

Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010 No 57

[2010-57]

New South Wales

Status Information

Currency of version

Repealed version for 14 August 2010 to 30 January 2012 (accessed 16 August 2024 at 22:11)

Legislation on this site is usually updated within 3 working days after a change to the legislation.

Provisions in force

The provisions displayed in this version of the legislation have all commenced.

Notes—

- Repeal

The Act was repealed by sec 30C of the Interpretation Act 1987 No 15 with effect from 31.1.2012.

Authorisation

This version of the legislation is compiled and maintained in a database of legislation by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and published on the NSW legislation website, and is certified as the form of that legislation that is correct under section 45C of the Interpretation Act 1987.

File last modified 31 January 2012

Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010 No 57

New South Wales

Contents

Long title	3
1 Name of Act.....	3
2 Commencement	3
3 Explanatory notes.....	3
Schedule 1 Amendment of Acts and Regulations	3

Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010 No 57

New South Wales

An Act to amend certain Acts and Regulations consequent on the enactment by the Parliament of the Commonwealth of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009; and for related purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Explanatory notes

The matter appearing under the heading “Explanatory note” in Schedule 1 does not form part of this Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Acts and Regulations

1.1 Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999 No 46

Section 11 Due date for payment

Insert after section 11 (5):

- (6) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the rules and principles of the common law and equity apply to the determination of priorities between a lien under subsection (3) over any unfixated plant and materials and any other interest in the plant and materials.
- (7) Section 73 (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth is declared to apply to liens under subsection (3).

Explanatory note

Section 73 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for priorities in certain circumstances between security interests in personal property to which that Act applies and interests in the property created, arising or being provided for under a law of the State (a statutory interest).

Section 73 (2) of the Commonwealth Act enables a law of a State, by declaring that the subsection applies to a statutory interest, to provide for the priority between the statutory interest and security interests to be determined in accordance with the law of the State rather than the Commonwealth Act. However, the declaration operates only in relation to statutory interests arising after the declaration comes into effect.

The proposed amendment to the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999:

- (a) provides for the determination of priorities between a lien created under section 11 of that Act and other security interests to be determined in accordance with that section rather than in accordance with section 73 of the Commonwealth Act, and
- (b) confirms that the common law and equity applies to the determination of priorities unless section 11 provides otherwise.

1.2 Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989 No 90

[1] Section 48 Charge on property subject to restraining order or freezing notice

Omit “of the State” from section 48 (4).

Insert instead “(whether or not a law of the State)”.

[2] Section 48 (6)

Insert after section 48 (5):

- (6) Section 73 (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth is declared to apply to a charge created by subsection (1).

[3] Section 83 Charge on property subject to registered interstate restraining orders

Omit “of New South Wales” from section 83 (4).

Insert instead “(whether or not a law of the State)”.

[4] Section 83 (6)

Insert after section 83 (5):

- (6) Section 73 (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth is declared to apply to a charge created by subsection (1).

Explanatory note

Section 73 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for priorities in certain circumstances between security interests in personal property to which that Act applies and interests in the property created, arising or being provided for under a law of the State (a statutory interest). Section 73 (2) of the Commonwealth Act enables a law of a State, by declaring that the subsection applies to a statutory interest, to provide for the priority between the statutory interest and security interests to be determined in accordance with the law of the State rather than the Commonwealth Act. However, the declaration operates only in relation to statutory interests arising after the declaration comes into effect.

Items [2] and [4] of the proposed amendments to the Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime Act 1989 (the Act) provide for the determination of priorities between a charge created under sections 48 and 83 of that Act, respectively, and other security interests to be determined in accordance with those sections rather than in accordance with section 73 of the Commonwealth Act.

Items [1] and [3] of the proposed amendments to the Act will enable the NSW Trustee and Guardian or an appropriate officer to register such charges created in relation to personal property under the Commonwealth Act.

1.3 Conveyancing Act 1919 No 6

[1] Section 184C General Register of Deeds

Insert “that were” before “registered” wherever occurring in section 184C (2) (g) and (h).

[2] Section 184C (2) (h1)

Omit “that are”. Insert “that were”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Conveyancing Act 1919 limit references to instruments that are registered under the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 and certain other personal property legislation to instruments that were previously registered under that legislation.

1.4 Conveyancing (General) Regulation 2008

Schedule 1 Fees

Omit items 2 and 3.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Conveyancing (General) Regulation 2008 omits references to the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 that will become outdated on the repeal of that Act by the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Amendment Act 2009.

1.5 Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990 No 23

[1] Section 31 Charge on property

Insert after section 31 (4):

(5) Section 73 (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth is declared to apply to a charge created by subsection (1).

[2] Section 52G Charge on property subject to interstate restraining order

Omit “of New South Wales” from section 52G (5).

Insert instead “(whether or not a law of the State)”.

[3] Section 52G (7)

Insert after section 52G (6):

- (7) Section 73 (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth is declared to apply to a charge created by this section.

Explanatory note

Section 73 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for priorities in certain circumstances between security interests in personal property to which that Act applies and interests in the property created, arising or being provided for under a law of the State (a statutory interest). Section 73 (2) of the Commonwealth Act enables a law of a State, by declaring that the subsection applies to a statutory interest, to provide for the priority between the statutory interest and security interests to be determined in accordance with the law of the State rather than the Commonwealth Act. However, the declaration operates only in relation to statutory interests arising after the declaration comes into effect.

Items [1] and [3] of the proposed amendments to the Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1990 (the Act) provide for the determination of priorities between a charge created under sections 31 and 52G of that Act, respectively, and other security interests to be determined in accordance with those sections rather than in accordance with section 73 of the Commonwealth Act.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Act will enable the NSW Trustee and Guardian or an appropriate or authorised officer to register a charge created by section 52G of the Act in relation to personal property under the Commonwealth Act. Section 31 of the Act already makes similar provision in relation to charges created by that section.

1.6 Duties Act 1997 No 123

Section 222 Exempt mortgages and supporting instruments

Omit section 222 (2) (f1). Insert instead:

- (f1) an instrument that creates a security interest in crops or livestock (within the meaning of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth), and

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Duties Act 1997 omits a reference to an agricultural goods mortgage under the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 that will become outdated on the repeal of that Act by the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Amendment Act 2009. The reference is replaced with a reference to the equivalent concept under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

1.7

(Repealed)

1.8 Fines Act 1996 No 99

Schedule 1 Statutory provisions under which penalty notices issued

Omit the matter relating to the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Fines Act 1996 omits a reference to the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 that will become outdated on the repeal of that Act by the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Amendment Act 2009.

1.9 Fisheries Management Act 1994 No 38

Section 286A

Insert after section 286:

286A Certain licences, leases, permits and other rights not personal property under Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth)

Each of the following is declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth:

- (a) a commercial fishing licence,
- (b) an endorsement on a commercial fishing licence,
- (c) a fishing boat licence,
- (d) a share in any share management fishery,
- (e) an aquaculture lease,
- (f) an aquaculture permit,
- (g) a charter fishing boat licence,
- (h) an allocation made under Division 8 of Part 3,
- (i) a permit issued under section 37,
- (j) a permit issued under Part 7,
- (k) a licence granted under Subdivision 1 of Division 6 of Part 7A.

Note—

The Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth does not apply in relation to a right, licence or authority granted by or under a law of a State that is declared by the law not to be personal property for the purposes of that Act.

Explanatory note

Section 8 (1) (k) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for that Act not to apply to a particular right, licence or authority (the statutory right) granted by or under a law of a State, if, at the time when the statutory right is granted, or at any time afterwards, a provision of that law declares that kind of statutory right not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act (no matter whether the provision remains in force). The definition of personal property in section 10 of the Commonwealth Act also excludes any statutory right that has been declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendment to the Fisheries Management Act 1994 ensures that certain licences, shares, leases, permits and other rights issued or granted under the Act are not treated as being personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

1.10 Health Practitioner Regulation (Adoption of National Law) Act 2009 No 86

Schedule 1 Modification of Health Practitioner Regulation National Law

Insert after clause 3 (2) of Schedule 5F of the modifications to the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (as set out in Schedule 1 [25] to the Act):

- (3) To avoid doubt, any failure to register a pecuniary interest that is a security interest with respect to a pharmacy business does not—
- (a) affect the validity, priority or enforceability of the security interest or of the agreement or other arrangement providing for the security interest; or
 - (b) otherwise limit the effect of the security interest or the agreement or other arrangement providing for the security interest.

Explanatory note

Section 254 (2) (d) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth recognises that a law of a State that requires a security interest in personal property to be registered under that law is capable of operating concurrently with the Commonwealth Act if a failure to register the security interest under the law does not limit the effect of the security interest or a security agreement for the security interest.

The proposed amendment to the Health Practitioner Regulation (Adoption of National Law) Act 2009 makes it clear that a failure under clause 3 of Schedule 5F of the modifications set out in that Act to the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law to register a pecuniary interest that is a security interest with respect to a pharmacy business does not limit the effect of the interest or the agreement that creates the interest.

1.11 Housing Act 2001 No 52

Section 69B Access to information for preventing, investigating or prosecuting fraud

Omit section 69B (1) (e).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Housing Act 2001 omits a reference to the Register of Interests in Goods kept under the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 that will become outdated on the repeal of that Act by the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Amendment Act 2009.

1.12 Impounding Act 1993 No 31

[1] Section 20 Impounding authority to notify owner

Omit “Register under the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 for registrable interests in the vehicle” from section 20 (1).

Insert instead “PPS Register for information concerning PPS security interests in the vehicle”.

[2] Section 20 (4)

Omit “Register reveals a registrable interest”.

Insert instead “PPS Register reveals a PPS security interest”.

[3] Section 20 (8)

Insert after section 20 (7) (before the note):

(8) In this section:

PPS Register means the Personal Property Securities Register under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

PPS security interest, in relation to a motor vehicle, means a security interest in the vehicle to which the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth applies (including a transitional security interest within the meaning of that Act).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Impounding Act 1993 require an impounding authority to search the new Personal Property Securities Register established under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth for security interests in a motor vehicle before impounding the vehicle. Currently, an impounding authority is required to search the Register maintained under the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986. That Register will be replaced by the Register under the Commonwealth Act when that Act commences.

1.13 Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 No 103

[1] Section 219 Disposal of property on application to court

Insert “(including adjusting rights by extinguishing, whether in whole or in part, any interests in the property of such persons)” after “parts of property” in section 219 (2) (a).

[2] Section 219 (5)

Insert after section 219 (4):

(5) An order under subsection (2) (a) that provides for the extinguishment, whether in whole or in part, of any interest in property operates to extinguish the interest according to its tenor.

Explanatory note

Section 254 (2) (g) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) recognises that a law of a State that operates to extinguish (however described) a security interest in circumstances other than those provided under the Commonwealth Act is capable of operating concurrently with the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendments to the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 ensure that a court exercising functions under section 219 of that Act (Disposal of property on application to court) may adjust rights between parties by extinguishing an interest of any of those parties.

1.14 Local Government Act 1993 No 30

Section 68B

Insert after section 68A:

68B Approvals not personal property under Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth)

An approval under this Part is declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

Note—

The Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth does not apply in relation to a right, licence or authority granted by or under a law of a State that is declared by the law not to be personal property for the purposes of that Act.

Explanatory note

Section 8 (1) (k) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for that Act not to apply to a particular right, licence or authority (the statutory right) granted by or under a law of a State, if, at the time when the statutory right is granted, or at any time afterwards, a provision of that law declares that kind of statutory right not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act (no matter whether the provision remains in force). The definition of personal property in section 10 of the Commonwealth Act also excludes any statutory right that has been declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendment to the Local Government Act 1993 ensures that approvals under Part 1 of Chapter 7 of that Act are not treated as being personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

1.15 Mining Act 1992 No 29

[1] Section 218B

Insert after section 218A:

218B Registration of certain interests in mineral claims

- (1) The Director-General is to keep a register of legal and equitable interests in mineral claims.
- (2) Any person claiming a legal or equitable interest in a mineral claim may apply for registration of the interest.
- (3) An application must be lodged with the Director-General and must be accompanied by the appropriate lodgment fee and by documentary evidence of the legal or equitable interest concerned.

- (4) The Director-General may, if satisfied that the applicant holds the interest concerned, register the document by which the legal or equitable interest is evidenced.
- (5) The Director-General may, on application by the holder of an interest or otherwise, make such amendments to the register kept under this section as are appropriate to reflect dealings in the interest.
- (6) Without limiting the generality of subsection (5), the Director-General may cancel the registration of an interest if of the opinion that the interest has ceased to exist.
- (7) The registration of an interest under this section is not to be taken to be evidence of the existence of the interest.
- (8) For the purposes of any legal proceedings concerning a mineral claim:
 - (a) a registered interest has priority over an interest that is not registered, and
 - (b) an earlier registered interest has priority over a later registered interest.
- (9) The register must be kept available at such offices of the Department as may be prescribed by the regulations for inspection, free of charge, by members of the public.
- (10) Section 208 applies to an application under this section in the same way as it applies to an application referred to in section 208 (1).

[2] Section 235F

Insert after section 235E:

235F Registration of certain interests in opal prospecting licences

- (1) The Director-General is to keep a register of legal and equitable interests in opal prospecting licences.
- (2) Any person claiming a legal or equitable interest in an opal prospecting licence may apply for registration of the interest.
- (3) An application must be lodged with the Director-General and must be accompanied by the appropriate lodgment fee and by documentary evidence of the legal or equitable interest concerned.
- (4) The Director-General may, if satisfied that the applicant holds the interest concerned, register the document by which the legal or equitable interest is evidenced.

- (5) The Director-General may, on application by the holder of an interest or otherwise, make such amendments to the register kept under this section as are appropriate to reflect dealings in the interest.
- (6) Without limiting the generality of subsection (5), the Director-General may cancel the registration of an interest if of the opinion that the interest has ceased to exist.
- (7) The registration of an interest under this section is not to be taken to be evidence of the existence of the interest.
- (8) For the purposes of any legal proceedings concerning an opal prospecting licence:
 - (a) a registered interest has priority over an interest that is not registered, and
 - (b) an earlier registered interest has priority over a later registered interest.
- (9) The register must be kept available at such offices of the Department as may be prescribed by the regulations for inspection, free of charge, by members of the public.

[3] Section 379A

Insert after section 379:

379A Certain licences and leases not personal property under Personal Property Securities Act 2009 \(Cth\)

Each of the following is declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth:

- (a) an exploration licence,
- (b) an assessment lease,
- (c) a mineral claim,
- (d) a mining lease,
- (e) an opal prospecting licence.

Note—

The Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth does not apply in relation to a right, licence or authority granted by or under a law of a State that is declared by the law not to be personal property for the purposes of that Act.

[4] Schedule 6 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of the Schedule (with appropriate Part and clause numbers):

Part Provision consequent on enactment of Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010

Application of sections 218B and 235F

- (1) Section 218B (as inserted by the Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010) applies only in relation to mineral claims granted or renewed after the commencement of the section.
- (2) Section 235F (as inserted by the Personal Property Securities Legislation Amendment Act 2010) applies only in relation to opal prospecting licences granted after the commencement of the section.

Explanatory note

Section 8 (1) (k) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for that Act not to apply to a particular right, licence or authority (the statutory right) granted by or under a law of a State, if, at the time when the statutory right is granted, or at any time afterwards, a provision of that law declares that kind of statutory right not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act (no matter whether the provision remains in force). The definition of personal property in section 10 of the Commonwealth Act also excludes any statutory right that has been declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments to the Mining Act 1992 (the Act) ensures that certain licences, leases and claims under the Act are not treated as being personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

Items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments to the Act will require the Director-General of the Department of Industry and Investment to keep registers of legal and equitable interests in mineral claims and opal prospecting licences. The Director-General already keeps similar registers in relation to other licences and leases issued under the Act. As the Commonwealth Act will not apply in relation to these claims and licences, these proposed amendments also provide for priorities between registered and unregistered interests. Item [4] of the proposed amendments enacts a transitional provision to make it clear that the requirement to maintain a register only applies in relation to mineral claims or opal prospecting licences that are granted or renewed after the commencement of the provisions concerned.

1.16

(Repealed)

1.17 Petroleum \(Onshore\) Act 1991 No 84

Section 126B

Insert after section 126A:

126B [Petroleum titles and low-impact prospecting titles not personal property under \[Personal Property Securities Act 2009\]\(#\) \(Cth\)](#)

Each of the following is declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth:

- (a) a petroleum title,
- (b) a low-impact prospecting title granted under Division 6 of Part 3.

Note—

The Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth does not apply in relation to a right, licence or authority granted by or under a law of a State that is declared by the law not to be personal property for the purposes of that Act.

Explanatory note

Section 8 (1) (k) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for that Act not to apply to a particular right, licence or authority (the statutory right) granted by or under a law of a State, if, at the time when the statutory right is granted, or at any time afterwards, a provision of that law declares that kind of statutory right not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act (no matter whether the provision remains in force). The definition of personal property in section 10 of the Commonwealth Act also excludes any statutory right that has been declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendment to the Petroleum (Onshore) Act 1991 ensures that petroleum titles and low-impact prospecting titles under that Act are not treated as being personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

1.18 Property (Relationships) Act 1984 No 147

Section 42 Transactions to defeat claims

Insert after section 42 (3):

- (3A) Without limiting subsection (3), a court making an order with respect to property under that subsection may also order that any interest (including a security interest or transitional security interest to which the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth applies) is extinguished if the court is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so to prevent the defeat of an order referred to in subsection (2).
- (3B) An order under subsection (3A) operates to extinguish an interest to which it relates according to its tenor.

Explanatory note

Section 254 (2) (g) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) recognises that a law of a State that operates to extinguish (however described) a security interest in circumstances other than those provided under the Commonwealth Act is capable of operating concurrently with the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendment to the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 ensures that a court may order that an interest in property (including a security interest to which the Commonwealth Act applies) is extinguished to avoid transactions aimed at defeating claims under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984.

1.19, 1.20

(Repealed)

1.21 Road Transport (General) Act 2005 No 11

Section 217 Definitions

Omit the definition of registered interest. Insert instead:

registered interest, in relation to a motor vehicle, means a security interest in the vehicle with respect to which a financing statement (within the meaning of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth) has been registered under that Act.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Road Transport (General) Act 2005 replaces a reference to an interest in a motor vehicle registered under the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 with a reference to the corresponding concept under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth. Under the Commonwealth Act, financing statements are registered with respect to security interests in personal property rather than the interests themselves.

1.22 Sale of Goods Act 1923 No 1

Section 26 Sale by person not the owner

Omit "Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986" from section 26 (2) (a).

Insert instead "Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth".

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Sale of Goods Act 1923 replaces a reference to the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 with a reference to the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

1.23 Terrorism (Police Powers) Act 2002 No 115

[1] Section 28 Disposal of property on application to court

Insert "(including adjusting rights by extinguishing, whether in whole or in part, any interests in the property of such persons)" after "parts of property" in section 28 (2) (a).

[2] Section 28 (5)

Insert after section 28 (4):

(5) An order under subsection (2) (a) that provides for the extinguishment, whether in whole or in part, of any interest in property operates to extinguish the interest according to its tenor.

Explanatory note

Section 254 (2) (g) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) recognises that a law of a State that operates to extinguish (however described) a security interest in circumstances other than those provided under the Commonwealth Act is capable of operating concurrently with the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendments to the Terrorism (Police Powers) Act 2002 ensure that a court may order that an interest in property (including a security interest to which the Commonwealth Act applies) seized by a police officer under that Act is extinguished to facilitate the disposal of the property.

1.24 Uncollected Goods Act 1995 No 68

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Omit the definition of publicly registered interest. Insert instead:

publicly registered interest, in relation to goods, means:

- (a) in the case of a motor vehicle or a boat or vessel—a security interest in the motor vehicle or the boat or vessel recorded in the Personal Property Securities Register under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth, or
- (b) in the case of any other goods—an interest in the goods recorded in a register (whether of the Commonwealth or the State) that is prescribed by the regulations.

[2] Section 8 Applications to Local Court for orders for disposal of uncollected goods

Omit section 8 (4) (b). Insert instead:

- (b) a written search result (within the meaning of section 174 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth) in relation to the vehicle.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments to the Uncollected Goods Act 1995 replace references to registered interests and certificates under the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 with references to equivalent concepts under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

1.25 Warehousemen's Liens Act 1935 No 19

[1] Section 3 Declaration of warehouseman's lien

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) A warehouseman's lien over property has priority over any other interest in the property and may be enforced accordingly.
- (3) Section 73 (2) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth is declared to apply to a warehouseman's lien.

[2] Section 5 Necessity of notice by warehouseman where goods deposited by person entrusted with possession

Omit section 5 (1) (b). Insert instead:

(b) to any other person of whose interest in the goods the warehouseman has actual knowledge.

[3] Section 6 Power to sell goods

Omit section 6 (2) (c). Insert instead:

(c) to any other person of whose interest in the goods the warehouseman has actual knowledge.

Explanatory note

Section 73 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) provides for priorities in certain circumstances between security interests in personal property to which that Act applies and interests in the property created, arising or being provided for under a law of the State (a statutory interest).

Section 73 (2) of the Commonwealth Act enables a law of a State, by declaring that the subsection applies to a statutory interest, to provide for the priority between the statutory interest and security interests to be determined in accordance with the law of the State rather than the Commonwealth Act. However, the declaration operates only in relation to statutory interests arising after the declaration comes into effect.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Warehousemen's Liens Act 1935 (the Act) provides that a warehouseman's lien over goods has priority over any other interests in the goods. The amendment also provides that priority of interests is to be determined in accordance with that section rather than in accordance with section 73 of the Commonwealth Act.

Items [2] and [3] of the proposed amendments to the Act omit references to registered interests under the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 which will become outdated when the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth commences.

1.26 Warehousemen's Liens Regulation 2007

Clause 4 Verification of statements of account

Omit clause 4 (2) (e).

Explanatory note

The amendment to the Warehousemen's Liens Regulation 2007 omits a reference to the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 which will become outdated when the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth commences. The amendment is consequential on amendments made to the Warehousemen's Liens Act 1935 by the proposed Act.

1.27 Workers Compensation Act 1987 No 70

Sections 278 and 279

Insert before section 280:

278 Compensation not personal property under Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth)

Compensation under this Act is declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

279 Enforcement of interests in certain assets and deposits in priority over Authority or Nominal Defendant prevented

- (1) This section applies in relation to the following assets and deposits (affected assets or deposits):
 - (a) any amount of money deposited as required under section 172A,
 - (b) any assets of an insurer in respect of which the Authority has taken a charge or other security under section 182 (1) (c),
 - (c) any amount of money deposited as required under section 213 or the deposit of securities of equal value deposited under section 215.
- (2) A person may not enforce an interest in affected assets or deposits (whether or not a PPS security interest) in priority over the interest of the Authority or the Nominal Defendant in the assets or deposits.
- (3) Subsection (2) extends to an interest created or arising before the commencement of this section.
- (4) In this section:

PPS security interest means a security interest to which the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth applies (including a transitional security interest within the meaning of that Act).

Explanatory note

Section 254 (2) (b) and (c) of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) recognises that a law of a State that has any of the following effects is capable of operating concurrently with the Commonwealth Act except in cases of direct inconsistency between the Commonwealth Act and the law of the State:

- (a) prohibiting or limiting a person creating, acquiring or dealing with personal property or a security interest in personal property,
- (b) prohibiting or limiting the right of a person to hold, transfer or assign a security interest in personal property,
- (c) imposing limitations or additional obligations or requirements in relation to the enforcement of a security interest in personal property.

In the event of a direct inconsistency between the Commonwealth Act and a law of the State having such an effect, section 258 (1) and (2) of the Commonwealth Act operate to limit the operation of the Commonwealth Act so as to avoid that inconsistency arising.

Section 8 (1) (k) of the Commonwealth Act also provides for that Act not to apply to a particular right, licence or authority (the statutory right) granted by or under a law of a State, if, at the time when the statutory right is granted, or at any time afterwards, a provision of that law declares that kind of statutory right not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act (no matter whether the provision remains in force). The definition of personal property in section 10 of the Commonwealth Act also excludes any statutory right that has been declared not to be personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act.

The proposed amendment to the Workers Compensation Act 1987:

- (a) ensures that compensation under that Act is not treated as being personal property for the purposes of the Commonwealth

Act, and

- (b) prevents a person from enforcing an interest in certain assets and deposits in which the WorkCover Authority or the Nominal Defendant has an interest in priority over the Authority's or Nominal Defendant's interest.