
 - (c) section 98 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act) in relation to a good behaviour bond under section 12 (as previously in force).

8 (Repealed)

Division 1A

8AA-8AD (Repealed)

Division 2 Administration of program

8A Statutory conditions of program

- (1) It is a condition of a drug offender's program that the Drug Court may, with the consent of the drug offender, commit the drug offender to a correctional centre for up to 21 days at a time if, in the opinion of the Drug Court, such action is necessary to facilitate—
 - (a) detoxification of the drug offender, or
 - (b) assessment of the drug offender's participation in the program, or
 - (c) the development of a suitable treatment plan.
- (2) However, a drug offender is not to be committed to a correctional centre for detoxification unless the Drug Court is satisfied that no other suitable facilities are immediately available.
- (3) A consent referred to in subsection (1) that is given by a drug offender in relation to the committal of the drug offender to a correctional centre for a particular period of time is irrevocable during that period.
- (4) A drug offender does not fail to comply with his or her program merely because the drug offender fails to give a consent referred to in subsection (1).

9 Variation of conditions of program

- (1) The Drug Court may from time to time, in accordance with a drug offender's program, vary the program by adding new conditions to, or varying or revoking existing conditions of, the program.
- (2) No appeal lies against any decision by the Drug Court to vary a drug offender's program under this section.

10 Proceedings for non-compliance with program

- (1) If it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a drug offender has failed to comply with his or her program, the Drug Court—
 - (a) may, in accordance with the program, impose any one or more of the sanctions specified in the program as sanctions that the Court may impose on the drug offender, or
 - (b) if it is also satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the offender is unlikely to make any further progress in the program or that the offender's further participation in the program poses an unacceptable risk to the community that the person may re-offend—may decide to terminate the program.
- (2) Without affecting the other circumstances in which a drug offender is taken to have failed to comply with his or her program, a drug offender is taken to have failed to comply with the program if the drug offender is charged before a court with an offence referred to in section 5 (2).
- (3) No appeal lies in relation to any action taken or decision made by the Drug Court under this section.

11 Termination of program

- (1) The Drug Court may terminate a drug offender's program—
 - (a) if the Drug Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that, having regard to the objects of this Act, the drug offender has substantially complied with the program, or
 - (b) if the drug offender requests the Drug Court to terminate the program, or
 - (c) if the Drug Court decides to terminate the program as referred to in section 10 (1) (b).
- (2) No appeal lies against the Drug Court's termination of a drug offender's program.

12 Imposition of final sentence

- (1) On terminating a drug offender's program, the Drug Court must reconsider the drug offender's initial sentence.

- (2) In reconsidering a drug offender's initial sentence, the Drug Court must take into consideration—
 - (a) the nature of the drug offender's participation in his or her program, and
 - (b) any sanctions that have been imposed on the drug offender during the program, and
 - (c) any time for which the drug offender has been held in custody in connection with an offence to which his or her program relates, including time during which the person has undergone imprisonment—
 - (i) under the sentence, or
 - (ii) under the condition of the program arising under section 8A.
- (3) After considering a drug offender's initial sentence, the Drug Court is to determine the drug offender's final sentence—
 - (a) by making an order setting aside the initial sentence and taking such action under Part 2 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 as it could have taken for the offence to which the initial sentence related, or
 - (b) by making an order confirming the initial sentence.
- (4) The final sentence determined for a drug offender in relation to an offence is not to be greater than the initial sentence imposed on the drug offender in relation to that offence.
- (5) For the purpose of making an order under subsection (3) in relation to an initial sentence imposed before the commencement of this subsection, subsections (3) and (4) have effect as if the amendments made to the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 by the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Amendment (Sentencing Options) Act 2017 were in force when the initial sentence was imposed.

12A Special jurisdiction—traffic matters

- (1) If a drug offender's program is terminated, the Drug Court may, on application by the drug offender, exercise the same functions as the Local Court under Division 3A of Part 7.4 of Chapter 7 of the Road Transport Act 2013 in relation to any licence disqualifications to which the drug offender is then subject.
- (2) Accordingly, the Drug Court may make any order under section 221B of that Act removing all licence disqualifications to which the drug offender is then subject in the circumstances provided for by that Division.

Note—

Section 221B of the Road Transport Act 2013 permits licence disqualifications to be removed on application by a disqualified person if the Court considers it appropriate to do so. Licence disqualifications may be removed only if the disqualified person has not been convicted of any driving offence for conduct during the relevant offence-free period.

- (3) Division 3A of Part 7.4 of Chapter 7 of the Road Transport Act 2013 applies to the Drug Court as if a reference to the Local Court included a reference to the Drug Court.
- (4) No appeal under the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001 or section 5AF of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 lies against a decision of the Drug Court under that Division.
- (5) The rules of court may include provisions relating to the practice and procedure for applications and orders by the Drug Court under this section.

13 Revocation of suspension order

On sentencing a drug offender under section 12, the Drug Court is to revoke the drug offender's suspension order.

Division 3 Miscellaneous

14 Arrest warrants

- (1) If it suspects that a drug offender may have failed to comply with his or her program, the Drug Court may issue a warrant for the drug offender's arrest.
- (2) A warrant under this section authorises any police officer to arrest the drug offender and to bring the drug offender before the Drug Court to be dealt with under this Act.
- (3) The Bail Act 2013 does not apply to a drug offender who is arrested on the authority of a warrant under this section.
- (4) The Drug Court's functions under this section may be exercised by the registrar.

14A Warrants of committal

- (1) For the purpose of subjecting a drug offender to imprisonment in a correctional centre as referred to in section 8A or 16 (2) (f), the Drug Court may issue a warrant committing the drug offender to a correctional centre.
- (2) A warrant under this section—
 - (a) authorises any police officer to have custody of the drug offender named in the warrant, to convey the drug offender to the correctional centre specified in the warrant and to deliver the drug offender into the custody of the governor of that correctional centre, and
 - (b) authorises the governor of the correctional centre specified in the warrant to have custody of the drug offender named in the warrant for the period of time specified in the warrant.

- (3) The Drug Court's functions under this section may be exercised by the registrar.

15 Sentences imposed by Drug Court

- (1) The sentences that may be imposed by the Drug Court under this Part are as follows—
- (a) in the case of an indictable offence (including an indictable offence for which an election to have the offence dealt with on indictment has been duly made under Chapter 5 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986), any penalty that could have been imposed by the District Court had the offence been dealt with on indictment by the District Court,
 - (b) in the case of a summary offence (including an indictable offence for which an election to have the offence dealt with on indictment has not been duly made under Chapter 5 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986), any penalty that could have been imposed by the Local Court had the offence been dealt with summarily by the Local Court.
- (2) Except for the purposes of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912, a person sentenced by the Drug Court for an offence referred to in subsection (1) (a) is taken to have been convicted of the offence on indictment.
- (3) The provisions of section 58 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 do not apply to a sentence imposed on a person under this Act by the Drug Court as referred to in subsection (1) (b) if that sentence is imposed for an offence committed while the person was participating in a program under this Act.
- (4) The provisions of Division 3 (Taking further offences into account) of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 apply in relation to a relevant conviction of a person for an offence as if—
- (a) the person had been charged, but not convicted, of the offence, and
 - (b) the person had admitted guilt for the offence for the purposes of section 33 (2) (a) (i) of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999.
- (5) In this section, relevant conviction of a person for an offence means the conviction of the person by a court (other than the Drug Court) for the offence under any of the following provisions for which the person has not been sentenced by that court—
- (a) section 75B of the Justices Act 1902,
 - (b) section 196 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (as inserted by the Criminal Procedure Amendment (Justices and Local Courts) Act 2001).

16 Conditions of program

- (1) The conditions of a program may allow the Drug Court to confer the following kinds of rewards on a drug offender who maintains a satisfactory level of compliance with the program—

- (a) conferral of specified privileges,
- (b) an appropriate change in the frequency of counselling or other treatment,
- (c) a decrease in the degree of supervision to which the drug offender is subject,
- (d) a decrease in the frequency with which the drug offender must undergo testing for drugs,
- (e) a decrease in the amount of any monetary penalty payable to the Drug Court, as referred to in subsection (2) (e),
- (f) a change in the nature of the vocational and social services attended by the drug offender or the frequency with which the drug offender is required to attend vocational and social services.

(2) The conditions of a program may allow the Drug Court to impose the following kinds of sanctions on a drug offender who fails to comply with the program—

- (a) withdrawal of privileges conferred on the person, as referred to in subsection (1) (a),
- (b) an appropriate change in the frequency of counselling or other treatment,
- (c) an increase in the degree of supervision to which the drug offender is subject,
- (d) an increase in the frequency with which the drug offender must undergo testing for drugs,
- (e) a requirement that the drug offender pay a monetary penalty to the Drug Court,
- (f) a requirement that the drug offender be subjected to imprisonment in a correctional centre for up to 14 days in respect of any one failure to comply with the requirements of the order,
- (g) a change in the nature of the vocational and social services attended by the drug offender or the frequency with which the drug offender is required to attend vocational and social services.

(3) Any monetary penalty payable by a drug offender, as referred to in subsection (2) (e), is recoverable by the registrar of the Drug Court as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) This section does not limit the conditions that may form part of a program apart from this section.

17 Immunity from prosecution for certain offences

A person is not liable to prosecution for any offence comprising the unlawful possession or use of drugs—

- (a) as a result of any admission made for the purposes of seeking a referral under Division 1, not being an admission of facts giving rise to an offence referred to in section 5 (2) (a), or
- (b) as a result of any admission made for the purposes of satisfying the Drug Court that the person should be accepted into a program, or
- (c) as a result of any admission made in connection with the Drug Court's supervision of his or her program, nor may any such admission be admitted as evidence in proceedings for any offence comprising the unlawful possession or use of drugs that are brought as a result of the admission.

18 Application of criminal procedure legislation

- (1) The provisions of Division 3 of Part 3 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 that enable the Drug Court, when sentencing a person, to take other offences into account in imposing a penalty on the person do not enable the Drug Court to take into account any offence of the kind referred to in section 5 (2) of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of Chapter 5 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 are subject to such modifications (if any) as are prescribed by the regulations under this Act.

Part 2A Compulsory drug treatment detention

Division 1 Preliminary

18A Definitions

In this Part—

assessment report means a report prepared under Division 3.

multi-disciplinary team means a team comprised of—

- (a) the Director of the Compulsory Drug Treatment Correctional Centre (or a person nominated by the Director), who is to be the team leader, and
- (b) a community corrections officer (within the meaning of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999) appointed by the Commissioner of Corrective Services, and
- (c) a person appointed by the Chief Executive Officer, Justice Health, and
- (d) such other persons as are prescribed by the regulations.

offender's obligations under a compulsory drug treatment order means the obligations that the offender has under section 106C of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 as a consequence of the making of the order.

Division 2 Referral of eligible convicted offenders to Drug Court

18B Courts to refer eligible convicted offenders to Drug Court

- (1) This section applies to such courts as are prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) It is the duty of a court to which this section applies that sentences a person to imprisonment or which, on determining an appeal, confirms a sentence of imprisonment imposed on the person by some other court (whether or not on the same terms as the other court)—
 - (a) to ascertain whether there are grounds on which the Drug Court might find the person to be an eligible convicted offender, and
 - (b) if so, to refer the person to the Drug Court to determine whether the person should be the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order.
- (2A) The duty imposed on a court by this section does not apply to a court on determining an appeal (an appeal court) if the person whose sentence is confirmed in the appeal is already the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order as a consequence of a referral made to the Drug Court by the court that imposed the sentence confirmed by the appeal court.
- (2B) However, if the person whose sentence is confirmed by the appeal court is not already the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order, the duty imposed by this section applies to the appeal court, whether or not the court that imposed the sentence confirmed by the appeal court referred the person to the Drug Court under this section.
- (3) The duty imposed on a court by this section is to be exercised as soon as practicable after the person is sentenced to imprisonment or the appeal is dealt with.
- (4) The registrar or clerk of a court that refers a person to the Drug Court under this section must give to the registrar of the Drug Court such documents and materials prescribed by the regulations relating to the person as are requested by that registrar.
- (5) No appeal lies against a court's decision to refer or not to refer a person to the Drug Court for a determination as to whether the person should be the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, an appeal includes an application for annulment of sentence in so far as it relates to a decision referred to in subsection (5).

18BA State Parole Authority to refer certain offenders whose parole is revoked to Drug

Court

- (1) This section applies in respect of a person (a relevant person) whose parole has been revoked in respect of a sentence that has previously been the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order which has expired under section 106E (b) of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.
- (2) It is the duty of the State Parole Authority in respect of a relevant person—
 - (a) to ascertain whether there are grounds on which the Drug Court might find the person to be an eligible convicted offender, and
 - (b) if so, to refer the person to the Drug Court to determine whether the person should be the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order.
- (3) If the State Parole Authority refers a relevant person to the Drug Court under this section, the Secretary of the Authority must give the registrar of the Drug Court such documents and materials relating to the person prescribed by the regulations as may be requested by that registrar.
- (4) The duty imposed on the State Parole Authority by this section is to be exercised as soon as practicable after the relevant person's parole is revoked.
- (5) No appeal lies against the State Parole Authority's decision to refer or not to refer a relevant person to the Drug Court for a determination as to whether the person should be the subject of a compulsory drug treatment order.

Division 3 Making compulsory drug treatment orders

18C Compulsory drug treatment detention

- (1) The Drug Court may make an order directing that an eligible convicted offender serve the offender's sentence of imprisonment by way of compulsory drug treatment detention.
- (2) If an eligible convicted offender whose parole order has been revoked is referred to the Drug Court by the State Parole Authority under section 18BA, the Drug Court may make a new compulsory drug treatment order in respect of the offender.
- (3) When making an order under subsection (2), the Drug Court must have regard to the circumstances of the revocation of the offender's parole order, including any charge or conviction for an offence committed by the offender while serving any sentence by way of compulsory drug treatment detention or while on release on parole.

18D Restriction on power of Drug Court to make compulsory drug treatment orders

- (1) The Drug Court must not make a compulsory drug treatment order with respect to an offender's sentence of imprisonment unless—

- (a) the Drug Court has referred the offender to the multi-disciplinary team for assessment as to the eligibility and suitability of the offender for compulsory drug treatment detention and has had regard to the contents of the assessment report made by the team under section 18E, and
- (b) the Drug Court is satisfied—
 - (i) that the offender is of or above the age of 18 years, and
 - (ii) that the offender is an eligible convicted offender, and
 - (iii) that the offender is a suitable person to serve the sentence by way of compulsory drug treatment detention, and
 - (iv) that it is appropriate in all of the circumstances that the sentence be served by way of compulsory drug treatment detention, and
 - (v) that there is accommodation available (or is likely to be available within 14 days) at the Compulsory Drug Treatment Correctional Centre for the offender to serve the sentence by way of compulsory drug treatment detention, and
 - (vi) that the offender's participation in the program will not damage the program or any other person's participation in it.
- (2) If the Drug Court declines to make a compulsory drug treatment order in relation to an eligible convicted offender's sentence on the ground that the offender's participation in the program will damage the program or any other person's participation in it (as referred to in subsection (1) (b) (vi)), the Drug Court may—
 - (a) revoke any statutory parole order under section 158 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 in relation to the offender, and
 - (b) notify the State Parole Authority of the decision to decline to make the order and the circumstances in which it was made.
- (3) The Drug Court may, for any reason it considers sufficient, decline to make a compulsory drug treatment order despite the contents of an assessment report.
- (4) No appeal lies against the Drug Court's decision to make or not to make a compulsory drug treatment order.

18E Assessment of eligibility and suitability by the multi-disciplinary team

- (1) When an offender is referred to the multi-disciplinary team for assessment, the multi-disciplinary team is to investigate and report to the Drug Court on the matters referred to in sections 5A and 18D (1) (b) (i)-(vi).
- (2) When assessing whether an offender is a suitable person to serve a sentence by way of compulsory drug treatment detention (being the ground referred to in section 18D

- (1) (b) (iii)), the multi-disciplinary team is to have regard to the following matters—
- (a) the offender’s level of motivation and attitude to the compulsory drug treatment program,
 - (b) the offender’s drug treatment history,
 - (c) the likelihood that the offender will commit a domestic violence offence (within the meaning of the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007) during community custody (Stage 3) (within the meaning of Part 4A of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999),
 - (c1) the offender’s history of committing offences involving weapons or violence,
 - (c2) the offender’s history of committing offences related to the offender’s long-term drug dependency and associated lifestyle,
 - (d) any other matter prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the conduct of investigations and the preparation of reports for the purposes of this Part.

18F Concurrent and consecutive sentences

- (1) A compulsory drug treatment order may be made in respect of two or more sentences of imprisonment that are being served concurrently or consecutively (or partly concurrently and partly consecutively).
- (2) A reference in this Part to a sentence of imprisonment includes a reference to two or more sentences of imprisonment that are being served concurrently or consecutively (or partly concurrently and partly consecutively).
- (3) A reference in section 5A (1) (b) to an unexpired non-parole period in relation to a sentence includes a reference to a cumulative unexpired non-parole period in relation to two or more sentences of imprisonment that are being served concurrently or consecutively (or partly concurrently and partly consecutively).

Division 4 Miscellaneous

18G Effect of compulsory drug treatment order

A compulsory drug treatment order has the effect of—

- (a) cancelling the warrant of commitment issued under section 62 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in relation to the offender, and
- (b) revoking any statutory parole order under section 158 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 in relation to the offender, and

- (c) requiring the eligible convicted offender to comply with the compulsory drug treatment personal plan to be set for the person under section 106F of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999, and
- (d) suspending any entitlement of the eligible convicted offender to be considered for parole under the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

18H Explanation of compulsory drug treatment order to offender

- (1) Before making a compulsory drug treatment order in relation to an eligible convicted offender's sentence of imprisonment, the Drug Court must ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to explain to the offender (in language that the offender can readily understand)—
 - (a) the offender's obligations under the compulsory drug treatment order, and
 - (b) the consequences that may follow if the offender fails to comply with those obligations.
- (2) A compulsory drug treatment order is not invalidated by a failure to comply with this section.

18I Preparation and service of written notice of compulsory drug treatment order

- (1) As soon as practicable after making a compulsory drug treatment order, the Drug Court must cause written notice of the order to be given to the eligible convicted offender and to the Commissioner of Corrective Services.
- (2) A compulsory drug treatment order is not invalidated by a failure to comply with this section.

18J Warrant of commitment

As soon as practicable after making a compulsory drug treatment order, the Drug Court must issue a warrant for the committal of the eligible convicted offender to the Compulsory Drug Treatment Correctional Centre.

Part 3 The Drug Court

Division 1 Constitution of Drug Court

19 Constitution of Drug Court

There is constituted by this Act a court of record to be known as the Drug Court of New South Wales.

20 Judges

- (1) The Governor may, by commission under the public seal of the State, appoint as a Drug Court Judge any person who is a Judge of a New South Wales court.

- (2) A person ceases to be a Drug Court Judge on ceasing to be a Judge of a New South Wales court.
- (3) In this section—

Judge includes an acting Judge.

New South Wales court means the Supreme Court or District Court or a Court that is of equivalent status (for the purposes of Part 9 of the Constitution Act 1902) to the Supreme Court or District Court.

21 Senior Judge

- (1) The Governor may, by a person's commission as a Judge or by a subsequent commission under the public seal of the State, appoint one of the Drug Court Judges to be the Senior Judge of the Drug Court.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Senior Judge holds office as Senior Judge while he or she holds office as Judge.
- (3) With the approval of the Governor, the Senior Judge may resign office as Senior Judge without resigning office as Judge.

22 Acting Senior Judge

- (1) The Minister may appoint a Judge to be acting Senior Judge during any absence from duty or vacancy in office of the Senior Judge.
- (1A) The Minister may make any such appointment for a particular absence or vacancy or for any absence or vacancy that occurs from time to time.
- (2) An acting Senior Judge has the functions of the Senior Judge and anything done by the acting Senior Judge in the exercise of those functions has effect as if it had been done by the Senior Judge.

Division 2 Procedure of Drug Court

23 Single Judge to constitute Drug Court

All proceedings in the Drug Court, and all matters arising out of any such proceedings, are to be heard and disposed of before a Judge, who constitutes the Court.

24 Jurisdiction of Drug Court

- (1) The Drug Court has the following jurisdiction—
 - (a) the criminal jurisdiction of the District Court,

- (b) the criminal jurisdiction of the Local Court,
 - (c) such other jurisdiction as is vested in the Drug Court by this or any other Act.
- (2) For the purpose of enabling it to exercise its jurisdiction, the Drug Court has the following functions—
- (a) all of the functions of the District Court that are exercisable in relation to its criminal jurisdiction,
 - (b) all of the functions of the Local Court that are exercisable in relation to its criminal jurisdiction, including all the functions exercisable by a Magistrate under the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 or by the Local Court under the Bail Act 2013,
 - (c) such other functions as are conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act.
- (3) For the purposes of section 107C (1) (b) and (c) and section 108C (1) (b) and (c) of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 and section 98 (1) (b) and (c) of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (as previously in force but continuing to apply under clause 76 (3) of Schedule 2 to that Act)—
- (a) the Drug Court is a court of like jurisdiction in relation to the District Court, and
 - (b) the Drug Court is a court of superior jurisdiction in relation to the Local Court.

25 Sittings

- (1) The Drug Court is to sit at such places and times as the Senior Judge may direct.
- (2) Two or more sittings of the Drug Court may be held at the same time.

26 Court proceedings

- (1) This section applies to proceedings before the Drug Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Act or the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999, but does not apply to proceedings before the Drug Court in the exercise of the criminal jurisdiction of the District Court or the criminal jurisdiction of the Local Court.
- (2) Proceedings before the Drug Court are to be conducted—
 - (a) in accordance with the directions of the Judge presiding in the proceedings, and
 - (b) subject to paragraph (a), with as little formality and technicality, and with as much expedition, as the requirements of this Act, the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 and any regulations made under those Acts and the proper consideration of the matters before the Court permit.
- (3) The Drug Court is not bound by the rules of evidence, but may inform itself on any matter in such manner as it considers appropriate.

(4) The Drug Court may adjourn its proceedings from time to time.

27 Rules of court

The Senior Judge may make rules of court, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter relating to the practice or procedure of the Drug Court, including—

- (a) any matter for or with respect to which rules may be made under the District Court Act 1973 in relation to the criminal jurisdiction of the District Court, and
- (b) any matter for or with respect to which rules may be made under the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 in relation to the criminal jurisdiction of the Local Court, and
- (c) any matter for or with respect to which a power to make rules is conferred by this Act.

Division 3 Administration

28 Court officers

- (1) A registrar and such other officers as are necessary for the proper administration of this Act are to be appointed under Part 2 of the Public Sector Management Act 1988.
- (2) Arrangements may be made for the use by the Drug Court of the services of any staff (by secondment or otherwise) or facilities of a Government department.

29 Court business

- (1) The Senior Judge is responsible for the administration of the business of the Drug Court.
- (2) The registrar may exercise—
 - (a) such of the functions of the Court as are conferred or imposed on the registrar by the regulations or the rules of court, and
 - (b) such of the functions of a registrar of the District Court as are relevant to the exercise by the Drug Court of the criminal jurisdiction of a District Court, and
 - (c) such of the functions of a registrar of the Local Court as are relevant to the exercise by the Drug Court of the criminal jurisdiction of the Local Court.

30 Delegation

- (1) The Senior Judge may delegate to a Judge any of the Senior Judge's functions, other than this power of delegation.
- (2) The registrar may delegate to any other officer of the Court any of the registrar's functions, other than this power of delegation.

Part 4 Miscellaneous
