273B Exemption for corporate reconstruction and corporate consolidation transactions

- (1) Duty under this Act is not chargeable on a transaction if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied, on application by a party to the transaction, that:
- (a) the transaction is a corporate reconstruction transaction, and
 - (b) the transaction, or the series of transactions of which the transaction is a part, is undertaken for the purpose of either or both of the following:
 - (i) changing the structure of a corporate group,
 - (ii) changing the holding of assets within a corporate group, and

- (2) Duty under this Act is not chargeable on a transaction if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied, on application by a party to the transaction, that the transaction is a corporate consolidation transaction.

For the purposes of this Part, a corporate reconstruction transaction means:

- (a) a transfer, or agreement for sale or transfer, of dutiable property between corporations that are members of the same corporate group, or
- (b) a surrender of an interest in land by a corporation to a corporation who is a member of the same corporate group, or

273D Corporate consolidation transaction

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a corporate consolidation transaction means an acquisition of an interest in a landholder (within the meaning of Chapter 4) that:
 - (a) is made to interpose a corporation (the head corporation) between another corporation (the affected corporation) and the holders of the affected corporation's securities, and
 - (b) is an acquisition of securities of:
 - (i) the affected corporation by the head corporation for which the only consideration given by the head corporation is the issue or transfer of its securities to the person from whom the affected corporation's securities were acquired, or
 - (ii) the head corporation by a holder of securities of the affected corporation.
- (2) An acquisition of an interest in a landholder is not a corporate consolidation transaction if, immediately before the acquisition, the head corporation held dutiable property or a vehicle or an interest in a corporation.
- (3) An acquisition of an interest in a landholder is not a corporate consolidation transaction unless, immediately after the issue or transfer of the head corporation's securities:
 - (a) each person who holds those securities (a security holder) is a person who held securities of the affected corporation immediately before the securities of the affected corporation were acquired by the head corporation, and

- (b) the proportion of those securities held by each security holder is the same as proportion of the securities of the affected corporation held by each security holder before the issue or transfer.

273E Meaning of “corporate group”

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a corporate group consists of a parent corporation and its subsidiaries.
- (2) A corporation is the parent corporation of another corporation (which is the subsidiary of the first corporation) if the first corporation, directly or indirectly:
 - (a) holds at least 90% of the securities of the other corporation, and
 - (b) holds voting control over the other corporation.
- (3) The first corporation holds voting control over the other corporation if the first corporation has the ability to cast, or control the casting of, at least 90% of the maximum number of votes that may be cast at a general meeting of that corporation (other than votes to which a person is entitled under the provisions of a debenture or trust deed securing the issue of a debenture).
- (4) The corporate group for a corporation, all of the securities of which are stapled to the securities of one or more other corporations, includes all of those other corporations and their subsidiaries.
- (5) A corporation that is a unit trust scheme is taken to be a member of a corporate group for the purposes of a corporate reconstruction transaction if the transaction is between the trustee of the unit trust scheme, acting as trustee of the scheme, and another corporation that is a member of the same corporate group as the unit trust scheme.
- (6) A corporation is not a member of a corporate group for the purposes of a corporate reconstruction transaction if the corporation is acting in the capacity of trustee of:
 - (a) a unit trust scheme that is not a member of the same corporate group as the other party to the transaction, or
 - (b) a discretionary trust, or
 - (c) a trust (not being a unit trust scheme) for any person who is not a member of the corporate group.

273F Applications for exemptions

Commissioner:

(a) in the approved form, and

(b) before the date of the transaction or no later than 5 years after the date of assessment of the transaction.

(2) An exemption may be granted with or without conditions.

(3) It is a condition of every exemption granted in relation to an application made before the date of the relevant transaction that the applicant must notify the Chief Commissioner in writing as soon as practicable if there is any material change on or before that date in the matters disclosed in the application.

(4) The Chief Commissioner must reassess any duty charged on a transaction if an exemption is granted after the date of assessment of the transaction.

(5) The Chief Commissioner may revoke an exemption for a corporate reconstruction transaction if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied, because of new information not disclosed in the application for exemption, that the exemption should not have been granted.

(6) The Chief Commissioner must assess the liability for duty on a corporate reconstruction transaction for which an exemption is revoked and each member (at the date of the transaction) of the corporate group to which the transaction relates is jointly and severally liable to pay the duty chargeable on the transaction.
