Part 7 Miscellaneous

27 Provisions relating to transfers of assets, rights and liabilities

- (1) In this section, the statutory body from which any assets, rights or liabilities are transferred is called the transferor and the body to which they are transferred is the transferee.
- (2) When any assets, rights or liabilities are transferred pursuant to Parts 2–6 of this Act, the following provisions have effect:
  - (a) the assets of the transferor vest in the transferee by virtue of this section and without the need for any further conveyance, transfer, assignment or assurance,
  - (b) the rights or liabilities of the transferor become, by virtue of this section, the rights or liabilities of the transferee,
  - (c) all proceedings relating to the assets, rights or liabilities commenced before the transfer by or against the transferor or a predecessor of the transferor and pending immediately before the transfer are taken to be proceedings pending by or against the transferee,
  - (d) any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done in relation to the assets, rights or liabilities before the transfer by, to or in respect of the transferor or a predecessor of the transferor is (to the extent to which that act, matter or thing has any force or effect) taken to have been done or omitted by, to or in respect of the transferee,
  - (e) the transferee has all the entitlements and obligations of the transferor in relation to those assets, rights and liabilities that the transferor would have had but for the transfer, whether or not those entitlements and obligations were actual or potential at the time of the transfer.
- (3) The operation of this Act is not to be regarded:
  - (a) as a breach of contract or confidence or otherwise as a civil wrong, or
  - (b) as a breach of any contractual provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the assignment or transfer of assets, rights or liabilities, or
  - (c) as giving rise to any remedy by a party to an instrument, or as causing or permitting the termination of any instrument, because of a change in the beneficial or legal ownership of any asset, right or liability, or
  - (d) as an event of default under any contract or other instrument.
- (4) The Minister may, by notice in writing, confirm a transfer of particular assets, rights or liabilities. Such a notice is conclusive evidence of that transfer.

- (5) No attornment to the transferee by a lessee from the transferor is required.
- (6) In this section, instrument means an instrument (other than this Act) that creates, modifies or extinguishes rights or liabilities (or would do so if lodged, filed or registered in accordance with any law), and includes any judgment, order or process of a court.

28 No compensation payable by State

- (1) Compensation, including damages or any other form of monetary compensation, is not payable by or on behalf of the State because of the enactment or operation of this Act, or for any consequence of that enactment or operation.
- (2) In this section, the State means the Crown within the meaning of the Crown Proceedings Act 1988, and includes a public sector agency of the State and an officer, employee or agent of the Crown or a public sector agency of the State.

29 Savings and transitional regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
  - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
  - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.
