- (3) Despite section 42 of the Real Property Act 1900 or any other Act, the registration of a registrable instrument, or the making of a recording, that is prohibited by this section has no effect and does not create or pass or otherwise affect any estate or interest in the land of any registered proprietor of the land, as otherwise recorded under the Real Property Act 1900.

- (3) A registration prohibition notice is to be in the form approved by the Registrar-General and must contain the following:
 - (a) the name and address of the person who is the registered proprietor of an estate or interest in the land affected by the notice,
 - (b) if the registration notice relates only to part of the land described in a folio of the Register, a description of that part,

- (9) A registration prohibition notice may be withdrawn by the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council, by notice in writing in the form approved by the Registrar-General and on payment of the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations, and on being withdrawn, ceases to be in force.

42P Effect of registration prohibition notices

- (2) The New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council must not refuse to give consent under this section if:
 - (a) the dealing or the registration or recording of the dealing is permitted by the applicable land dealing approval agreement, or
 - (b) the dealing or the registration or recording does not materially affect the performance or enforcement of that agreement.
- (3) The regulations may provide that a registration prohibition notice does not prevent the Registrar-General from registering or recording a dealing of a class prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) If in any legal proceedings a question arises as to the validity of a registration prohibition notice, the court is to disregard any failure to comply strictly with the requirements of this Division as to the form of the notice.

(5) This section:

- (a) has effect despite the Real Property Act 1900 or any other Act or law, and
- (b) does not affect the operation of any other prohibition or restriction relating to transfers or other dealings with land.
