Insurance (Application of Laws) Act 1986 No 13

New South Wales

An Act to provide for the application of certain Commonwealth insurance legislation to State insurance.

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Insurance (Application of Laws) Act 1986.

2 Commencement

- (1) Sections 1 and 2 shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection (1), this Act shall commence on such day as may be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

3 Definitions

- (1) In this Act, except in so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires:

applied provision means a provision of:

- (a) the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 of the Commonwealth, or
- (b) (Repealed)
- (c) an instrument in force under either of those Acts, being a provision that, pursuant to this Act, applies as a law of New South Wales.

regulation means a regulation made under this Act.

- (2) An applied provision shall be construed in accordance with the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 of the Commonwealth, as in force from time to time.
- (3) Without affecting the generality of section 31 of the Interpretation Act 1987, this Act shall be construed as operating to the full extent of, but so as not to exceed, the legislative power of Parliament.
- (4) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

4 Crown bound

- (1) This Act and the applied provisions bind the Crown in right of New South Wales and also, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.
- (2) Nothing in this Act renders the Crown, whether in right of New South Wales or otherwise, liable to be prosecuted for an offence against an applied provision.

5 Application of Insurance Contracts Act 1984 of the Commonwealth etc

- (1) Except to the extent to which the regulations otherwise provide and subject to any modifications specified in the regulations, the provisions of:
 - (a) the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 of the Commonwealth, as in force from time to time, and
 - (b) any instrument in force under that Act,apply as laws of New South Wales to and in respect of all contracts of insurance and proposed contracts of insurance entered into, or proposed to be entered into, in the course of State insurance, including contracts and proposed contracts entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by the State and some other insurer as joint insurers.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not operate so as to apply section 5 or 9 (2) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 of the Commonwealth as a law of New South Wales.

6 Application of Corporations legislation to State insurance matters

- (1) The regulations may declare any State insurance matter to be an applied Corporations legislation matter for the purposes of Part 3 of the Corporations \(Ancillary Provisions\) Act 2001 (with such modifications as may be specified in the declaration) in relation to the following:
 - (a) all or any of the provisions of Chapter 7 (Financial services and markets) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth,
 - (b) all or any of the provisions of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 of the Commonwealth relating to financial products or financial markets.

Note—

Part 3 of the Corporations \(Ancillary Provisions\) Act 2001 provides for the application of provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 and Part 3 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 of the Commonwealth as laws of the State in respect of any matter declared by a law of the State (whether with or without modification) to be an applied Corporations legislation matter for the purposes of that Part in relation to those Commonwealth provisions. Section 14 (2) of the Corporations \(Ancillary Provisions\) Act 2001 ensures that a declaration made for the purposes of Part 3 of that Act only operates to apply a provision of the Corporations legislation to a matter as a law of the State if that provision does not already apply to the matter as a law of the Commonwealth. If a provision referred to in a declaration already applies as a law of the Commonwealth, nothing in the declaration will affect its continued operation as a law of the Commonwealth.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), any such regulations may:
- (a) specify modifications to the definitions and other interpretative provisions of the Corporations legislation relevant to any provision of the Commonwealth legislation that is the subject of the declaration, and
 - (b) provide for ASIC to exercise a function under any provision of the Corporations legislation that is the subject of the declaration, but only if:
 - (i) ASIC is to exercise that function pursuant to an agreement of the kind referred to in section 11 (8) or (9A) (b) of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, and
 - (ii) ASIC is authorised to exercise that function under section 11 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, and
 - (c) specify that a reference to ASIC in any provision of the Corporations legislation that is the subject of the declaration is to be read as a reference to another person, and
 - (d) identify the provisions of the Corporations legislation to which the declaration relates by reference to that legislation as in force at a particular time, and
 - (e) specify a court of this State (other than the Supreme Court) to exercise any function conferred on a court or the Court by any provision of the Corporations legislation to which the declaration relates.
- (3) Words and expressions used in this section and also in Part 3 of the Corporations (Ancillary Provisions) Act 2001 have the same meanings as they have in that Part.
- (4) In this section:

State insurance matter means:

- (a) State insurance within the meaning of section 51 (xiv) of the Commonwealth Constitution, or
- (b) contracts of insurance and proposed contracts of insurance entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by the State and some other insurer as joint insurers, or
- (c) conduct in connection with contracts and proposed contracts of the kind referred to in paragraph (b).

- (1) The applied provisions do not apply to or in respect of the insurance funds administration business of the Government Insurance Office of New South Wales (that is, business of the kind referred to in section 5B (1) (b) of the Government Insurance Act 1927) or to or in respect of that Office in its conduct of that business.
- (2) This section continues to have effect with respect to that insurance funds administration business even though it is transferred to another person or body under the Government Insurance Office (Privatisation) Act 1991.
