(Section 3)

[1] Section 90 Definitions

Insert at the end of section 90:

- (2) A reference in this Part to the disappearance of a contractor, supplier or owner-builder includes a reference to the fact that, after due search and inquiry, the contractor, supplier or owner-builder cannot be found.

[2] Sections 95 (2A) and (3), 96 (3) (d) and 96A (4)

Omit “7 years” wherever occurring. Insert instead “6 years”.

[3] Section 99 Requirements for insurance for residential building work

Omit “insolvency or death of the contractor or because of the fact that, after due search and inquiry, the contractor cannot be found” from section 99 (1) (a).

Insert instead “insolvency, death or disappearance of the contractor”.

[4] Section 99 (1) (b)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead:

- (b) a person on whose behalf the work is being done and the person’s successors in title against the risk of being unable, because of the insolvency, death or disappearance of the contractor:
  - (i) to recover compensation from the contractor for a breach of a statutory warranty in respect of the work, or
  - (ii) to have the contractor rectify any such breach.

[5] Section 100 Requirements for insurance for kit homes

Omit “insolvency or death of the supplier or because of the fact that, after due search and inquiry, the supplier cannot be found” from section 100 (a).

Insert instead “insolvency, death or disappearance of the supplier”.

[6] Section 100 (b)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead:

- (b) a person to whom the kit home is supplied and the person’s successors in title against the risk of being unable, because of the insolvency, death or disappearance of the supplier, to recover compensation from the supplier for any of the following events or to have the supplier rectify any of the following events:
  - (i) the materials and components used in the kit home not being good or suitable for the purpose for which they were used,
  - (ii) the design of the kit home being faulty.

[7] Section 101

Omit the section. Insert instead:

101 Requirements for insurance by owner-builders and others

A contract of insurance in relation to owner-builder work or residential building work required by section 95 or 96 must insure a purchaser of the land on which the work is done and the purchaser's successors in title against the risk of being unable, because of the insolvency, death or disappearance of the owner-builder or contractor concerned:

- (a) to recover compensation from the owner-builder or contractor for a breach of a statutory warranty in respect of the work, or
- (b) to have the owner-builder or contractor rectify any such breach.

[8] Section 102A

Insert after section 102:

102A Approval of alternative home building indemnity schemes or arrangements

- (1) This Part does not apply to or in respect of any residential building work or owner-builder work or the supply of a kit home if the work or supply is, for the time being, covered by a home building indemnity scheme, or other similar arrangement, approved by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette.
- (2) The notice is to set out the terms of any such scheme or arrangement.
- (3) The approval by the Minister of a scheme or arrangement under this section is subject to:
  - (a) any conditions that may be prescribed by the regulations, and
  - (b) any conditions (not inconsistent with the regulations) that may be imposed by the Minister.
- (4) An approval under this section may be varied or revoked by the Minister at any time by further notice published in the Gazette.
- (5) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to any scheme or arrangement approved by the Minister under this section.
- (6) Without limiting subsection (5), the regulations may make provision for or with respect to:

- (a) the functions of the Guarantee Corporation (within the meaning of Part 6A) in relation to the administration of any such scheme or arrangement, and
- (b) the payment of contributions into the Building Insurers' Guarantee Fund in connection with any such scheme or arrangement administered by the Guarantee Corporation.
