14 Definitions

In this Part:

affected officer means a person who, immediately before the commencement of this clause:

- (a) was employed by the local authority responsible for a rural fire district as a fire control officer or deputy fire control officer for the district, or
- (b) was employed by the local authority in a position exercising functions relating to fire control in the district that is designated for the purposes of this paragraph by the local authority and the Commissioner.

amending Act means the Rural Fires Amendment Act 2000.

designated fire control officer means a person referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of affected officer.

transfer day, in relation to an affected officer, means the day an order under clause 15 (2) is published in the Gazette.

transferred officer means a person who becomes an officer of the Public Service in the Department of Rural Fire Service because of clause 15.

15 Transfer of existing fire control officers, deputy fire control officers and designated fire control officers to positions in Department of Rural Fire Service

- (1) On the commencement of this clause, an affected officer is entitled to be appointed to a position in the Department of Rural Fire Service of the Public Service in accordance with this clause.
- (2) The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Commissioner and with the consent of the affected officer concerned, by order published in the Gazette, appoint the affected officer to a position in the Department of Rural Fire Service of the Public Service.
- (3) A person who is the subject of such an order is to be regarded for all purposes as having become an officer of the Public Service, in accordance with the terms of the order, on the transfer day.

16 Employment conditions of transferred officers

- (1) This clause applies to a transferred officer.
- (2) A transferred officer is entitled to be paid salary or wages, and allowances, at a rate not less than the rate that was payable to the transferred officer as a fire control officer, deputy fire control officer or designated fire control officer immediately before the transfer day, until the salary, wages or allowances is or are varied or altered:

- (a) by a State industrial instrument, or

Note—

State industrial instrument is defined in the Interpretation Act 1987.

- (b) by or under the Public Sector Management Act 1988, or

- (c) otherwise in accordance with law.

- (3) Except as provided by this Part and the regulations, if any condition of employment of the transferred officer was, immediately before the transfer day, regulated by an award of a State industrial instrument applicable to the person as an affected officer, the condition (so long as it does not conflict with any provision of the Public Sector Management Act 1988 or the regulations under that Act) is to continue to apply to the person until it is regulated:

- (a) by a State industrial instrument, or

- (b) by or under the Public Sector Management Act 1988, or

- (c) otherwise in accordance with law.

Note—

An example of an entitlement preserved by clause 16 is the preservation of salary incremental scales payable to transferred officers.

17 Preservation of certain rights of existing fire control officers, deputy fire control officers and designated fire control officers

- (1) This clause applies to a transferred officer.
- (2) Such an officer is entitled to retain:
 - (a) an entitlement to accrued annual leave up to a maximum of 40 days, and
 - (b) an entitlement to accrued sick leave up to a maximum of 65 days, and
 - (c) accrued long service leave.

- (3) Leave referred to in subclause (2) is in addition to any leave that accrues after the transfer day.
- (4) Such an officer is entitled to have service with the local authority that employed the officer immediately before the transfer day recognised for the purpose of eligibility for sick leave, long service leave, maternity leave, paternity leave, adoption leave or any other leave for which a condition of eligibility is a minimum period of service.
- (5) In this clause:

accrued annual leave means annual leave owing to an affected officer (but not taken) immediately before the transfer day.

accrued long service leave means long service leave accrued by an affected officer (but not taken) immediately before the transfer day.

accrued sick leave means the amount of sick leave to which an affected officer would have been entitled in the event of illness immediately before the transfer day, other than any such sick leave not taken by the officer that the local authority employing the officer would be permitted or required under an award or agreement to pay out to the officer on resignation or termination.

18 Funding of leave entitlements

A local authority that, immediately before the transfer day, employed a transferred officer must, in accordance with any directions given or guidelines issued by the Treasurer, pay to the Commissioner such amount as is necessary to fund the liabilities incurred by the Department of Rural Fire Service with respect to the annual leave and long service entitlements of the transferred officer under clause 17 (2) (a) and (c).

19 Contributions to New South Wales Rural Fire Fighting Fund

The amendments made by Schedule 1 [25] and [26] to the amending Act apply to the financial year beginning on 1 July 2001.

[31] Dictionary

Insert in alphabetical order:

back burning means the application of fire to combustible matter so as to provide a fire break to control or suppress a fire or protect persons or property from an existing or imminent danger arising out of a fire, incident or other emergency.

[32] Dictionary

Omit “appointed under this Act” from the definition of fire control officer.

Insert instead “of the NSW Rural Fire Service”.

Schedule 2 Consequential amendments of other laws

(Section 4)

2.1 Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Regulation 1998

Omit “appointed under” from clause 12 (c) (v) of Schedule 1.

Insert instead “within the meaning of”.

2.2 Rural Fires Regulation 1997

Omit clause 15 (1) (f). Insert instead:

(f) the fire control officer or officers for the area,

2.3 Superannuation Administration Act 1996 No 39

Section 127 Additional State public sector superannuation schemes

Insert after section 127 (6):

- (7) A trust deed approved under this section having effect immediately before the commencement of Part 4 of Schedule 3 to the Rural Fires Act 1997 and that relates to employees associated with or involved in local government activities is taken, subject to the regulations, to extend to any such employee who is a transferred officer within the meaning of that Part.

Note—

The employees concerned are certain fire control officers, deputy fire control officers and designated fire control officers who were employed by local government authorities before being transferred under the Rural Fires Act 1997 to the Department of Rural Fire Services.
