5 Record of proceedings

- (2) Proceedings are to be transcribed only if a Magistrate or registrar of the Local Court so orders.

6 Directions as to practice and procedure

- (1) The Local Court may give such directions as it considers necessary with respect to the practice or procedure to be followed in a particular case if it is satisfied:
  - (a) that the Act or this Regulation does not make adequate provision for the practice or procedure to be followed in that case, or
  - (b) that a difficulty arises or doubt exists as to the practice or procedure to be followed in that case.
- (2) Any directions must seek to facilitate a speedy and inexpensive hearing of the matters in issue between the parties and must be consistent with the Act and this Regulation.

7 Information concerning proceedings

- (1) Information concerning proceedings under the Act must not be published otherwise than in the form of a list of proceedings that has been provided by a registrar of the Local Court for that purpose.
- (2) A list of proceedings may contain such of the following particulars as the registrar of the Local Court thinks fit:
  - (a) the surnames of the parties, but not their given names,
  - (b) the name of the Magistrate,
  - (c) the time at which, and the place or courtroom in which, the Magistrate will sit,
  - (d) the general nature of the applications to be heard by the Magistrate.
- (3) A list of proceedings may be published:
  - (a) to members of the legal profession and their employees, and

- (2) Subclause (1) does not prevent the following persons from searching records or inspecting documents referred to in that subclause:
  - (a) the Attorney General or a person authorised by the Attorney General,
  - (b) if the records relate to particular proceedings—a party to those proceedings,
  - (c) a person who has been granted leave by the Local Court or a registrar of the Local Court to search the records or inspect the document.

Part 3 Enforcement of periodic maintenance orders

10 Mode of enforcing Supreme Court order

A periodic maintenance order made by the Supreme Court under section 27 of the Act may be enforced in the Local Court as if it were a judgment of the Local Court.

11 Certificate of court as to periodic maintenance order

- (1) A person in whose favour a periodic maintenance order has been made under section 27 of the Act (whether by the Supreme Court or by the Local Court) may obtain from the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court or the relevant registrar of the Local Court a certificate in Form 1.
- (2) The certificate:
  - (a) must be signed by the Prothonotary and sealed with the seal of the Supreme Court, in the case of an order made by the Supreme Court, or made by the Local Court.

12 Certificate as to amount of maintenance paid

- (1) A registrar of the Local Court who is specified in a periodic maintenance order as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid must, on request, give to the person who obtained the order a certificate in Form 2 stating:
  - (a) the amount that, according to the relevant records, has been paid under the order on or before the date specified in the certificate in that regard, and
  - (b) the amount that, according to the relevant records, was due under the order but is unpaid on that date.
- (2) Such a certificate is evidence of the matters so stated.

13 Matters to be satisfied before recording order as judgment

- (1) A registrar of the Local Court may record as a judgment of the Local Court a periodic maintenance order in respect of which a certificate under clause 11 has been issued.
- (2) An application to record a periodic maintenance order as such a judgment must be accompanied by:
  - (a) the certificate under clause 11, and
  - (b) a recent certificate under clause 12, in the case of a periodic maintenance order that specifies a registrar of the Local Court as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid, and
  - (c) affidavits as to the matters referred to in subclause (4).
- (3) A certificate under clause 12 is a recent certificate if the specified date as at which the amounts under the order are stated to have been paid, or to remain unpaid, is no more than 10 days before the date of the application referred to in subclause (2).
- (4) A registrar of the Local Court must not record a periodic maintenance order as a judgment of the Local Court unless the registrar is satisfied:
  - (a) that a copy of the order has been duly served on the person liable to make payments under the order, or that service of a copy of the order on that person has been dispensed with by the Local Court, and
  - (b) that the maintenance order has not been complied with for a period of at least 14 days, and that a specified amount of money remains due and unpaid.
  - (c) (Repealed)
- (5) An affidavit is not necessary with respect to the matters referred to in subclause (4)

(b) if the registrar of the Local Court is specified in the order as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid.

14 (Repealed)

15 Notice of discharge, variation or suspension of periodic maintenance order

- (1) The parties to a periodic maintenance order made by the Supreme Court under section 27 of the Act (being an order that is recorded as a judgment of the Local Court) and recorded in the Local Court under clause 13 must give notice in writing to the relevant registrar of the Local Court of any discharge, variation or suspension of the order.
- (2) On receipt of the notice, the registrar of the Local Court must cancel the judgment.
- (3) On cancellation of the judgment:
  - (a) the maintenance order ceases to be enforceable by the Local Court in which it is recorded, and
