Evidence Regulation 2005

New South Wales

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Evidence Regulation 2005.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2005.

Note—

This Regulation replaces the Evidence Regulation 2000 which is repealed on 1 September 2005 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Regulation:

address includes a private, business or official address.

notifying party, in relation to a notice, means the person giving the notice.

the Act means the Evidence Act 1995.

(2) In this Regulation, a reference to a Form is a reference to a form set out in Schedule 1.

Note—

Section 80 (1) and (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 provide as follows:

(1) If a form is prescribed by, or approved under, an Act or statutory rule, strict compliance with the form is not necessary but substantial compliance is sufficient.

(2) If a form prescribed by, or approved under, an Act or instrument requires the form to be completed in a specified manner, or requires specified information to be included in, attached to or furnished with the form, the form is not duly completed unless it is completed in that manner and unless it includes, or has attached to or furnished with it, that information.

(3) Notes included in this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

4 Exceptions to hearsay rule—notices of previous representations

(1) This clause is made for the purpose of section 67 of the Act.

- (2) A notice of previous representation must state:
- (a) subject to subclause (6), the substance of evidence of a previous representation that the notifying party intends to adduce, and
 - (b) the substance of all other relevant representations made by the person who made that previous representation, so far as they are known to the notifying party, and
 - (c) particulars of:
 - (i) the date, time, place and circumstances at or in which each of the representations mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) was made, and
 - (ii) the names of the persons by whom, and the persons to whom, each of those representations was made, and
 - (iii) in a civil proceeding—the address of each person so named, so far as they are known to the notifying party.
- (3) If a notifying party intends to rely on any of sections 63 (2) (a) or (b) or 65 (2) (a), (b), (c) or (d), (3) (a) or (b) or (8) (a) or (b) of the Act, the party's notice of previous representation must state particulars of the facts on the basis of which it is alleged that the person who made a representation referred to in the notice is not available to testify concerning the fact to be proved by adducing evidence of that representation.
- (4) If a notifying party intends to rely on section 64 (2) (a) or (b) of the Act, the party's notice of previous representation must state particulars of the facts that the party will rely on to establish the grounds specified in section 64 (2) of the Act.
- (5) If a notice of previous representation refers to a previous representation that is in writing:
- (a) a copy of the document, or of the relevant portion of the document, containing the representation must be attached to the notice, and
 - (b) the notice must identify the document unless:
 - (i) a copy of the document is attached to the notice, and
 - (ii) the identity of the document is apparent on the face of the copy.
- (6) If a copy of a document, or of a portion of a document, is attached to a notice it is a sufficient compliance for the purposes of subclause (2) (a) to specify in the notice, or in the copy of a document or portion of a document attached to the notice, the representation evidence of which the notifying party intends to adduce.
- (7) On the application of a party in a criminal proceeding, the court may make an order directing the notifying party to disclose the address of any person named in a notice given under this clause by whom, or to whom, a representation referred to in the notice was made.

(8) The direction may be given on such terms as the court thinks fit.

(9) In this clause:

notice of previous representation means a notice given under section 67 (1) of the Act.

5 The tendency rule and the coincidence rule—form of notices

(1) This clause is made for the purpose of section 99 of the Act.

(2) A notice given under section 97 (1) (a) of the Act (relating to the tendency rule) must state:

(a) the substance of the evidence of the kind referred to in that subsection that the party giving the notice intends to adduce, and

(b) if that evidence consists of, or includes, evidence of the conduct of a person, particulars of:

(i) the date, time, place and circumstances at or in which the conduct occurred, and

(ii) the name of each person who saw, heard or otherwise perceived the conduct, and

(iii) in a civil proceeding—the address of each person so named, so far as they are known to the notifying party.

(3) A notice given under section 98 (1) (a) of the Act (relating to the coincidence rule) must state:

(a) the substance of the evidence of the occurrence of two or more events that the party giving the notice intends to adduce, and

(b) particulars of:

(i) the date, time, place and circumstances at or in which each of those events occurred, and

(ii) the name of each person who saw, heard or otherwise perceived each of those events, and

(iii) in a civil proceeding—the address of each person so named, so far as they are known to the notifying party.

(4) On the application of a party in a criminal proceeding, the court may make an order directing the notifying party to disclose the address of any person named in a notice given under this clause who saw, heard or otherwise perceived conduct or events referred to in the notice.

(5) The direction may be given on such terms as the court thinks fit.

6 Privilege against self-incrimination—form of certificate

(1) A certificate under section 128 or 128A of the Act may be in accordance with Form 1.

(2) A certificate is not liable to be called into question by reason of its non-compliance with Form 1.

7 Fingerprint evidence of identity—affidavits by State or Territory police officers

For the purposes of section 179 (1) (a) of the Act, the prescribed form of affidavit is Form 2.

8 Fingerprint evidence of identity—affidavits by Australian Federal Police officers

For the purposes of section 180 (1) (a) of the Act, the prescribed form of affidavit is Form 3.

9 Savings

Any act, matter or thing that, immediately before the repeal of the Evidence Regulation 2000, had effect under that Regulation is taken to have effect under this Regulation.
