Schedule 1 Amendment of Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985

(Section 3)

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 3 (1):

cultivation by enhanced indoor means, in relation to a prohibited plant, means cultivation of the plant:

- (a) that occurs inside a building or structure, and
- (b) that involves any one or more of the following:
 - (i) the nurture of the plant in nutrient-enriched water (with or without mechanical support),
 - (ii) the application of an artificial source of light or heat,
 - (iii) suspending the plant's roots and spraying them with nutrient solution.

[2] Section 3 (1), definition of "drug premises"

Omit the definition.

[3] Section 3 (1), definition of "prohibited plant"

Omit paragraph (a) of the definition. Insert instead:

- (a) a cannabis plant cultivated by enhanced indoor means, or
- (a1) a cannabis plant cultivated by any other means, or

[4] Section 3 (1), definition of "prohibited plant"

Omit "paragraph (a)". Insert instead "paragraph (a), (a1)".

[5] Section 23 Offences with respect to prohibited plants

Insert after section 23 (1):

(1A) A person who:

- (a) cultivates by enhanced indoor means, or knowingly takes part in the cultivation by enhanced indoor means of, a number of prohibited plants which is:
 - (i) not less than the small quantity applicable to the prohibited plants, and
 - (ii) less than the commercial quantity applicable to those prohibited plants, and
- (b) cultivates, or knowingly takes part in the cultivation of, those prohibited plants for a commercial purpose,

is guilty of an offence.

(1B) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (1A), the jury is not satisfied that the number of prohibited plants involved is equal to or more than the small quantity applicable to the prohibited plants, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) (a), and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

(1C) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (1A), the jury is not satisfied that the person cultivated, or knowingly took part in the cultivation of, a prohibited plant for a commercial purpose, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) (a), and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

[6] Section 23 (3) and (3A)

Omit section 23 (3). Insert instead:

(3) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (2) (other than in relation to the cultivation of prohibited plants by enhanced indoor means), the jury is not satisfied that the number of prohibited plants involved is equal to or more than the commercial quantity applicable to the prohibited plants, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of an offence under subsection (1), and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

(3A) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (2) in relation to the cultivation of prohibited plants by enhanced indoor means, the jury is not satisfied that the number of prohibited plants involved is equal to or more than the commercial quantity applicable to the prohibited plants, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of:

(a) an offence under subsection (1A), if the jury is satisfied that the person contravened subsection (1A), or

(b) an offence under subsection (1) (a), if the jury is not satisfied that the person contravened subsection (1A), but is satisfied that the person contravened subsection (1) (a),

and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

[7] Section 23 (6)

Insert after section 23 (5):

(6) In this section and section 23A, cultivating a prohibited plant for a commercial purpose includes cultivating the plant:

(a) with the intention of selling it or any of its products, or

(b) with the belief that another person intends to sell it or any of its products.

[8] Section 23A

Insert after section 23:

23A Offences with respect to enhanced indoor cultivation of prohibited plants in presence of children

- (1) A person who:
- (a) cultivates, or knowingly takes part in the cultivation of, a prohibited plant by enhanced indoor means, and
 - (b) exposes a child to that cultivation process, or to substances being stored for use in that cultivation process,
- is guilty of an offence.
- (2) A person who:
- (a) cultivates, or knowingly takes part in the cultivation of, a number of prohibited plants by enhanced indoor means which is not less than the commercial quantity applicable to those plants, and
 - (b) exposes a child to that cultivation process, or to substances being stored for use in that cultivation process,
- is guilty of an offence.
- (3) A person who:
- (a) cultivates by enhanced indoor means, or knowingly takes part in the cultivation by enhanced indoor means of, a number of prohibited plants which is:
 - (i) not less than the small quantity applicable to the prohibited plants, and
 - (ii) less than the commercial quantity applicable to those prohibited plants, and
 - (b) cultivates, or knowingly takes part in the cultivation of, those prohibited plants for a commercial purpose, and
 - (c) exposes a child to that cultivation process, or to substances being stored for use in that cultivation process,
- is guilty of an offence.
- (4) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (2), the jury is not satisfied that the number of prohibited plants involved is equal to or more than the commercial quantity applicable to the prohibited plants, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of:

(a) an offence under subsection (3), if the jury is satisfied that the person contravened subsection (3), or

(b) an offence under subsection (1), if the jury is not satisfied that the person contravened subsection (3), but is satisfied that the person contravened subsection (1),

and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

(5) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (3), the jury is not satisfied that the person cultivated, or knowingly took part in the cultivation of, a prohibited plant for a commercial purpose, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of an offence under subsection (1), and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

(6) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence under subsection (1), (2) or (3) if the defendant establishes that the exposure of the child to the prohibited plant cultivation process, or to substances being stored for use in that process, did not endanger the health or safety of the child.

(7) If, on the trial of a person for an offence under subsection (1), (2) or (3), the jury:

(a) is not satisfied that a child was exposed to the cultivation of a prohibited plant by enhanced indoor means, or to substances being stored for use in such a cultivation process, or

(b) is satisfied that the defence referred to in subsection (6) has been made out, the jury may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of an offence under section 23 (1) (a), (2) (a) or (1A), respectively, and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

(8) In this section, child means a person who is under the age of 16 years.

[9] Sections 30 (1) (a) and 31 (1) (a)

Insert “or 23A (1)” after “23 (1)” wherever occurring.

[10] Sections 30 (1) (e) and 31 (1) (e)

Insert “, 23A (1)” after “23 (1)” wherever occurring.

[11] Section 33 Penalties for offences involving commercial quantities or cultivation for a commercial purpose

Insert “(1A) or” after “section 23” wherever occurring in section 33 (1) (a) and (d).

[12] Section 33AD

Insert as section 33AD:

33AD Penalties for offences with respect to enhanced indoor cultivation of prohibited plants in presence of children

- (1) This section applies to the following offences:
 - (a) an offence under section 23A (1), (2) or (3),
 - (b) an offence under section 26 of conspiring to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a),
 - (c) an offence under section 27 of aiding, abetting, counselling, procuring, soliciting or inciting the commission of an offence referred to in paragraph (a),
 - (d) an offence under section 28 of conspiring to commit, or of aiding, abetting, counselling, procuring, soliciting or inciting the commission of, an offence under a law in force outside New South Wales which corresponds to section 23A (1), (2) or (3).
- (2) Except as provided by sections 30 and 31, the penalty for an offence under section 23A (1), or an offence referred to in subsection (1) (b)–(d) that relates to an offence under section 23A (1), is a fine of 2,400 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 years, or both.
- (3) The penalty for an offence under section 23A (2) or (3), or an offence referred to in subsection (1) (b)–(d) that relates to an offence under section 23A (2) or (3), is a fine of 4,200 penalty units or imprisonment for 18 years, or both.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), if the court is satisfied that an offence referred to in that subsection involved not less than the large commercial quantity of the prohibited plant concerned, the penalty for the offence is a fine of 6,000 penalty units or imprisonment for 24 years, or both.
- (5) In this section:

large commercial quantity, in relation to a prohibited plant, means the number or amount, if any, specified opposite the plant in Column 5 of Schedule 1.

[13] Section 36TA

Insert before section 36U:

36TA Definitions

In this Part:

commercial cultivation, in relation to prohibited plants, means:

- (a) the cultivation of a number of prohibited plants which is not less than the commercial quantity applicable to those plants, or
