Gladesville Mental Hospital Cemetery Act 1960 No 45

New South Wales

An Act to authorise the use of a certain cemetery within the Mental Hospital at Gladesville for purposes other than a cemetery; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith.

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Gladesville Mental Hospital Cemetery Act 1960.

2 Lands vested in the Minister

- (1) The lands described in Part 1 of the Schedule to this Act are hereby vested in the Minister for Health on behalf of Her Majesty for the purposes of the Mental Hospital at Gladesville.
- (2) Any trusts, conditions, encumbrances, appropriations or dedications affecting the said lands immediately before the commencement of this Act are hereby revoked and annulled.

3 Removal of human remains, headstones etc

- (1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, the Minister may cause the remains of all persons buried in the lands described in Parts 1 and 2 of the Schedule to this Act (so far as such remains can by reasonable diligence be discovered or identified) together with all headstones, grave enclosures and other surface structures on such lands to be collected with due care and removed from such lands and shall cause any such remains so removed to be reverently reinterred and such headstones, grave enclosures and other surface structures to be re-erected in such cemetery as the Minister may determine.
- (2) The cost of such removal, reinterment and re-erection shall be borne by the Minister.
- (3) The Minister shall cause an advertisement of his intention to remove such remains, headstones, grave enclosures or other surface structures under the provisions of subsection one of this section, to be published three times at intervals of not less than two weeks in one or more newspapers circulating in the Metropolitan Area and no such remains, headstones, grave enclosures or other surface structures shall be so removed before the expiration of three months from publication of the last of such advertisements.

(a) At any time after publication of the first advertisement referred to in subsection three of this section and before the expiration of three months from publication of the last of such advertisements, the representatives or any persons claiming to be the representatives of any person buried in the said lands may, at their own expense, remove the headstone, grave enclosure or other surface structure erected over the grave of such person, and may, at their own expense, and with the permission of the Director General of Public Health, remove the remains of such person to such cemetery as they may desire.

(b) Any such representatives or any such persons claiming to be such representatives shall give to the Minister not less than twenty-eight days' notice of their intention.

4 Register of names

(1) The Minister shall as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act and before the removal of the remains of any person from the said lands, cause a register of the names and other relevant information in respect of the persons buried in the said lands described in Parts 1 and 2 of the said Schedule to be compiled so far as such names and information can by reasonable diligence be obtained.

(2) The Minister shall cause the register to be deposited and maintained at the Mental Hospital at Gladesville and available for inspection by any interested person from time to time.

5 Incidental powers

The Minister may cause to be done all such other things as he may consider necessary to carry fully into effect the purposes of this Act.

6 No compensation payable

No compensation or damages shall be payable to any person or body of persons in respect of the vesting of the said lands or in respect of the performance of or omission to perform any act authorised by this Act.

7 Validation

Any action, matter or thing taken or done before the commencement of this Act which would have been valid had the provisions of section two of this Act been in force at the time when such action, matter or thing was taken or done is hereby validated.
