- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2) only, if:
 - (a) a person is appointed under clause 9 to fill the office of a member that has become vacant otherwise than by the expiration of the member's term of office, and
 - (b) the person is appointed for the balance of his or her predecessor's term of office, the appointment does not constitute (and is taken to have never constituted) an appointment for a term of office.

6 Remuneration

A member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in consultation with the Public Service Commissioner.

7 Deputies

- (1) The Minister may, from time to time, appoint a person to be the deputy of a member, and the Minister may revoke any such appointment.
- (2) The deputy of a member who is Chairperson of the Advisory Committee is to be appointed from outside the film and television industry.
- (3) In the absence of a member, the member's deputy:
 - (a) may, if available, act in the place of the member, and
 - (b) while so acting, has all the functions of the member and is taken to be a member.
- (4) The deputy of a member who is Chairperson of the Advisory Committee has the member's functions as Chairperson.
- (5) A person while acting in the place of a member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the person.

8 Vacancy in office of member

- (f) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
- (g) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
- (h) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.

- (2) Despite subclause (1), if the office of a member becomes vacant, the Secretary may appoint a person to fill the vacancy on a temporary basis for a period no greater than 6 months.

10 Functions of Advisory Committee

The following functions are prescribed for the purposes of section 5 (3) (b) of the Act:

- (d) to advise the Minister on the strategic direction of the film and television industry in the State.

11 Disclosure of pecuniary interests

- (1) If:

- (a) a member has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered at a meeting of the Advisory Committee, and
- (b) the interest appears to raise a conflict with the proper performance of the member's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter, the member must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Advisory Committee.

- (2) A disclosure by a member at a meeting of the Advisory Committee that the member:

- (a) is a member, or is in the employment, of a specified company or other body, or
- (b) is a partner, or is in the employment, of a specified person, or is a sufficient disclosure of the nature of the interest in any matter relating to that company or other body or to that person that may arise after the date of the disclosure and that is required to be disclosed under subclause (1).

- (3) Particulars of any disclosure made under this clause must be recorded by the Advisory Committee in a document kept for the purpose and that document must be open at all reasonable hours to inspection by any person on payment of the fee determined by the Advisory Committee.

- (4) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter, the member must not, unless the Minister or the Advisory Committee otherwise determines:

- (a) be present during any deliberation of the Advisory Committee with respect to the matter, or
- (b) take part in any decision of the Advisory Committee with respect to the matter.

- (5) For the purposes of the making of a determination by the Advisory Committee under subclause (4), a member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter to which the disclosure relates must not:

- (a) be present during any deliberation of the Advisory Committee for the purpose of making the determination, or

(b) take part in the making by the Advisory Committee of the determination.

(6) A contravention of this clause does not invalidate any decision of the Advisory Committee.

12 Effect of certain other Acts

(1) The provisions of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 relating to the employment of Public Service employees do not apply to a member.

(2) If by or under any Act provision is made:

(a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office, or

(b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office, the provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of member or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Regulation as such a member.

(3) The office of a member is not, for the purposes of any Act, an office or place of profit under the Crown.
