- (1) A council must provide the Minister with written reports on its compliance with a performance improvement order as required by the order.

[18] Section 438G Appointment of temporary adviser

Insert after section 438G (4):

- (4A) If a council fails to give a temporary adviser an opportunity to comment on a compliance report as required by section 438H, the temporary adviser is to inform the Minister of that fact and give the Minister a report on the council’s compliance with the performance improvement order.

- (4B) If a council fails to give the Minister a compliance report as required by section 438F, the temporary adviser is to give the Minister a report on the council's compliance with the performance improvement order.

[19] Section 438HA

Insert after section 438H:

438HA Enforcement of performance improvement order against councillor

- (1) The Departmental Chief Executive may (and must at the request of the Minister) arrange for a departmental report to be prepared as to whether a councillor has failed to take action as required by a performance improvement order.
- (2) The Minister may, on receipt of a departmental report finding that a councillor has failed to take action as required by a performance improvement order, issue a compliance order to the councillor.
- (3) A compliance order:
 - (a) must identify the action that the councillor is required to take by a performance improvement order but has failed to take, and
 - (b) must, if the councillor is to be allowed to use council facilities, or be paid any amount, for the purposes of the councillor taking that action, specify the extent to which the councillor may use council facilities or the amount that may be paid (as the case requires), and
 - (c) must specify the period (not exceeding 3 months) for which it is to remain in force.
- (4) The Minister may, by written notice to the councillor, extend the period for which a compliance order remains in force, but not so that the order remains in force for a total period of more than 6 months.
- (5) Before issuing a compliance order to a councillor, the Minister is to:
 - (a) give the councillor written notice:
 - (i) specifying the action that the councillor has failed to take as required by a performance improvement order, and
 - (ii) specifying that the Minister proposes to issue a compliance order to the councillor, and
 - (iii) inviting the councillor to make submissions within a specified period (of not less than 7 days) about why the order should not be made, and

- (b) consider any submissions made by the councillor in accordance with the notice.
- (6) The Minister is to withdraw a compliance order if satisfied that the councillor has taken the action specified in the compliance order.
- (7) While a compliance order is in force against a councillor, the councillor:
 - (a) is not entitled to exercise any of the functions of the councillor other than as necessary to take the action specified in the compliance order, and
 - (b) is not entitled to any fee or other remuneration, or to the payment of expenses or to the use of council facilities, to which he or she would otherwise be entitled as a councillor, except as specified in the compliance order.
- (8) The Minister may:
 - (a) instead of taking action under this section against a councillor, or
 - (b) after taking action under this section against a councillor, or
 - (c) while a compliance order is in force against a councillor, request the Departmental Chief Executive to refer the matter to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal for consideration.
- (9) A matter is referred to the Tribunal under this section by means of a report presented to the Tribunal by the Departmental Chief Executive and containing or accompanied by such material and observations as the Departmental Chief Executive thinks fit.
- (10) The Departmental Chief Executive is to notify the councillor concerned of any request to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (11) For the purposes of this section and Part 3 of Chapter 14, failure by a councillor to take action as required by a performance improvement order is to be taken to be misconduct.
- (12) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the reference of matters to the Tribunal under this section.

[20] Section 440B Dismissal and disqualification from civic office for serious corrupt conduct

Insert after section 440B (1):

(1A) If:

- (a) a recommendation has been made as referred to in subsection (1) (a) about a person, and
- (b) the person has since ceased to hold civic office, and
- (c) the Minister advises the Governor that disqualification of the person from holding civic office is necessary in order to protect the public standing of councils and the proper exercise of their functions, the Governor may disqualify the person from holding civic office for a period not exceeding 5 years.

[21] Section 440B (2)

Insert “or disqualification” after “dismissal”.

[22] Section 440B (2)

Insert “or disqualified” after “dismissed”.

[23] Section 440C Temporary suspension from civic office for serious corrupt conduct

- (3A) However, the Departmental Chief Executive is to withdraw the direction if it appears to the Departmental Chief Executive that:

- (a) the person does not consent to compliance with the direction, and
- (b) the person would not, in court proceedings, be required to comply with a similar direction on grounds of privilege against self-incrimination or legal professional privilege, and
- (c) the privilege is not a privilege in favour of a public authority or former public authority,

(and, if the direction is required to be withdrawn, the person is not guilty of an offence against section 661).

[29] Section 440H (5A)

Insert after section 440H (5):

- (5A) The Departmental Chief Executive may arrange for a departmental report to be prepared about whether a councillor has engaged in misconduct without an investigation being carried out under this section if:

- (a) the matter has been referred to the Departmental Chief Executive by the council and the Departmental Chief Executive is of the opinion that the report may be based on the findings of an investigation conducted by or on behalf of the council, or
- (b) the Departmental Chief Executive is of the opinion that the alleged misconduct, if proven, would be minor in nature and, were it to warrant disciplinary action, the disciplinary action would be comprised only of counselling or reprimanding the councillor, or
- (c) the Departmental Chief Executive otherwise considers it appropriate to do so.

[30] Section 440H (9), definition of “relevant person”

Omit the definition.

[31] Section 440I Departmental Chief Executive may take disciplinary action for misconduct

Insert after section 440I (3):

- (3A) Before taking disciplinary action against a councillor, the Departmental Chief Executive is to:
 - (a) give the councillor written notice:
 - (i) specifying the grounds on which it is proposed to take disciplinary action against the councillor, and
 - (ii) specifying the disciplinary action that the Departmental Chief Executive proposes to take against the councillor, and
 - (iii) inviting the councillor to make submissions within a specified period (of not less than 14 days) about the proposal, and
 - (b) consider any submissions made by the councillor in accordance with the notice.
