Summary Offences Act 1988 No 25

New South Wales

An Act with respect to conduct in public and other places; to repeal the Offences in Public Places Act 1979, the Public Assemblies Act 1979 and the Prostitution Act 1979; and for other purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Summary Offences Act 1988.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Act—

building means a building or structure, or any part of a building or structure.

church means—

- (a) a building ordinarily used for Divine worship, and
- (b) any land occupied or used in connection with such a building.

dwelling means—

- (a) a building intended for occupation as a residence and being, or capable of being, so occupied, except where it is above, or attached to, a shop or commercial premises, and
- (b) such a building that is part of a retirement village or is among the buildings in which persons live as a religious or other private community, and
- (c) any land occupied or used in connection with a building referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

hospital means—

- (a) a public hospital within the meaning of the Health Services Act 1997 controlled by a local health district or the Crown, or
- (b) a statutory health corporation or affiliated health organisation within the meaning of that Act, or
- (c) a private health facility within the meaning of the Private Health Facilities Act 2007 or a nursing home within the meaning of the Public Health Act 2010, and any land or building occupied or used in connection with such a hospital, establishment or nursing home.

knife includes—

- (a) a knife blade, or
- (b) a razor blade, or
- (c) any other blade,

but does not include anything that is of a class or description declared by the regulations to be excluded from this definition.

premises includes a structure, building, vehicle, vessel or place, whether built on or not, and any part thereof.

prohibited drug has the same meaning as it has in the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985.

prostitution includes acts of prostitution between persons of different sexes or of the same sex, and includes—

- (a) sexual intercourse within the meaning of Division 10 of Part 3 of the Crimes Act 1900, and
- (b) masturbation committed by one person on another, for payment.

public place means—

- (a) a place (whether or not covered by water), or
- (b) a part of premises, that is open to the public, or is used by the public whether or not on payment of money or other consideration, whether or not the place or part is ordinarily so open or used and whether or not the public to whom it is open consists only of a limited class of persons, but does not include a school.

residence includes a building in which a person resides as part of a private community.

road means a road within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Road Transport Act 2013 (other than a road that is the subject of a declaration made under section 18 (1) (b) of that Act relating to all of the provisions of that Act).

road related area means a road related area within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Road Transport Act 2013 (other than a road related area that is the subject of a declaration made under section 18 (1) (b) of that Act relating to all of the provisions of that Act).

school means—

- (a) a government school or a registered non-government school within the meaning of the Education Act 1990, and
- (b) a school providing education (whether secular or religious) at a pre-school or infants' school level or at a primary or secondary level, and
- (c) a place used for the purposes of an establishment commonly known as a child-minding centre or for similar purposes, and
- (d) the land, and any building, occupied by or in connection with the conduct of such a school or place, and includes any part of such a school or place, but does not include any building that is occupied or used solely as a residence or solely for a purpose unconnected with the conduct of such a school or place.

vehicle includes—

- (a) a motor vehicle (whether or not still capable of being driven), and
- (b) a train or other vehicle used on a railway or monorail, and
- (c) a caravan or anything else constructed to be drawn by a vehicle or animal.

Note.

The Interpretation Act 1987 contains definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this Act.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a person who is in a vehicle in any place shall be taken to be in that place.
- (3) Section 8 of the Crimes Act 1900 does not apply in relation to the expression “public place” in this Act.
- (4) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

Part 2 Offences in public and other places

Division 1 Offensive behaviour

4 Offensive conduct

- (1) A person must not conduct himself or herself in an offensive manner in or near, or within view or hearing from, a public place or a school.

Maximum penalty—6 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months.

- (2) A person does not conduct himself or herself in an offensive manner as referred to in subsection (1) merely by using offensive language.
- (3) It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for an offence under this section if the defendant satisfies the court that the defendant had a reasonable excuse for conducting himself or herself in the manner alleged in the information for the offence.

4A Offensive language

- (1) A person must not use offensive language in or near, or within hearing from, a public place or a school.

Maximum penalty—6 penalty units.

- (2) It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for an offence under this section if the defendant satisfies the court that the defendant had a reasonable excuse for conducting himself or herself in the manner alleged in the information for the offence.
- (3) Instead of imposing a fine on a person, the court—
- (a) may make a community correction order under section 8 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 that is subject to the standard conditions of a community correction order and to a community service work condition (despite the offence not being punishable by imprisonment), or
 - (b) may make an order under section 5 (1) of the Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987 requiring the person to perform community service work, as the case requires.
- (4), (5) (Repealed)
- (6) However, the maximum number of hours of community service work that a person may be required to perform under an order in respect of an offence under this section is 100 hours.

5 Obscene exposure

A person shall not, in or within view from a public place or a school, wilfully and obscenely expose his or her person.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or imprisonment for six months.

6 Obstructing traffic

A person shall not, without reasonable excuse (proof of which lies on the person), wilfully prevent, in any manner, the free passage of a person, vehicle or vessel in a public place.

Maximum penalty—4 penalty units.

6A Unauthorised entry of vehicle or boat

A person must not, without reasonable excuse (proof of which lies on the person), enter any vehicle or boat in a public place without the consent of the owner or lawful occupier of the vehicle or boat.

Maximum penalty—4 penalty units.

7 Damaging fountains

A person shall not wilfully—

- (a) damage or deface, or
- (b) enter upon, or
- (c) cause any foreign material or substance to enter into, any part of a fountain erected in a public place.

Maximum penalty—4 penalty units.

8 Damaging or desecrating protected places

(1) In this section—

interment site has the meaning it has in Part 4 of the Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2013 and includes a memorial (within the meaning of that Act).

protected place means a shrine, monument or statue located in a public place, and (without limitation) includes a war memorial or an interment site.

war memorial means a war memorial located in a public place, and (without limitation) includes—

- (a) the Anzac Memorial in Hyde Park, Sydney, being—
 - (i) the memorial building referred to in the Anzac Memorial \(Building\) Act 1923, and
 - (ii) the land described in the Schedule to that Act, and

(iii) any other structure on that land, and

(b) any other place prescribed under subsection (4) as a war memorial for the purposes of this section.

(2) A person must not wilfully damage or deface any protected place.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(3) A person must not commit any nuisance or any offensive or indecent act in, on or in connection with any war memorial or interment site.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

(3A) Instead of imposing a fine on a person under this section, the court—

(a) may make a community correction order under section 8 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 that is subject to the standard conditions of a community correction order and to a community service work condition (despite the offence not being punishable by imprisonment), or

(b) may make an order under section 5 (1) of the Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987 requiring the person to perform community service work, as the case requires.

(4) The regulations may prescribe a place (within a public place) as a war memorial for the purposes of this section, comprising—

(a) a specified shrine, monument, statue or other structure or place, and

(b) a specified area (if any) within its vicinity.

8A Climbing on or jumping from buildings and other structures

(1) A person who risks the safety of any other person as a consequence of—

(a) abseiling, jumping or parachuting from any part of a building or other structure, or

(b) climbing down or up or on or otherwise descending (except as referred to in paragraph (a)) or ascending any part of a building or other structure, except by use of the stairs, lifts or other means provided for ascent or descent of it, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

(2) A person is not guilty of an offence under this section for doing anything if the person establishes that he or she had some reasonable excuse for doing it or did it for a lawful purpose.

(3) In this section—

structure includes a bridge, crane (whether mobile or not) and tower, but does not include a structure provided for climbing or jumping for recreational purposes.

9 Continuation of intoxicated and disorderly behaviour following move on direction

(1) A person who—

(a) is given a move on direction for being intoxicated and disorderly in a public place, and

(b) at any time within 6 hours after the move on direction is given, is intoxicated and disorderly in the same or another public place,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—15 penalty units.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a move on direction is a direction given to a person by a police officer, under section 198 of the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002, to leave a public place and not return for a specified period.

Note.

The maximum period for which a person can be directed not to return to a public place is 6 hours.

It is a requirement under section 198 of the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002 that the police officer warn a person given a move on direction for being intoxicated and disorderly in a public place that it is an offence to be intoxicated and disorderly in that or any other public place at any time within 6 hours after the move on direction is given.

(3) In proceedings for an offence against this section, it is necessary to prove that a move on direction was given within 6 hours before the person was found to be intoxicated and disorderly in a public place, but it is not necessary to prove that the person contravened the move on direction by being so intoxicated and disorderly in the public place at the time concerned.

(4) A person cannot be proceeded against or convicted for both an offence against this section and an offence against section 199 of the Law Enforcement \(Powers and Responsibilities\) Act 2002 (Failure to comply with direction) in relation to the same conduct.

(5) It is sufficient defence to a prosecution for an offence under this section if the defendant satisfies the court that the defendant had a reasonable excuse for conducting himself or herself in the manner alleged in the information for the offence.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a person is intoxicated if—

(a) the person's speech, balance, co-ordination or behaviour is noticeably affected, and

- (b) it is reasonable in the circumstances to believe that the affected speech, balance, co-ordination or behaviour is the result of the consumption of alcohol or any drug.

10 (Renumbered as sec 11B)

10AA, 10AB (Renumbered as secs 11E, 11F)

10A-10E (Repealed)

11 Possession of liquor by minors

- (1) A person under the age of 18 years is guilty of an offence if the person possesses or consumes any liquor in a public place, unless the person establishes that—
- (a) the person was under the supervision of a responsible adult, or
 - (b) the person had a reasonable excuse for possessing or consuming the liquor.
- Maximum penalty—$20.
- (2) A police officer may seize liquor in the possession of a person in a public place, if the officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that—
- (a) the person is under the age of 18 years, and
 - (b) the person is not under the supervision of a responsible adult, and
 - (c) the person does not have a reasonable excuse for possessing the liquor.
- (3) Liquor seized under this section is forfeited to the Crown.
- (4) Liquor may be seized under this section from a person's possession even though the person is under the age of criminal responsibility.
- (5) A person may not be arrested for an offence under subsection (1), except so far as may be necessary for the purpose of the administration of a caution by a police officer in relation to such an offence.
- (5A) A police officer who reasonably suspects that a person has committed an offence under subsection (1) may require that person—
- (a) to state his or her full name and residential address, and
 - (b) to produce then, or at a police station within a reasonable time, documentary evidence that might reasonably be accepted as applying to the person and as proving that the person is at least 18 years of age.
- (5B) A person the subject of a requirement under subsection (5A) must not—

- (a) refuse to state his or her full name and residential address, or
- (b) state a false name or residential address, or
- (c) without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to produce evidence of age as referred to in subsection (5A) (b).

Maximum penalty—$20.

- (6) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to—
 - (a) the procedure to be followed as regards the seizure of liquor under this section and the procedure to be followed after its seizure, and
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), prescribing the circumstances in which, and the procedure by which, liquor seized under this section is to be returned, and
 - (c) prescribing circumstances in which the other provisions of this section do not apply.

- (7) In this section—

liquor has the same meaning as in the Liquor Act 2007, and includes any container containing liquor.

11A Violent disorder

- (1) If 3 or more persons who are present together use or threaten unlawful violence and the conduct of them (taken together) is such as would cause a person of reasonable firmness present at the scene to fear for his or her personal safety, each of the persons using or threatening unlawful violence is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) It is immaterial whether or not the 3 or more persons use or threaten unlawful violence simultaneously.
- (3) No person of reasonable firmness need actually be, or be likely to be, present at the scene.
- (4) An offence under subsection (1) may be committed in private as well as in public places.
- (5) A person is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) only if he or she intends to use or threaten violence or is aware that his or her conduct may be violent or threaten violence.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not affect the determination for the purposes of subsection (1) of the number of persons who use or threaten violence.

(7) In this section—

violence means any violent conduct, so that—

- (a) it includes violent conduct towards property as well as violent conduct towards persons, and
- (b) it is not restricted to conduct causing or intended to cause injury or damage but includes any other violent conduct (for example, throwing at or towards a person a missile of a kind capable of causing injury which does not hit or falls short).

Division 2 Dangerous behaviour

Subdivision 1 Knives and offensive implements

11B Custody of offensive implement

- (1) A person shall not, without reasonable excuse (proof of which lies on the person), have in his or her custody an offensive implement in a public place or a school.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) If a person is convicted of an offence under this section, the court may, in addition to any penalty it may impose, make an order that the offensive implement be forfeited to the Crown, and the implement is forfeited accordingly.

(3) In this section—

offensive implement means—

- (a) anything made or adapted for use for causing injury to a person, or
- (b) anything intended, by the person having custody of the thing, to be used to injure or menace a person or damage property.

11C (Repealed)

11D Parents who allow children to carry knives

(1) The parent of a child, being a child—

- (a) who is under the age of 18 years, and
- (b) who commits an offence against the Crimes Act 1900, section 93IB, is guilty of an offence if the parent knowingly authorised or permitted the child to commit the offence.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

(2) The parent of a child may be proceeded against and dealt with under this section whether or not the child has been proceeded against or dealt with under the Crimes Act 1900, section 93IB.

- (3) Nothing in this section affects the liability of the parent's child for an offence committed by the child against the Crimes Act 1900, section 93IB.
- (4) If an act or omission constitutes an offence—
 - (a) under this section, and
 - (b) under section 11 of the Children (Protection and Parental Responsibility) Act 1997,the offender is not liable to be punished twice in respect of the act or omission.
- (5) In this section, parent of a child has the same meaning it has in the Children (Protection and Parental Responsibility) Act 1997.

11E (Repealed)

11F Sale of knives to children

- (1) A person who sells a knife to a child under the age of 16 years is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both.
- (1A) A person who, without reasonable excuse, sells a knife to a child who is 16 or 17 years of age is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both.
- (2) It is a defence (proof of which lies on the person) to a prosecution for an offence under this section that the person selling the knife believed on reasonable grounds that—
 - (a) for an offence under subsection (1)—the child was at least 16 years of age, or
 - (b) for an offence under subsection (1A)—the child was at least 18 years of age.
- (2A) For subsection (1A), it is a reasonable excuse for a person to sell a knife to a child who is 16 or 17 years of age if the person is satisfied the child reasonably requires the knife for the lawful pursuit of the child's occupation, education or training.
- (3) If an employee contravenes subsection (1) or (1A), the employer is taken to have contravened that subsection, whether or not the employee contravened the provision without the employer's authority or contrary to the employer's orders or instructions.
- (4) It is a defence to a prosecution against an employer for such a contravention if it is proved—
 - (a) that the employer had no knowledge of the contravention, and

(b) that the employer could not, by the exercise of due diligence, have prevented the contravention.

- (5) An employer may be proceeded against and convicted under subsection (1) or (1A) by virtue of subsection (3) whether or not the employee has been proceeded against or convicted under subsection (1) or (1A).
- (6) The regulations may provide that this section does not apply to or in relation to any specified class or description of knife.

Subdivision 2 Laser pointers

11FA Custody or use of laser pointer in public place

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse (proof of which lies on the person)—
- (a) have in his or her custody a laser pointer in a public place, or
 - (b) use a laser pointer in a public place.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (2) Without limitation, it is a reasonable excuse for the purposes of this section for a person—
- (a) to have custody of, or use, a laser pointer if the custody or use is reasonably necessary in all the circumstances for the lawful pursuit of the person's occupation, education, training or hobby, or
 - (b) to have custody of a laser pointer if the person has custody during travel to or from or incidental to that occupation, education, training or hobby.
- (3) The regulations may provide that this section does not apply to or in relation to any specified class or description of laser pointer.
- (4) In this section—

laser pointer means a hand-held battery-operated device, designed or adapted to emit a laser beam, that may be used for the purposes of aiming, targeting or pointing.

Division 2A Loitering by convicted child sexual offenders

11G Loitering by convicted child sexual offenders near premises frequented by children

- (1) A person who is a convicted child sexual offender and who loiters, without reasonable excuse, in or near—
- (a) a school, or
 - (b) a public place regularly frequented by children and in which children are present at the time of the loitering,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

(2) In this section—

child means a person under the age of 16 years.

convicted child sexual offender means a person who has been convicted, whether before or after the commencement of this section, of any of the following offences—

- (a) an offence involving sexual activity or sexual touching or a sexual act (within the meaning of Division 10 of Part 3 of the Crimes Act 1900) that was committed in New South Wales against or in respect of a child and that was punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more,
- (b) an offence under sections 91D–91G of the Crimes Act 1900 (other than if committed by a child prostitute),
- (c) an offence under section 91H, 578B or 578C (2A) of the Crimes Act 1900,
- (c1) an offence an element of which is an intention to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c),
- (d) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(c),
- (e) an offence under a law of a place outside New South Wales that would, if it had been committed in New South Wales, be an offence referred to in paragraphs (a)–(d).

conviction includes a spent conviction.

(3) For the purposes of this section, section 579 of the Crimes Act 1900 does not apply to or in respect of an offence referred to in the definition of convicted child sexual offender in subsection (2).

Division 2B Intimidatory use of vehicles and vessels

11H Intimidatory use of vehicles and vessels

- (1) A person must not operate a motorised vehicle or motorised vessel in a public place—
 - (a) in such a manner as to harass or intimidate another person, or
 - (b) in such a manner as would be likely to cause a person of reasonable firmness to fear for his or her personal safety.

Maximum penalty—6 penalty units.

- (2) No person of reasonable firmness need actually be, or be likely to be, present at the scene.
- (3) A person is not liable to be convicted (in respect of the same act or omission) of both—
 - (a) an offence under this section, and
 - (b) an offence under section 118 (Menacing driving) of the Road Transport Act 2013 (or a former corresponding provision within the meaning of that Act).
- (4) In this section—

vehicle includes—

- (a) anything on wheels, tracks or skis, other than a vehicle used on a railway, tramway or monorail, and
- (b) anything else declared by the regulations to be a vehicle for the purposes of this section.

vessel includes—

- (a) anything that is used, or is capable of being used, as a means of transportation on, under or immediately above water, and
- (b) anything else declared by the regulations to be a vessel for the purposes of this section.

Division 3 Miscellaneous

12 Defence

It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for an offence under any of the provisions of this Part if the defendant satisfies the court that the act complained of in the information for the offence was done with lawful authority.

13 Particulars to be furnished

- (1) If a defendant charged with an offence under any of the provisions of this Part—
 - (a) has requested the informant to furnish to the defendant reasonable particulars of the behaviour or conduct the subject of the charge, and
 - (b) the informant, or some person on his or her behalf, has not so furnished those particulars, the court before which the defendant is charged shall adjourn the charge pending the furnishing of those particulars or may dismiss the charge.

- (2) If, at the hearing of a charge for an offence referred to in subsection (1)—
- (a) the evidence discloses behaviour or conduct that constitutes such an offence, and
 - (b) that behaviour or conduct is different from the behaviour or conduct of which particulars have been given to the defendant under subsection (1), the court may, on the application of the defendant and if it is of the opinion that the defendant was deceived by those particulars, adjourn the hearing on such terms as it thinks fit.

Part 3 Prostitution

14 Exclusion of matters dealt with under certain Acts

In this Part—

premises does not include—

- (a) the premises of a club registered under the Registered Clubs Act 1976, or
- (b) licensed premises under the Liquor Act 1982.

15 (Repealed)

Part 3A Minors in sex clubs

21A Definitions

In this Part—

declared sex club means premises for the time being declared under this Part to be a sex club.

live sex entertainment means live public entertainment of a sexually explicit nature, such as striptease or actual or simulated sexual intercourse (whether or not involving audience participation).

manager of a declared sex club means a person having the management or control, or otherwise in charge, of the club.

minor means a person who has not attained the age of 18 years.

public entertainment means entertainment to which admission may ordinarily be gained by members of the public (whether or not the public to whom it is open consists only of a limited class of persons) on payment of money, or other consideration, as the price or condition of admission. Entertainment does not cease to be public entertainment merely because—

- (a) some (but not all) persons may be admitted to the entertainment otherwise than on payment of money, or other consideration, as the price or condition of admission, or

- (b) payment of money or other consideration, is demanded as the charge for a meal or other refreshment, or for any other service or thing, before admission to the entertainment is granted or as the charge for the entertainment after admission to the entertainment has been granted.

senior police officer means a police officer of or above the rank of senior sergeant.

21B Minister may declare premises to be sex club on application of senior police officer

- (1) A senior police officer may apply to the Minister for premises to be declared a sex club under this Part.
- (2) The Minister may declare the premises to be a sex club under this Part if satisfied that—
- (a) the premises are used solely or substantially for live sex entertainment, and
 - (b) there is no effective prohibition under the Liquor Act 2007 or any other law on minors entering the premises.
- (3) The premises declared to be a sex club may include any area that is associated with any part of the premises used for live sex entertainment.
- (4) The Minister may rely on information supplied in the application for the declaration or any other information available to the Minister for the purposes of making the declaration.
- (5) The following provisions apply to the declaration of a sex club—
- (a) the declaration must set out a description of the premises to which it relates,
 - (b) the declaration may be limited to circumstances specified in the declaration,
 - (c) the declaration may be revoked by the Minister at any time.
- (6) The Minister may delegate the powers conferred on the Minister by this section (other than this power of delegation).

21C Notification of declaration of premises

- (1) The declaration of any premises as a sex club is to be notified by any one or more of the following means—
- (a) by publication of the declaration in the Gazette,
 - (b) by publication of the declaration in any newspaper circulating in the area in which the premises are located,

- (c) by the service of notice of the declaration on the manager of the premises or a person who—
 - (i) is entitled to any of the proceeds of the operation of the premises, or
 - (ii) is otherwise concerned in the management of the premises,
- (d) by affixing a notice of the declaration in a conspicuous place at the main entry point to the premises.

- (2) A declaration does not take effect until it has been notified by any one of those means.

21D Minors not permitted in declared sex clubs

- (1) A person engaged in the operation of a declared sex club must not permit a minor to enter or remain in the club.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (2) A person is engaged in the operation of a declared sex club if—

- (a) the person is the manager of the club, or
- (b) the person is employed to carry out duties in the club, or
- (c) the person is entitled to any of the proceeds of the operation of the club or is otherwise concerned in the management of the club.

- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence under subsection (1) if it is proved that—

- (a) the person charged believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was of or above the age of 18 years, or
- (b) the person charged had no knowledge that the minor was in the club and could not, by the exercise of due diligence, have prevented the minor from being in the club.

21E Notices to be displayed

- (1) The manager of a declared sex club must ensure that there is continually displayed at each entry point to the club a notice that—

- (a) states that a minor is not permitted to enter the club, and
- (b) is displayed in such a manner that it would be reasonable to expect that a person entering the club would be alerted to its contents.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (2) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the size and content of such notices.

21F Police powers of entry

- (1) If a police officer believes on reasonable grounds that a minor is in a declared sex club, the officer may, at any time of the day or night, enter the premises to ascertain whether an offence under this Part has been or is being committed.
- (2) A police officer exercising the power conferred by subsection (1) may, with or without assistance, break into the premises if entry is refused or is unreasonably delayed.
- (3) If a police officer is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that a minor is in a declared sex club, the officer may remove the minor, or cause the minor to be removed, from the premises.
- (4) A person who wilfully delays or obstructs a police officer in the exercise of a power under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (5) In the exercise of a power conferred under this section, a police officer may request any person to answer any question relating to any suspected offence under this Part.

Part 3B

21G, 21H (Repealed)

Part 4 Public assemblies

22 Definitions

In this Part—

Commissioner means the Commissioner of Police.

Court means the Supreme Court or the District Court.

organiser, in relation to a public assembly in respect of which a notice has been given to the Commissioner as referred to in section 23 (1), means the person referred to in section 23 (1) (e) (i) by whom the notice is signed.

public assembly means an assembly held in a public place, and includes a procession so held.

public place means a public road, public reserve or other place which the public are entitled to use.

23 Authorised public assemblies

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a public assembly is an authorised public assembly if—
- (a) notice, in writing, of intention to hold the public assembly, addressed to the Commissioner, has been served on the Commissioner, and
 - (b) if a form of notice has been prescribed, the notice is in or to the effect of the prescribed form, and
 - (c) the notice contains the following particulars—
 - (i) the date on which it is proposed to hold the public assembly,
 - (ii) if the proposed public assembly is not a procession, a statement specifying the time and place at which it is intended that persons gather to participate in the proposed public assembly,
 - (iii) if the proposed public assembly is a procession, a statement specifying the time at which it is intended that the procession commence and the proposed route of the procession and, if it is intended that the procession should stop at places along that route for the purpose of enabling persons participating in the procession to be addressed or for any other purpose, a statement specifying those places,
 - (iv) the purpose for which the proposed public assembly is to be held,
 - (v) such other particulars as may be prescribed, and
 - (d) the notice specifies the number of persons who are expected to be participants in the proposed public assembly, and
 - (e) the notice—
 - (i) is signed by a person who indicates in the notice that he or she takes responsibility for organising and conducting the proposed public assembly, and
 - (ii) specifies the address of that person for the service on him or her of any notice for the purposes of this Part (which may include an address for the transmission of facsimiles or the sending of emails to the person), and
 - (f) the Commissioner has notified the organiser of the public assembly that the Commissioner does not oppose the holding of the public assembly or—
 - (i) if the notice was served on the Commissioner at least 7 days before the date specified in the notice as the date on which it is proposed to hold the public assembly—the holding of the public assembly is not prohibited by a Court under section 25 (1), or

(ii) if the notice was served on the Commissioner less than 7 days before that date—the holding of the public assembly is authorised by a Court under section 26.

(2) Without prejudice to any other method of serving a notice referred to in subsection (1) on the Commissioner, such a notice may be served by leaving it with any member of the Police Force or such other person as may be prescribed at the address prescribed as the address of the office of the Commissioner.

24 Participation in authorised public assembly

If an authorised public assembly is held substantially in accordance with the particulars furnished with respect to it under section 23 (1) (c) or, if those particulars are amended by agreement between the Commissioner and the organiser, in accordance with those particulars as amended and in accordance with any prescribed requirements, a person is not, by reason of any thing done or omitted to be done by the person for the purpose only of participating in that public assembly, guilty of any offence relating to participating in an unlawful assembly or the obstruction of any person, vehicle or vessel in a public place.

25 Prohibition by a Court of a public assembly

- (1) The Commissioner may apply to a Court for an order prohibiting the holding of a public assembly in respect of which a notice referred to in section 23 (1) has been served if the notice was served 7 days or more before the date specified in the notice as the date on which it is proposed to hold the public assembly.
- (2) The Commissioner shall not apply for an order under subsection (1) relating to a public assembly in respect of which a notice referred to in section 23 (1) has been served unless—
- (a) the Commissioner has caused to be served on the organiser of the public assembly a notice, in writing, inviting the organiser to confer with respect to the public assembly with a member of the Police Force specified in the notice at a time and place so specified, or to make written representations to the Commissioner, with respect to the public assembly, within a time so specified, and
 - (b) if the organiser has, in writing, informed the Commissioner that he or she wishes so to confer, the Commissioner has made available to confer with the organiser at the time and place specified in the notice—
 - (i) the member of the Police Force specified in the notice, or
 - (ii) if that member of the Police Force is for any reason unavailable so to confer, another member of the Police Force, and
 - (c) the Commissioner has taken into consideration any matters put by the organiser at the conference and in any representations made by the organiser.

- (3) A notice referred to in subsection (2) (a) may be served on the organiser—
- (a) personally, or
 - (b) by registered post, facsimile transmission or email addressed to the organiser at an address, specified in the notice served on the Commissioner under section 23 (1) (e) (ii), as an address for the service of any notice for the purposes of this Part, or
 - (c) by leaving it with any person apparently of or above the age of 16 years at a postal address so specified.

26 Authorisation by a Court of a public assembly

If—

- (a) a notice referred to in section 23 (1) is served on the Commissioner less than 7 days before the date specified in the notice as the date on which it is proposed to hold the public assembly referred to in the notice, and
- (b) the Commissioner has not notified the organiser of the public assembly that the Commissioner does not oppose the holding of the public assembly, the organiser may apply to a Court for an order authorising the holding of the public assembly.

27 Applications under section 25 or 26

- (1) The Court to which an application in respect of a public assembly is made under section 25 (1) or 26 shall decide the application with the greatest expedition possible so as to ensure that the application is not frustrated by reason of the decision of the Court being delayed until after the date on which the public assembly is proposed to be held.
- (2) The decision of a Court on an application under section 25 (1) or 26 is final and is not subject to appeal.
- (3) Not more than one application may be made under section 25 (1) or 26 in respect of the same public assembly.
