[1] Long title

Insert “to make provision for the distribution of intestate estates;” after “deceased person;”.

[2] Section 3 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 3 (1):

intestate is defined in section 102.

[3] Section 3 (2)

Omit “en ventre sa mere at the death of the person, provided such child or issue is born alive and remains alive for a period of 30 days”.

Insert instead “who is born after the person’s death after a period of gestation in the uterus that commenced before the person’s death and survives the person for at least 30 days after birth”.

[4] Chapter 4

Insert after section 100 and renumber existing Chapter 4 as Chapter 5 and sections 101–106 as appropriate:

Chapter 4 Intestacy

Part 4.1 Preliminary

101 Definitions

In this Chapter:

brother or sister—a person is the brother or sister of another if they have one or both parents in common.

deceased person—a deceased person is one who did not survive the intestate.

domestic partnership—see section 105.

eligible relative means a relative of the intestate who is entitled to share in the distribution of the intestate estate under Part 4.3.

entitlement to the whole of the intestate estate—see section 103.

Indigenous person is a person who:

- (a) is of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent, and
- (b) identifies as an Aboriginal person or Torres Strait Islander, and
- (c) is accepted as an Aboriginal person by an Aboriginal community or as a Torres Strait Islander by a Torres Strait Islander community.

intestate estate means:

- (a) in the case of an intestate who leaves a will—property that is not effectively disposed of by will, and
- (b) in any other case—all the property left by the intestate.

leave—a person leaves another if the person dies and is survived by the other.

personal effects of an intestate means the intestate's tangible personal property except the following:

- (a) property used exclusively for business purposes,
- (b) banknotes or coins (unless forming a collection made in pursuit of a hobby or for some other non-commercial purpose),

(c) property held as a pledge or other form of security,

(d) property (such as gold bullion or uncut diamonds):

(i) in which the intestate has invested as a hedge against inflation or adverse currency movements, and

(ii) which is not an object of household, or personal, use, decoration or adornment,

(e) an interest in land (whether freehold or leasehold).

predecease—a person is taken to predecease the intestate if the person does not survive the intestate.

presumptive share of an intestate estate of a deceased eligible relative of the intestate means the entitlement the relative would have had if he or she had survived the intestate.

registered valuer has the same meaning as it has in the Valuers Act 2003.

spouse—see section 104.

statutory legacy for a spouse—see section 106.

survive—see section 107.

102 Intestate

An intestate is a person who dies and either does not leave a will or leaves a will but does not dispose effectively by will of all or part of his or her property.

103 Entitlement to the whole of the intestate estate

A reference in this Chapter to an entitlement to the whole of the intestate estate is a reference to so much of the estate as remains after payment of all such funeral and administration expenses, debts and other liabilities as are properly payable out of the estate.

104 Spouse

A spouse of an intestate is a person:

(a) who was married to the intestate immediately before the intestate's death, or

(b) who was a party to a domestic partnership with the intestate immediately before the intestate's death.

105 Domestic partnership

A domestic partnership is a relationship (other than marriage) between the intestate and another person:

- (a) that is a de facto relationship, and
- (b) that:
 - (i) has been in existence for a continuous period of at least 2 years, or
 - (ii) has resulted in the birth of a child.

106 Spouse's statutory legacy

- (1) The statutory legacy for a spouse consists of:
 - (a) the CPI adjusted legacy, and
 - (b) if the statutory legacy is not paid, or not paid in full, within 1 year after the intestate's death—interest at the relevant rate on the amount outstanding from time to time (excluding interest) from the first anniversary of the intestate's death to the date of payment of the legacy in full.

- (2) The CPI adjusted legacy is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$R = A \times \frac{C}{D}$$

where:

R represents the CPI adjusted legacy.

A is $350,000.

C represents the Consumer Price Index number for the last quarter for which such a number was published before the date on which the intestate died.

D represents the Consumer Price Index number for the December 2005 quarter.

- (3) If, however, a spouse is entitled to a statutory legacy under this Act and under the law of another Australian jurisdiction or jurisdictions:
 - (a) the spouse's statutory legacy is an amount equivalent to the highest amount fixed by way of statutory legacy under any of the relevant laws (including this Act), but
 - (b) the following qualifications apply:
 - (i) amounts received by the spouse, by way of statutory legacy, under any of the other relevant laws are taken to have been paid towards satisfaction of the spouse's statutory legacy under this Act,

- (ii) if any of the relevant laws contain no provision corresponding to subparagraph (i), no amount is payable by way of statutory legacy under this Act until the spouse's entitlement under that law is satisfied, or the spouse renounces the spouse's entitlement to payment, or further payment, by way of statutory legacy, under that law.
- (4) If the value of an intestate estate is insufficient to allow for the payment of a statutory legacy (or statutory legacies) in full, the statutory legacy abates to the necessary extent and, if 2 or more statutory legacies are payable, they abate ratably.
 - (5) The relevant rate of interest is the rate that lies 2% above the cash rate last published by the Reserve Bank of Australia before 1 January in the calendar year in which interest begins to accrue.
 - (6) If the Australian Statistician publishes a Consumer Price Index number in respect of a particular quarter in substitution for a Consumer Price Index number previously published in respect of that quarter:
 - (a) except as provided by paragraph (b)—the publication of the later Index number is to be disregarded, or
 - (b) if the Minister so directs—regard is to be had to the later and not to the earlier Index number.
 - (7) If the reference base for the Consumer Price Index is changed, regard is to be had only to Index numbers published in terms of the new reference base or to Index numbers converted to the new reference base in accordance with an arithmetical conversion factor specified by the Australian Statistician.
 - (8) An adjustment under subsection (3) is to be made to the nearest whole dollar.
 - (9) In this section:

Consumer Price Index number, for a quarter, means the All Groups Consumer Price index number, being the weighted average of the 8 capital cities, published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter.

107 Survivorship

- (1) A person will not be regarded as having survived an intestate unless:
 - (a) the person is born before the intestate's death and survives the intestate by at least 30 days, or

(b) the person is born after the intestate's death after a period of gestation in the uterus that commenced before the intestate's death and survives the intestate for at least 30 days after birth.

(2) The rules stated in subsection (1) are not to be applied if, as a result of their application, the intestate estate would pass to the State.

108 General limitation of non-spousal entitlements

(1) A person is not entitled to participate in the distribution of an intestate estate unless the person survives the intestate.

(2) A reference in this Act to a child, issue, relative, or issue of a relative, of an intestate is limited to a person of the relevant description whose entitlement to share in the distribution of the intestate estate is not excluded under subsection (1).

109 Adoption

An adopted child is to be regarded, for the purposes of distribution on an intestacy, as a child of the adoptive parent or parents and:

(a) the child's family relationships are to be determined accordingly, and

(b) family relationships that exist as a matter of biological fact, and are not consistent with the relationship created by adoption, are to be ignored.

Part 4.2 Spouse's entitlements

Note—

In the case of an Indigenous person's estate, this Part is subject to exclusion or modification by a distribution order under Part 4.4.

Division 1 Entitlement of surviving spouse

110 Application of this Division

This Division applies where the intestate leaves a spouse (but not more than one spouse).

111 Spouse's entitlement where no issue

If an intestate leaves a spouse but no issue, the spouse is entitled to the whole of the intestate estate.

112 Spouse's entitlement where issue are also issue of the spouse

If an intestate leaves a spouse and issue and the issue are all also issue of the spouse, the spouse is entitled to the whole of the intestate estate.

113 Spouse's entitlement where any issue are not issue of the spouse

If an intestate leaves a spouse and any issue who are not issue of the spouse, the spouse is entitled to:

- (a) the intestate's personal effects, and
- (b) a statutory legacy, and
- (c) one-half of the remainder (if any) of the intestate estate.

Division 2 Spouse's preferential right to acquire property from the estate

114 Application of this Division

This Division applies where the intestate leaves a spouse (but not more than one spouse).

115 Spouse's right of election

- (1) A spouse is entitled to elect to acquire property from an intestate estate.
- (2) A spouse's election to acquire property from an intestate estate requires the Court's authorisation if:
 - (a) the property forms part of a larger aggregate, and
 - (b) the acquisition could substantially diminish the value of the remainder of the property or make the administration of the estate substantially more difficult.

Note—

For example:

- (a) The acquisition of a single item from a group of items might substantially diminish the value of the remainder of the group or make it substantially more difficult to dispose of the remainder of the group.
 - (b) The acquisition of the farmhouse from a farming property might substantially diminish the value of the remainder of the farming property or make it substantially more difficult to dispose of it.
- (3) The Court may grant an authorisation under subsection (2) and may impose such conditions as it considers just and equitable to address the matters referred to in that subsection, including a condition that the spouse pay compensation to the estate in addition to consideration to be given for the property under this Division and a condition as to costs.
 - (4) The Court must refuse authorisation if it considers that the matters referred to in subsection (2) cannot be adequately addressed by granting an authorisation subject to such conditions.

- (5) A spouse is not entitled to elect to acquire property from an intestate estate if the transfer or conveyance by the personal representative to the spouse of the interest of the intestate in the property would require compliance with the mandatory provisions unless those provisions would be complied with and the costs of complying with the provisions are paid by the spouse.
- (6) A spouse who is a personal representative of the intestate is not prevented from making an election to acquire property from the intestate estate by the fact that the spouse is a trustee of the intestate estate.
- (7) Nothing in this section confers on a spouse any right against a person who in good faith purchased for value from the personal representative of the intestate any property of the intestate.
- (8) In this section:

mandatory provisions means the following:

- (a) the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, the Conveyancing Act 1919 and any other Act with respect to the manner of dividing land into parts, and with respect to any requirement incidental to the manner of dividing land into parts,
- (b) the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 with respect to the manner of subdividing land within the meaning of section 7 (1) of that Act or of any lot within the meaning of section 5 (1) of that Act, and with respect to any requirement incidental to the manner of subdividing any such land or lot,
- (c) the Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986, with respect to the manner of subdividing land within the meaning of section 6 (1) of that Act or of any lot within the meaning of section 4 (1) of that Act, and with respect to any requirement incidental to the manner of subdividing any such land or lot.

116 Notice to be given to spouse of right of election

- (1) An intestate's personal representative must, within one month of the grant of administration of the intestate estate, give notice to the intestate's spouse of the spouse's right of election stating:
 - (a) how the right is to be exercised, and
 - (b) the fact that the election may be subject to the Court's authorisation and the circumstances in which such an authorisation is required, and

(c) that the right must be exercised within 3 months (or a longer period allowed by the Court) after the date of the notice.

(2) Notice is not required under this section if the spouse is the personal representative, or one of the personal representatives, of the intestate.

117 Time for making election

(1) The election must be made:

(a) if the spouse is entitled to notice of the right of election—within 3 months after the date of the notice, or

(b) if the spouse is the intestate's personal representative (or one of the personal representatives)—within 3 months after the grant of administration of the intestate estate.

(2) The Court may, however, if it considers there is sufficient cause for doing so, extend the time for making the election.

Note—

The Court might, for example, extend the period for making an election if the Court's authorisation for making the election is required or if a question remains unresolved regarding the existence, or the nature, of a person's interest in the intestate estate.

(3) The Court may extend the time for making the election whether or not the time for making the election has passed, but not after the administration of the estate has been completed.

118 How election to be made

(1) A spouse's election is made by written notice identifying, with reasonable particularity, the property the spouse elects to acquire.

(2) Except as provided by subsection (3), the notice of election must be given:

(a) to each person, apart from the spouse, who is a personal representative of the intestate, and

(b) to each person, apart from the spouse, who is entitled to share in the intestate estate.

(3) The Court may direct that any of the persons referred to in subsection (2) need not be given the notice of election if it considers that giving the notice is unnecessary, unreasonable or impracticable in the circumstances of the case.

(4) A spouse who has not reached the age of majority may make an election as validly and effectively as an adult.

(5) A spouse may revoke his or her election at any time before the transfer of the property to the spouse.

- (6) A revocation is made by written notice of revocation given to the same persons as the notice of election.

119 Basis of the election

- (1) The price for which a spouse may elect to acquire property from the intestate estate (the exercise price) is the market value of the property as at the date of the intestate's death.
- (2) If, however, the spouse and the holder of a mortgage, charge or encumbrance over property that the spouse has elected to acquire agree to the assumption by the spouse of the liability secured by the mortgage, charge or encumbrance the exercise price is to be reduced by the amount of the liability (as at the date of transfer) secured by the mortgage, charge or encumbrance, but:
- (a) the spouse takes the property subject to the mortgage, charge or encumbrance, and
- (b) on the transfer of the property, the liability passes to the spouse and the estate is exonerated from it.
- (3) The personal representative of an intestate must obtain a valuation from a registered valuer of property forming part of the intestate estate if:
- (a) a spouse elects to acquire the property, or
- (b) a spouse asks the personal representative to obtain a valuation to enable the spouse to decide whether to elect to acquire it.
- (4) The personal representative must give a copy of the valuation to the spouse and to the other beneficiaries entitled to share in the intestate estate.
- (5) The requirement for a personal representative to obtain a valuation under subsection (3) may be waived with the consent of all the beneficiaries entitled to share in the intestate estate.

120 Exercise price—how satisfied

If a spouse elects to acquire property from the intestate estate, the exercise price is to be satisfied:

- (a) first from money to which the spouse is entitled from the intestate estate, and
- (b) if that is insufficient, from money paid by the spouse to the estate on or before the date of transfer.

121 Restriction on disposal of property from intestate estate

- (1) The personal representative of an intestate must not dispose of property from the intestate estate (except to a spouse who has elected to acquire it) unless:
 - (a) the personal representative is the spouse entitled to make the election, or
 - (b) the time for exercising the election has elapsed and no election has been made, or
 - (c) the election requires the Court's authorisation but:
 - (i) the necessary authorisation has been refused, or
 - (ii) the application for authorisation has been withdrawn, or
 - (d) the spouse has notified the personal representative, in writing, that he or she does not propose to exercise the right to acquire property from the estate, or
 - (e) sale of the property is required to meet funeral and administration expenses, debts and other liabilities of the estate, or
 - (f) the property is perishable or likely to decrease rapidly in value.
- (2) A transaction entered into contrary to this section is not invalid.

Division 3 Multiple spouses

122 Spouses' entitlement where there are more than one spouse but no issue

If an intestate leaves more than one spouse, but no issue, the spouses are entitled to the whole of the intestate estate in shares determined in accordance with this Division.

123 Spouses' entitlement where issue are also issue of one or more of the spouses

If an intestate leaves more than one spouse and issue who are all issue of one or more of the surviving spouses, the spouses are entitled to the whole of the intestate estate in shares determined in accordance with this Division.

124 Spouses' entitlement where any issue are not issue of a surviving spouse

If an intestate leaves more than one spouse and any issue who are not issue of a surviving spouse:

- (a) the spouses are entitled to share the intestate's personal effects in accordance with this Division, and
- (b) each spouse is entitled to share the statutory legacy that would be payable if the intestate had left only one surviving spouse, and
- (c) the spouses are entitled to share one-half of the remainder (if any) of the intestate estate in accordance with this Division.

125 Sharing between spouses

- (1) If property is to be shared between spouses under this Division, the property is to be shared:
 - (a) in accordance with a written agreement between the spouses (a distribution agreement), or
 - (b) in accordance with an order of the Court (a distribution order), or
 - (c) if the conditions prescribed by subsection (2) are satisfied—in equal shares.
- (2) The following conditions must be satisfied if the personal representative is to make an equal division of property between spouses under subsection (1) (c):
 - (a) the personal representative has given each spouse a notice in writing stating that the personal representative may distribute the property equally between the spouses unless, within 3 months after the date of the notice:
 - (i) they enter into a distribution agreement and submit the agreement to the personal representative, or
 - (ii) at least one of the spouses applies to the Court for a distribution order,
 - (b) at least 3 months have elapsed since the giving of the notices and:
 - (i) the personal representative has not received a distribution agreement or notice of an application for a distribution order, or
 - (ii) an application for a distribution order has been made but the application has been dismissed or discontinued.
- (3) If a spouse asks the personal representative to initiate the process for making an equal division of property under subsection (1) (c), the personal representative must, as soon as practicable:
 - (a) give the notices required under subsection (2) (a), or
 - (b) make an application to the Court for a distribution order.

126 Distribution orders

- (1) An intestate's spouse or personal representative may apply to the Court for a distribution order.
- (2) If, however, the personal representative has given written notice under section 125 (3), the application cannot (unless the Court otherwise allows) be made more than 3 months after the date of the notice.
- (3) On an application under this section, the Court may order that the property be distributed between the spouses in any way it considers just and equitable.
- (4) If the Court considers it just and equitable to do so, it may allocate the whole of the property to one of the spouses to the exclusion of the other or others.
- (5) A distribution order may include conditions.

Part 4.3 Distribution among relatives

Note—

In the case of an Indigenous person's estate, this Part is subject to exclusion or modification by a distribution order under Part 4.4.

127 Entitlement of children

- (1) If an intestate leaves no spouse but leaves issue, the intestate's children are entitled to the whole of the intestate estate.
- (2) If:
 - (a) an intestate leaves:
 - (i) a spouse or spouses, and
 - (ii) any issue who are not also issue of a surviving spouse, and
 - (b) a part of the estate remains after satisfying the spouse's entitlement, or the spouses' entitlements,the intestate's children are entitled to the remaining part of the intestate estate.
- (3) If no child predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate, then:
 - (a) if there is only one surviving child—the entitlement vests in the child, or
 - (b) if there are 2 or more surviving children—the entitlement vests in them in equal shares.

- (4) If one or more of the intestate's children predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate:
 - (a) allowance must be made in the division of the entitlement between children for the presumptive share of any such deceased child, and
 - (b) the presumptive share of any such deceased child is to be divided between that child's children and, if any of these grandchildren (of the intestate) predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate, the deceased grandchild's presumptive share is to be divided between the grandchild's children (again allowing for the presumptive share of a great grandchild who predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate), and so on until the entitlement is exhausted.

128 Parents

- (1) The parents of an intestate are entitled to the whole of the intestate estate if the intestate leaves:
 - (a) no spouse, and
 - (b) no issue.
- (2) If there is only one surviving parent, the entitlement vests in the parent and, if both survive, it vests in equal shares.

129 Brothers and sisters

- (1) The brothers and sisters of an intestate are entitled to the whole of the intestate estate if the intestate leaves:
 - (a) no spouse, and
 - (b) no issue, and
 - (c) no parent.
- (2) If no brother or sister predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate, then:
 - (a) if only one survives—the entitlement vests in the surviving brother or sister, or
 - (b) if 2 or more survive—the entitlement vests in them in equal shares.
- (3) If a brother or sister predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate:
 - (a) allowance must be made in the division of the estate between brothers and sisters for the presumptive share of any such deceased brother or sister, and

- (b) the presumptive share of any such deceased brother or sister is to be divided between the brother's or sister's children and, if any of these children predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate, the deceased child's presumptive share is to be divided between the child's children (again allowing for the presumptive share of a grandchild who predeceased the intestate leaving issue who survived the intestate), and so on until the entitlement is exhausted.

130 Grandparents

- (1) The grandparents of an intestate are entitled to the whole of an intestate estate if the intestate leaves:
 - (a) no spouse, and
 - (b) no issue, and
 - (c) no parent, and
 - (d) no brother or sister, or issue of a deceased brother or sister.
- (2) If there is only one surviving grandparent, the entitlement vests in the grandparent and, if 2 or more survive, it vests in them in equal shares.

131 Aunts and uncles

- (1) The brothers and sisters of each of an intestate's parents are entitled to the whole of the intestate estate if the intestate leaves:
 - (a) no spouse, and
 - (b) no issue, and
 - (c) no parent, and
 - (d) no brother or sister, or issue of a deceased brother or sister, and
 - (e) no grandparent.
- (2) If no brother or sister of a parent of the intestate predeceased the intestate leaving a child who survived the intestate, then:
 - (a) if only one survives—the entitlement vests in the surviving brother or sister, or
 - (b) if 2 or more survive—the entitlement vests in them in equal shares.
- (3) If a brother or sister of a parent of the intestate predeceased the intestate leaving a child who survived the intestate, the child is entitled to the deceased parent's presumptive share and, if there are 2 or more children, they share equally.

132 Entitlement to take in separate capacities

A relative may be entitled to participate in the distribution of an intestate estate in separate capacities.

Note—

For example, suppose that an intestate dies leaving no spouse and no surviving relatives except children of a deceased maternal aunt and paternal uncle who had a child in common as well as children of other unions. In this case, the child of the union between the maternal aunt and the paternal uncle would be entitled to participate in the estate both as representative of the maternal aunt and as representative of the paternal uncle.

Part 4.4 Indigenous persons' estates

133 Application for distribution order

- (1) The personal representative of an Indigenous intestate, or a person claiming to be entitled to share in an intestate estate under the laws, customs, traditions and practices of the Indigenous community or group to which an Indigenous intestate belonged, may apply to the Court for an order for distribution of the intestate estate under this Part.
- (2) An application under this section must be accompanied by a scheme for distribution of the estate in accordance with the laws, customs, traditions and practices of the community or group to which the intestate belonged.
- (3) An application under this section must be made within 12 months of the grant of administration or a longer period allowed by the Court but no application may be made after the intestate estate has been fully distributed.
- (4) After a personal representative makes, or receives notice of, an application under this section, the personal representative must not distribute (or continue with the distribution of) property comprised in the estate until:
 - (a) the application has been determined, or
 - (b) the Court authorises the distribution.

134 Distribution orders

- (1) The Court may, on an application under this Part, order that the intestate estate, or part of the intestate estate, be distributed in accordance with the terms of the order.
- (2) An order under this Part may require a person to whom property was distributed before the date of the application to return the property to the personal representative for distribution in accordance with the terms of the order (but no distribution that has been, or is to be, used for the maintenance, education or advancement in life of a person who was totally or partially dependent on the intestate immediately before the intestate's death can be disturbed).

Note—

For example, a distribution may have been made under section 92A of the Probate and Administration Act 1898 or section 94 of this Act.

- (3) In formulating an order under this Part, the Court must have regard to:
 - (a) the scheme for distribution submitted by the applicant, and
 - (b) the laws, customs, traditions and practices of the Indigenous community or group to which the intestate belonged.
- (4) The Court may not, however, make an order under this Part unless satisfied that the terms of the order are, in all the circumstances, just and equitable.

135 Effect of distribution order under this Part

A distribution order under this Part operates (subject to its terms) to the exclusion of all other provisions of this Act governing the distribution of the intestate estate.

Part 4.5 Absence of persons entitled

136 Intestate leaving no persons entitled

If an intestate dies leaving no person who is entitled to the intestate estate, the State is entitled to the whole of the intestate estate.

137 State has discretion to make provision out of property to which it becomes entitled

- (1) If the State is entitled to an intestate estate under this Part, the Minister may, on application in accordance with subsection (3) for a waiver of the State's rights, waive the State's rights in whole or part in favour of:
 - (a) dependants of the intestate, or
 - (b) any persons who have, in the Minister's opinion, a just or moral claim on the intestate, or
 - (c) any organisation or person for whom the intestate might reasonably be expected to have made provision, or
 - (d) the trustees for any person or organisation mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) The Minister may grant a waiver under this section on conditions the Minister considers appropriate.

- (3) Application for a waiver of the State's rights to an intestate estate under this Part is to be made in writing to the Crown Solicitor.

Part 4.6 Miscellaneous

138 Non-deferral of the interest of a minor

The entitlement of a minor to an interest in an intestate estate vests immediately (that is, it is not deferred until the minor reaches majority or marries).

139 Effect of disclaimer etc

For the purposes of the distribution of an intestate estate, a person will be treated as having predeceased the intestate if the person:

- (a) disclaims an interest, to which he or she would otherwise be entitled, in the intestate estate, or
- (b) is disqualified from taking an interest in the intestate estate for any reason.

Note—

It follows that, if the person has issue, they may be entitled to take the person's presumptive share of the intestate estate by representation.

140 Effect of testamentary and other gifts
