Victims Rights and Victims of Crime Commissioner Act 2025 No 64

New South Wales

An Act to provide for a Victims of Crime Commissioner; to make consequential amendments to the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013; and for related purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Victims Rights and Victims of Crime Commissioner Act 2025.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to recognise and promote the rights of victims of crime under the Charter of Victims Rights, and
- (b) to establish a Victims of Crime Commissioner.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in Schedule 2 defines words used in this Act.

Note—

The Interpretation Act 1987 contains definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this Act.

5 Meaning of “victim of crime”

- (1) For this Act, a victim of crime is a person who suffers harm as a direct result of an act committed, or apparently committed, by another person in the course of—
  - (a) a criminal offence, including a criminal offence involving a motor vehicle, or
  - (b) conduct of a kind referred to in the Modern Slavery Act 2018, section 5(1), definition of modern slavery, paragraph (b).

- (2) A person suffers harm if, as a result of an act mentioned in subsection (1)—
  - (a) the person suffers actual physical bodily harm or psychological or psychiatric harm, or
  - (b) the person's property is deliberately taken, destroyed or damaged.
- (3) If the person dies as a result of the act, a member of the person's immediate family is also a victim of crime for this Act.
- (4) If a person dies as a result of the act and there is more than one member of the person's immediate family, the members of the immediate family may nominate a representative for the Charter.

Part 2 Charter of Victims Rights

6 Charter of rights of victims of crime

The following comprises the Charter of rights of victims of crime—

6.1 Courtesy, compassion, cultural sensitivity and respect

A victim will be treated with courtesy, compassion, cultural sensitivity and respect for the victim's rights and dignity.

6.2 Information about services and remedies

A victim will be informed at the earliest practical opportunity, by relevant agencies and officials, of the services and remedies available to the victim.

6.3 Access to services

A victim will have access where necessary to available welfare, health, counselling and legal assistance responsive to the victim's needs.

6.4 Information about investigation of crime

- (1) A victim will, on request, be informed of the progress of the investigation of the crime, unless the disclosure might jeopardise the investigation.
- (2) If the disclosure might jeopardise the investigation, the victim will be advised that the victim cannot be informed of the progress of the investigation of the crime for that reason.

6.5 Information about prosecution of accused

- (1) A victim will be informed in a timely way of the following—

- (a) the charges laid against the accused or the reasons for not laying charges,
  - (b) a decision of the prosecution to modify or not proceed with charges laid against the accused, including a decision to accept a plea of guilty by the accused to a less serious charge in return for a full discharge in relation to the other charges,
  - (c) the date and place of a hearing of a charge laid against the accused,
  - (d) the outcome of the criminal proceedings against the accused, including proceedings on appeal, and the sentence, if any, imposed.
- (2) A victim will be consulted before a decision referred to in subsection (1)(b) is made if the accused has been charged with a serious crime that involves sexual violence or that results in actual bodily harm or psychological or psychiatric harm to the victim, unless—
- (a) the victim has indicated the victim does not wish to be consulted, or
  - (b) the whereabouts of the victim cannot be ascertained after reasonable inquiry.

6.6 Information about trial process and role as witness

A victim who is a witness in the trial for the crime will be informed about the trial process and the role of the victim as a witness in the prosecution of the accused.

6.7 Protection from contact with accused

A victim will be protected from unnecessary contact with the accused and defence witnesses during court proceedings.

6.8 Protection of identity of victim

A victim's residential address and telephone number will not be disclosed unless a court otherwise directs.

6.9 Attendance at preliminary hearings

A victim will be relieved from appearing at preliminary hearings or committal hearings unless the court otherwise directs.

6.10 Return of property of victim held by State

If property of a victim is held by the State for investigation or evidence, the inconvenience to the victim will be minimised and the property returned promptly.

6.11 Protection from accused

A victim's need or perceived need for protection will be put before a bail authority by the prosecutor in a bail application by the accused.

6.12 Information about special bail conditions

A victim will be informed about special bail conditions imposed on the accused that are designed to protect the victim or the victim's family.

6.13 Information about outcome of bail application

A victim will be informed of the outcome of a bail application if the accused has been charged with sexual assault or other serious personal violence.

6.14 Victim impact statement

A relevant victim will have access to information and assistance for the preparation of a victim impact statement authorised by law to ensure that the full effect of the crime on the victim is placed before the court.

6.15 Information about impending release, escape or eligibility for absence from custody

A victim will, on request, be kept informed of—

- (a) the offender's impending release or escape from custody, or
- (b) a change in security classification that results in the offender being eligible for unescorted absences from custody.

6.16 Submissions on parole and eligibility for absence from custody of serious offenders

A victim will, on request, be given an opportunity to make submissions about—

- (a) the granting of parole to a serious offender, or
- (b) a change in security classification that would result in a serious offender being eligible for unescorted absences from custody.

6.17 Financial assistance for victims of personal violence

A victim of a crime involving sexual or other serious personal violence is entitled to make a claim under the Scheme.

6.18 Information about complaint procedure where Charter is contravened

A victim—

- (a) may make a complaint about a contravention of the Charter, and
- (b) will, on request, be given information about the procedure for making a complaint.

7 Additional matters for Charter of victims rights of forensic patients

The following comprises the Charter of rights of victims of crime who are victims of forensic patients—

7.1 General matters

Each right referred to in section 6.

7.2 Treatment of victim

- (1) A victim will be treated with respect and compassion, having regard to the fact that proceedings may touch on painful or tragic events in the victim's life and cause the victim to experience further grief and distress.
- (2) A victim making a submission before the Mental Health Review Tribunal should be listened to respectfully and in a way that is cognisant of the effects of the victim's experience and the benefit of expressing views about its impact.

7.3 Information about reviews of and other proceedings relating to forensic patients

A victim will be informed in a timely way of a matter before the Mental Health Review Tribunal, or the release of or granting of leave to a forensic patient or another matter, that the victim must be informed of under the *Mental Health and Cognitive Impairment Forensic Provisions Act 2020*.

8 Implementation of Charter

- (1) The Charter must, as far as practicable and appropriate, govern the treatment of victims in the administration of the affairs of the State.
- (2) An agency or person exercising official functions in the administration of the affairs of the State, other than judicial functions, must, to the extent it is relevant and practicable, have regard to the Charter in addition to other relevant matters.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), the Charter, section 6.8 does not apply to a victims rights agency when disclosing, to the extent reasonably necessary, a victim's contact information to another victims rights agency to allow that victims rights agency to inform the victim about services, support or assistance available to the victim, including about the victim's eligibility to be recorded or included in a relevant victims register.
- (4) The Commissioner may make recommendations to the Minister about changes to the Charter, including the following, after conducting research, consultation with victims of crime and consideration of systemic evidence about matters that impact on victims of crime—

- (a) the addition of new rights to the Charter,
- (b) the expansion of existing rights set out in the Charter,
- (c) means of strengthening the enforceability of rights set out in the Charter.

(5) In this section—

administration of the affairs of the State includes the following—

- (a) the administration of justice,
- (b) the provision of police services,
- (c) the administration of a department of the Government,
- (d) the provision of services to victims of crime by a person or non-government agency funded by the State to provide the services,
- (e) the administration of matters relating to forensic patients and victims of forensic patients.

Part 3 Complaints about contraventions of Charter

9 Complaints about alleged contraventions of Charter

A complaint may be made to the Commissioner about an alleged contravention of the Charter.

10 Who may make complaints

- (1) The following persons may make a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Charter—
  - (a) a victim of crime,
  - (b) a person acting on behalf of a victim of crime,
  - (c) for a victim of crime who is less than 18 years of age—a parent of, or person with parental responsibility for, the victim of crime,
  - (d) an immediate family member of a missing person.
- (2) The head of a government sector agency may refer a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Charter to the Commissioner.

11 How complaints to be made

- (1) A complaint must be made in writing in the form approved by the Commissioner.
- (2) If the Commissioner is satisfied a complainant needs help to make a complaint in writing or is unable to make a complaint in writing, the Commissioner may—

- (a) give reasonable support to the complainant, or
- (b) allow the complainant to make the complaint other than in writing.

12 Decision to be taken in relation to complaints

- (1) After receiving a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Charter, the Commissioner must decide to—

- (a) investigate all or part of the complaint, or

Note—

See Part 6, which provides for the Commissioner's powers in relation to an investigation of a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Charter.

- (b) decline to investigate or otherwise deal with all or part of the complaint in accordance with section 13.

- (2) If the Commissioner makes a decision referred to in subsection (1)(b), the Commissioner must, as soon as practicable after making the decision, give the person who made the complaint written notice of the following—

- (a) the decision,
- (b) the reasons for the decision.

13 Commissioner may decline to investigate or otherwise deal with complaints

- (1) The Commissioner may decide to decline to investigate or otherwise deal with all or part of a complaint if the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) the conduct the subject of the complaint or part of the complaint would be more appropriately dealt with by another entity, or
- (b) the subject of the complaint or part of the complaint is being, or has been, dealt with by the Commissioner or another government sector agency, or
- (c) an internal complaints mechanism relevant to the conduct the subject of the complaint or part of the complaint has not been exhausted, or
- (d) the time that has passed since the conduct the subject of the complaint or part of the complaint occurred makes it impracticable to investigate the complaint or part of the complaint, or
- (e) the conduct the subject of the complaint or part of the complaint would not amount to a contravention of the Charter, or
- (f) the complaint or part of the complaint is frivolous or vexatious.

- (2) If the Commissioner declines to investigate or otherwise deal with all or part of the complaint under subsection (1)(a), the Commissioner must refer the complaint or part of the complaint to the other entity.

14 Action after investigation of complaints

- (1) If the Commissioner decides to investigate all or part of a complaint, the Commissioner must decide to—
  - (a) make a recommendation that the head of the agency alleged to have contravened the Charter—
    - (i) apologise to the victim of crime or immediate family member of the missing person, or
    - (ii) require staff of the government sector agency to undertake further training in relation to the Charter, or
    - (iii) review a policy or procedure of the government sector agency, or
    - (iv) give the victim of crime or immediate family member of the missing person information, or
  - (b) make another recommendation the Commissioner considers appropriate, or
  - (c) refer the complaint or part of the complaint to another entity if the Commissioner considers the conduct the subject of the complaint or part of the complaint would be more appropriately dealt with by that entity, or
  - (d) take no further action.
- (2) As soon as practicable after making a decision under subsection (1), the Commissioner must give notice of the decision and the reasons for the decision to—
  - (a) the person who made the complaint, and
  - (b) the head of the agency the subject of the complaint.

Part 4 Appointment of Commissioner

15 Appointment of Victims of Crime Commissioner

- (1) The Governor may appoint a Victims of Crime Commissioner.
- (2) The Commissioner holds office for the term, not more than 5 years, specified in the Commissioner's instrument of appointment, but is eligible for reappointment.
- (3) A person is not eligible to be appointed for more than 2 terms of office as Commissioner, whether or not consecutive terms.

- (4) The office of Commissioner is a full-time office and the holder of the office must hold the office on that basis, except to the extent permitted by the Minister.

16 Employment and remuneration

- (1) The employment of the Commissioner must, subject to this Act, be governed by a contract of employment between the Commissioner and the Minister.
- (2) The following provisions of, or made under, the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service senior executives (the relevant provisions) apply to the Commissioner—
- (a) provisions relating to the band in which an executive must be employed,
  - (b) provisions relating to the contract of employment of an executive,
  - (c) provisions relating to the remuneration, employment benefits and allowances of an executive.
- (3) For subsection (2), a reference in the relevant provisions to the employer of a Public Sector senior executive is taken to be a reference to the Minister.
- (4) The office of Commissioner is a statutory office and the provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to the office, except as provided by this section.

17 Vacancy in office

- (1) The office of Commissioner becomes vacant if the Commissioner—
- (a) dies, or
  - (b) completes a term of office and is not reappointed, or
  - (c) resigns the office by written instrument addressed to the Minister, or
  - (d) is removed from office by the Governor under section 18, or
  - (e) becomes personally insolvent, or
  - (f) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
  - (g) is convicted—
    - (i) in New South Wales of an offence punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more, or
    - (ii) elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more, or

(h) is imprisoned—

(i) in New South Wales in relation to a conviction for an offence, or

(ii) elsewhere than in New South Wales in relation to a conviction for an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence punishable by imprisonment.

(2) If the office of Commissioner becomes vacant, a person must, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

18 Removal from office

(1) The Governor may remove the Commissioner from office only for incompetence, incapacity or misbehaviour.

(2) The Commissioner must not be removed from office under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013, Part 6.

19 Acting Commissioner

(1) The Minister may appoint a person to act as the Commissioner during—

(a) the illness or other absence of the Commissioner, or

(b) a vacancy in the office of Commissioner.

(2) The Minister may remove a person acting in the office of Commissioner.

(3) A person acting in the office of Commissioner is entitled to be paid the remuneration, including travelling and subsistence allowances, determined by the Minister.

20 Staff and related matters

(1) Persons may be employed in the Public Service under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 to enable the Commissioner to exercise the Commissioner's functions.

Note—

The Government Sector Employment Act 2013, section 59 provides that the persons employed under this section, or whose services the Commissioner makes use of, may be referred to as officers or employees, or members of staff, of the Commissioner. The Constitution Act 1902, section 47A precludes the Commissioner from employing staff.

(2) The Commissioner may—

(a) arrange for the use of the services of staff of a government sector agency, or

(b) arrange for the use of facilities of a government sector agency, or

(c) with the Minister's approval, engage persons as consultants or contractors as necessary to enable the Commissioner to exercise the Commissioner's functions.

21 Delegation

The Commissioner may delegate any of the Commissioner's functions, other than this power of delegation, to—

- (a) a member of staff of the Commissioner, or
- (b) a person of a class prescribed by the regulations.

Part 5 Functions of Commissioner

22 Commissioner's functions

(1) The Commissioner's functions are as follows—

- (a) to advocate for the rights of victims of crime at a systemic level,
- (b) to identify and review systemic issues relating to victims of crime,
- (c) to conduct and promote research into systemic issues relating to victims of crime,
- (d) to consult victims of crime, community victims support groups and government sector agencies on systemic matters relating to victims of crime,
- (e) to make recommendations to the Minister about systemic issues relating to victims of crime,
- (f) other functions conferred or imposed on the Commissioner by this Act or another Act.

(2) The Commissioner has the following functions in relation to the Charter—

- (a) to promote and oversee the implementation of the Charter, including by publishing codes, guidelines and other practical guidance on the implementation of the Charter,
- (b) to make recommendations to assist agencies to improve their compliance with the Charter, including conducting training and recommending changes to policies and procedures,
- (c) to—
  - (i) receive complaints from persons who, under section 10, may make complaints about alleged contraventions of the Charter, and
  - (ii) use the Commissioner's best endeavours to resolve the complaints,
- (d) to provide information and education to victims of crime about their rights under the Charter.

- (3) A Minister or agency to whom a recommendation is made by the Commissioner in exercising the Commissioner's functions must provide a written response to the Commissioner advising—
  - (a) whether or not the recommendation has been adopted, and
  - (b) if the recommendation has not been adopted—the reasons for the refusal or failure to adopt the recommendation.
- (4) A response under subsection (3) must be provided by—
  - (a) the day that is 6 months after the recommendation is made, or
  - (b) the later day requested by the Minister or agency and agreed by the Commissioner.
- (5) In exercising the Commissioner's functions, the Commissioner must act independently and in the public interest.

23 Limitation on Commissioner's functions

- (1) The Commissioner's functions do not include—
  - (a) advocating for individual victims of crime, or
  - (b) inquiring into individual decisions made in relation to victims of crime, including decisions about eligibility for support under the Scheme, or
  - (c) investigating a complaint about an alleged contravention of the Charter if the investigation would—
    - (i) prejudice criminal proceedings, or
    - (ii) prejudice the investigation of a criminal offence, or
    - (iii) result in interference with the exercise of the jurisdiction of a court or tribunal, or
  - (d) inquiring into or reviewing decisions involving the exercise of prosecutorial discretion.
- (2) The Commissioner must liaise with the following persons and bodies to avoid the Commissioner's functions being exercised in a way that duplicates the functions of the persons and bodies—
  - (a) the Anti-slavery Commissioner under the Modern Slavery Act 2018,
  - (b) the Ageing and Disability Commissioner under the Ageing and Disability

Commissioner Act 2019,

- (c) another person or body prescribed by the regulations.

24 Commissioner's independence

The Commissioner is not subject to the control and direction of the Minister in exercising the Commissioner's functions under this Act.

25 Victims Advisory Committee

- (1) The Commissioner must establish an advisory committee (the Victims Advisory Committee).
- (2) The function of the Victims Advisory Committee is to provide a consultative body to advise the Commissioner, at the Commissioner's request, about the exercise of the Commissioner's advocacy functions.
- (3) The Victims Advisory Committee consists of the following members—
  - (a) the Commissioner, who is the chairperson of the Committee,
  - (b) not more than 6 members (appointed members) of the general community, appointed by the Commissioner, who—
    - (i) reflect the diversity of the general community and includes—
      - (A) at least one person who is an Aboriginal person, and
      - (B) at least one person who is a person living with a disability, and
    - (ii) have relevant knowledge of and experience in matters relating to victims of crime or are victims of crime, including, for at least one member, relevant knowledge of and experience in matters relating to victims of domestic and family violence or victims of sexual violence crime,
  - (c) a member nominated by the Commissioner of Police to represent the NSW Police Force,
  - (d) a member nominated by the Director of Public Prosecutions to represent the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions,
  - (e) a member nominated by the Chief Executive Officer of the Legal Aid Commission to represent the Commission,
  - (f) a member nominated by the Secretary of the department in which this Act is administered to represent the department,
  - (g) the Scheme Executive.

- (4) An appointed member—
  - (a) holds office for 3 years, and
  - (b) is eligible for reappointment as a member.

- (5) In this section—

advocacy functions means the functions referred to in section 22(1)(a)–(e).

Part 6 Powers of Commissioner

26 Definition

In this part—

information includes documents.

27 Powers of Commissioner to compel giving of information

- (1) For the purposes of investigating an alleged contravention of the Charter, the Commissioner may, by written notice—
  - (a) require an agency to give the Commissioner information, or
  - (b) ask a person to give the Commissioner information.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1)—
  - (a) for a notice under subsection (1)(a)—must specify a day on or before which the information must be given, and
  - (b) for a notice under subsection (1)(b)—may specify a day on or before which the information must be given.
- (3) A person who gives the Commissioner information the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—

  - (a) for an individual—50 penalty units, or
  - (b) otherwise—100 penalty units.
- (4) If documents are given to the Commissioner under this section, the Commissioner—
  - (a) may take possession of, and make copies of or take extracts from, the documents, and
  - (b) may keep possession of the documents for the period necessary for exercising the function, and

- (c) during that period, must permit the documents to be inspected at all reasonable times by the persons who would be entitled to inspect the documents if the documents were not in the Commissioner's possession.

28 Exemption from requirement to give information

Despite section 27, an agency or person is not required to give information under that section if—

- (a) there is an overriding public interest against disclosure of the information under the Government Information \(Public Access\) Act 2009 or if access to the information would otherwise be denied under that Act, or
- (b) the information is subject to legal professional privilege, or
- (c) the information is subject to an order made by a court or tribunal that prohibits or restricts the disclosure of information, by publication or otherwise, or
- (d) giving the information would prejudice an ongoing criminal investigation or proceedings for a criminal offence, or
- (e) giving the information would endanger a person's life or physical safety.

29 Exchange of information with relevant agencies

- (1) The Commissioner may give relevant information to a relevant agency to enable or assist the relevant agency to exercise the relevant agency's functions.
- (2) A relevant agency may give relevant information to the Commissioner to enable or assist the Commissioner's exercise of the Commissioner's functions.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commissioner may enter into an arrangement (an information sharing arrangement) with a relevant agency or the head of the relevant agency to share or exchange relevant information held by the Commissioner or the agency.
- (4) The relevant information held by the Commissioner or a relevant agency that may be given under this section is limited to information about the following—
  - (a) a complaint about a contravention of the Charter made under this Act,
  - (b) matters relating to systemic issues relating to victims of crime,
  - (c) matters prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) Under an information sharing arrangement, the Commissioner and the relevant agency are, despite another Act or law, authorised to—
  - (a) request and receive information held by the other party to the arrangement, and

- (b) disclose information to the other party.
- (6) Subsection (5) applies only to the extent the information is reasonably necessary to assist in the exercise of the functions of the Commissioner under this Act or the functions of the relevant agency.
- (7) This section does not—
  - (a) require the Commissioner to give information to a relevant agency only in accordance with subsection (1), or with an information sharing arrangement, if the information may otherwise be lawfully given, or
  - (b) limit the operation of another Act or law under which a relevant agency is authorised or required to disclose information to another person or body.
- (8) In this section—

relevant agency means the following—

  - (a) a government sector agency,
  - (b) another entity prescribed by the regulations.

Part 7 Reporting

30 Annual reports to Parliament

- (1) The Commissioner must, by 31 October in each year—
  - (a) prepare a report (an annual report) on the activities of the Commissioner during the financial year ending on the previous 30 June, and
  - (b) give the report to the Minister.
- (2) An annual report must include the following for the financial year to which the report relates—
  - (a) a description of the Commissioner's activities in relation to each of the Commissioner's functions,
  - (b) information about the number of—
    - (i) complaints made or referred to the Commissioner, and
    - (ii) complaints resolved by the Commissioner, and
    - (iii) complaints that have not been resolved by the Commissioner, other than complaints the Commissioner has refused to deal with, and
    - (iv) complaints the Commissioner has refused to deal with, and

- (v) recommendations made under section 14(1)(a)–(c), and
  - (vi) decisions to take no further action under section 14(1)(d),
  - (c) information about recommendations made by the Commissioner to the Minister or agencies and the responses to the recommendations, including whether the recommendations have been adopted and the reasons for not adopting recommendations.
- (3) The Minister must, within 14 days after receiving an annual report, give the report to the Presiding Officer of each House of Parliament.
- (4) A copy of an annual report given to the Presiding Officer of a House of Parliament under subsection (3) must be laid before the House within 5 sitting days of the House after the report is received by the Presiding Officer.
- (5) If an annual report includes a recommendation by the Commissioner that the report be made public immediately, the Presiding Officer of a House of Parliament may make the annual report public whether or not the House is in session and whether or not the report has been laid before the House.

31 Special reports to Parliament and Minister

- (1) The Commissioner may, on the Commissioner's own initiative or at the request of the Minister—
- (a) prepare a report (a special report) on a matter relating to the functions of the Commissioner, including the implementation of the Charter and contraventions of the Charter, and
