(Section 3)

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Omit the definition of ship in section 3 (1). Insert instead:

ship means a vessel of any type whatsoever capable of being used on or in water and includes:

- (a) a hydrofoil boat, or
- (b) an air-cushion vehicle, or

- (c) a submersible or submarine, or
  - (d) a floating craft, or
  - (e) a fixed or floating platform, or
  - (f) a barge (whether self propelled or not), or
  - (g) a sea-plane, or
  - (h) a floating dock (whether self propelled or not),
- but does not include a pleasure vessel.

[2] Part 2, Division 1

Insert before section 7:

Division 1 Discharge of oil or oily mixture

[3] Section 8 Prohibition of discharge of oil or oily mixtures into State waters

Omit “, and any other person whose act caused the discharge,” from section 8 (1).

[4] Section 8 (1) (a)

Omit “2 000 penalty units”. Insert instead “$500 000”.

[5] Section 8 (1) (b)

Omit “10 000 penalty units”. Insert instead “$10 000 000”.

[6] Section 8 (2) (b)

Omit “, other than intentional damage,”.

[7] Section 8 (3)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) (b), damage to a ship or its equipment does not include the following:
  - (a) damage arising as a result of the master or owner of the ship, or another person acting under the direction of the master or owner of the ship:
    - (i) acting with intent to cause the damage, or
    - (ii) acting recklessly and with the knowledge that damage would probably result, or
    - (iii) acting negligently,

- (b) damage arising from a failure to maintain the ship or equipment,
- (c) damage arising through wear and tear,
- (d) defects that develop during the normal operation of the ship or equipment.

[8] Section 8A

Insert after section 8:

8A Persons causing a discharge of oil or oily mixtures into State waters

- (1) If any discharge of oil or an oily mixture occurs from a ship into State waters, each crew member of the ship, and each person involved in the operation or maintenance of the ship, whose act caused the discharge is guilty of an offence punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not exceeding:
  - (a) if the offender is a natural person—$500 000, or
  - (b) if the offender is a body corporate—$10 000 000.
- (2) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it is sufficient for the prosecution to allege and prove that a discharge of oil or an oily mixture occurred from a ship into State waters and the crew member or person involved in the operation or maintenance of the ship committed an act that caused the discharge.
- (3) If any discharge of oil or an oily mixture occurs from a ship into State waters, each person responsible for the discharge is guilty of an offence punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not exceeding:
  - (a) if the offender is a natural person—$500 000, or
  - (b) if the offender is a body corporate—$10 000 000.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a person is responsible for the discharge if that person, or another person acting under the direction of that person, committed an act that caused the discharge and the person committed the act:
  - (a) with intent to cause the discharge, or
  - (b) recklessly and with the knowledge that a discharge would probably result, or
  - (c) negligently.
- (5) Subsections (1) and (3) do not apply to a discharge of a kind or in circumstances referred to in section 8 (2) (a), (c) or (d) or (4).
- (6) A prosecution under this section does not affect the prosecution of the master or owner of a ship (or both of them) under section 8, however a person is not liable to be convicted in respect of the same discharge of both an offence:

- (a) under this section and section 8 (1), or
- (b) under subsections (1) and (3).

[9] Section 9 Oil residues

Omit “2 000 penalty units” from section 9 (1) (a). Insert instead “$500 000”.

Insert “or 8A (1)” after “against section 8 (1)”.

[16] Part 2, Division 2

Insert after section 13:

Division 2 Insurance

13A Application of Division

(1) This Division does not apply to:

(a) the following ships unless the regulations declare otherwise:

- (i) a ship that has a gross tonnage of 400 or more,
- (ii) a ship used wholly for the purpose of recreational or sporting activities and not for hire or reward,

- (iii) a ship less than 30 metres in length,
  - (iv) a seaplane,
  - (v) a Government ship, other than a Government ship that is being used for commercial purposes, or
- (b) a ship of any class declared by the regulations to be a class of exempt ship for the purposes of this Division, or
- (c) a particular ship declared to be an exempt ship for the purposes of this Division by order of the Minister given to the owner or master of the ship.
- (2) In this section, Government ship has the same meaning as in section 13 (1) of the Protection of the Sea (Civil Liability) Act 1981 of the Commonwealth.

13B Ships must be insured against oil pollution

- (1) In this section:

adequate insurance in relation to a ship means:

- (a) such insurance or financial security against damage that may be caused by a discharge of oil or an oily mixture as the Minister:
  - (i) determines, by notice published in the Gazette, is adequate in relation to a particular ship or class of ships, or
  - (ii) approves in relation to a particular ship, and notifies in writing to the owner or master of the ship, or
- (b) if a ship is required by the Protection of the Sea (Civil Liability) Act 1981 of the Commonwealth to carry a relevant insurance certificate on board, such a certificate in respect of the ship that is in force.

port has the same meaning as in the Ports Corporatisation and Waterways Management Act 1995.

relevant insurance certificate has the same meaning as in the Protection of the Sea (Civil Liability) Act 1981 of the Commonwealth.

- (2) A ship must not be in State waters unless the ship:
- (a) has adequate insurance, and
  - (b) carries on board evidence of that insurance in a form approved by the Minister.
- (3) If a ship is in State waters without having adequate insurance or carrying on board evidence of that insurance as required by this section, the master and the owner of the ship are each guilty of an offence punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not exceeding:

(a) if the offender is a natural person—$55 000, or

(b) if the offender is a body corporate—$110 000.

(4) If an inspector believes on reasonable grounds that the ship does not have adequate insurance or carry on board evidence of that insurance as required by this section, the inspector may detain the ship in a port or at some other place until such time as the requirements of this section are met.

(5) If a ship, that is detained under this section, departs the port or other place at which it is detained before it is released from detention, the master and the owner are each guilty of an offence punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not exceeding:

(a) if the offender is a natural person—$55 000, or

(b) if the offender is a body corporate—$110 000.

(6) A person is not guilty of an offence under subsection (5) if the person can establish that he or she was not aware that the ship had been detained.

[17] Section 18 Prohibition of discharge of substances into State waters

Omit “, and any other person whose act caused the discharge,” from section 18 (1).

[18] Section 18 (1) (a)
