Section 61A

Insert after section 61:

61A Disclosure of information or documents relating to Treasury costing of election promises

- (1) This section applies to any of the following information and documents:
- (a) information or documents provided to the Secretary of the Treasury by a person on behalf of the Government or the Opposition for the purposes of the Treasury costing any election commitments or proposals,
  - (b) information or documents prepared by the Treasury for the purposes of that costing.

- (2) The Secretary of the Treasury or other member of staff of the Treasury must not disclose any such information or document except to:
- (a) the representative of the Government or the Opposition who requested the costing (or to any person authorised by that representative), or
  - (b) a member of staff of the Treasury.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) This section does not apply to any information or document:
- (a) if the information or document has already been lawfully published, or
  - (b) if the person disclosing the information or document became aware of the information or obtained the document otherwise than in the course of Treasury costing any election commitments or proposals.
- (4) This section applies to a disclosure made after the commencement of this section even though the request for the Treasury costing was made before that commencement.
- (5) In this section, Treasury costing of an election commitment or proposal means a costing for the purposes of a general election of the Legislative Assembly that is undertaken by the Treasury in accordance with arrangements made by the Secretary of the Treasury.
