Parliamentary, Local Council and Public Sector Executives Remuneration Legislation Amendment Act 2011 No 25

New South Wales

An Act to amend the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1989, the Local Government Act 1993, the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 and the Health Services Act 1997 to apply the same government public sector wages cap that binds the Industrial Relations Commission to the determination of the remuneration for Ministers and other members of Parliament, local councillors, statutory officers, public sector executives and hospital visiting medical officers; and for other purposes.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Parliamentary, Local Council and Public Sector Executives Remuneration Legislation Amendment Act 2011.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1989 No 160

[1] Section 4

Omit the section. Insert instead:

4 Definition of basic salary

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the basic salary is as follows:

- (a) until the Tribunal otherwise determines, the amount of the annual allowance by way of salary payable under the law of the Commonwealth to a member of the House of Representatives who is not entitled to any additional salary, less $500,
- (b) the amount determined by the Tribunal from time to time in accordance with this section.

- (2) The Tribunal may make a determination fixing the amount of the basic salary. Determinations are to be made at such times as the Tribunal thinks fit or the Minister directs.
- (3) In making a determination, the Tribunal is to give effect to the same policies on increases in remuneration as those that the Industrial Relations Commission is required to give effect to under section 146C of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 when making or varying awards or orders relating to the conditions of employment of public sector employees.
- (4) The policies referred to in subsection (3) do not include any policy that provides for increases in remuneration based on employee-related savings.

[2] Section 17 Other provisions as to basic salary

Omit the section.

[3] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1:

Parliamentary, Local Council and Public Sector Executives Remuneration Legislation Amendment Act 2011

[4] Schedule 3, clause 5

Insert at the end of Schedule 3:

5 Basic salary changes after introduction of Bill for the Parliamentary, Local Council and Public Sector Executives Remuneration Legislation Amendment Act 2011

If the annual allowance by way of salary payable under the law of the Commonwealth is varied after 20 June 2011 and before the Tribunal makes a determination under section 4 of this Act, the basic salary for the purposes of this Act does not include (and is taken never to have included) any amount that exceeds $139,544.

Note—

The amount of $139,544 represents the basic salary of $136,140 on 20 June 2011 increased by 2.5%.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Local Government Act 1993 No 30

Section 242A

Insert after section 242:

242A Tribunal to give effect to declared government policy on remuneration for public sector staff

- (1) In making a determination, the Remuneration Tribunal is to give effect to the same policies on increases in remuneration as those that the Industrial Relations Commission is required to give effect to under section 146C of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 when making or varying awards or orders relating to the conditions of employment of public sector employees.
- (2) The policies referred to in subsection (1) do not include any policy that provides for increases in remuneration based on employee-related savings.
