Part 4 Complaints

21 Definition

In this Part—community services complaint means a complaint about a service provider made under this Act or the Ombudsman Act 1974.

22 Complaints about service providers

- (1) A person may make a complaint to the Ombudsman about the conduct of a service provider with respect to the provision, failure to provide, withdrawal, variation or administration of a community service in respect of a particular person or group of persons.
- (2) A complaint under subsection (1) may be made about the conduct of any person who is an employee of, or who acts for or on behalf of, a service provider.
- (3) A complaint may be made orally or in writing.
- (4) A person may not complain about conduct that is conduct of a kind referred to in Schedule 1 (other than items 6, 12 and 17) of the Ombudsman Act 1974.
- (5) This section is in addition to, and does not derogate from, any right of a person to complain to the Ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 1974 about the conduct of a service provider.
- (6) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (1) extends to a complaint about any decision of a designated agency in respect of the authorisation of a person as an authorised carer under the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.

Note—

A complaint may be made under the Ombudsman Act 1974 in relation to conduct of a public authority, being an action or inaction or alleged action or inaction relating to a matter of administration.

23 Who may make a complaint?

- (1) A community services complaint may be made by any person who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Ombudsman that he or she has a genuine concern in the subject-matter of the complaint.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a complaint may be made—
 - (a) by a person advocating on behalf of the person in respect of whom the relevant service was provided, withdrawn, varied or administered, or

- (3) A person who is, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, unjustifiably interfering in a matter is not entitled to make a complaint in relation to the matter.

- (5) This section has effect despite any provision of the Ombudsman Act 1974.

24 Application of Ombudsman Act 1974 to complaints under this Act

- (1) The Ombudsman Act 1974 (other than section 12 (1) and (4) of that Act) applies to or in respect of a complaint made under this Act about the conduct of a service provider, and any conduct of a service provider, in the same way that it applies to or in respect of a complaint made under that Act about the conduct of a public authority or to conduct of a public authority.
- (2) For that purpose—
 - (a) a complaint made under this Act is taken to be a complaint made under section 12 (1) of the Ombudsman Act 1974, and
 - (b) section 13 (1) of that Act applies to conduct about which a complaint could be made under this Act, and
 - (c) a service provider (including any person who is an employee of, or who acts for or on behalf of, a service provider) is taken to be a public authority, and
 - (d) the Ombudsman has the same functions in relation to the investigation of, reporting on and furnishing of information about a complaint under this Act as the Ombudsman has under the Ombudsman Act 1974, and
 - (e) section 26A of that Act applies in respect of a report by the Ombudsman about a complaint made under this Act.
- (2A) However, the Ombudsman Act 1974 as applied by this section applies, in relation to a complaint made under this Act about the conduct of a service provider that is not a government agency (and in relation to any conduct of such a service provider), subject to any modifications prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), the Ombudsman is not required to give notice of a complaint or an investigation if the giving of notice will or is likely to—
 - (a) prejudice the investigation of the complaint, or
 - (b) place the health or safety of a person to whom a service is provided at risk, or

(c) place the complainant at risk of intimidation or harassment.

Note—

Under the Ombudsman Act 1974, the Ombudsman may make preliminary inquiries about a complaint, deal with a complaint by conciliation or investigate a complaint and may investigate conduct whether or not there has been a complaint.

25 Referral of complaints about service providers or to service providers for resolution

- (1) The Ombudsman may refer a community services complaint (or any part of a community services complaint) to another person or body (including a service provider) if it appears that the complaint raises issues that may require investigation by the other person or body.
- (2) Despite the referral of a complaint (or part of a complaint), the Ombudsman may, if the Ombudsman considers there are appropriate reasons to do so, continue to deal with the complaint.
- (3) The Ombudsman may, if of the opinion that it is appropriate to do so, refer a complaint (or part of a complaint) to the service provider for resolution, if possible.
- (4) A service provider to whom a complaint (or part of a complaint) is referred under this section must report to the Ombudsman on the outcome of that referral.
- (5) The Ombudsman may monitor the progress of an investigation by a service provider into a matter referred to the service provider by the Ombudsman under subsection (1).
- (6) A service provider is to provide the Ombudsman with such documentary and other information as the Ombudsman may from time to time request with respect to an investigation referred to in subsection (5).

26 Can a complaint be withdrawn?

- (1) A complainant may withdraw a community services complaint at any time by notice in writing to the Ombudsman.
- (2) On the withdrawal of a complaint, the Ombudsman may cease to deal with it or may continue to deal with the matter the subject of the complaint if it appears to the Ombudsman that—
 - (a) the matter raises a significant issue of public safety or public interest, or
 - (b) the matter raises a significant question as to the appropriate care or treatment of a person by a service provider.

27 Additional grounds for investigating complaint

In addition to any ground on which the Ombudsman may investigate a community services complaint under the Ombudsman Act 1974, the Ombudsman may investigate any such complaint if it appears to the Ombudsman that—

- (a) the complaint raises a significant issue of public safety or public interest, or
