Industrial Relations (Public Sector Conditions of Employment) Regulation 2014

New South Wales

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Industrial Relations (Public Sector Conditions of Employment) Regulation 2014.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on the day on which Schedule 5.2 to the State Revenue and Other Legislation Amendment (Budget Measures) Act 2014 commences.

3 Definition

In this Regulation—

the Act means the Industrial Relations Act 1996.

4 Declarations under section 146C

The matters set out in this Regulation are declared, for the purposes of section 146C of the Act, to be aspects of government policy that are to be given effect to by the Industrial Relations Commission when making or varying awards or orders.

5 Paramount policies

The following paramount policies are declared—

- (a) Public sector employees are entitled to the guaranteed minimum conditions of employment (being the conditions set out in clause 7).
- (b) Equal remuneration for men and women doing work of equal or comparable value.

Note—

Clause 6(1)(c) provides that existing conditions of employment in excess of the guaranteed minimum conditions may only be reduced for the purposes of achieving employee-related cost savings with the agreement of the relevant parties.

Clause 9(1)(e) provides that conditions of employment cannot be reduced below the guaranteed minimum conditions of employment for the purposes of achieving employee-related cost savings.

6 Other policies

- (1) The following policies are also declared, but are subject to compliance with the declared paramount policies—
- (a) Public sector employees may be awarded increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment, but only if employee-related costs in respect of those employees are not increased by more than 2.5% per annum as a result of the increases awarded together with any new or increased superannuation employment benefits provided (or to be provided) to or in respect of the employees since their remuneration or other conditions of employment were last determined.
 - (b) Increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment can be awarded even if employee-related costs are increased by more than 2.5% per annum, but only if sufficient employee-related cost savings have been achieved to fully offset the increased employee-related costs beyond 2.5% per annum. For this purpose—
 - (i) whether relevant savings have been achieved is to be determined by agreement of the relevant parties or, in the absence of agreement, by the Commission, and
 - (ii) increases may be awarded before the relevant savings have been achieved, but are not payable until they are achieved, and
 - (iii) the full savings are not required to be awarded as increases in remuneration or other conditions of employment.
 - (c) For the purposes of achieving employee-related cost savings, existing conditions of employment of the kind but in excess of the guaranteed minimum conditions of employment may only be reduced with the agreement of the relevant parties in the proceedings.
 - (d) Awards and orders are to resolve all issues the subject of the proceedings (and not reserve leave for a matter to be dealt with at a later time or allow extra claims to be made during the term of the award or order). However, this does not prevent variations made with the agreement of the relevant parties.
 - (e) Changes to remuneration or other conditions of employment may only operate on or after the date the relevant parties finally agreed to the change (if the award or order is made or varied by consent) or the date of the Commission's decision (if the award or order is made or varied in arbitration proceedings).
 - (f) Policies regarding the management of excess public sector employees are not to be incorporated into industrial instruments.
- (1A) Despite subclause (1)(a) and (b), public sector employees may be awarded an increase in remuneration or other conditions of employment, resulting in an increase in employee-related costs in respect of those employees, which is greater than the amount that may be awarded under that subclause, if the employer agrees to—

- (a) the increase, and
 - (b) any reforms required relating to the increase.
