Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Regulation 2009

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Regulation 2009.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2009 and is required to be published on the NSW legislation website.

Note—

This Regulation replaces the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Regulation 2002, which is repealed on 1 September 2009 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Definition

(1) In this Regulation:

the Act means the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal Act 2001.

(2) Notes included in this Regulation (except in Schedule 1) do not form part of this Regulation.

Part 2 Registrar, members and assessors

4 Oath of office

If an oath is required to be taken as referred to in clause 15 of Schedule 2 to the Act, it may be taken as follows:

I, [insert name of member], do [swear/solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm*] that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of the office of [Chairperson/Deputy Chairperson (Determinations)/senior member*] of the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal of New South Wales.

Note—

* Delete whichever is inapplicable.

5 Disclosure of members' interests

(1) A member:

- (a) who has a direct or indirect interest in a matter the subject of present or proposed proceedings of the Tribunal, and
- (b) whose interest appears to raise a conflict with the proper performance of the member's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter, must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest to the Chairperson (and, if the proceedings have commenced, to the parties in the proceedings).

- (2) If the member is the Chairperson, the nature of the interest must be disclosed to the Minister.
- (3) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter, the member must not, unless the Minister or Chairperson otherwise determines, exercise, or continue to exercise, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal in the proceedings.

6 Functions of Chairperson that cannot be delegated

For the purposes of section 12 (5) of the Act, the functions of the Chairperson under any of the following provisions cannot be delegated:

- (a) section 12 (2) (c)-(d) of the Act,
- (b) clauses 1 (2) (a) and (5) and 3 (1) of Schedule 3 to the Act.

7 Chairperson may vary or dispense with requirements

- (1) The Chairperson may, of his or her own motion or on application by any person (whether made before or after the expiry of the time limit concerned), shorten or extend the period of time within which anything would otherwise be required under this Regulation to be done.
- (2) The Chairperson may dispense with compliance with any requirement of this Regulation, either before or after the occasion for compliance arises.

8 Functions of assessors

- (1) For the purpose of conducting an inquiry under section 16 of the Act, an assessor:
 - (a) may inform himself or herself of any matter in such manner as the assessor thinks fit, and
 - (b) may, in particular, hear testimony from any person and administer an oath to any person testifying, and

(c) if authorised in writing by the Chairperson to do so, is to carry out such inspections in connection with any matter as the Tribunal may direct and report to the Tribunal as directed.

(2) In the exercise of his or her functions, an assessor is to act with as little formality as the circumstances permit and according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the matter without regard to technicalities or legal forms.

(3) Clause 5 applies to and in respect of an inquiry or proposed inquiry by an assessor in the same way as it applies to and in respect of a member in proceedings or proposed proceedings of the Tribunal.

9 Functions of Registrar

For the purposes of section 20 (1) (a1) of the Act, the functions of a member or the Tribunal conferred by the following provisions are prescribed:

- (a) section 28 (5) (e)-(h),
- (b) section 32,
- (c) section 34 (1),
- (d) section 38 (1),
- (e) section 48 (1),
- (f) section 54 (1) and (2),
- (g) section 61 (1),
- (h) section 81.

Part 3 Applications

10 Applications to Tribunal

- (1) For the purposes of section 24 (2) of the Act, this clause applies in relation to an application to have a matter dealt with by the Tribunal.
- (2) An application may be lodged:
 - (a) at any one of the registries established by the Tribunal, or
 - (b) at a Fair Trading Centre of the Department of Services, Technology and Administration, or
 - (c) at a registry of the Local Court, or

- (d) at any Government Access Centre established by the New South Wales Government, or
 - (e) at any such other place as may be determined by the Chairperson.
- (3) An application must be in the English language.
- (4) The Tribunal may accept lodgment of applications by post, facsimile or electronic means.
- (5) Except where the Registrar otherwise determines, an application is taken to have been lodged when it has been duly lodged in accordance with this Regulation, whether or not any relevant fee has been paid. The Tribunal is, however, entitled to decline to hear proceedings on the application until the fee has been paid.
- (6) An application that is lodged by electronic means is taken to be duly signed so long as:
- (a) it identifies a person who, under this Regulation, is authorised to sign the application, and
 - (b) it indicates that person's approval of the making of the application and (where appropriate) that person's belief in the truth of the information contained in the application.

11 Particulars of application

- (1) For the purposes of section 24 (2) of the Act, an application made to the Tribunal must contain the following particulars:
- (a) the name and address of the applicant,
 - (b) the name and last known address of each other party,
 - (c) a description of the order or orders sought by the applicant,
 - (d) a concise statement containing particulars sufficient to enable each other party to know the nature of the claim or dispute,
 - (e) if an amount of money is claimed or in dispute, the amount claimed or disputed,
 - (f) if the application relates to a claim or dispute arising from the occupation of any premises—the address of those premises,
 - (g) if the applicant is a corporation—the applicant's ACN.
- (2) The Registrar may, if the applicant requests, delete an applicant's address from the application before forwarding it to other parties to the proceedings.

12 Persons authorised to sign applications

- (1) An application must be signed and dated by the applicant unless this clause authorises another person to sign the application.
- (2) An application made under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 by a landlord may be completed, signed, dated and lodged by the landlord's agent.
- (3) An application made under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 by a tenant may be completed, signed, dated and lodged by:
 - (a) the tenant's agent appointed under section 31 of that Act, or
 - (b) a person authorised in writing by the tenant to do so.
- (4) An application made under the Residential Parks Act 1998 by a resident may be completed, signed, dated and lodged by:
 - (a) the resident's agent appointed under section 32 of that Act, or
 - (b) a person authorised in writing by the resident to do so.
- (5) An application made under the Residential Parks Act 1998 by a park owner may be completed, signed, dated and lodged by the park manager appointed by the park owner under that Act.
- (6) An application made under the Retirement Villages Act 1999 by an operator or resident of a retirement village may be completed, signed, dated and lodged by any person authorised in writing by the operator or resident to do so.

Part 4 Representation of parties

13 Application for representation

- (1) For the purposes of section 36 (2) of the Act, an application by a party to the Tribunal for permission to be represented in any proceedings may be made:
 - (a) in writing addressed to the Registrar and lodged before the date set down for hearing of the proceedings, or
 - (b) by oral submission at the commencement of the hearing.
- (2) An application for representation that is made in writing must:
 - (a) identify the proceedings with respect to which it is made, and
 - (b) specify the reason why the applicant wishes to be represented, and
 - (c) specify whether the applicant proposes to be represented by an Australian legal practitioner, and

- (d) if the applicant does not propose to be represented by an Australian legal practitioner, specify the name and occupation of the proposed representative, and
 - (e) specifically authorise the representative to make decisions in the absence of the applicant in the proceedings concerned that are binding on the applicant.
- (3) If an application for representation is made in writing, the applicant may include submissions in relation to the competence of the proposed representative or any matter the applicant wishes to address in support of the application.
- (4) An application for permission to be represented cannot be determined by the Tribunal unless each other party to the proceedings has been given an opportunity to make oral or written submissions in relation to the application.
- (5) In making an order permitting a party to be represented in any proceedings, the Tribunal may impose such conditions in relation to the representation as the Tribunal thinks fit.

14 Circumstances in which application may be made

For the purposes of section 36 (2) of the Act, an application by a party for permission to be represented in any proceedings may be made in any one or more of the following circumstances only:

- (a) if the proceedings are to be heard in the Home Building Division and involve a claim or dispute for an amount exceeding $30,000,
- (b) if the party is a body corporate and the body corporate is to be represented by one of its officers,
- (c) if the party is an owners corporation constituted under the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 and the corporation is to be represented by the owner or, if there is more than one owner, by one of the owners constituting the corporation, or by the strata managing agent,
- (d) if the party is a community association constituted under the Community Land Development Act 1989 and the association is to be represented by the proprietor of each development lot in the relevant community plan or, if there is more than one proprietor, by one of the proprietors who is a member of the association, or by the managing agent,
- (e) if the party is a body registered under the Co-operatives Act 1992 and the body is to be represented by one of its officers,
- (f) if the party is a firm and the firm is to be represented by one of its partners,
- (g) if the party is an incorporated association registered under the Associations Incorporation Act 1984 and the association is to be represented by one of its officers,

- (h) if the party is an unincorporated body of persons and the body is to be represented by:
 - (i) a secretary or treasurer of the body, or
 - (ii) a member of the executive or management committee of the body who was duly elected at a general meeting of members of the body,
- (i) if the party has a trustee for the management of his or her estate and the person is to be represented by the trustee,
- (j) if the party is a government agency and is to be represented by an officer of that or any other government agency,
- (k) if the party is a landlord of property involved in the proceedings and is to be represented by the managing agent of the property,
- (l) if the party is the owner of a residential park involved in the proceedings and is to be represented by the park manager,
- (m) if the party is the operator of a retirement village involved in the proceedings and is to be represented by an employee or agent (other than an Australian legal practitioner) of the operator,
- (n) if the party is a resident of a retirement village who is to be represented by:
 - (i) a nominated resident of the retirement village in accordance with section 122 of the Retirement Villages Act 1999, or
 - (ii) the Residents Committee of the retirement village in accordance with the regulations under that Act,
- (o) if another party in the proceedings is, or is to be represented by, an Australian legal practitioner,
- (p) if another party in the proceedings is a government agency,
- (q) if the Tribunal is of the opinion that the party would be placed at a disadvantage if not represented at the hearing,
- (r) if the Tribunal is of the opinion that representation should be permitted as a matter of necessity due to the likelihood that complex issues of law or fact will arise in the proceedings.
- (s) if the proceedings relate to a tenancy (within the meaning of the Agricultural Tenancies Act 1990) and involve a claim or dispute for an amount exceeding $30,000.

15 Representative to be competent

- (1) In dealing with an application for the representation of a party in any proceedings, the Tribunal must not approve the application unless it is satisfied that the representative:
 - (a) has sufficient knowledge of the issues in dispute to enable the representative to represent the applicant effectively at the hearing by the Tribunal of the matter concerned, and
 - (b) is vested with sufficient authority to bind the applicant.
- (2) In determining a written application for representation, the Tribunal is entitled to rely on information supplied by the applicant in support of the application.

16 Representation of unincorporated body

- (1) If an application to have a matter dealt with by the Tribunal is made on behalf of an unincorporated body by an officer of that body who is authorised to do so, each of the members of the body is taken to have agreed to be represented at the hearing of the matter by that officer or by such other person as may be permitted to represent the body at that hearing.
- (2) This clause does not apply in respect of an application to have a matter dealt with by the Tribunal that has been made by the Residents Committee of a retirement village.

17 Representation by managing agents

- (1) A managing agent who represents a landlord in proceedings is entitled to demand and receive such fee or reward for so doing as may be agreed with the landlord concerned.
- (2) A strata managing agent who represents an owners corporation constituted under the Strata Schemes Management Act 1996 in proceedings is entitled to demand and receive such fee or reward for so doing as may be agreed with the owners corporation concerned.

18 Costs of representation may be disclosed

If a party in any proceedings is represented by an Australian legal practitioner, the Tribunal may, as a condition of the order permitting the party to be represented, require the practitioner to disclose the estimated cost of representation by the practitioner.

Part 5 Costs

19 Costs of assessors

- (1) For the purposes of section 18 of the Act, the Tribunal may, in any proceedings in which a party has requested the use of an assessor, make an order as to the extent to which the costs of the assessor are to be paid by any one or more of the parties.

- (2) If the Tribunal makes any such order as to the payment of costs, the parties are to pay the costs in such proportions as they may agree among themselves or, failing agreement, in such manner as may be ordered by the Tribunal.
- (3) The Tribunal may, in any proceedings in the Home Building Division in respect of which:
 - (a) the amount claimed or in dispute is more than $30,000, and
 - (b) each party is represented by an Australian legal practitioner,order that the costs of an assessor who has assisted the Tribunal (whether or not at the request of a party) are payable by any one or more of the parties.

20 Costs generally

- (1) This clause applies to the awarding of costs by the Tribunal as provided by section 53 of the Act.
- (2) The Tribunal may award costs in relation to proceedings in respect of which the amount claimed or in dispute is not more than $10,000, or in respect of which no amount is claimed or in dispute, only if the Tribunal is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that warrant the awarding of costs.
- (3) In any proceedings in respect of which the amount claimed or in dispute is more than $10,000 but not more than $30,000, the Tribunal may award costs in relation to the proceedings only if:
 - (a) the Tribunal is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that warrant the awarding of costs, or
 - (b) the Tribunal has made an order under section 30 (2) of the Act in relation to the proceedings.
- (4) In any proceedings in respect of which the amount claimed or in dispute is more than $30,000, the Tribunal may award costs in relation to the proceedings in such circumstances as it thinks fit.
- (5) Despite any other provision of this clause, the Tribunal may order:
 - (a) that the costs of proceedings on an application for rehearing of a matter are, if the applicant fails to attend the hearing of the application, to be paid wholly or in part by the applicant, or
 - (b) that the costs of any proceedings that the Tribunal considers to be frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, or that otherwise should not be heard or proceeded with, be paid wholly or in part by the person who instituted the proceedings.

- (6) The amount of any costs under subclause (5) is to be substantiated in accordance with directions given by the Chairperson or, in the absence of such directions, in such manner as the Tribunal thinks fit.

21 Costs of mediation and neutral evaluation

- (1) For the purposes of section 60 of the Act, the parties to proceedings who, for the purposes of a mediation or neutral evaluation under Division 2 of Part 5 of the Act, elect to employ their own mediator or neutral evaluator rather than rely on one arranged by the Tribunal, are to pay the costs of the mediation or neutral evaluation.
- (2) The parties are to pay the costs in such proportions as they may agree among themselves or, failing agreement, in such manner as may be ordered by the Tribunal.

Part 6 Rehearings by Tribunal

22 Application for rehearing

- (1) For the purposes of section 68 (1) of the Act:
- (a) an application to the Chairperson to have completed proceedings reheard by the Tribunal is to be:
 - (i) in writing and in the form approved by the Chairperson, and
 - (ii) lodged with the Chairperson, and
 - (b) the prescribed time within which the application may be made is, subject to subclause (2), 14 days after the date of notification of the Tribunal's order in respect of the completed proceedings.
- (2) If, in accordance with section 49 (2) of the Act, a statement of reasons for the Tribunal's decision is requested, the prescribed time under subclause (1) is extended to 14 days after receipt of the statement.
- (3) If the applicant for a rehearing alleges that a rehearing is justified because he or she did not receive notice of the hearing or notice of termination of a tenancy, the Registrar or other officer accepting lodgment of the application may require that allegation to be verified by oath or affirmation of the applicant before accepting the application.

23 Opportunity to respond to application for rehearing

For the purposes of section 68 (5) (a) (ii) of the Act, the prescribed time within which a party is to be given an opportunity to respond to an application for a rehearing is 7 days after the party has been notified and given a copy of the application.

24 Further applications for rehearing

For the purposes of section 68 (9A) of the Act, a further application for rehearing may be made under section 68 of the Act if the application is lodged within 28 days after the date on which the applicant was notified that the previous application had not been granted.

25 Excluded applications for rehearings

- (1) For the purposes of section 68 (13) (a) of the Act, a person cannot make an application under section 68 of the Act for a rehearing of completed proceedings if the amount claimed or disputed under the completed proceedings is more than $30,000.
- (2) For the purposes of section 68 (14) of the Act, an application for a rehearing cannot be made under section 68 of the Act in relation to proceedings in the Residential Parks Division, Retirement Villages Division, Tenancy Division or Social Housing Division in respect of which an order for the termination of a tenancy or residency has been made if a warrant of possession has been executed in relation to that order.

Part 7 Procedure generally

26 Proceedings against 2 or more persons having joint liability

For the purposes of section 26 (1) of the Act, the classes of proceedings that are prescribed are those in the Residential Parks Division, Retirement Villages Division, Strata and Community Schemes Division, Tenancy Division and Social Housing Division in respect of which 2 or more persons have joint liability.

27 Dispensing with hearing

For the purposes of section 34 (2) of the Act, applications under section 86A of the Credit Act 1984 are prescribed as a class of matters that may be determined under section 34 of the Act without the consent of the parties.

28 Lapsing of proceedings

If an application to initiate proceedings in the Tribunal is made but is not served on the other party or is not otherwise acted on by the applicant during the period of 12 months after the application is made, the application lapses and is taken to have been withdrawn by the applicant.

29 Joinder of parties

- (1) If the Tribunal is of the opinion that a person has a sufficient interest in the dispute to which an application to the Tribunal relates but the person has not been served with notice of the application, the Tribunal may make an order directing that the person be joined either as an applicant or as a respondent, as appears to the Tribunal to be appropriate, and notice of the proceedings is to be served accordingly.

- (2) The powers of the Tribunal under this clause may, in accordance with any relevant directions of the Chairperson, be exercised by the Registrar.

30 Ex parte proceedings

- (1) The Tribunal may proceed to hear a matter in the absence of a party who has failed to attend the hearing:
 - (a) if it is satisfied that notice of the hearing was duly served on the party, or
 - (b) if:
 - (i) being satisfied that service of notice of the hearing has been duly attempted, or
 - (ii) having given directions under clause 50 (6), the Tribunal considers that justice requires that the matter be dealt with in the absence of the party concerned.

- (2) If a matter is adjourned by the Tribunal in the absence of a party, the Registrar is to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned hearing to the absent party. If the party who is so notified fails to attend the hearing, the matter may be dealt with in the absence of the party.

31 Issue of summons

- (1) A summons issued under section 40 of the Act must be served not later than 5 working days before the day the person is required to attend in accordance with the summons, except as the Tribunal by order otherwise directs.
- (2) A summons may be signed by any member of the Tribunal, or by the Registrar, a Deputy Registrar or a person authorised in writing by the Registrar to do so.
- (3) It is sufficient compliance with a summons for the production only of a document or other thing if the document or thing is produced to the Registrar at an address specified for the purpose in the summons at any time before the proceedings at which the document or thing is required to be produced.
- (4) A summons is to be issued in Form 1 of Schedule 1.

32 Allowances and expenses of witnesses

- (1) A person summoned by the Tribunal to appear and give evidence before the Tribunal is entitled to allowances and expenses on the same scale as a witness attending and giving evidence in criminal proceedings before the District Court.
- (2) A summons issued at the request of a party has no effect unless, not later than a reasonable time before the day on which the attendance of the witness is required by the summons, the witness is given an amount in respect of the reasonable expenses of complying with the requirements of the summons.

33 Warrants for apprehension

- (1) A warrant for apprehension of a person under section 41 of the Act is to be issued in Form 2 of Schedule 1.
- (2) If any such warrant is issued, it must be executed within 28 days of its issue.

34 Notice to renew proceedings if order not complied with

For the purposes of section 43 (6) of the Act, a notice under that section is to be in Form 3 of Schedule 1.

35 Notice of decisions and reasons

- (1) For the purposes of section 49 (1) of the Act, the prescribed time within which notice of the Tribunal's decision must be given to the parties is 7 days after the Tribunal makes the decision.
- (2) For the purposes of section 49 (2) of the Act, a request by a party for the Tribunal to provide a statement of reasons for its decision is to be in writing to the Registrar and may only be made after the conclusion of the proceedings concerned.

36 Compliance with order of Tribunal

For the purposes of section 52 (2) (c) of the Act, an order of the Tribunal in its General Division, Commercial Division, Home Building Division or Motor Vehicles Division is prescribed if the order relates to goods or services of a value not exceeding $1,000.

Part 7A Electronic case management

36A Definitions

In this Part:

ECM system means an electronic case management system established for the Tribunal under clause 2 of Schedule 1 to the Electronic Transactions Act 2000.

36B Electronic lodging of documents

- (1) In any proceedings, a document may be lodged on behalf of a party, by means of the ECM system, by any of the following:
 - (a) the party,
 - (b) a person who is authorised to sign the document under clause 12,
 - (c) a person who has been directed to lodge the document by the party.

- (2) When lodged by means of the ECM system, a document that is required to be signed by a person is taken:
 - (a) to have been duly signed, and
 - (b) to have been duly authenticated for the purposes of clause 5 of Schedule 1 to the Electronic Transactions Act 2000, if the person's name is printed where his or her signature would otherwise appear.
- (3) A document that is lodged by means of the ECM system is so lodged as soon as it is received and accepted by the Registrar.
- (4) The Registrar must accept a document that is lodged by means of the ECM system unless the Registrar refuses to accept the document in accordance with any directions given under subclause (5).
- (5) The Chairperson may give directions in relation to the acceptance of documents lodged by means of the ECM system, either generally or for particular proceedings.
- (6) Notice, and the date, of the lodging and acceptance of a document is to be given, by means of the ECM system, to the person by whom the document was lodged.

36C Electronic issuing of documents

The Registrar may, by means of the ECM system, issue a document to any party who has agreed to use the ECM system for the proceedings.

36D Format of documents lodged or issued electronically

The Chairperson may, in the case of documents lodged with the Tribunal, or issued by the Tribunal, by means of the ECM system, approve the format in which such documents are to be lodged or issued.

Part 8 Records of Tribunal

37 Definition

In this Part:

record of proceedings means the following body of records in relation to any particular application to the Tribunal:

- (a) the application as lodged by the applicant and any document lodged in reply by the respondent,
- (b) a transcript or sound or audio-visual recording of proceedings,
- (c) any assessor's report,

- (d) any notation of the nature of the issues in dispute as found and recorded by the Tribunal in the course of the hearing of the application,
- (e) any ruling given by the Tribunal with respect to its jurisdiction to hear and determine the application,
- (f) any order made by the Tribunal in respect of the application,
- (g) any written reasons given in respect of the determination of the application,
- (h) such other records as may be determined by the Chairperson.

38 Sound recording of proceedings

For the purposes of section 80A of the Act, sound recordings of all proceedings of the Tribunal must be kept for 7 years after the end of the relevant proceedings.

39 Record of proceedings to be provided to court on appeal

- (1) If a matter is subject to an appeal from the Tribunal to a court, a party to the proceedings before the court may give notice in writing to the registrar of the court seeking production of any document or thing that forms part of the record of proceedings.
- (2) On receipt of a notice under subclause (1), the registrar of the court must, unless the court has otherwise ordered:
 - (a) send a written request to the Registrar, requesting that the document or thing be sent to the registrar of the court, and
 - (b) after receiving it, produce the document or thing:
 - (i) in court or to any person authorised to take evidence in the proceeding as required by the party, or
 - (ii) as the court directs, and
 - (c) at the conclusion of the matter in the court, return the document or thing to the Tribunal.
- (3) In this clause:
record of proceedings, in respect of a matter, includes any exhibit that relates to the matter.

40 Care and custody of records

The Registrar is to have the care, custody and control of the following records of the Tribunal:

- (a) records of proceedings,
- (b) minutes of orders and directions of the Tribunal,
- (c) reports or copies of reports furnished to the Tribunal,
- (d) documents or copies of documents produced to the Tribunal in any proceedings, while retained by the Tribunal,
- (e) exhibits, while retained by the Tribunal,
- (f) correspondence received and sent by the Tribunal,
- (g) diaries and other records relating to the listing and hearing of proceedings in the Tribunal.

41 Right of access

- (1) Any person may apply in writing to the Registrar for access to records of proceedings in the Tribunal.
- (2) The Registrar must grant access, free of charge, to records of proceedings to any person who is a party to the proceedings. However, a person who wants a copy of a record of proceedings must pay any fee that is applicable under this Regulation.
- (3) On payment of a fee approved by the Minister, the Registrar may grant access to a record of proceedings to any other person who, in the opinion of the Registrar, has a sufficient reason for being given access to the record.
- (4) Nothing in this clause permits access to or the provision of a copy of:
 - (a) any note or other record made by or on behalf of a member of the Tribunal for the member's own use and which the member did not cause to be filed as part of the record of proceedings, or
 - (b) any document kept by the Registrar, if:
 - (i) the Tribunal has ordered that the document not be disclosed without the consent of the Tribunal, or
 - (ii) the disclosure of the document to the party is otherwise prohibited by or under the Act or another law.

Part 9 Fees

42 Fees generally

- (1) The fees payable to the Registrar are set out in Schedule 2.
- (2) A fee is payable before the service to which the fee relates is provided or at such time, and in accordance with such conditions, as the Registrar may agree with the person paying the fee.

43 Fees for renewing or rehearing matters

The fee payable in respect of:

- (a) the lodging of a notice under section 43 (2) of the Act to renew proceedings in a matter, or
- (b) an application under section 68 of the Act for a rehearing a matter, is the same as the fee payable under this Regulation for making an application in respect of that matter.

44 Copies of record of proceedings and other documents

The Registrar may charge a person the full cost of providing the person with:

- (a) all or part of a written record or transcript of evidence or proceedings, or
- (b) a sound or audio-visual recording of any evidence or proceedings.

45 Circumstances where reduced fee or no fee is payable

- (1) (Repealed)
- (2) An application fee payable by any of the following persons is $5:
 - (a) a person who receives a pension, benefit or allowance under Chapter 2 of the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth, or a service pension under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth, and who is the holder of a pensioner concession card issued by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Government,
 - (b) a person who receives a pension from the Commonwealth Department of Veterans' Affairs as:
 - (i) the widow or widower of a member of the Australian Defence Force or Peacekeeping Forces, or
 - (ii) the unmarried mother of a deceased unmarried member of either of those Forces, or
 - (iii) the widowed mother of a deceased unmarried member of either of those Forces, and who does not have income and assets that would prevent the person from being granted a pensioner concession card if the person were eligible for such a card,

- (c) a person who receives a special rate of pension under section 24 of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth,
 - (d) a person who holds a Senior's Card (being a card of that name issued by the New South Wales Government),
 - (e) a person who is receiving full-time education at a school, college or university and is a recipient of a student assistance allowance from a Commonwealth Government authority in respect of that education.
- (3) A person who is or was a party to any proceedings is, entitled to a single free copy of:
- (a) any order made by the Tribunal in respect of the proceedings, and
 - (b) any written reasons given by the Tribunal in relation to that order.
- (4) If the Tribunal or the Registrar considers that there are special reasons for so doing, the Tribunal or Registrar:
- (a) may direct that any fee be waived wholly or in part, and that any part of the fee waived that has been paid be refunded, and
 - (b) may, subject to any conditions the Tribunal or Registrar thinks fit to impose, postpone the time for payment of the whole or a part of any fee.

45A Savings and transitional provision—amendments made by Credit (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2010

The following provisions of this Regulation, as in force immediately before their repeal by Schedule 2.2 [1] and [3] to the Credit (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2010, continue to apply in relation to applications for matters referred to in those provisions (being matters in respect of which the Tribunal has jurisdiction because of the operation of Schedule 3 to the Credit (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2010) as if those provisions had not been repealed:

- (a) clause 45 (1),
- (b) paragraphs (a) and (b) of the matter, as set out in Schedule 2, relating to applications to have matters dealt with in the Commercial Division.

Part 10 Miscellaneous

46 Persons or bodies from which matters cannot be transferred

For the purposes of section 22 (2) (b) of the Act, the following persons and bodies are prescribed:

- (a) the Fair Trading Administration Corporation constituted under Part 7 of the Home Building Act 1989,

- (b) the Ombudsman,
- (c) any person exercising the functions of an ombudsman under any law of the Commonwealth,
- (d) any person authorised, under a law of the State or of the Commonwealth or of another State or Territory, to make decisions or orders, or give directions, that are binding only on one party to a dispute.

47 Transfer of proceedings

For the purposes of section 23 (2) of the Act, proceedings instituted in a court are to be transferred to the Tribunal as follows:

- (a) notice in writing of the transfer is to be given to the Registrar by the court concerned, accompanied by all documents relating to the proceedings,
- (b) on receipt of the notice and accompanying documents, the Registrar must serve on all of the parties a notice fixing a date and time for the holding of the hearing or a directions hearing in relation to the proceedings.

48 Objection to participation of member

For the purposes of section 55 (3) (b) of the Act, an objection to a member's participation in proceedings is to be:

- (a) in writing addressed to the Registrar and lodged with the Tribunal within 14 days after the matter concerned is listed for hearing, or
- (b) if the matter is listed for hearing within the 14-day period, made by oral submission at the commencement of the hearing of the matter concerned.

49 Interest on judgment debt

- (1) Interest is payable on the outstanding balance for the time being of money adjudged by the Tribunal to be payable and which, being due, remains unpaid.
- (2) Such interest is payable at a rate equal to the rate for the time being prescribed for the purposes of section 101 of the Civil Procedure Act 2005.

50 Service of documents

- (1) An application for the purposes of any proceedings must be served on each of the other parties within a reasonable time before the return date endorsed on the application by the Registrar or in accordance with directions under subclause (6).
- (2) Service of a summons is to be effected:
 - (a) personally, or

- (b) in the case of a company:
 - (i) by ordinary post addressed to the company's registered office, or
 - (ii) by leaving a copy with a person who is apparently of or above the age of 16 years at the company's registered office.
- (3) Service of any other document may be effected in any manner provided by section 78 of the Act or in any of the following ways:
 - (a) if the person has an address for service on record with the Registry:
 - (i) by pre-paid ordinary post addressed to the person's address for service, or
 - (ii) if the person's address for service is a box in a document exchange, in New South Wales, of Ausde Pty Ltd, by leaving a copy in that exchange box or in another exchange box for transmission to that exchange box,
 - (b) in such other manner as may be directed by the Chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson or the Registrar in a particular case.
- (4) Service by post is taken to have been effected on a person at the end of the fourth working day after the date on which the document was posted to the person.
- (5) Service by document exchange is taken to have been effected on a person at the end of the second working day after the date on which the document was left in the person's exchange box or, if the document is left at some other exchange box for transmission to the person's exchange box, in that other exchange box.
- (6) The Chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson or the Registrar may, without hearing from the other parties, do any one or more of the following:
 - (a) direct a party to serve an application or any other document on a person who is not a party,
 - (b) direct substituted service to be effected in such manner as the Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson or Registrar considers appropriate,
 - (c) reduce (subject to any relevant Act or law) the time within which service must be effected.
