Public Interest Disclosures Act 1994 No 92

New South Wales

An Act to provide protection for public officials disclosing corrupt conduct, maladministration, waste and government information contravention in the public sector; and for related purposes.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Public Interest Disclosures Act 1994.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Object of Act

- (1) The object of this Act is to encourage and facilitate the disclosure, in the public interest, of corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste and government information contravention in the public sector by:
 - (a) enhancing and augmenting established procedures for making disclosures concerning such matters, and
 - (b) protecting persons from reprisals that might otherwise be inflicted on them because of those disclosures, and
 - (c) providing for those disclosures to be properly investigated and dealt with.
- (2) Nothing in this Act is intended to affect the proper administration and management of an investigating authority or public authority (including action that may or is required to be taken in respect of the salary, wages, conditions of employment or discipline of a public official), subject to the following:
 - (a) detrimental action is not to be taken against a person if to do so would be in contravention of this Act, and
 - (b) beneficial treatment is not to be given in favour of a person if the purpose (or one of the purposes) for doing so is to influence the person to make, to refrain from making, or to withdraw a disclosure.

4 Definitions

(1) In this Act:

Commission means the Independent Commission Against Corruption.

corrupt conduct has the meaning given to it by the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988.

detrimental action is defined in section 20.

exercise of a function includes, where the function is a duty, the performance of the duty.

function includes power, authority or duty.

government information contravention means conduct of a kind that constitutes a failure to exercise functions in accordance with any provision of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009.

ICAC Inspector means the Inspector of the Independent Commission Against Corruption appointed under the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988.

investigate includes inquire or audit.

investigating authority means:

- (a) the Auditor-General, or
- (b) the Commission, or
- (c) the Ombudsman, or
- (d) the PIC, or
- (e) the PIC Inspector, or
- (f) the local government investigating authority, or
- (g) the ICAC Inspector, or
- (h) the Information Commissioner.

investigation Act means:

- (a) the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988, or
- (b) the Ombudsman Act 1974, or

- (c) the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983, or
- (d) the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996, or
- (e) the Local Government Act 1993, or
- (f) the Government Information \(Information Commissioner\) Act 2009.

journalist means a person engaged in the occupation of writing or editing material intended for publication in the print or electronic news media.

local government authority means:

- (a) a council, or
- (b) a county council, within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993.

local government investigating authority means the Director-General under section 429A (Complaints about councils, councillors, delegates and staff) of the Local Government Act 1993.

maladministration is defined in section 11 (2).

officer of the ICAC Inspector means an officer of the Inspector, as defined in the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988.

PIC means the Police Integrity Commission constituted under the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996.

PIC Inspector means the Inspector of the Police Integrity Commission appointed under the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996.

PIC officer means an officer of the Commission, as defined in the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996.

PICI officer means an officer of the Inspector, as defined in the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996.

protected disclosure means a disclosure satisfying the applicable requirements of Part 2.

public authority means any public authority (including a local government authority) whose conduct or activities may be investigated by an investigating authority.

public official means a person employed under the Public Sector Management Act 1988, an employee of a State owned corporation, a subsidiary of a State owned corporation or a local government authority or any other individual having public official functions or acting in a public official capacity, whose conduct and activities may be investigated by an investigating authority, and (without limitation and to avoid doubt), includes an individual in the service of the Crown or of a public authority, a member of the Police Service, a PIC officer or a PICI officer.

relevant investigation Act means:

- (a) in relation to an investigating authority other than the local government investigating authority—the Act that appoints or constitutes the investigating authority, and
- (b) in relation to the local government investigating authority—the Local Government Act 1993.

Steering Committee means the Public Interest Disclosures Steering Committee established by section 6A.

- (2) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

5 Relationship of this Act and other Acts

- (1) This Act prevails, to the extent of any inconsistency, over the provisions of any investigation Act.
- (2) However, nothing in this Act otherwise limits or affects the operation of any Act or the exercise of the functions conferred or imposed on an investigating authority or any other person or body under it.
- (3) Nothing in this Act (except section 13 (2), (4) and (4B)) authorises an investigating authority to investigate any complaint that it is not authorised to investigate under the relevant investigation Act.

6 Act binds the Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of New South Wales.

6A Steering Committee

- (1) There is established by this Act a Public Interest Disclosures Steering Committee consisting of the following members:
 - (a) the Ombudsman, who is to be the chairperson of the Steering Committee,
 - (b) the Director-General of the Department of Premier and Cabinet,
 - (c) the Auditor-General,
 - (d) the Commissioner for the Independent Commission Against Corruption,
 - (e) the Commissioner for the PIC,

- (f) the local government investigating authority,
 - (g) the Commissioner of Police,
 - (h) such other members as may be prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The functions of the Steering Committee are:
- (a) to provide advice to the Minister on the operation of this Act and recommendations for reform, and
 - (b) to receive, consider and provide advice to the Minister on any reports provided by the Ombudsman in the exercise of functions under section 6B or as referred to in section 31A.
- (3) A member of the Steering Committee may appoint a nominee to act in the place of the member (either generally or for a particular purpose) and may revoke any such appointment. While acting in the place of a member, the member's nominee has all the functions of the member (including the functions of chairperson in the case of the Ombudsman's nominee) and is taken to be a member.
- (4) The quorum for a meeting of the Steering Committee is 3 members of the Committee of whom 2 must be the Ombudsman and the Director-General of the Department of Premier and Cabinet (or their nominees).
- (5) The Steering Committee is to determine its own procedures.
- (6) The Ombudsman (as chairperson of the Steering Committee) is to prepare an annual report of the Steering Committee's activities and any recommendations made to the Minister during the reporting period of 12 months ending on 30 June in each year.
- (7) The annual report is to be prepared and provided to the Minister as soon as practicable after the end of the reporting period and is to be tabled by the Minister in each House of Parliament as soon as practicable after the Minister receives it.

Part 2 Protected disclosures

7 Effect of Part

A disclosure is protected by this Act if it satisfies the applicable requirements of this Part.

8 Disclosures must be made by public officials

- (1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure must be made by a public official:
- (a) to an investigating authority, or
 - (b) to the principal officer of a public authority or investigating authority or officer who constitutes a public authority, or

(c) to:

- (i) another officer of the public authority or investigating authority to which the public official belongs, or
- (ii) an officer of the public authority or investigating authority to which the disclosure relates, in accordance with any procedure established by the authority concerned for the reporting of allegations of corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste of public money or government information contravention by that authority or any of its officers, or

(d) to a member of Parliament or to a journalist.

- (2) A disclosure is protected by this Act even if it is made about conduct or activities engaged in, or about matters arising, before the commencement of this section.
- (3) A disclosure made while a person was a public official is protected by this Act even if the person who made it is no longer a public official.
- (4) A disclosure made about the conduct of a person while the person was a public official is protected by this Act even if the person is no longer a public official.

9 Disclosures must be made voluntarily

- (1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure must be made voluntarily.
- (2) A disclosure is not made voluntarily for the purposes of this section if it is made by a public official in the exercise of a duty imposed on the public official by or under an Act.
- (3) A disclosure is made voluntarily for the purposes of this section if it is made by a public official in accordance with a code of conduct (however described) adopted by an investigating authority or public authority and setting out rules or guidelines to be observed by public officials for reporting corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste of public money or government information contravention by investigating authorities, public authorities or public officials.
- (4) A disclosure made by a member of the Police Service is made voluntarily for the purposes of this section even if it relates to the same conduct as an allegation that the member of the Police Service has made in performance of a duty imposed on the member by or under the Police Service Act 1990 or any other Act.
- (5) A disclosure made by a correctional officer, within the meaning of the Crimes \(Administration of Sentences\) Act 1999, is made voluntarily for the purposes of this section even if it relates to the same conduct as an allegation that the officer has made in the performance of a duty imposed on the officer by or under that Act or any other Act.

10 Disclosure to Commission concerning corrupt conduct

To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the Commission must:

- (a) be made in accordance with the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988, and
- (b) be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show that a public authority or another public official has engaged, is engaged or proposes to engage in corrupt conduct.

11 Disclosure to Ombudsman concerning maladministration

(1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the Ombudsman must:

- (a) be made in accordance with the Ombudsman Act 1974, and
- (b) be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show that, in the exercise of a function relating to a matter of administration conferred or imposed on a public authority or another public official, the public authority or public official has engaged, is engaged or proposes to engage in conduct of a kind that amounts to maladministration.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, conduct is of a kind that amounts to maladministration if it involves action or inaction of a serious nature that is:

- (a) contrary to law, or
- (b) unreasonable, unjust, oppressive or improperly discriminatory, or
- (c) based wholly or partly on improper motives.

12 Disclosure to Auditor-General concerning serious and substantial waste

(1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the Auditor-General must:

- (a) be made in accordance with the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983, and
- (b) be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show that an authority or officer of an authority has seriously and substantially wasted public money.

(2) In this section, authority and officer of an authority have the meanings given to those expressions in the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983.

12A Disclosure concerning police

(1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the PIC must:

- (a) be made in accordance with the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996, and
 - (b) be a disclosure that shows or tends to show corrupt conduct, maladministration or serious and substantial waste of public money by a police officer.
- (2) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the PIC Inspector must:
- (a) be made in accordance with the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996, and
 - (b) be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show corrupt conduct, maladministration or serious and substantial waste of public money by the PIC, a PIC officer or a PICI officer.
- (3) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to an investigating authority (being the Auditor-General, the Commission or the Ombudsman) concerning the PIC or a PIC officer must relate to a matter referred by the PIC Inspector to the investigating authority under section 90 (1) (f) of the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996.

12B Disclosure concerning serious and substantial waste in local government

- (1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the local government investigating authority must:
- (a) be made in accordance with the Local Government Act 1993, and
 - (b) be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show serious and substantial waste of local government money by any one or more of the following:
 - (i) a local government authority,
 - (ii) a delegate of a local government authority,
 - (iii) a councillor (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993),
 - (iv) a member of a county council (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993),
 - (v) a member of staff of a local government authority.
- (2) In this section, local government money includes all revenue, loans and other money collected, received or held by, for or on account of a local government authority.

12C Disclosure concerning Commission, ICAC Inspector and officers of Commission and ICAC Inspector

- (1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the ICAC Inspector must:
- (a) be made in accordance with the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act

1988, and

- (b) be a disclosure that shows or tends to show corrupt conduct, maladministration or serious and substantial waste of public money by the Commission, an officer of the Commission or an officer of the ICAC Inspector.
- (2) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to an investigating authority (being the Auditor-General or the Ombudsman) concerning the Commission or an officer of the Commission must relate to a matter referred by the ICAC Inspector to the investigating authority under section 57C (f) of the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988.
- (3) Despite section 11, a disclosure by a public official to the Ombudsman that shows or tends to show that, in the exercise of a function relating to a matter of administration conferred or imposed on the ICAC Inspector, the ICAC Inspector has engaged or proposes to engage in conduct of a kind that amounts to corrupt conduct or maladministration or has seriously and substantially wasted public money is protected by this Act.
- (4) The Ombudsman may investigate, and report, in accordance with the Ombudsman Act 1974 on any matter raised by a disclosure made to it that is of a kind referred to in subsection (3).

12D Disclosure to Information Commissioner

To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the Information Commissioner must:

- (a) be made in accordance with the Government Information \(Information Commissioner\) Act 2009, and
- (b) be disclosure of information that shows or tends to show that a public authority or another public official has engaged, is engaged or proposes to engage in conduct of a kind that constitutes a failure to exercise its functions properly in accordance with any provision of the Government Information \(Public Access\) Act 2009.

13 Disclosures about investigating authorities

- (1) Despite section 10, a disclosure by a public official to the Commission that shows or tends to show that, in the exercise of a function relating to a matter of administration conferred or imposed on the Ombudsman, the Ombudsman or an officer of the Ombudsman has engaged, is engaged or proposes to engage in conduct of a kind that amounts to maladministration is protected by this Act.
- (2) The Commission may investigate, and report, in accordance with the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 on any matter raised by a disclosure made to it that is of a kind referred to in subsection (1).

- (3) Despite section 11, a disclosure by a public official to the Ombudsman that shows or tends to show:
 - (a), (b) (Repealed)
 - (c) that the Auditor-General or a member of the staff of the Auditor-General has seriously and substantially wasted public money, is protected by this Act.

- (4) The Ombudsman may investigate, and report, in accordance with the Ombudsman Act 1974 on any matter raised by a disclosure made to it that is of a kind referred to in subsection (3). For the purposes of such an investigation the Ombudsman may engage consultants or other persons for the purpose of getting expert assistance.
- (4A) Despite section 10, a disclosure by a public official to the Commission that shows or tends to show that, in the exercise of a function relating to a matter of administration conferred or imposed on the PIC Inspector, the PIC Inspector or a PICI officer has engaged or proposes to engage in conduct of a kind that amounts to corrupt conduct or maladministration or has seriously and substantially wasted public money is protected by this Act.
- (4B) The Commission may investigate, and report, in accordance with the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 on any matter raised by a disclosure made to it that is of a kind referred to in subsection (4A).
- (5) An investigating authority may decline to investigate or may discontinue the investigation of any matter referred to in this section.
- (6) A disclosure referred to in this section is protected by this Act only if it satisfies all other applicable requirements of this Part.

14 Disclosures to public officials

- (1) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to the principal officer of, or officer who constitutes, a public authority must be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste of public money or government information contravention by the authority or any of its officers or by another public authority or any of its officers.
- (2) To be protected by this Act, a disclosure by a public official to:
 - (a) another officer of the public authority to which the public official belongs, or
 - (b) an officer of the public authority to which the disclosure relates,in accordance with any procedure established by the authority concerned for the reporting of allegations of corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste of public money or government information contravention by that authority or any of its officers must be a disclosure of information that shows or tends to show such corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste of public money or government information contravention (whether by that authority or any of its officers or by another public authority or any of its officers).

(3) In this section:

public authority includes an investigating authority.

15 Protection of misdirected disclosures

- (1) A misdirected disclosure by a public official to an investigating authority that the public official honestly believed (at the time the disclosure was made) was the appropriate investigating authority to deal with the matter is a protected disclosure if:
 - (a) the investigating authority (whether because it is not authorised to investigate the matter under the relevant investigation Act or otherwise) refers the disclosure under Part 4 to another investigating authority or to a public official or public authority, or
 - (b) the investigating authority could have referred the disclosure under Part 4 but did not do so because it has power to investigate the matter concerned under the relevant investigation Act.
- (2) A misdirected disclosure is a disclosure that is not a protected disclosure because it was not made to the appropriate investigating authority or public authority (but that would have been a protected disclosure had it been made to the appropriate investigating authority or public authority).

16 Disclosures made on frivolous or other grounds

- (1) An investigating authority, or principal officer of or officer constituting a public authority, may decline to investigate or may discontinue the investigation of any matter raised by a disclosure made to the authority or officer of a kind referred to in this Part if the investigating authority or officer is of the opinion that the disclosure was made frivolously or vexatiously.
- (2) A disclosure is not (despite any other provision of this Part) protected by this Act if an investigating authority or officer declines to investigate or discontinues the investigation of a matter under this section.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits any discretion an investigating authority has to decline to investigate or to discontinue the investigation of a matter under the relevant investigation Act.

17 Disclosures concerning merits of government policy

- (1) A disclosure made by a public official that principally involves questioning the merits of government policy is not (despite any other provision of this Part) protected by this Act.
- (2) In this section, government policy includes the policy of the governing body of a local government authority.

18 Disclosures motivated by object of avoiding disciplinary action

A disclosure that is made solely or substantially with the motive of avoiding dismissal or other disciplinary action, not being disciplinary action taken in reprisal for the making of a protected disclosure, is not (despite any other provision of this Part) a protected disclosure.

19 Disclosure to a member of Parliament or journalist

- (1) A disclosure by a public official to a member of Parliament, or to a journalist, is protected by this Act if the following subsections apply.
- (2) The public official making the disclosure must have already made substantially the same disclosure to an investigating authority, public authority or officer of a public authority in accordance with another provision of this Part.
- (3) The investigating authority, public authority or officer to whom the disclosure was made or, if the matter was referred, the investigating authority, public authority or officer to whom the matter was referred:
 - (a) must have decided not to investigate the matter, or
 - (b) must have decided to investigate the matter but not completed the investigation within 6 months of the original disclosure being made, or
 - (c) must have investigated the matter but not recommended the taking of any action in respect of the matter, or
 - (d) must have failed to notify the person making the disclosure, within 6 months of the disclosure being made, of whether or not the matter is to be investigated.
- (4) The public official must have reasonable grounds for believing that the disclosure is substantially true.
- (5) The disclosure must be substantially true.

Part 3 Protections

20 Protection against reprisals

- (1) A person who takes detrimental action against another person that is substantially in reprisal for the other person making a protected disclosure is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both.

- (1A) In any proceedings for an offence against this section, it lies on the defendant to prove that detrimental action shown to be taken against a person was not substantially in reprisal for the person making a protected disclosure.
- (2) In this Act, detrimental action means action causing, comprising or involving any of the following:
- (a) injury, damage or loss,
 - (b) intimidation or harassment,
 - (c) discrimination, disadvantage or adverse treatment in relation to employment,
 - (d) dismissal from, or prejudice in, employment,
 - (e) disciplinary proceeding.
- (3) Proceedings for an offence against this section may be instituted at any time within 2 years after the offence is alleged to have been committed.

21 Protection against actions etc

- (1) A person is not subject to any liability for making a protected disclosure and no action, claim or demand may be taken or made of or against the person for making the disclosure.
- (2) This section has effect despite any duty of secrecy or confidentiality or any other restriction on disclosure (whether or not imposed by an Act) applicable to the person.
- (3) The following are examples of the ways in which this section protects persons who make protected disclosures. A person who has made a protected disclosure:
- has a defence of absolute privilege in respect of the publication to the relevant investigating authority, public authority, public official, member of Parliament or journalist of the disclosure in proceedings for defamation
 - on whom a provision of an Act (other than this Act) imposes a duty to maintain confidentiality with respect to any information disclosed is taken not to have committed an offence against the Act
 - who is subject to an obligation by way of oath, rule of law or practice to maintain confidentiality with respect to the disclosure is taken not to have breached the oath, rule of law or practice or a law relevant to the oath, rule or practice

- is not liable to disciplinary action because of the disclosure.

22 Confidentiality guideline

An investigating authority or public authority (or officer of an investigating authority or public authority) or public official to whom a protected disclosure is made or referred is not to disclose information that might identify or tend to identify a person who has made the protected disclosure unless:

- (a) the person consents in writing to the disclosure of that information, or
- (b) it is essential, having regard to the principles of natural justice, that the identifying information be disclosed to a person whom the information provided by the disclosure may concern, or
- (c) the investigating authority, public authority, officer or public official is of the opinion that disclosure of the identifying information is necessary to investigate the matter effectively or it is otherwise in the public interest to do so.

23 Rights and privileges of Parliament

Nothing in this Act affects the rights and privileges of Parliament in relation to the freedom of speech, and debates and proceedings, in Parliament.

24 Other protection preserved

This Act does not limit the protection given by any other Act or law to a person who makes disclosures of any kind.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

25 Referral of disclosures by investigating authorities

- (1) An investigating authority may refer any disclosure concerning an allegation of corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste or government information contravention that is made to it by a public official to another investigating authority or to a public official or public authority considered by the authority to be appropriate in the circumstances, for investigation or other action.
- (2) The investigating authority must refer such a disclosure if:
 - (a) it is not authorised to investigate the matter concerned under the relevant investigation Act, and
 - (b) it is of the opinion that another investigating authority or some public official or public authority may appropriately deal with the matter concerned.

- (3) A disclosure may be referred before or after the matter concerned has been investigated and whether or not any investigation of the matter is complete or any findings have been made by the investigating authority.
- (4) The investigating authority may communicate to the other investigating authority or to the public official or public authority any information the investigating authority has obtained during the investigation (if any) of the matter concerned.
- (5) The investigating authority may recommend what action should be taken by the other investigating authority or the public official or public authority.
- (6) The investigating authority is not to refer the disclosure to another investigating authority, or to a public official or public authority, except after taking into consideration the views of the authority, public official or public authority.
- (7) An investigating authority referring a matter to another investigating authority may enter into arrangements with the other authority:
 - (a) to avoid duplication of action, and
 - (b) to allow the resources of both authorities to be efficiently and economically used to take action, and
 - (c) to ensure that action is taken in a manner providing the most effective result.
- (8) A protected disclosure that is referred under this section remains a protected disclosure after it is referred.

26 Referral of disclosures by public officials

- (1) A public official may refer any disclosure concerning an allegation of corrupt conduct, maladministration, serious and substantial waste or government information contravention made to the public official under Part 2 to an investigating authority or to another public official or a public authority considered by the public official to be appropriate in the circumstances, for investigation or other action.
- (1A) If the public official to whom the disclosure referred to in subsection (1) was made does not belong to the public authority or investigating authority to which the disclosure relates, the public official must refer the disclosure to the principal officer of, or officer who constitutes, the authority concerned, or to an investigating authority, for investigation or other action.
- (2) The public official may communicate to the investigating authority, the other public official or the public authority any information the public official has obtained during investigation (if any) of the matter concerned.
- (3) A protected disclosure that is referred under this section remains a protected disclosure after it is referred.

26A Transitional disclosure procedure when public authority becomes separate office within another public authority

- (1) If a public authority becomes a separate office within another public authority (the new public authority), a disclosure made to the principal officer of the separate office during the transition period is taken to have been made to the principal officer of the new public authority.
- (2) The transition period is the period beginning when the public authority becomes a separate office within the new public authority and ending when either of the following happens:
 - (a) a procedure is established by the new public authority that provides for the reporting of allegations of corrupt conduct, maladministration or serious and substantial waste of public money by officers of the separate office,
 - (b) an existing procedure of the new public authority is varied or confirmed to be applicable to the reporting of allegations of corrupt conduct, maladministration or serious and substantial waste of public money by officers of the separate office.
- (3) A public authority can be the new public authority under this section even if the public authority is not newly created and even if it is formed by the amalgamation of 2 or more existing public authorities that become separate offices of the new public authority.

27 Notification to person making disclosure

The investigating authority, public authority or officer to whom a disclosure is made under this Act or, if the disclosure is referred, the investigating authority, public authority or officer to whom the disclosure is referred must notify the person who made the disclosure, within 6 months of the disclosure being made, of the action taken or proposed to be taken in respect of the disclosure.

28 False or misleading disclosures

A public official must not, in making a disclosure to an investigating authority, public authority or public official, wilfully make any false statement to, or mislead or attempt to mislead, the investigating authority, public authority or public official.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both.

29 Proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence against this Act are to be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.

30 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

- (2) The Minister must not recommend the making of a regulation under this Act unless the Minister certifies that the Minister has consulted with the Steering Committee concerning the making of the regulation.

31 (Repealed)

31B Review of Commonwealth legislation

- (1) The Steering Committee is to review any legislation of the Commonwealth that is enacted in response to the 2009 report Whistleblower protection: A comprehensive scheme for the Commonwealth public sector of the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Legal and Constitutional Affairs.
- (2) The review is to be conducted within 6 months after the enactment of the Commonwealth legislation (or within 6 months after the commencement of this section if the Commonwealth legislation is enacted before the commencement of this section).
- (3) The Steering Committee is to provide the Minister with a report on the outcome of the review and any recommendations for reform of this Act arising from the review.
- (4) A copy of the Steering Committee's report is to be tabled in each House of Parliament as soon as practicable after the report is provided to the Minister.

32 Review of Act

- (1) A joint committee of members of Parliament is to review this Act to determine whether the policy objectives of the Act remain valid and whether the terms of the Act remain appropriate for securing those objectives.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the review is to consider:
 - (a) the effectiveness of the amendments made by the Protected Disclosures Amendment (Public Interest Disclosures) Act 2010, in particular the amendments providing for the role of the Steering Committee and the Ombudsman, and
 - (b) whether the structures in place to support the operation of the protected disclosures scheme remain appropriate, and
 - (c) the need for further review of the Act after the review under this section.
- (3) The joint committee is to consult on the review with each of the members of the Steering Committee and the members of the Steering Committee may assist the joint committee on the review and provide advice in connection with the review.
- (4) The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 5 years from the date of assent to the Protected Disclosures Amendment (Public Interest Disclosures) Act 2010.

- (5) The joint committee is to report on the outcome of the review to both Houses of Parliament as soon as practicable after the completion of the review.
- (6) The Minister administering this Act is to provide a response to the outcome of the report to both Houses of Parliament within 6 months of the report being tabled.

33 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 2 has effect.

Schedule 1 (Repealed)

Schedule 2 Savings, transitional and other provisions

(Section 33)

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

Protected Disclosures Amendment (Police) Act 1998

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2001 (but only in so far as Schedule 1 to that Act amends this Act, the Defamation Act 1974 and the Local Government Act 1993)

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2003 (but only in so far as Schedule 1 to that Act amends this Act and the Local Government Act 1993)

Independent Commission Against Corruption Amendment Act 2005 (but only in so far as Schedule 2 to that Act amends this Act)

Protected Disclosures Amendment (Public Interest Disclosures) Act 2010

- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or

- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Part 2 Savings and transitional provisions

2 Disclosures made by police officers

A disclosure made by a police officer is protected by this Act even if it is made about conduct or activities engaged in, or about matters arising, before the commencement of the Protected Disclosures Amendment \(Police\) Act 1998.

3 Protection against reprisals

Section 20 (1A) does not apply in relation to a proceeding the hearing of which began before the commencement of that subsection.

4 Disclosures made by correctional officers

Section 9 (5), as inserted by the Statute Law \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Act 2001, applies to a disclosure made by a correctional officer even if the disclosure relates to conduct or activities engaged in, or matters arising, before the commencement of the subsection.

5 Disclosures to Director-General of Department of Local Government concerning serious and substantial waste in local government

- (1) A disclosure referred to in section 12B is protected by this Act even if it relates to conduct or activities engaged in, or matters arising, before the commencement of that section.
- (2) A disclosure referred to in section 12B as amended by Schedule 1.40 [1] to the Statute Law \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Act 2003 is protected by this Act even if it relates to conduct or activities engaged in, or matters arising, before the commencement of that amendment.

6 Proceedings for certain offences

Section 20 (3) extends to apply to proceedings for offences against section 20 committed less than 6 months before the commencement of that subsection.

Part 3 Provisions consequent on enactment of Protected Disclosures Amendment \(Public Interest Disclosures\) Act 2010

7 Definition

In this Part:

amending Act means the Protected Disclosures Amendment \(Public Interest Disclosures\) Act 2010.

8 Amended definition of “public official”

This Act extends to a disclosure of information made by a person who becomes a public official for the purposes of this Act because of the amendment by the amending Act of the definition of public official (being a disclosure made after the commencement of the amendment) even if the disclosure relates to conduct or activities engaged in, or matters arising, before the commencement of the amendment.

9 Public interest disclosures policies

A public authority is not required to have a policy under section 6D until 3 months after the commencement of that section.

10 Frivolous or vexatious disclosures

A disclosure that is not protected by this Act because of the operation of section 16 (Disclosures made on frivolous or other grounds) before the repeal of that section by the amending Act continues to be a disclosure that is not protected by this Act despite the repeal of that section.

11 Protection against reprisals

- (1) The amendment made by the amending Act to the maximum penalty for an offence under section 20 (1) does not apply to an offence committed before the commencement of the amendment.
- (2) Section 20 (1B) does not apply in respect of detrimental action taken before the commencement of that subsection but does apply to detrimental action taken after that commencement in respect of a protected disclosure made before that commencement.
- (3) Section 20 (4) does not apply to evidence of an offence committed before the commencement of that subsection.

12 Compensation for reprisals

Section 20A does not apply in respect of detrimental action taken against a person before the commencement of that section.

13 Injunctions to prevent reprisals

Section 20B extends to conduct that occurs before the commencement of that section but not so as to authorise the grant of an injunction requiring a person to do any act or thing to remedy a contravention occurring before the commencement of that section.

14 Confidentiality

The amendment of section 22 (a) by the amending Act extends to the voluntary and public identification of a person occurring before the commencement of that amendment and to a protected disclosure made before that commencement.

15 Transitional disclosure procedure when public authority becomes separate office within another public authority

Section 26A extends to a disclosure made before the commencement of that section (when a public authority becomes a separate office within another public authority before that commencement) but only if the transition period referred to in that section ends after the commencement of the section.

16 Local government investigating authority

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a reference in Division 1 of Part 5 of Chapter 13 of the Local Government Act 1993 to the Director-General is to be construed as a reference to the Chief Executive, Local Government, in the Department of Premier and Cabinet, until an administrative changes order made after the commencement of this clause under Part 4.2 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 provides otherwise.
- (2) A disclosure made by a public official on or after 1 July 2009 and before the commencement of this clause to the Deputy Director-General (Local Government) of the Department of Premier and Cabinet or the Chief Executive, Local Government, in the Department of Premier and Cabinet, that would be protected by this Act had the disclosure been made to the Director-General of the Department of Premier and Cabinet is taken to have been made to the Director-General of that Department.

Note—

1 July 2009 is the date of commencement of the Public Sector Employment and Management \(Departmental Amalgamations\) Order 2009. That order resulted in references to the Director-General of the Department of Local Government being construed as references to the Director-General of the Department of Premier and Cabinet.
