- (4) The hearing of an appeal may proceed despite any omission or error in a notice under subclause (3) or the failure to give any such notice if the Local Court is satisfied that the appellant and the Authority had knowledge of the time and place of the hearing and were not prejudiced by any such omission or error or by the failure to give any such notice.
- (5) A Local Court must hear and determine an appeal made to it under this clause and may confirm (with or without variation) or disallow the decision appealed against, or make such other order in the circumstances as to the Court seems just.
- (6) For the purposes of varying under subclause (5) a decision of the Authority the Court may exercise only such powers as the Authority could have exercised under the vehicle registration law when making that decision.

- (7) The decision of a Local Court in respect of an appeal made under this clause is final and binding on the appellant and on the Authority.
- (8) This clause does not apply to the suspension or cancellation of the registration of a vehicle, or the refusal to exercise a function, under Part 4 of the Fines Act 1996.
- (9) In this clause, vehicle registration law means:
 - (a) the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997, and
 - (b) the Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Regulation 1998.

Division 3 Appeals against decision of Authority concerning driver licensing

5 Authority to ensure notification of appeal rights

- (1) In this Division, affected person means an applicant for a driver licence, the holder of an Australian driver licence or the holder of a foreign driver licence.
- (2) If an affected person is eligible to appeal to a Local Court under clause 6, the Authority must advise the person of the person's right to appeal.
- (3) The time period specified in clause 6 (4) is taken not to have commenced until an affected person is notified in accordance with this clause.

6 Appeals to Local Court

- (1) An affected person may appeal to a Local Court against any of the following decisions of the Authority:
 - (a) a decision not to take into account some or all of the period the person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in another country under clause 8 (3) of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999,
 - (b) a decision not to grant an application for the issue, variation or renewal of a driver licence under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999, not being a decision made under clause 18 (2) (d) of that Regulation,
 - (c) a decision to suspend or cancel the person's driver licence under section 17 or 33 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998,
 - (d) a decision to vary the person's driver licence under clause 19 or 38 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999,
 - (e) a decision to suspend or cancel the person's driver licence under clause 15, 15A or 38 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999.

- (1A) Despite subclause (1) (c)–(e), an affected person may not appeal to a Local Court against a decision of the Authority to cancel the person’s interlock driver licence under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999.
- (2) An affected person may appeal to a Local Court against a decision of the Authority, based on an opinion formed by the Authority under clause 55 (2) (e) or (f) of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999, that the person has ceased to be exempt from the requirements of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 and that Regulation.
- (3) Despite any other provision of this clause, an appeal under this clause does not permit review of:
 - (a) the guilt or innocence of the person concerned, or
 - (b) the imposition of a penalty or the level of a penalty imposed on the person concerned.

Note—

The effect of this provision is that, for example, in an appeal against a suspension or cancellation action taken under section 17 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 against the holder of a provisional driver licence because of demerit points, the Local Court cannot revisit the issue of an offence in relation to which the demerit points were incurred or the imposition of a penalty in relation to such an offence. In any such case, the Local Court may exercise only the powers that the Authority could exercise under section 17 of that Act (see subclause (8)).

- (4) Notice of any such appeal specifying the grounds of the appeal must be lodged with the registrar of the Local Court to which the appeal is being made not later than 28 days after the date on which the appellant was notified pursuant to clause 5.
- (5) The registrar of the Local Court must give notice of the time and place of the hearing of any such appeal to the Authority and to the appellant, and in the notice to the Authority must notify the Authority as to the grounds of appeal.
- (6) The hearing of the appeal may proceed despite any omission or error in a notice under subclause (5) or the failure to give any such notice if the Court is satisfied that the appellant and the Authority had knowledge of the time and place of the hearing and were not prejudiced by any such omission or error or by the failure to give any such notice.
- (7) A Local Court must hear and determine an appeal made to it under this clause and may confirm (with or without variation) or disallow the decision appealed against, or make such other order in the circumstances as to the Court seems just.
- (7A) A Local Court may only allow an appeal against a decision to suspend a person’s driver licence under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999 on the grounds referred to in clause 38 (1A) of that Regulation if the Court is satisfied:

(a) that there is nothing in the person's medical condition to suggest that the person is, or will again become, incapable of controlling a motor vehicle, and

(b) that the incident that led to the suspension of the licence:

(i) was caused by something other than the person's medical condition at the time, or

(ii) was caused by the person's medical condition at that time, being a condition to which the person is no longer subject.

(7B) The fact that a person has been acquitted of an offence arising out of the incident that led to the suspension of the person's driver licence, following the person's allegation that the incident was caused by the person's medical condition at that time, is irrelevant to the Local Court's consideration of the matters referred to in subclause (7A) (b).

(8) For the purposes of varying a decision of the Authority under subclause (7), the Court may exercise only such powers as the Authority could have exercised under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 or the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999 when making that decision.

(9) If in any proceedings concerning a decision of the Authority about a licence it appears to the Court that:

(a) the licence is affected by another decision of the Authority as well as the one under review in those proceedings, and

(b) the appellant has commenced or intends to commence appeal proceedings under this clause in respect of that other decision, the Court may adjourn the proceedings pending hearing of that other appeal or so that both appeals may be heard together.

(10) The decision of a Local Court in respect of an appeal made under this clause is final and binding on the appellant and the Authority.

7 Stay of decision pending appeal

(1) This clause applies to the following decisions:

(a) a decision by the Authority to suspend, vary or cancel a driver licence under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 on any ground other than medical unfitness or incompetence to drive a motor vehicle,

(b) a decision by the Authority that an exemption under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 from a requirement to hold a driver licence no longer applies to a person.

- (2) If an affected person appeals against a decision, the decision has effect:
 - (a) only if the Local Court hearing the appeal confirms the decision or the appeal is withdrawn, and
 - (b) subject to any variation of the decision by the Local Court, and
 - (c) on and from the date on which the Local Court confirms the decision or on such later date as the Local Court may order or, if the appeal is withdrawn, on the date on which it is withdrawn.

8 Affected person entitled to be given reasons

- (1) If an affected person is entitled under clause 6 to appeal to a Local Court against a decision of the Authority, the affected person may apply to the Authority for written reasons for the decision.
- (2) After receiving an application for reasons under subclause (1), the Authority must provide to the affected person, within 14 days of the application being made:
 - (a) the decision of the Authority and the reasons for that decision, and
 - (b) the identity or position of the person who made the decision.
- (3) An application for reasons may be made before or during (or both) the period in which an affected person appeals under clause 6.

- (6) A Local Court must hear and determine an appeal made to it under this clause and may confirm (with or without variation) or disallow the decision appealed against, or make such other order in the circumstances as to the Court seems just.

 - (a) the licence of the appellant is affected by a decision of the Authority as well, and

- (2) In determining exceptional circumstances for the purposes of subclause (1), a Local Court is to take into account each of the following:

- (a) the strength of the prosecution evidence,
- (b) the affected person's need for a licence,
- (c) the potential danger to the community if an order is made,
- (d) any other matter that the Local Court considers to be relevant.
