Part 3 Special provisions

10 General considerations for development within rural zones

- (1) The Council shall not consent to an application to carry out development on land within Zone No 1 (a) or 1 (c) unless it has taken into consideration, if relevant, the effect of the carrying out of that development on:
 - (a) the present use of the land, the potential use of the land for the purposes of agriculture and the potential of any land which is prime crop and pasture land for sustained agricultural production,
 - (b) vegetation, timber production, land capability (including soil resources and soil stability) and water resources (including the quality and stability of watercourse and ground water storage and riparian rights),
 - (c) the future extraction of known valuable deposits of minerals, coal, petroleum, sand, gravel or other extractive materials and areas considered to be prospective for these materials,
 - (d) the protection of areas of significance for nature conservation or of high scenic or recreational value, and places and buildings of archaeological or heritage significance, including Aboriginal relics and places,
 - (e) the cost of providing, extending and maintaining public amenities and services to the development,
 - (f) future expansion of settlements in the locality, and
 - (g) where the land is within Zone No 1 (a) and within 400 metres of the bank of a river, the effect of the development on the riparian lands of that river.

- (2) As well as the matters referred to in subclause (1), the Council shall take into consideration the relationship of the development to development on adjoining land and on other land in the locality.
- (3) Subclause (1) does not apply to development, being:
 - (a) an addition to a building or work,
 - (b) development ancillary to a purpose for which development may be carried out, with or without the consent of the Council, under this plan, or
 - (c) the erection of a dwelling-house on an allotment of land the Council is satisfied was created in accordance with this plan for the purpose of a dwelling-house.

11 Subdivision of land generally

- (1) A person shall not subdivide land to which this plan applies except with the consent of the Council.
- (2) A person who makes an application for consent to subdivide land within Zone No 1 (a), 1 (c) or 1 (d) shall, before the Council consents to the application:

 - (b) identify any allotment which is intended to be used primarily for the purpose of agriculture,
 - (c) identify any allotment which is intended to be used primarily for the purpose of a dwelling-house,
 - (d) identify any allotment on which it is intended to erect a dwelling-house and state whether or not the dwelling-house is the primary purpose for which the allotment is being created, and
 - (e) show the approximate location of any dwelling-house erected on the land at the date of the application.
- (3) The Council shall not consent to an application to subdivide land within Zone No 1 (a), 1 (c) or 1 (d) unless the application is accompanied by the information required by subclause (2).

12 Subdivision for the purpose of agriculture in Zone No 1 (a)

- (1) The Council may consent to the creation of an allotment of any area within Zone No 1 (a) if the Council is satisfied the allotment is intended to be used for the purposes of agriculture.

- (2) The Council shall not consent to the creation of an allotment within Zone No 1 (a) that the Council is satisfied is intended to be used for the purpose of agriculture if the allotment has an area of less than 120 hectares and there is a dwelling-house on the allotment.
- (3) Despite subclause (2), the Council may consent to the creation from an existing holding within Zone No 1 (a) on which a dwelling-house stands of one, but not more than one, allotment that the Council is satisfied is intended to be used for the purpose of agriculture and which has an area less than 120 hectares if that dwelling-house was lawfully erected on that land on or before the appointed day.

Note—

Clause 9 of the State Environmental Planning Policy \(Rural Lands\) 2008 also enables the subdivision of lots for the purposes of primary production.

13 Subdivision for other purposes in Zone No 1 (a)

- (1) The Council shall not consent to an application to subdivide land within Zone No 1 (a) if any allotment to be created by the subdivision is, in the opinion of the Council, intended to be used primarily for purposes other than agriculture or a dwelling-house unless, in the opinion of the Council:
 - (a) none of the land the subject of the application is prime crop and pasture land, and
 - (b) the area of each allotment to be created by the subdivision is appropriate having regard to the purpose for which it is intended to be used.
- (2) Nothing in subclause (1) prevents the Council from granting consent to an application to subdivide land within Zone No 1 (a) to create an allotment that, in the opinion of the Council, is intended to be used for a purpose other than agriculture or a dwelling-house if the Council is satisfied that:
 - (a) the purpose for which the allotment is intended to be used involves the supply of goods or services for which there is a demand in the locality,
 - (b) no other land in the locality could reasonably be used for that purpose, and
 - (c) the level of demand for the goods or services which are to be supplied from the allotment and the extent to which that allotment is intended to be used to meet that demand justifies the creation of the allotment notwithstanding its agricultural value.

14 (Repealed)

15 Subdivision for the purpose of dwelling-houses in Zone No 1 (c)

- (1) The Council shall not consent to an application to subdivide land within Zone No 1 (c) unless:

- (a) where provision is to be made for off-site disposal of sewage, the area of each allotment to be created as a result of the subdivision is not less than 5 000 square metres, and
 - (b) where no provision is to be made for off-site disposal of sewage:
 - (i) each allotment to be created as a result of the subdivision has an area of not less than 5 000 square metres with the average area of the resultant lots being not less than 1 hectare,
 - (ii) arrangements satisfactory to the Council have been made for the provision of a permanent water supply to that land, and
 - (iii) the number of allotments having an area of less than 1 hectare which will be created as a result of the subdivision is not more than 65 per cent of the maximum number of allotments which could be created from that land without contravening subparagraph (i).
- (2) Nothing in subclause (1) (b) (i) prevents the Council from consenting to the subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (c) so as to create an allotment having an area of less than 5 000 square metres if it is satisfied that the allotment has adequate provision for effluent disposal.
- (3) If:
- (a) land to be provided and developed for the communal use of future owners of allotments is created by a subdivision referred to in subclause (1), and
 - (b) the Council is satisfied that the resultant development will enhance the amenity of the locality,
- the area of that land may be included in calculating the average lot size of that subdivision.
- (4) The Council shall not grant consent to the subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (c) unless it has taken into consideration:
- (a) the land capability (including soil resources and soil stability), natural constraints and hazards of the land to be subdivided in relation to the density of the allotments proposed to be created,
 - (b) the desirability of providing a range and mixture of allotment sizes,
 - (c) whether the design of each allotment to be created by the subdivision is satisfactory for the economic provision of services, and
 - (d) the physical suitability of the land for on-site disposal of wastes, and
 - (e) the principles set out in Part 2 of Murray Regional Environmental Plan No

2—Riverine Land.

- (5) The Council shall not consent to the carrying out of development for the purpose of a dwelling-house in an allotment created within Zone No 1 (c) if that dwelling-house is located less than 150 metres from the boundary of land within Zone No 1 (a) unless, in the opinion of the Council, the development will not be adversely affected by the use of adjoining lands for agriculture.
- (6) The Council may consent to the subdivision of, or the carrying out of other development on, land within Zone No 1 (c) only if the Council is satisfied that:
 - (a) measures will be taken to protect water quality by reducing nutrient accessions to any river, and
 - (b) measures will be taken to prevent degradation of existing vegetation and fauna habitat, and
 - (c) new native vegetation will be allowed to grow so as to minimise any disturbance to wildlife and aquatic habitat and to protect any river banks from erosion, and
 - (d) scenic, rural river character and habitat values will be protected, and
 - (e) appropriate fire protection measures will be taken and maintained (including creating and maintaining fire radiation zones), and
 - (f) the dwelling-house will be located at a sufficient distance from the edge of any tree and habitat preservation area (as identified on the map) to allow the matters stated in the preceding paragraphs to be achieved.
- (7) For the purpose of satisfying itself of the matter referred to in subclause (6) (a) in relation to the erection of a dwelling-house on land within Zone No 1 (c) within 100 metres of a river, the Council must consider a plan that shows how the site is to be landscaped.
- (8) The Council may consent to subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (c) to create allotments to be connected to a reticulated water supply only if the Council is satisfied that reticulated sewerage is also to be provided to those allotments.

16 Subdivision of land in Zone No 1 (d)

The Council may consent to the subdivision of land within Zone No 1 (d) if each allotment created by the subdivision is not less than 2 hectares in area and the Council is satisfied that the subdivision will complement future urban development.

17 Subdivision of land in Zone No 2 (v)

- (1) The Council shall not consent to an application to subdivide land within Zone No 2 (v) to create an allotment that, in the opinion of the Council, is intended to be used for the purpose of a dwelling-house unless the allotment has an area of 550 square metres or more.

- (2) Despite subclause (1), Council may consent to a subdivision of land within Zone No 2 (v) that creates allotments having an area of less than 550 square metres if the allotments are, in the opinion of the Council, to be used for the erection of villa units in accordance with clause 20.

18 Dwelling-houses in Zone No 1 (a)

- (1) In this clause, vacant land means land on which no dwelling-house is erected.
- (2) The Council shall not consent to the erection of a dwelling-house on vacant land within Zone No 1 (a) unless:

 - (ii) an allotment that was, in the opinion of the Council, created in accordance with this plan for a purpose other than agriculture, or
 - (iii) an allotment created in accordance with a consent granted before the appointed day, being an allotment on which a dwelling-house could have been lawfully erected immediately prior to the appointed day,
- (b) the land has an area of not less than 500 hectares,

- (d) the land has an area of more than 20 hectares and has the benefit of a licence to irrigate at least 20 hectares of horticultural crops issued under section 12 of the Water Act 1912, or
- (e) the dwelling-house is ancillary and subsidiary to the present or intended development of that land and is on the same allotment.

18A Dwelling entitlements on existing concessional lots

The amendment of this plan by the State Environmental Planning Policy \(Rural Lands\) 2008 does not affect any entitlement arising under a provision of this plan (as in force before that amendment) to erect a dwelling-house on a lot, if:

- (a) the lot was created before that commencement, or
- (b) development consent to the creation of the lot was applied for, or granted, before that commencement.
