Schedule 1 Amendments

(Section 3)

[1]-[6] (Repealed)

[7] Section 20 (2) (h)-(i2)

Omit section 20 (2) (h) and (i). Insert instead:

- (h) the licensee must not charge a fee for the towing, salvage or storage of a motor vehicle, or for any service that is related to or ancillary to the towing, salvage or storage of a motor vehicle, if the charging of the fee would be in contravention of the regulations, and must not demand, receive or accept such a fee,
- (i) the licensee must not charge a fee for work that was not actually done by the licensee or by an employee or subcontractor of the licensee,

- (i1) in the case of a licence granted for a term of 3 years—the licensee must, within 28 days of receiving a notice from the RTA relating to such of the licensee’s licence particulars, insurance particulars and particulars of close associates as are specified in the notice:
 - (i) confirm that the particulars specified in the notice are still accurate, or
 - (ii) provide details of any change in any of those particulars, and provide any documents relating to those particulars, that may be specified in the notice,
- (i2) the licensee must notify the RTA, as soon as practicable, of any change in the licensee’s licence particulars, insurance particulars and particulars of close associates that are prescribed by the regulations, and must provide the RTA with any documents relating to those particulars that are prescribed by the regulations,

[8] Sections 22 and 22A

Omit section 22. Insert instead:

22 Term of licence

- (1) A licence may be granted:
 - (a) if subsection (2) applies, for a period of 3 years, or
 - (b) for a period of one year, or
 - (c) for such shorter period as the RTA determines.
- (2) A licence may be granted for a period of 3 years if:
 - (a) the applicant has requested that the licence be granted for a period of 3 years, and
 - (b) the applicant has held a licence for a continuous period of at least 3 years immediately before the date on which the subsequent licence will come into force (that is, during that period of 3 years, the applicant’s licence was not suspended or revoked and did not lapse), and
 - (c) neither the applicant nor any of the applicant’s close associates is, at the time the application is made, under investigation by the RTA in relation to any breach of a condition of a licence or any other contravention of this Act or the regulations, and
 - (d) neither the applicant nor any of the applicant’s close associates has, in the 5 years immediately before the date of the application:

- (i) been subject to any prescribed disciplinary action under this Act, or
 - (ii) engaged in any prescribed conduct, and
 - (e) the RTA is satisfied that a 3-year licence should be granted.
- (3) A licence continues in force for the period for which it is granted, as specified in the licence, unless it is sooner revoked or suspended or otherwise ceases to be in force.
- (4) In this section:

prescribed conduct means any conduct that:

- (a) if the applicant or close associate applied for a licence or drivers certificate immediately after engaging in the conduct, would, in the opinion of the RTA, be sufficient to justify the application being refused, or
- (b) if the applicant or close associate held a licence or drivers certificate at the time of engaging in the conduct, would, in the opinion of the RTA, be sufficient to justify:
 - (i) the suspension of a licence or drivers certificate held by the applicant or close associate, or
 - (ii) the permanent revocation of a licence or drivers certificate held by the applicant or close associate, or
 - (iii) the disqualification of the applicant or close associate from holding a licence or drivers certificate.

prescribed disciplinary action means:

- (a) the suspension of a licence or drivers certificate held by the applicant or close associate, or
- (b) the permanent revocation of a licence or drivers certificate held by the applicant or close associate, or
- (c) the disqualification of the applicant or close associate from holding a licence or drivers certificate.

22A Renewal of licence

A licence may be renewed from time to time by making an application for a subsequent licence in accordance with this Act.

[9] (Repealed)

[10] Section 29 Conditions of drivers certificate

Omit section 29 (2) (b). Insert instead:

- (b) the certified driver must not charge a fee for the towing or salvage of a motor vehicle, or for any service that is related to or ancillary to the towing or salvage of a motor vehicle, if the charging of the fee would be in contravention of the regulations, and must not demand, receive or accept such a fee,
- (b1) the certified driver must not charge a fee for work that was not actually done by the certified driver, and must not demand, receive or accept such a fee,
- (b2) in the case of a drivers certificate granted for a term of 3 years—the certified driver must, within 28 days of receiving a notice from the RTA relating to such of the certified driver's drivers certificate particulars and insurance particulars as are specified in the notice:
 - (i) confirm that the particulars specified in the notice are still accurate, or
 - (ii) provide details of any change in any of those particulars, and provide any documents relating to those particulars, that may be specified in the notice,
- (b3) the certified driver must notify the RTA, as soon as practicable, of any change in the certified driver's drivers certificate particulars that are prescribed by the regulations, and must provide the RTA with any documents relating to those particulars that are prescribed by the regulations,

[11] Sections 31 and 31A

Omit section 31. Insert instead:

31 Term of drivers certificate

- (c) the disqualification of the applicant from holding a licence or drivers certificate.

31A Renewal of drivers certificate

A drivers certificate may be renewed from time to time by making an application for a subsequent drivers certificate in accordance with this Act.

[12], [13] (Repealed)

[14] Section 54

Omit the section. Insert instead:

54 Charges and fees for towing, salvage, storage and related services

- (1) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to regulating the fees that can be charged by a licensee or certified driver for the towing, salvage or storage of a motor vehicle or for any service that is related to or ancillary to the towing, salvage or storage of a motor vehicle.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations under this section can include provision that:
 - (a) fixes maximum fees or otherwise limits the fees that may be charged, or
 - (b) prohibits the charging of a fee for any specified service that is related or ancillary to the towing, salvage or storage of a motor vehicle, or
 - (c) specifies procedures to be followed by licensees and certified drivers in connection with the charging of fees.
- (3) A licensee or certified driver is not entitled to recover or retain any fee charged in contravention of regulations under this section.

[15] Section 61 Prohibition of “spotter’s fees”, “drop fees” and towing inducements

Omit “do not exceed any charges determined by the RTA” from the definition of valuable thing in section 61 (4).

Insert instead “are permitted to be charged under this Act and do not exceed any maximum charges fixed by the regulations”.
