Anzac Memorial (Building) Act 1923 No 27

New South Wales

An Act to incorporate persons holding certain official positions as the Trustees of the Anzac Memorial Building; to vest certain moneys collected from the public in, and to confer certain powers upon, the said corporation; and for purposes connected therewith.

Preamble

WHEREAS on the second day of August, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, an appeal for funds was made to the public for the purpose of raising a memorial building which would not only serve as a memorial of the achievement of the Australian Imperial Forces, but would also provide returned sailors and soldiers with a place for rest and recreation, and as the result of such an appeal the sum of forty-five thousand three hundred pounds is now held on behalf of such memorial building: And whereas other sums of money are also held for the same purpose, which sums include moneys collected on the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, now amounting to eleven thousand eight hundred pounds or thereabouts, and certain other moneys collected in the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, amounting to about five thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds: And whereas it is expedient in order to erect the memorial building that the said sums of money should be transferred to and vested in trustees, and that such trustees should be constituted a body corporate and invested with the powers and authorities hereinafter contained—

Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows—

(e) may promote the understanding of, and conduct community education about, Australia's military history and heritage, and

(f) have the functions conferred on them by the Returned and Services League of Australia (New South Wales Branch) Incorporation Act 1935 and any other Act.

(2) Any moneys received by the trustees pursuant to subsection (1) (c) shall be available only for the purposes of carrying into effect the powers and duties of the trustees under this Act.

8B Publication of representations etc of memorial without permission an offence

Any person who, except with the authority in writing of the trustees, manufactures, prints, publishes or sells, or authorises the manufacture, printing, publishing or sale of any replicas, photographs, booklets, pamphlets or other like matter relating to the memorial building shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100—

Provided that this section shall not render liable—

(a) any person who prints or publishes any such photograph unless he knows that such photograph is to be used for the purposes of advertisement or to be sold, or

(b) any proprietor, printer or publisher of a newspaper for the printing, publishing or sale of a newspaper containing photographs or other matter relating to the memorial building.

8C Dedication of memorial building as principal State war memorial

(1) The trustees are, or some person (whether or not a trustee) with the concurrence of the trustees is, hereby authorised to conduct a ceremony to dedicate the memorial building as the principal New South Wales State memorial to Australians who have served, or who serve, in wars in which Australian service personnel have been, or may be, engaged.

(2) In any dedication ceremony authorised by subsection (1) the precise words of that subsection need not be used so long as the general effect of the subsection is accomplished.

(3) Upon the completion of the dedication ceremony authorised by subsection (1), the memorial building is, by this Act, dedicated for the purpose specified in that subsection.

9 By-laws

(1) The trustees may make by-laws not inconsistent with this Act, for the general control and management of the memorial building, and the land described in Schedule 1, for the protection of any structure thereupon, for the removal of trespassers and other persons loitering upon or causing annoyance or inconvenience upon the said land, and for regulating the conduct of their own proceedings, including the times, places, conduct and quorum of their meetings.

- (2) A by-law made under subsection (1) shall be approved by the Governor.
- (2A) (Repealed)
- (3) A by-law may create an offence punishable by a penalty not exceeding 40 penalty units.
- (3A) Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the by-laws may be taken before the Local Court.
- (4) The whole amount of all penalties imposed under this Act or the by-laws shall be paid to the trustees to be applied by them for the purposes of this Act.
- (4A) Instead of imposing a fine on a person for an offence under a by-law that results in damage to, or the defacing of, the Memorial Building or any part of the land described in Schedule 1, the court—
- (a) may make a community correction order under section 8 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 that is subject to the standard conditions of a community correction order and to a community service work condition (despite the offence not being punishable by imprisonment), or
 - (b) may make an order under section 5 (1) of the Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987 requiring the person to perform community service work, as the case requires.
- (5) The trustees or an officer appointed by them may call in the aid of the police for the removal by force if necessary of any person who is found committing a breach of any by-law or who is loitering upon the land described in Schedule 1 or who by disorderly or insulting conduct upon or in the immediate neighbourhood of such land causes annoyance or inconvenience to persons being on the said land or going to or coming from the same.

9A Delegation by trustees

The trustees may, by written instrument, delegate to any trustee or officer of the Department of Communities and Justice any of their functions, other than this power of delegation.

10 Prosecution under other Acts etc

Nothing in this Act shall prevent any prosecution or proceeding under any other Act, by-law or regulation, but no person shall be twice punished or proceeded against in respect of the same offence.

11 Compensation

- (1) A court that convicts a person of an offence under the by-laws (being an offence committed after the commencement of this section) may, in addition to any penalty imposed for the offence, order the person to pay an amount not exceeding 40 penalty units as the cost of, or as a contribution to the cost of, the repair or restoration of any damage caused by the action that resulted in the conviction.
- (2) An amount ordered to be paid under subsection (1) is to be paid to the trustees unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3) An order for the payment of money under subsection (1) is taken to be a fine for the purposes of the Fines Act 1996.
- (4) An order by a court under section 10 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in any proceedings for an offence referred to in subsection (1) operates for the purposes of that subsection as a conviction for the offence.

12 Personal liability of trustees

- (1) Anything done or omitted to be done by a trustee does not subject the trustee personally to any action, liability, claim or demand if the thing was done, or omitted to be done, in good faith for the purpose of exercising the functions of the trustee under this Act.
- (2) However, any such liability attaches instead to the Crown.
