(Section 3)

[1] Section 28 When victim impact statements may be received and considered

Omit “filed” from section 28 (4) (a). Insert instead “given”.

[2] Section 30A

Insert after section 30:

30A Reading out victim impact statements in court

- (1) If a victim impact statement has been duly received by a court, a victim to whom it relates, or a member of the immediate family, or other representative, of the victim, is entitled to read out the whole or any part of the statement to the court.
- (2) The statement may be read out at such time as the court determines after it has convicted, but before it sentences, the offender.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Victims Rights Act 1996

(Section 4)

[1] Section 5 Meaning of victim of crime

Insert after section 5 (3):

- (4) If a person dies as a result of the act concerned and there is more than one member of the person's immediate family, members of the immediate family may nominate a representative for the purposes of the Charter of Victims Rights.

[2] Section 6 Charter of rights for victims of crime

Omit item 6.5. Insert instead:

6.5 Information about prosecution of accused

- (1) A victim should be informed in a timely manner of the following:
 - (a) the charges laid against the accused or the reasons for not laying charges,
 - (b) any decision of the prosecution to modify or not to proceed with charges laid against the accused, including any decision to accept a plea of guilty by the accused to a less serious charge in return for a full discharge with respect to the other charges,
 - (c) the date and place of hearing of any charge laid against the accused,
 - (d) the outcome of the criminal proceedings against the accused (including proceedings on appeal) and the sentence (if any) imposed.
- (2) A victim should be consulted before a decision referred to in paragraph (b) above is taken if the accused has been charged with a serious crime that involves sexual violence or that results in actual bodily harm, mental illness or nervous shock to the victim, unless:
 - (a) the victim has indicated that he or she does not wish to be so consulted, or

- (b) the whereabouts of the victim cannot be ascertained after reasonable inquiry.

Schedule 3 Amendment of Victims Support and Rehabilitation Act 1996

(Section 5)

Section 21 Special payments for approved counselling services

Omit “but does not include a person who is the victim of an act of violence arising in the circumstances described in section 24 (2), (3) or (4).” from the definition of victim in section 21 (1).

Insert instead:

but does not include a person who is the victim of an act of violence:

- (e) arising in the circumstances described in section 24 (2), unless the person is a family victim of the act and the act apparently occurred in the course of the commission of the offence of murder or manslaughter, or
- (f) arising in the circumstances described in section 24 (3) or (4).
