Part 1A enables the Health Administration Corporation (the Corporation) to provide health support services to public health organisations and, with the Minister’s approval, to provide health support services or corporate or other services, by contract or agreement, to other persons. A Public Health System Support Division of the Corporation is established and the persons employed in that Division are employed in connection with public health organisations and the public hospitals that they control and are to carry out the Corporation’s function of providing health support services to those organisations. The Corporation may delegate its functions under Part 1A to a person or an appointed body. The Director-General may transfer staff of a public health organisation to the Corporation for the purpose of exercising those functions and the Director-General may authorise the Corporation to make use of the services of any of the staff of a public health organisation. The Minister may require a public health organisation to acquire health support services from the Corporation or some other specified person.

[7] Chapter 10, Part 1A

Insert after Part 1:

Part 1A Provision of health support services

126A Definitions

In this Part:

appointed body means a committee, board or other body of persons appointed under section 126C by the Corporation.

Corporation means the Health Administration Corporation.

Note—

The term health support service is defined in the Dictionary.

126B Corporation to provide health support services

- (1) The Corporation may provide health support services to public health organisations and the public hospitals that they control.
- (2) There is established a Public Health System Support Division in the Corporation.
- (3) The persons employed by the Corporation in the Public Health System Support Division are employed in connection with public health organisations and the public hospitals that they control and are to carry out the Corporation's function under subsection (1).
- (4) The Corporation may also, with the approval of the Minister, make and enter into contracts or agreements with any person other than a public health organisation for the provision of health support services or corporate or other services to that person.
- (5) The Corporation may determine the fees and charges payable for any service provided by or on behalf of the Corporation under this section.
- (6) The Corporation may delegate its functions under this section to a person or appointed body.
- (7) A delegate may subdelegate to any person or appointed body some or all of any function delegated under this section if the delegate is authorised in writing to do so by the delegator.
- (8) Section 21 of the Health Administration Act 1982 does not apply in relation to the functions under this section.

- (9) Nothing in this section limits the Corporation's functions under this or any other Act or law.

126C Appointed bodies

- (1) The Corporation may appoint a committee, board or other body for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) An appointed body is to consist of such members appointed by the Corporation as the Corporation thinks fit.
- (3) The procedure of an appointed body is to be determined by the Corporation or (subject to any determination of the Corporation) by the appointed body.
- (4) A member of an appointed body holds office for such period (not exceeding 5 years) as is specified in the member's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.
- (5) The Corporation may terminate the appointment of a member of an appointed body at any time for any or no reason by notice in writing to the member.
- (6) A member of an appointed body is entitled to such fees and allowances as the Corporation may determine from time to time.
- (7) A member of an appointed body is not personally liable for any act or omission done or omitted to be done in good faith for the purposes of this Part.
- (8) If subsection (7) prevents liability attaching to a member of an appointed body, the liability attaches instead to the Corporation.

126D Transfer of staff to Corporation

- (1) The Director-General may, by order in writing, transfer such of the staff of a public health organisation as are specified in the order (either individually or by reference to a class of persons) to the Corporation for the purpose of exercising the Corporation's function under section 126B (1).
- (2) The members of staff of a public health organisation who are transferred to the Corporation by such an order are to be regarded for all purposes as having become employees of the Corporation, in accordance with the terms of the order, on a day specified in the order as being the day on which the transfer takes effect.
- (3) A person who is a member of staff of a public health organisation and who is transferred under this section:

- (a) is (until other provision is duly made by this or any other Act or law) to be employed in accordance with any relevant statutory provisions, awards, agreements and determinations that would have applied to the person if the person had not been transferred but had instead remained as a member of the staff of the public health organisation from which the person was transferred, and
- (b) retains any rights to annual leave, extended service leave, sick leave, and other forms of leave, accrued or accruing in the person's employment with the public health organisation, and
- (c) retains any other right or entitlement that may be prescribed for the purposes of this section, and
- (d) is not entitled to receive any payment or other benefit merely because the person ceases to be a member of staff of the public health organisation, and
- (e) is not entitled to claim, both under this Act and under any other Act or law, dual benefits of the same kind for the same period of service, and
- (f) is employed in the Public Health System Support Division of the Corporation.

126E Corporation may use staff of public health organisation

- (1) The Director-General may, by order in writing, authorise the Corporation to make use of the services of such of the staff of a public health organisation as are specified in the order (either individually or by reference to a class of persons) for the purpose of exercising the Corporation's functions under section 126B.
- (2) Staff that are subject to an order under subsection (1) are subject to the control and direction of the Corporation to the extent specified or referred to in that order.
- (3) An order under subsection (1) may specify that staff are to be subject to the control and direction of the Corporation on a full-time and ongoing basis.
- (4) Except in so far as an order under subsection (1) otherwise provides, the Corporation may, by instrument in writing, authorise another person or appointed body to exercise the control and direction of any staff that are subject to the order, and may, in like manner, revoke, wholly or in part, any such authority.
- (5) Staff that are subject to an order under subsection (1) remain members of staff of the public health organisation and do not become employees of the Corporation despite any other provision of this Act or of any other law or of any provision of the order.

(6) This section is not limited by section 7 of the Health Administration Act 1982.

126F Obligations and rights under Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 and other legislation

(1) For the purposes of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 and the employer liability legislation, the Corporation has the functions and liabilities of an employer in respect of a person who is the subject of an order under section 126E (1).

(2) A public health organisation, and any person concerned in the management of the organisation, is not liable for an offence under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 or the employer liability legislation arising out of an act or omission done or omitted to be done by a member of staff of that organisation while the member of staff is under the control and direction of the Corporation, but only if that liability attaches solely because the member of staff is an employee of the public health organisation or of a person concerned in the management of the organisation.

(3) In this section:

employer liability legislation means:

- (a) instruments under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000, and
- (b) associated occupational health and safety legislation within the meaning of that Act, and
- (c) any other Act or instrument under an Act that makes an employer liable for an act or omission of an employee, or for an act or omission of the employer in relation to an employee, being a law prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

126G Minister may direct public health organisation to enter contracts with Corporation and others

(1) The Minister may, by order in writing, from time to time:

- (a) require a public health organisation to acquire specified health support services from the Corporation or some other specified person if and when such services are required, and
- (b) give a public health organisation any necessary directions for the purposes of paragraph (a).

(2) The following conduct is specifically authorised by this Act for the purposes of the Trade Practices Act 1974 of the Commonwealth and the Competition Code of New South Wales:

- (a) a requirement or direction of the Minister given under subsection (1),
  - (b) the entering or making of a contract, agreement, arrangement or understanding as the result of such a requirement or direction,
  - (c) conduct authorised or required by or under the terms or conditions of any such contract, agreement, arrangement or understanding,
  - (d) any conduct of the Corporation in carrying out its functions or exercising its powers under this Part,
  - (e) any conduct of a public health organisation, its agents, a person concerned in the management of the organisation or a person who is engaged or employed by the organisation:
    - (i) in relation to obtaining health support services in accordance with this Part, or
    - (ii) in complying with a requirement or direction of the Minister given under subsection (1).
- (3) Conduct authorised by subsection (2) is authorised only to the extent (if any) that it would otherwise contravene Part IV of the Trade Practices Act 1974 of the Commonwealth and the Competition Code of New South Wales.

126H Consent of affiliated health organisations required for certain orders

- (1) The Director-General may not make an order under section 126D (1) or 126E (1) in relation to the staff of an affiliated health organisation unless the Director-General has obtained the written consent of the organisation to the making of the order.
- (2) The Minister may not make an order under section 126G (1) that requires or directs an affiliated health organisation to do, or omit to do, anything unless the Minister has obtained the written consent of the organisation to the requirement or direction.
