[1] Part 6A

Insert after Part 6:

Part 6A Audit of Interagency Plan relating to child sexual assault in Aboriginal communities

43B The Interagency Plan

In this Part:

the Interagency Plan means the New South Wales Interagency Plan To Tackle Child Sexual Assault in Aboriginal Communities 2006-2011, released by the Government of New South Wales in January 2007.

43C Audit of implementation of Interagency Plan

- (1) The Ombudsman has the following audit functions in relation to the Interagency Plan:
 - (a) to review the implementation of the Interagency Plan by public authorities of the State that have functions under the Plan,
 - (b) to identify any areas in which further action is required by those public authorities to implement the Interagency Plan,
 - (c) to make recommendations for the more efficient and effective implementation of the Interagency Plan by those public authorities.
- (2) The Ombudsman must prepare and provide a report to the Minister for Aboriginal Affairs by 31 December 2012 on the Ombudsman's audit of the implementation of the Interagency Plan.
- (3) The Minister for Aboriginal Affairs must, within 1 month after receiving the report, furnish a copy of the report to the Presiding Officer of each House of Parliament.
- (4) The Ombudsman's audit functions cease after the provision of the report to the Minister for Aboriginal Affairs.

43D Provision of information

- (1) It is the duty of the head of a public authority that has functions under the Interagency Plan to provide the Ombudsman with full and unrestricted access to records that are under the person's control, or whose production the person may, in an official capacity, reasonably require, being records to which the Ombudsman reasonably requires access for the purpose of exercising the Ombudsman's audit functions in relation to the Interagency Plan.
- (2) Access to which the Ombudsman is entitled under this section includes the right to inspect and, on request, to be provided with copies of, any record referred to in subsection (1) and to inspect any non-documentary evidence associated with any such record.
- (3) A provision of any Act or law that restricts or denies access to records (other than a provision applied by section 43E) does not prevent a person to whom this section applies from complying, or affect the person's duty to comply, with this section.
- (4) The Ombudsman may, if the Ombudsman thinks it appropriate to do so, provide information obtained by the Ombudsman under this section to a public authority that has functions under the Interagency Plan and that has a relevant interest.
- (5) The provision of information under this section:
 - (a) does not constitute a breach of professional etiquette or ethics or a departure from accepted standards of professional conduct, and
 - (b) does not give rise to any liability for defamation or other civil liability.
- (6) In this section:

head, in relation to a public authority, has the same meaning as it has in the Ombudsman Act 1974.

43E Application of Ombudsman Act 1974

- (1) For the purpose of the exercise of functions under this Part, sections 17–24 (except section 21B), 31AC and 36 of the Ombudsman Act 1974 apply to or in respect of the exercise of those functions in the same way that they apply to or in respect of an investigation of a complaint by the Ombudsman under that Act, subject to any necessary modifications and to any modifications prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) Section 31AA of the Ombudsman Act 1974 applies to a report of the Ombudsman under this Part in the same way that it applies to a report under Partydd Part 4 of that Actiliserman under this Part in the same way that it applies to a report under Part 4 of that Act.

- (3) For the purpose of the application of section 31AA (2) of the Ombudsman Act 1974 under this section, a report of the Ombudsman under this Part is taken to include a recommendation by the Ombudsman that the report be made public forthwith.
