- (2) Each of the following is, subject to subsection (3), a relevant interest in land—

 - (b) a life estate in the land approved by the Chief Commissioner,
 - (c) a perpetual lease of the land granted by the Commonwealth or the State,

- (3) Subject to sections 6C and 6D—

 - (b) a comprehensive home building contract is a multiple occupancy contract if 2 or more homes are to be built under the contract and the homes are on the same parcel of land.
- (2) The provisions of this Act apply in respect of a multiple occupancy contract as if a separate contract had been made in respect of each home purchased or built under the contract that is an exclusive occupancy.
- (3) Accordingly, each of those contracts may, subject to the requirements of section 13, be treated as a separate eligible transaction under this Act and section 7 (4) does not prevent the payment of a grant in respect of each such eligible transaction.
- (4) A home is an exclusive occupancy only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the purchaser of the home or the party to the contract for whom the home is built is, on the completion of the contract, entitled to occupy that home as a place of residence to the exclusion of the persons who purchase the other homes, or for whom the other homes are built, under the contract.

- (2) The provisions of this Act apply in respect of the purchase or building of a home on multiple occupancy land as if the home purchased or built is an exclusive occupancy.
- (3) A home is an exclusive occupancy only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the persons who occupy the home as a place of residence are entitled to do so to the exclusion of the persons who occupy the other home or homes on the parcel of land.

6C Building of home on land owned by another

- (1) If a person enters into a comprehensive building contract to build, or builds or has built, a free-standing home on land in which the person does not have a relevant interest, the provisions of this Act apply in respect of the building of the free-standing home as if the person did have such a relevant interest.
- (2) If a person enters into a comprehensive building contract to build, or builds or has built, at the person's own expense, an attached home on land in which the person does not have a relevant interest, the provisions of this Act apply in respect of the building of the attached home as if the person did have such a relevant interest.
- (3) Accordingly, a person may apply for a first home owner grant in respect of the building of such an attached home or free-standing home.
- (4) This section applies in respect of the building of a home only if the owner of the estate in fee simple in the land on which the home is built has consented to the occupation of the home by the applicant for the first home owner grant on completion of the home or the applicant has a right, under a lease, licence or other arrangement, to occupy the home on completion.
- (5) In this section—

attached home means a home which includes a kitchen, a bathroom, a living area and a bedroom or a combined bedroom living area and which is part of, or connected to, a building that contains another home.

free-standing home means a home that is not part of, or connected to, a building that contains another home.

6D Purchase of manufactured home

- (1) If a person purchases a manufactured home and intends to use it as a place of residence on land which the person has a right to occupy under a lease, licence or other arrangement but in which the person does not have a relevant interest—

- (a) this Act applies as if the person had a relevant interest in the land and were an owner builder building a home on the land, and
- (b) the commencement date of the transaction is taken to be the date of the contract to purchase the manufactured home, and
- (c) the transaction is taken to be completed when the manufactured home is ready for occupation as a place of residence on land that the person has a right to occupy.

(2) In this section—

manufactured home has the same meaning as it has in the Local Government Act 1993.

 - (ii) has been completed, and
 - (c) the total value of the transaction does not exceed the eligibility cap for the type of first home owner grant that is available in respect of that transaction.
- (1A) (Repealed)
- (2) An applicant need not comply with the eligibility criteria to the extent the applicant is exempted from compliance with the eligibility criteria by this Act.
- (3) A first home owner grant is payable before completion of the relevant eligible transaction if payment is authorised under section 20.
- (4) Only one first home owner grant is payable for the same eligible transaction.

 - (a) the home to which the application relates will be occupied by the applicant as his or her principal place of residence within 12 months after completion of the eligible transaction or a longer period approved by the Chief Commissioner, and
 - (b) the application does not form part of a scheme to circumvent limitations on, or requirements affecting, eligibility for or entitlement to a first home owner grant.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an applicant for a first home owner grant must be an Australian citizen or a permanent resident on the commencement date of the eligible transaction.
- (2) If an application is made by joint applicants and at least one (but not all) of the applicants complies with the requirement to be an Australian citizen or a permanent resident, the non-complying applicant or applicants are exempted from compliance with the requirement.

10 Criterion 3—Applicant (or applicant's spouse) must not have received an earlier grant

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an applicant for a first home owner grant is ineligible for the grant if—
 - (a) the applicant or the applicant's spouse has been a party to an earlier application under this Act or a corresponding law, and
 - (b) a grant was paid on the application.
- (2) An applicant is not ineligible if the grant was paid but later paid back, together with any penalty payable under section 45.

11 Criterion 4—Applicant (or applicant's spouse) must not have had relevant interest in residential property

- (1) An applicant for a first home owner grant is ineligible for the grant if the applicant or the applicant's spouse has, before 1 July 2000, held—

- (a) a relevant interest in residential property in New South Wales, or
 - (b) an interest in residential property in another State or a Territory that is a relevant interest under the corresponding law of that State or Territory.
- (2) In working out for the purposes of subsection (1) whether an applicant held a relevant interest (within the meaning of this Act or a corresponding law) in residential property at a particular time, any deferment of the applicant's right of occupation (because the property was subject to a lease) is to be disregarded.
- (3) An applicant is also ineligible if the applicant or the applicant's spouse has, at any time before the commencement date of the eligible transaction to which the application relates—
- (a) held a relevant interest in residential property in New South Wales or an interest in residential property in another State or a Territory that is a relevant interest under the corresponding law of that State or Territory, and

 - (b) occupy the home as a principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 12 months or the period approved by the Chief Commissioner under this section.
- (2) This requirement is referred to in this Act as the residence requirement.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner may, if satisfied there are good reasons to do so, do either or both of the following—
- (a) approve the commencement of occupation by the applicant of the home to which the application relates as a principal place of residence more than 12 months after completion of the eligible transaction,
 - (b) approve the occupation of the home as a principal place of residence for a period of less than 12 months.
- (4) The Chief Commissioner may, if satisfied there are good reasons to do so, exempt an applicant from the residence requirement.

- (5) An approval or exemption under this section may be given by the Chief Commissioner at any time, even if the period of 12 months after completion of the eligible transaction has already expired or the applicant's occupation of the home as a principal place of residence has already ceased.
- (6) If an application is made by joint applicants and at least one (but not all) of the applicants complies with the residence requirement, the non-complying applicant or applicants are exempted from compliance with the residence requirement.

13 Eligible transactions

- (1) An eligible transaction is—
 - (a) a contract made on or after 1 October 2012 for the purchase of a new home in New South Wales, or

 - (b) in the case of a comprehensive home building contract—either party had a right or option granted before that date to require the other party to enter into the contract.
- (3A) A contract made on or after 1 October 2012 is not an eligible transaction if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that—
 - (a) the contract replaces a contract made before 1 October 2012, and
 - (b) the replaced contract was a contract for the purchase of the same home or a comprehensive home building contract to build the same or a substantially similar home.

Note.

See also Part 11 of Schedule 1.

- (4) The commencement date of an eligible transaction is—
- (a) in the case of a contract—the date when the contract is made, or

 - (i) the date when laying the foundations for the home commences, or

- (a) in the case of a contract for the purchase of a home—
 - (i) the purchaser becomes entitled to possession of the home under the contract, and
 - (ii) except in the case of a terms contract, if the purchaser acquires an interest in land under the contract that is registrable under a law of the State—the purchaser’s interest is registered under that law, or
 - (b) in the case of a comprehensive home building contract—the building is ready for occupation as a place of residence, or
 - (c) in the case of the building of a home by an owner builder—the building is ready for occupation as a place of residence.
- (6) If a person purchases a moveable building and intends to use it as a place of residence on land in which the person has a relevant interest but on which it is not situated at the time of purchase—
- (a) this Act applies as if the person were an owner builder building a home on the land, and
 - (b) the commencement date of the transaction is taken to be the date of the contract to purchase the moveable building, and
 - (c) the transaction is taken to be completed when the moveable building is ready for occupation as a place of residence on land in which the purchaser has a relevant interest.
- (7) The consideration for an eligible transaction is—
- (a) in the case of a contract for the purchase of a home—the consideration for the purchase, or

- (b) in the case of a comprehensive home building contract—the total consideration payable for the building work, or
- (c) in the case of the building of a home by an owner builder—the actual costs to the owner of carrying out the work (excluding any allowance for the owner builder's own labour).

13AA Types of first home owner grant that are available

- (1) The following types of first home owner grant are available under this Act in respect of an eligible transaction—

- (2) The eligibility caps are as follows—
 - (a) $750,000 for a first home builder's grant,
 - (b) $600,000 for a first home purchaser's grant.
- (3) The question of whether the total value of a transaction exceeds the amount of the eligibility cap is determined by reference to the total value of the transaction as at—
 - (a) for a contract for the purchase of a home—the commencement date, or
 - (b) for a comprehensive home building contract—the date the transaction is completed, or
 - (c) for the building of a home by an owner builder—the date the transaction is completed.

Note.

Section 20 authorises the grant to be paid before completion of an eligible transaction if the Chief Commissioner considers it appropriate.

- (4) The regulations may prescribe a different amount as the eligibility cap for any type of first home owner grant and may make provision for the eligible transactions to which the eligibility cap applies.
- (5) This section applies to the payment of a first home owner grant in respect of an eligible transaction that has a commencement date on or after 1 July 2017.

Note.

For eligible transactions with a commencement date before 1 July 2017, the transitional provisions in Schedule 1 apply. They preserve the previous first home owner grant cap as it applied to those transactions.

13B Calculation of total value of transaction for purposes of eligibility cap

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the total value of a transaction is—
 - (a) in the case of a contract for the purchase of a home—the greater of the following—
 - (i) the consideration for the eligible transaction,
 - (ii) the unencumbered value, at the commencement date, of the property the subject of the transaction, or
 - (b) in the case of a comprehensive home building contract—the amount calculated by adding together—
 - (i) the consideration for the eligible transaction, and
 - (ii) the value, at the commencement date, of the relevant interest in the land on which the home is to be built, or
 - (c) in the case of the building of a home by an owner builder—the amount calculated by adding together—
 - (i) the unencumbered value, at the date the transaction is completed, of the home, and
 - (ii) the value, at the date the transaction is completed, of the relevant interest in the land on which the home is built.
