New South Wales

The Ministerial Council for Federal Financial Relations has made the following regulation under section 160 of the Occupational Licensing National Law as applied by the law of States and Territories.

JULIE YEENDHead
COAG National Licensing Taskforce
6 December 2011

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Occupational Licensing National Law (Transitional) Regulation 2011.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on the day on which it is published on the NSW legislation website.

3 Definitions

In this Regulation:

Licensing Authority means the National Occupational Licensing Authority established by the National Law.

National Law means the Occupational Licensing National Law.

4 Interim delegation of powers and functions of Licensing Authority

(1) This clause has effect until:

- (a) the revocation of the delegation under this clause, or
 - (b) 31 December 2011,
- whichever first occurs.

(2) The Licensing Authority is taken to have delegated, under section 102 of the National Law, the functions of the Licensing Authority (other than the function of developing policy about the national licensing system) to the Head of the COAG National Licensing Taskforce.

(3) The Licensing Authority may at any time revoke the delegation under this clause.

5 Prescription of remuneration tribunal—determination of remuneration and allowances of members (other than jurisdictional regulator members) of Licensing Board

(1) For the purposes of section 106 of the National Law, the remuneration tribunal is the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal of New South Wales.

(2) Decisions of that Tribunal for the purposes section 106 of the National Law are not subject to any law of New South Wales relating to the making and notification of decisions of that Tribunal, and may be made and notified in such manner as that Tribunal determines from time to time.
