

Conveyancing Amendment (Central Register of Restrictions) Act 2000 No 4

[2000-4]

New South Wales

Status Information

Currency of version

Repealed version for 1 May 2000 to 16 July 2001 (accessed 25 November 2024 at 6:47)

Legislation on this site is usually updated within 3 working days after a change to the legislation.

Provisions in force

The provisions displayed in this version of the legislation have all commenced.

Notes—

- Repeal

The Act was repealed by the Statute Law \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Act 2001 No 56, Sch 4 with effect from 17.7.2001.

Authorisation

This version of the legislation is compiled and maintained in a database of legislation by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and published on the NSW legislation website, and is certified as the form of that legislation that is correct under section 45C of the Interpretation Act 1987.

File last modified 17 July 2001

Conveyancing Amendment (Central Register of Restrictions) Act 2000 No 4

New South Wales

Contents

Long title	3
1 Name of Act	3
2 Commencement	3
3 Amendment of Conveyancing Act 1919 No 6	3
Schedule 1 Amendments	3

Conveyancing Amendment (Central Register of Restrictions) Act 2000 No 4

New South Wales

An Act to amend the Conveyancing Act 1919 to provide for the Central Register of Restrictions; and for other purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Conveyancing Amendment (Central Register of Restrictions) Act 2000.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Amendment of Conveyancing Act 1919 No 6

The Conveyancing Act 1919 is amended as set out in Schedule 1.

Schedule 1 Amendments

(Section 3)

[1] Part 24

Insert after Part 23:

Part 24 Central Register of Restrictions

205 Definitions

In this Part:

information agreement (see section 212).

participating party means a person who is a party to an information agreement that provides for the recording in the Central Register of information on behalf of the person.

the Central Register means the Central Register of Restrictions established and maintained under this Part.

206 Establishment of the Central Register

- (1) The Registrar-General is to establish and maintain a register to be called the Central Register of Restrictions.
- (2) The Central Register is to be kept in such form as the Registrar-General considers appropriate.

207 Recording information in the Central Register

- (1) The following kinds of information can be recorded in the Central Register:
 - (a) information concerning a proposal that affects land, the use of land or the alienation of land or an interest in land,
 - (b) such other information with respect to land or an interest in land as the Registrar-General considers appropriate,
 - (c) such information as may be prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) Information can be recorded in the Central Register by the Registrar-General either on behalf of the Registrar-General or on behalf of a participating party and is to be recorded in such manner and in accordance with such procedures as the Registrar-General determines from time to time.
- (3) The Registrar-General may permit a participating party access to the Central Register for the purpose of enabling the participating party to record information in the Central Register as information recorded on behalf of the participating party.

208 Access to information in the Central Register

- (1) The Registrar-General may provide a person with information recorded in the Central Register, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Registrar-General determines. Information can be provided in such form as the Registrar-General determines.
- (2) Information recorded in the Central Register on behalf of a participating party must not be provided to a person under this section except as permitted by the information agreement applicable to the information.
- (3) The Registrar-General must not use, permit the use of or permit access to information recorded in the Central Register on behalf of a participating party except as permitted by the information agreement applicable to the information.

209 Providing information on behalf of participating party

- (1) An application for information to be provided by a participating party (whether in the form of a certificate, an answer to an inquiry or otherwise) can, in the case of information recorded in the Central Register on behalf of the participating party, be made to the Registrar-General as agent for the participating party. The application is taken to have been made to the participating party.
- (2) When the Registrar-General provides information in response to such an application, the Registrar-General provides the information as agent for and on behalf of the participating party and the information is, for all purposes, taken to have been provided by the participating party.
- (3) The information can be provided in the form of a statement or certificate or in such other form as may be appropriate to the nature of the application.

210 Fees

- (1) When an application for information is made to the Registrar-General as agent for a participating party, any fee payable to the participating party in respect of the application is instead payable to the Registrar-General on behalf of the participating party.
- (2) The Registrar-General is entitled to deduct and retain from any such fee such amount by way of service fee or commission:
 - (a) as may be authorised to be retained by, or as may be required to be paid to, the Registrar-General (as commission or otherwise) under the relevant information agreement, or
 - (b) in the absence of any such authority or requirement in the information agreement, as may be determined by the Registrar-General following consultation with the participating party.
- (3) The Registrar-General is to pay the balance of the fees received on behalf of a participating party to the participating party. The relevant information agreement may provide for the method and frequency of payment of the balance of fees to the participating party.

211 Protection from liability

- (1) Nothing done or omitted to be done in good faith by the Registrar-General, or a person acting under the authority of the Registrar-General, for the purpose of executing this Part subjects the Registrar-General or a person so acting, the Minister or the Crown to any action, liability, claim or demand.
- (2) This section does not affect any liability (whether by way of indemnity or otherwise) that the Registrar-General or the Minister may have to a participating party under an information agreement.

- (3) This section does not affect any liability of a participating party in respect of any act or omission by the Registrar-General, or a person acting under the authority of the Registrar-General, on behalf of the participating party.

212 Agreements

- (1) The Registrar-General may enter into an agreement for the purposes of this Part with a person on such terms and conditions as the Minister approves. Such an agreement is referred to in this Part as an information agreement.
- (2) An information agreement may make provision for or with respect to the following:
- (a) the information to be recorded in the Central Register on behalf of the person,
 - (b) the obligations of the parties with respect to the accuracy of information recorded in the Central Register,
 - (c) rights of indemnity between the parties,
 - (d) any matter that a provision of this Part contemplates will be provided for by such an agreement,
 - (e) such other matters as the parties consider necessary or desirable.

213 Rights and responsibilities of participating parties

- (1) It is the responsibility of a participating party to ensure that the information recorded in the Central Register on behalf of the participating party is accurate and up to date.
- (2) The recording of information in the Central Register on behalf of a participating party does not confer any right of property in respect of the information on the Registrar-General or any other person and does not affect any right or responsibility of the participating party as custodian or manager of the information.

214 Consultation with participating parties

The Registrar-General must consult with participating parties before changing:

- (a) the form in which the Central Register is kept, or
- (b) the manner in which and the procedures in accordance with which information is to be recorded in the Central Register, or

- (c) the manner in which information recorded in the Central Register on behalf of a participating party is to be provided to a person, or
- (d) the form in which information recorded in the Central Register is to be provided in response to an application for information made to the Registrar-General on behalf of a participating party.

215 Application to Real Property Act land

This Part applies to land under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1900.

[2] Schedule 9 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Conveyancing Amendment (Central Register of Restrictions) Act 2000

[3] Schedule 9, Part 4

Insert after clause 8:

Part 4 Provisions consequent on enactment of Conveyancing Amendment (Central Register of Restrictions) Act 2000

9 Existing agreements continued

An agreement in force immediately before the commencement of this clause that makes provision for or with respect to the matters for which an information agreement can make provision under Part 24 continues to operate after that commencement as an information agreement under that Part, subject to the following:

- (a) the agreement is taken to have been entered into by the Registrar-General rather than the Minister,
- (b) a reference to the Minister or to the Director of the Land Titles Office is taken to be a reference to the Registrar-General,
- (c) the agreement is of no effect to the extent (if any) that it is inconsistent with Part 24.